Do Churchgoers live longer?

By Julie Zauzmer (The Washington Post)

There are many benefits cited for those attending services.

Religious services aren't just good for your soul – they might be good for your health.

A study in a journal published by the American Medical Association, says that those who attend church services more often actually have a better chance of staying alive in the long run.

Over a 20 year span, the study surveyed a group of more than 76,000 female nurses, most of whom were Catholic and Protestant. At the end of 20 years, more than 13,000 of them had died. The women who went to religious services more than once a week, it turned out, were 33 percent less likely to be in the group with those who died, compared to those who never attended services.

Tyler VanderWeele, a researcher at Harvard's School of Public Health who co-wrote the study, said the effect diminished as the study participants decreased their service attendance. Those who attended services once a week saw their odds of dying go down 26 percent. For those who attended less than weekly, the odds of dying decreased 13 percent, VanderWeele said.

That led the study's authors to a striking recommendation. "Religion and spirituality may be an underappreciated resource that physicians could explore with their patients, as appropriate," they wrote.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Those who obey the commandments, Jesus says in today's Gospel, are the ones who really love Him. Does my stewardship reveal my love for Jesus?

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who strive to choose wisely, act justly and hold to what is best for the good of all.

THANK YOU

Our Spiritual Adoption Baby Shower was a HUGE SUCCESS!

On behalf of Catholic Daughters Court Queen of Angels, the Life Center of Long Island, and Birthright, a heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone who helped make our 3rd Annual Spiritual Adoption Baby Shower a continued success.

Thanks to your generosity, we collected so many items for mothers in need and their babies that the list is almost too long to write! Your kindness speaks wonders for what the parishioners of St. Ignatius Loyola can do.

Together, our parish family donated $361.00 in monetary gifts, 12 cases plus 43 packs of diapers, 53 packages of baby wipes, 79 items of clothing including outfits, pajamas and onesies, baby food and formula, a large number of baby care items like shampoos, soaps, lotions and Desitin, and other baby needs including pacifiers, baby bottles, toys, towels, receiving blankets, bibs, wash cloths and too many more items to list here, including a lovely decorated basket filled with baby care items! One kind parishioner even donated a beautiful stroller!

Special gratitude goes to the many of you who lovingly took the time to hand knit and crochet such beautiful baby sweaters, caps, booties and blankets that are sure to touch the hearts of so many mothers.

May God bless you and your families for your loving kindness and generosity!

The new CD's from the Augustine Institute Lighthouse have arrived. The new English titles are: Fatima-Living the Message, Praying the Rosary Like Never Before, Who Am I to Judge?, Understanding the Eucharist (with Dr. Scott Hahn), Freedom Through Forgiveness, Abba or Allah Important Differences, and Living the Gospel with the Heart of Pope Francis.

The new Spanish titles are: La Autoridad De La Biblia El Error de Sola, Mi Nombre de Batalia es Jose Luis, and Enciende la Llama.

We hope you are enjoying these CDs. If here are any questions, please contact the rectory and they will contact me.

One Minute Meditations

St. Mary Magdalen de' Pazzi

Born Catherine de' Pazzi to a noble family in Florence in 1566, she entered the Carmelite order when she was sixteen, taking the name Mary Magdalen. Soon after, she began experiencing mystical ecstasies, which lasted until her death. She enjoyed a personal relationship with Jesus and had many conversations with him. She considered these graces as a sign of weakness, not holiness. She was known for her wisdom, charity, and her love for the Eucharist.

Gratitude, not greed

St. Paul wrote for Christians then and now when he warned against greed and materialism, "For the love of money is the root of all evils ...." (1 Timothy 6:10). Despite all evidence, many still believe money brings happiness, yet gratitude for all we have is the real key to happiness.

"The holy Rosary is a powerful weapon. Use it with confidence and you'll be amazed at the results."

St. Josemaría Escrivá

Welcome all God's children

God loves each of us uniquely and fiercely no matter where we come from or how we look. Those of us who follow him know that it's not just important to love each other. It's God's law.

Celebrate diversity. Invite foreigners or people who are different from you to your home or church. Jesus was once a foreigner in a strange land and was grateful for the hospitality he received. There is great diversity in the Communion of Saints.

Practice patience. It can be tough to listen to someone with a speech impediment or a heavy accent. Imagine, though, how grateful that person will be when you offer your attention. Perhaps it would help to imagine the face of Christ in the face before you.

Counsel the ignorant. Someone from another country, background, or with different abilities than yours might behave in what looks like an inconsiderate way out of ignorance or limitations. He might appreciate being informed.

Speak up. Don't stay quiet when you witness prejudice, and be positive about diversity if friends or relatives start criticizing others' faith, cultures or abilities.

Act with love. The God of love gave of himself so we could be reunited with him. We share that love when we assume the best of others and look for the good in all God's children.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe in angels?

Angels are pure spirits with intelligence and free will (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 330). The belief in angels is a Catholic doctrine based on Scriptural evidence. Throughout the Bible, God sends angels to announce his will, punish, strengthen, or console. Angels also protected and ministered to Jesus during his time on earth. We are also given guardian angels to watch over us (Matthew 18:10). Finally, the Church joins in the adoration of the angels at Mass (CCC #335).

Advice, comfort, and encouragement in the Bible

The Bible is full of practical life guidance that is as relevant today as it was when written. Its advice, comfort, and encouragement is timeless.

Advice - Written by a wise Old Testament scribe and teacher, Book of Sirach offers advice on just about everything we deal with today—friendship, education, finances, etiquette, marriage, family life, and more.

