We would like to wish all the mothers of our parish a wonderful and blessed Mother's Day.

Remembrance envelopes for Mother's Day are located at the entrances to the Church.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
John 14:1-12

Christus Surrexit, Sicut Dixit, Alleluia! Christ Is Risen As He Said! Alleluia!

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

A happy and blessed Mother's day to all mothers, grandmothers, godmothers and adopted mothers. We also pray for mothers who have lost children and those who cannot have children. Remember to look to Mary, as our Mother, as your guide to lead you to Jesus. Saturday May 13th is the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima. May Our Lady of Fatima help all our mothers to be a witness of life, truth, justice and love.

THE FIFTY DAYS OF EASTER CONTINUE

The readings during the Easter Season often bring forth hope and comfort. What better comfort is there than to know we have a home with God.

St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) has lived her life with this as her goal. She has often said that there is no need to fear death since "death is something beautiful; it means going home," going home to God. Death for her was merely a vehicle (car) that would just take her to her next destination. She once said that she had a woman who said "I have lived like an animal in the street but I am going to die like an angel-loved and cared for."

Jesus is telling us we need not be afraid of death because there is something more awaiting us after this life. In Heaven, God has room for us all.

An article from the journal "The Living Light", states that "at the very heart of our Christian faith is the conviction that we have come from a God who lovingly chose us in Christ from all eternity (Ephesians 1:4) and that our entire vocation is bound up with the call to return to God". God the Father wants to make sure that we get to Heaven. Jesus the Son is our means to get there.

Our challenge is to make Jesus the center of our lives. He tells us that he is the way –Jesus not only points to Heaven, he is Heaven. He is the truth-he is always with us no matter what the world wants to throw at us. He is the life-death no longer has power over us. Jesus shares with us the eternal life that he now possesses. The question for us is do we believe, do we trust, do we follow.

As we remember all those who have died, I think about my dad, may we remember that God has already decided to bring them into the Lord's presence even before they were born. The room is ready, the table has been set. May all of our loved ones now be embraced by our Lord who says to them "Welcome Home."

WATCH THE SPEED BUMPS

Recently, we put in new speed bumps on the Cherry St. side of the church parking lot. This is due to cars speeding from one street to another and using our place as a short cut. Please be careful, especially when walking. We would like everyone to be safe. If you know of anyone who takes the short cut, ask them to go around so as not to endanger any of our people. Thank you.

HAVE A HAPPY & BLESSED EASTER SEASON!

Free Speech Fairness Act of 2017

The Free Speech Fairness Act was introduced to allow churches and nonprofits to participate in political speech. It would roll back the Johnson Amendment of 1954, named after Sen. Lyndon Johnson, that prevents any church or other non-profit organization from endorsing or opposing political candidates - even for biblical reasons - and allowed the IRS to punish pastors, churches and nonprofit ministries with crippling audits and threats to take away tax exemptions. The Johnson Amendment has caused great confusion and concern about what tax exempt organizations can say about moral issues and political candidates.

Dear Parishioners:

As our Parish continues to support the mission of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, I am writing today to ask that you please consider donating to this year's campaign.

Why is it so important for every parishioner to participate in the Catholic Ministries Appeal? It's because the Appeal supports the larger work of the Catholic Church beyond what any one parish can do alone.

Our Parishes have Outreach Programs, but on our own we couldn't provide affordable housing to low income seniors or people with disabilities. Many of our Parishes have elementary schools but don't have a high school. As a Diocese we have three high schools.

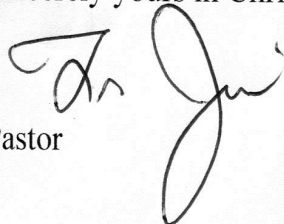

At many parishes there are men responding to the call to the priesthood and the diaconate. As a parish, we could never train them adequately; however, as a Diocese we can offer them an exceptional Formation program.

In other words, the Catholic Ministries Appeal reminds us that we are part of something much larger than ourselves as individual parishes; we are part of the Catholic Church on Long Island. Every day with your support, we are touching lives and delivering hope and care where needed most.

As your Pastor, I ask you to join me in supporting this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal. All gifts, no matter the size, make a difference in someone's life and give us the opportunity to join together in the light of the Lord as One Faith, Family and Community as we serve others.

