Theme: Jesus, our cornerstone

Breaking Open the Word: Suggested text faith sharing.

Gospel Jn 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples: Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way. Thomas said to him, Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him. Philip said to him, Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Step One: Listen to the Word

In this lovely reading from John's Gospel, what phrases or words or images catch your ear? What promise of Christ do you hear most clearly?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What are some ways that you can act like Jesus would if he were in your situation?

Question for Youth: Jesus is "the way, the truth, the life" and he asks us to do as he does. How do you try to follow Jesus' way?

Question for Adults: How are the promises of this Gospel passage made real in your own life? How do you experience yourself doing greater works than even Jesus did?

THE FIFTY DAYS OF EASTER

On this 4th Sunday of Easter, our theme is entitled Good Shepherd Sunday. We usually hear from John's Gospel Chapter 10. When we look at sheep, we know that their character can never be on the right track unless they listen and follow the shepherd. Sheep have no natural sense of direction, they do not seem to know which way to go to live, they are incapable of caring for themselves on their own. They are weak animals. That is until they have a good shepherd to guide them.

Jesus, by referring to himself as the Good Shepherd, wants to teach us that without him we too are weak and can be quite helpless. Like a Good Shepherd, Jesus is there to go to any lengths to guide and save us. In the Middle East and here where sheep graze, the shepherd does the same.

Jesus as the good Shepherd leads, protects and guides us to the safest pastures of life. The question becomes, do we listen to His voice or are we caught up with other voices that direct us on another path that eventually hurt us and others. Our role is to serve the God we know and know the God we serve. Let us pray that we may be enabled to hear Jesus telling us "I am the Door. Whoever enters through me will be saved."

Pray for all our First Holy Communicants who are preparing to receive the Lord Jesus for the first time. We had our First Holy Communion on Saturday, April 29th with 21 children and again this Saturday, May 6th with 21 children. May this time remind us of the importance of the Eucharist and how as St. Augustine writes we are to "become what you receive." The purpose of receiving Holy Communion in the Eucharist is to become who we receive, to become Jesus.

Pray to Our Lady of Fatima as we celebrate the 100th Anniversary when Mary our Mother appeared to the three young children and changed the world!

MANGANO INSTALLS HISPANIC ADVISORY BOARD

Mineola, NY – Nassau County Executive Edward P. Mangano swore in 12 members to the newly formed Hispanic American Advisory Board in a ceremony on Monday, April 24th at the Theodore Roosevelt Executive and Legislative Building in Mineola. The members of the Advisory Board will assist the County in the development, advancement and betterment of economic, employment and business opportunities for Hispanic Americans, as well as promoting cultural opportunities, education and the general welfare of Hispanic Americans in Nassau County.

“I thank members of Nassau County’s new Hispanic American Advisory Board for their commitment to our community and their willingness to volunteer in such an important capacity,” said County Executive Mangano. “Together, we will form partnerships that will continue to bridge cultural gaps, accomplish our common goals and lead to the building of a better Nassau.”

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta.

Una de las imágenes más queridas de los judíos es la del Buen Pastor. Los salmos hablan del pueblo de Israel como el rebaño de Dios, y es Dios mismo el que caracteriza la persona del Buen Pastor. En el salmo 23, rezamos por ejemplo: "El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta; en verdes pastos me hace reposar". Es una imagen que ofrece consuelo a los que están sufriendo o que tal vez se sienten abandonados. Es una oración que pone toda la confianza en un Dios que se preocupa por su pueblo, un Dios que entiende sus necesidades y va en busca de su rebaño, un Dios que garantiza su seguridad y su bien estar.

La imagen del Buen Pastor estaba grabada en el corazón y la mente de Jesús. Salió de su boca en sus oraciones como niño y como adulto. No nos sorprende que Jesús se identifico como Buen Pastor. Lo sorprendente es que los Fariseos no entendieron lo que Él estaba diciendo.

En el evangelio de hoy, San Juan describe una idea distinta de lo que era importante para los discípulos de Jesús. En su Evangelio, él no da importancia a los puestos de autoridad. Es el discípulo "bien amado" que ocupa el puesto de honor, no el que es nombrado jefe. El discípulo no es escogido para gobernar ni predicar, sino para servir como testigo fiel de la bondad de Dios. Es por medio de su testimonio de vida que el verdadero discípulo atrae a otros a Jesús. En este sentido, es Jesús mismo que es el pastor, "el Buen Pastor".

Es bueno meditar hoy en la imagen del Buen Pastor. ¿Quiénes son los buenos pastores de la Iglesia hoy? Uno piensa inmediatamente en el Papa Francisco. Es un hombre sencillo que habla a favor de los pobres y castiga a los que abusan de esta gente querida. Más cerca de casa, tal vez podemos pensar en ministros sencillos que se entregan por las necesidades de la gente; los que se sacrifican por el bien de los humildes; los que dan su vida en testimonio del amor y de la misericordia de Dios. Son personas que andan en nuestro alrededor, dándonos el ejemplo de fidelidad y de compasión; son los que tienen sed de la justicia y que actúan a favor de los oprimidos; los que lloran con los afligidos; los que consuelan a los que sufren; y los que visitan a los olvidados en los hospitales y prisiones. Por nuestro bautizo en Cristo, todos estamos llamados a vivir de esa manera. Tenemos que estar en relación con Jesús, escuchando su voz, siguiendo su ejemplo, caminando dondequiera que vaya. Así, por el testimonio de nuestra vida, la gente conocerá a un Dios que nos llama por nuestro propio nombre, que nos guarda de los peligros de la vida, y que dio su vida por nuestro bien. Jesús es el Buen Pastor, que reconoce a sus ovejas, no porque somos dignos, sino porque Él es el Hijo de un Dios de Amor.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