Comfort - In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus gives comfort for the insecurities of daily life. For example,

"Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?" (Matthew 6:26). For more, see Matthew 6:25-34, 7:7-11, 11:28, and 28:20.

Encouragement - Need encouragement? Try Psalm 118, "The Lord is with me, I will not be afraid." Or, Psalm 40, "I waited patiently for the Lord's help; then he listened to me and heard my cry." And Psalm 23, "I fear no harm for you are at my side; your rod and staff give me courage."

from Scripture

John 17:1-11A, In the world, not of it

Following the Last Supper and just before his agony in the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus prayed to the Father for his disciples, including us. He asked that all would remain united in his love, be protected from the influence of the devil, and ultimately be with him in eternity forever.

What Jesus did not ask was that God take his followers out of the world. Being "in the world, but not of the world" is at the heart of living our Catholic faith. We can try to abandon the world altogether or blend in with it, but neither option fulfills what God asks of us. We are called to proclaim the Gospel in the world by how we live our life—both in public and private.

Our true home is not here on Earth, but in Heaven. It takes courage to place our hope in Christ and then live accordingly. Going to Mass and receiving the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confession regularly will give us the spiritual strength needed to be in the world, but not of the world.

Q Do we really & receive gifts from the Holy Spirit?

At Baptism, we receive actual, spiritual gifts from the Holy Spirit intended to help us live virtuous lives. Traditionally numbered seven (Isaiah 11:1-3), these gifts make us receptive to grace and the promptings of the Spirit. They grow stronger the more we use them. They are also strengthened by the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Wisdom: This gift helps us stay focused on God's will and his plan for us.

Understanding: Lets us grasp truths of the faith with our mind and heart.

Counsel: Also called "right judgment," counsel enables us to weigh all the alternatives to make the right (moral) choice.

Fortitude: Courage, or the ability to remain firm in seeking the good against all pressures.

Knowledge: A person with knowledge sees more than one dimension of an issue to determine the right path.

Piety: This gift helps us think of ourselves as children of God and be eager to serve him.

Fear of the Lord: The wonder and awe God inspires encourages us to respect him and all his creations.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 1 - St. Joseph the Worker. Entrusted with the care of the Blessed Mother and Jesus, Joseph was a humble carpenter who was dedicated to his family and obedient to God.

May 2 - St. Athanasius (373). Born a Christian in Egypt, St. Athanasius became a priest and a great defender of the Catholic faith. Because of the terrible persecutions of the Church, he was exiled several times during his life.

May 25 - The Ascension of the Lord (1st century). This solemnity marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven by his own power. (Mark 16:19, Luke 24:51) Note: In some dioceses, this observance has been moved to the following Sunday.

May 31 - The Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth (1st century). Today, we commemorate the Visitation, when Mary visited her cousin Elizabeth to share her joy at being favored by God. Three ways we can honor Mary include praying the Rosary, celebrating her feast days, and praising her to others.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Aclamar al Señor, tierra entera.

Me impresiona cómo la gente a menudo ofrece este elogio a sus mamás. Dicen de parte de toda la familia: "Siempre estabas allí por nosotros". No cuentan que hicieron las madres más que haber estado presentes en sus actividades. Es igual con los otros seres queridos. Una vez una mujer escribió un testimonio por su padre, un médico. Dijo que cuando era muchacha, él siempre halló el tiempo para asistir en sus competiciones de atletismo. ¿Quién puede dudar que la presencia de aquellos que nos importa más signifique mucho a nosotros?

Por esta razón no debe sorprendernos a escuchar a Jesús prometiendo su presencia a nosotros en el evangelio hoy. Dice que no va a abandonar a sus discípulos nunca, que no nos dejará "desamparados". Tenemos que preguntarnos cómo puede cumplir esta promesa hoy en día. Si ha regresado a su Padre en el cielo, ¿cómo puede estar presente a nosotros?

Sí es cierto que ha dejado su legado con nosotros de modo que no nos dejara completamente. Sus palabras siguen impactando aun a los no cristianos con su sabiduría. De una manera los dichos como "Haz al otro lo que quiere que te haga a ti" hacen a Jesús presente hoy en día. Por eso se ha dicho que la persona vive hasta que se olviden todas sus palabras y se ignoren todas las causas que abarcó. Por eso, se puede decir que Abraham Lincoln vive entre el pueblo americano y que Jesucristo vive en medio de todos nosotros cristianos.

No deberíamos ponernos desesperados. La presencia que Jesús nos ofrece hoy es su existencia junto con el Padre y el Espíritu Santo en nosotros. Habita en nuestros interiores para movernos a vivir rectamente. Es como una misión médica se presenta en un pueblo. Pronto todos los habitantes cooperan para que todos los enfermos reciban la atención para curarse.

Frecuentemente son los laicos que manifiestan la existencia de Dios en la persona. Recuerdo a Teresa, una mujer que después de criar su familia y enterrar a su marido, se dedicó a su parroquia. Trabajando en la oficina de la iglesia, conoció a todo el mundo en la comunidad. Les confortó a los tristes con palabras de consuelo y a los perplejos con palabras de entendimiento. Cuando se cambió el vecindario tanto de raza como económicamente, Teresa se quedó por años. Conoció a sus vecinos nuevos y participó con ellos en la asociación de vecindario. La gente perceptiva podría notar la existencia del Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo en ella.

Si Jesús está presente en nuestro ser, querremos mantenerlo allí. Supongo que el mejor modo para lograr esto es hablar con él. Querrá saber cuando nos hacen faltan cien dólares y cuando cinco son suficientes. Como nuestros seres queridos querrá saber también de nuestro amor para él. Que no olvidemos decir a Jesús de nuestro amor.