May God bless you and your family in this joyous Easter Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Pastor

Spiritual Adoption Program
Month Eight – Developing Baby

“I like to listen to my Mommy’s voice!”
In the last two months, the baby continues to gain weight. She is developing a layer of fat that will keep her warm after she is born. In the 9th month she will shift to a head-down position, preparing for birth. Her lungs are now fully developed and capable of making the transition to breathing air. After birth she will continue the human growth process for many years to come.

Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer
the life of my spiritually adopted
pre-born child.
I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.
Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them that at this difficult time.
May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child’s life.
AMEN.

Desarrollo del Bebé

“¡Me gusta oír la voz de mi mamá!”
Durante estos dos últimos meses continuaré aumentando de peso. También estoy desarrollando una capa de grasa que me ayudará a mantener una temperatura adecuada en el cuerpo después de mi nacimiento. Durante el noveno mes me cambiaré a una posición con la cabeza hacia abajo, preparándome para nacer. Mis pulmones están completamente desarrollados y serán capaces de hacer la transición para respirar aire. Después del nacimiento continuaré mi proceso de crecimiento humano por muchos años más.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración
la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente
antes de nacer.
Te pido que protejas y acompañes este
niño (a) de todo daño.
María y José, les pido
Intercedan por los padres de este Bebé, para que Dios derrame su
amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y
los guíe en este momento difícil.
Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos
y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé.
AMEN.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Que tu misericordia, Señor, venga sobre nosotros, como lo esperamos de ti, asamblea

La Iglesia navega hoy en día en medio de un turbulento mar de relativismo. Quien asume esta «actitud que está de moda no reconoce nada como definitivo y sólo deja como última medida el propio yo y sus ganas» (Card. Joseph Ratzinger, Homilía en la Misa por la elección del Pontífice, 4/18/2005).

Es evidente que hoy son multitudes las que adhiriéndose sin más a esta actitud de moda sostienen y afirman como verdad incuestionable que no existe una verdad sobre Dios y sobre el hombre, que todo es relativo y que por tanto cada cual puede tener “su propia verdad”, siendo “mi verdad” tan válida o verdadera como “la verdad” de otro aunque la una y la otra se encuentren en absoluta contradicción.

Esta actitud relativista ciertamente no es nueva. También la mostró Pilato cuando se encontró ante Aquel que dijo de sí mismo: «Yo para esto he nacido y para esto he venido al mundo: para dar testimonio de la verdad». Pilato, al escuchar tal afirmación, sin querer indagar más y manteniéndose escéptico ante la posibilidad de poder conocer La Verdad, finalizó el diálogo con una pregunta que en realidad no buscaba respuesta alguna: «¿Y qué es la verdad?» (Jn 18,37-38).

Ante el relativismo imperante se alza hoy nuevamente la firme voz del Señor que nos dice: «Yo soy el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida.

Nadie va al Padre sino por mí» (Jn 14,6). Su afirmación es excluyente: Él no es una verdad o un camino más entre muchos; no hay otras verdades, no hay otros caminos, no hay otro modo de llegar al Padre y alcanzar la Vida. Él para esto ha sido enviado: «Yo he venido para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia» (Jn 10,10).

En una época de tanto relativismo, resaltar esta verdad es esencial. Porque le creemos a Cristo, creemos que Él es LA VERDAD, no una más entre tantas verdades todas igualmente verdaderas entre sí, sino LA VERDAD. Por lo mismo, creemos que Él es «luz verdadera que ilumina a todo hombre que viene a este mundo» (Jn 1,9) y por eso no podemos dejar de hacer de Él nuestro Camino cada día y de anunciarlo a todos los hombres y mujeres de nuestro tiempo, ya sea por miedo de ofender la sensibilidad de algunos o por ceder a la tiranía de lo “políticamente correcto”. Anunciamos a Cristo no porque nos creemos dueños de la verdad, sino porque la Verdad que es Cristo nos ha alcanzado, nos posee y porque somos sus servidores. Esa verdad no se la imponemos a nadie, pero tampoco podemos dejar de anunciarla, no podemos esconderla debajo de un celemín. Porque Cristo es la Verdad que nos ha iluminado, y porque Él ha venido a liberar a todo ser humano de la esclavitud del pecado y de la muerte, sentimos la urgencia de anunciarlo a cuantos podamos, a tiempo y destiempo.
