CHRIST RAISING US TO NEW LIFE TODAY

Most of us have experienced the death of a loved one. My family and I had the death of our dad and now our Uncle Al. It is not easy to cope with death, especially when it is your own loved one.

Sr. Joan Mitchell writes “ We have only our experience with God in our world and in our holy history”. The spiritual writer, Henry Nowen compares dying to the trust between trapeze artists. One lets go, trusting the other will catch him or her.

While we don't know what lies beyond death, we are given a hope that the God of both the living and the dead will bring us into new life through Jesus Christ. Our hope as Christians is that we have a God who will raise us up. We are companions in hope that the new life Jesus promises will be our own.

We see the power of this new life in Jesus in today's Gospel story on the raising of Lazarus. What strikes me, is that when Jesus first comes to the tomb, he does not say anything. He does not ask why or say this is God's will. He just weeps. He weeps because he knows the family's pain. He also has a sense of his own to come. This same Jesus weeps with us too, when we lose someone we love so much. But, we don't end at the weeping. Jesus raises Lazarus from the tomb and says “untie him and let him go.” As we enter into the 5th Week of Lent, may we allow Jesus to untie us of our grief over all the deaths in our lives. May we also help untie others of their grief too by visiting them, making a phone call, a note and praying for them.

One thing that Martha did not understand yet, was that the resurrection happens now through our baptism. We don't have to wait until after death. Each of us begins that new life now if we fully believe in Jesus, ask for his help and allowing him to work through us today and the days to come.

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week is coming very soon. All the people at the 5pm Mass on Saturday April 8, are invited to join us in Msgr. Tarant Hall to begin our Solemn Procession to the Church at 4:45pm. Please invite ONE PERSON TO MASS, who has not been in our church for a while. Also, remember to be generous in your collection next Sunday to cover our Winter Heat Costs. Thank you for your generosity.

REMOVING THE PARISH WHITE HOUSE

Since the beginning of our parish at St Ignatius Loyola, the pastor had an ingenious idea to build a house for the sextant, or person in charge of taking care of the buildings and grounds of the parish. This house was used by at least 2 families. Some of you may remember the Blancs. After they moved, the house was used for a variety of purposes, The Ecumenical counseling service and the Hope For Stroke organizations. Since then, the house has deteriorated. After much analysis and reflection with the Finance Committee and Pastoral Council, we have decided to take the house down. It will be less expensive to take it down than to do a renovation. The place is not conducive to a regular house or to offices in the way it is laid out today.

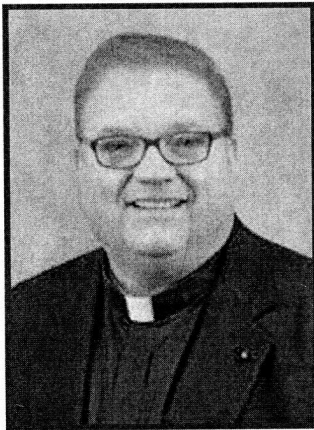

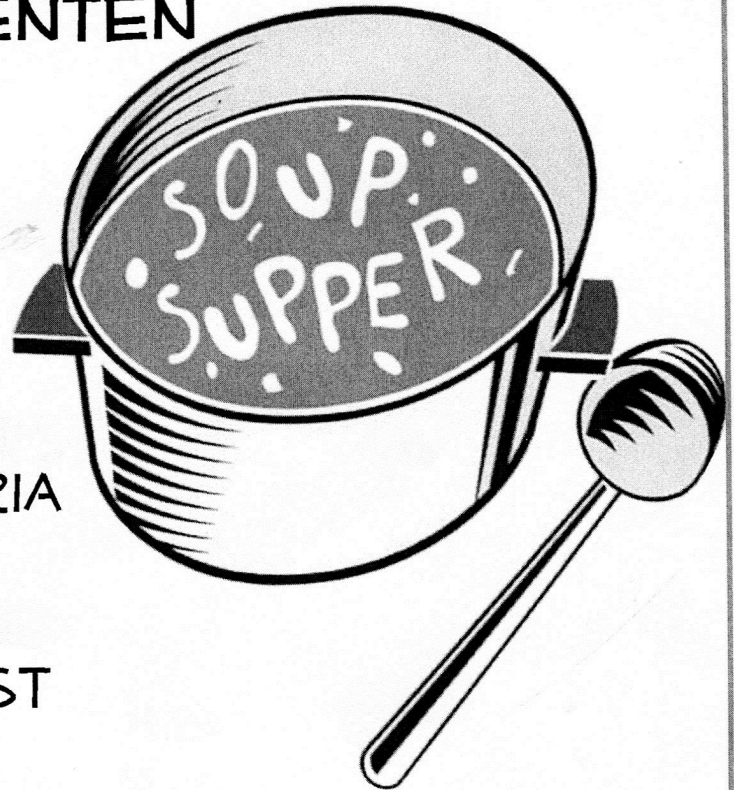

In place of that, we would like to create more space for parking. If you have any suggestions, please don't hesitate to email or contact me by phone. I am willing to listen.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

DEL SEÑOR VIENE LA MISERICORDIA, LA REDENCIÓN COPIOSA.

Llegamos al último domingo de Cuaresma. El evangelista Juan nos narra el último milagro de Jesús. Jesús recibe la llamada de las hermanas de Lázaro: «Jesús, tu amigo, está enfermo». Jesús dice: «Ésta enfermedad no acabará en la muerte, sino que servirá para que el Hijo de Dios sea glorificado».

Pasan dos días y Jesús se pone en camino, cuando llega, Lázaro lleva muerto cuatro días.

Jesús ve la tristeza y el dolor de las hermanas de Lázaro y comparte con ellas el dolor, y también el llanto.

La hermana que sale a recibirlo, sabe que todo lo que Jesús le pida a Dios le será concedido, tiene esa certeza. Jesús le dijo: «tu hermano resucitará».

Jesús, como todos nosotros no quiere la muerte, quiere la vida, pero sabe que para vivir en plenitud de Dios todos debemos pasar por ella. Pero nadie, absolutamente nadie, quiere morir, nos angustia pensar en ella, incluso hay personas que a cierta edad o ante la enfermedad sufren ansiedad o depresión. Pero si realmente creemos, debemos tener la certeza de que Jesús nos trae la esperanza y la resurrección; sin embargo dudamos, no nos dejamos acoger en los brazos misericordiosos de Dios.

Durante estos cinco domingos se nos ha invitado a la conversión, a volver nuestra vida a Dios. Que nuestra fe sea firme, como fue la de las hermanas de Lázaro.

Jesús nos dice que la muerte no es el final, sino el camino hacia la luz, hacia la vida. No se puede razonar, sólo podemos creer en ella desde la fe y Ésta tenemos que cultivarla, cuidarla para que cada día aumente.

«Señor, acrecienta y aumenta mi fe»

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office. We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
