Father's Day—June 18, 2017

We would like to wish all the fathers of our parish a wonderful and blessed Father's Day. May your day be filled with smiles and love.

Remembrance envelopes for Father's Day are located at the entrances to the Church.

Happy Father's Day

A Father's Day Prayer

Dear Father in Heaven,
 As a father, help me
 To follow your example
 To be patient,
 To be caring,
 To be understanding,
 To be forgiving,
 To be firm,
 To be compassionate,
 To be a teacher,
 To be loving,
 To be a good listener,
 Most importantly,
 To be there as a parent,
 As you are always
 There for me.
 Amen.

MONSIGNOR DONALD T. BENNETT 50 YEARS OF PRIESTHOOD

On behalf of our parish, I want to congratulate our Pastor Emeritus, Msgr. Donald T. Bennett on his 50th Anniversary as an ordained Catholic Priest.

Msgr. Bennett served here as Pastor at St. Ignatius from June, 1999 to June, 2011. During that time, so much was accomplished that helped deepen the beauty of our church building and our people.

I want to thank Msgr. for his priestly service to our parish, our Diocese and our Church. I am grateful to Msgr. Bennett for his help as I began to serve as Pastor.

Msgr. Bennet offered precious advice that helped me in my pastorate. Msgr. Bennett also served at St. Joseph's in Garden City (First as an Associate then as Pastor), St. Agnes Cathedral (Associate), St. Anthony's in East Northport (Associate) and as a professor at St. Pius X HS Seminary in Uniondale. May you continue to do the good work God has begun in you. Ad Multos Annos.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Join us as we pray the prayer for Religious Liberty at Mass from June 21 thru July 4, 2017.

WELCOME OUR NEW EMPLOYEES AT SIL

St. Ignatius Loyola has just hired a new receptionist for our parish office. Her name is Nivia Soto. Nivia works here on Tuesdays and Thursdays 9am -5pm. She is fluent in both English & Spanish. Ella habla en Español. May God bless and guide Nivia in her new role here at St. Ignatius Loyola.

St. Ignatius Loyola also welcomes our new website developer, Laura Mazurkiewicz whose company is named iFaithconnect. Laura is from Good Shepherd parish in Holbrook. She will be developing and monitoring our website throughout the year. May God bless Laura in her work. Please check out our new parish website at:

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Please join us following the 12:30pm Mass Sunday to publicly express our belief and faith in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ. We will process outdoors Four altars will be set up representing Christ who faces North, South, East & West. St John Paul II wrote that the Church "does not only celebrate the Eucharist, but solemnly bears it in procession, publicly proclaiming that the sacrifice of Christ is for the salvation of the whole world."

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Respect Life News from Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Queen of Angels No. 869 Spiritual Adoption Program Month Nine – Developing Baby

Noticias sobre el respeto a la vida de las Hijas Católicas de las Américas. Corte Reina de los Angeles No. 869 Programa de Adopción Espiritual – Noveno Mes – Desarrollo del Bebé

It's my birthday! Thank you so much for all your prayers. Because you prayed for me, I got the best of all gifts - Life!

¡Es el día de mi nacimiento! Muchas gracias por todas sus oraciones. Gracias a ellas ustedes me han dado el mejor regalo que se puede dar, el regalo de ¡La Vida!

Your spiritually adopted baby was born this month - - nine months after her mother conceived her. The only change at birth is a change in the external life support system of the baby. She is no different now than she before birth except that she breathes and eats differently. She is truly a miracle. She began as a 46-chromosome cell and has grown over the past nine months into this unique human baby we now can see. Never before in history, nor ever again, will anyone exist who is exactly like your spiritually adopted baby. Your prayers saved her life. Thank you on behalf of all of the little babies and their mothers for your loving prayers that helped to bring them to birth "so that they might have life and have it to the full!"

Su bebé espiritual ha nacido este mes. Nueve meses después de que su madre lo concibió. No es diferente ahora de lo que fue antes de nacer, a excepción de que ahora respira y come de una manera diferente. Ella es realmente un milagro. Empezó como 46 cromosomas y ha crecido durante los pasados nueve meses, convirtiéndose en este bebé, un ser humano único. Nunca antes en la historia existirá alguien que sea exactamente como su bebé espiritual. Sus oraciones le han salvado la vida. Gracias en nombre del bebé y sus padres, por sus oraciones amorosas que los ha ayudado a traer al bebé al mundo

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Joseph Cafasso

St. Joseph was born in Castelnuovo d'Asti in Italy to peasant parents. From a young age, he was known for his humility in prayer. He entered the seminary in Turin, and was ordained in 1833. He went on to study and teach in the university of Turin. He combated the heresy of Jansenism and urged devotion to the Holy Eucharist. He was an excellent preacher, confessor, and retreat master. One of his pupils was St. John Bosco.

God as Father

In Jesus' day, many people felt God was so holy, his name was unutterable. Imagine their surprise when Jesus taught them to call God Abba, which means, "Daddy"! When you pray, remember you're addressing a loving Father who is eager to help.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone ... opens the door, [then] I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me"
(Revelation 3:20).

Don't let anxiety cloud your world

The peace Christ promised to his followers is not intended to eliminate all anxiety from our lives. When we experience feelings of insecurity, we will feel anxious. However, allowing our anxiety to cloud our judgments can be the greatest obstacle to receiving grace and it is that grace which helps us to cope.

Know the symptoms. Anxiety is like fear but dwells on personal inadequacy and insecurity rather than real and imminent danger. Common symptoms of anxiety are nervousness, mental unease, tension, or a desire to avoid a particular situation or person. When you can't determine a specific, reasonable cause for these feelings, it may be anxiety.

Ask for help. Work to understand your strengths and become comfortable with your limitations. While stretching to learn new skills is important, so is asking for help when confronted with our limits. If negative attitudes or opinions of those asked result, see them as expressions of their own viewpoints or personal problems. Don't demand more of yourself than you can give and be ready to ask for help.

Be pleased with your best. Anxiety results when we fear failure and the possible loss of approval or respect of others. Instead, refuse to fear imperfect results or others' judgment. Make the most of your talents, do your best, and respect yourself for your effort.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why does the priest add water to the wine at Mass?

There are several reasons for this practice. Adding water to the wine represents the union of Jesus' humanity with his divinity. It also recalls Christ's Passion, when water and blood flowed from his side (John 19:33-35).

The priest adds water in imitation of Christ who, it is believed, used wine mixed with water as a common cultural practice in Jesus' day. Finally, the union of the wine and the water stands for the union of Christ and his people.

The Christian life is richer with virtues

A virtue is a disposition to do the good. Virtues help us to perform good acts and give the best of ourselves. God gives us the theological virtues – faith, hope, and charity – to help us live as his children.

Live with faith. Through the gift of faith, we can believe in God, in all he has revealed, and all the Catholic Church teaches. Living by faith means our thoughts and actions are based on these convictions. “... For we walk by faith, not by sight” (2 Corinthians 5:7).

Live with hope. Believing that all things are possible with God, Catholics hope for a better world, hope that we will become the people God created us to be and hope we unite with him in Heaven. Family, friends, and the world around us are savored as God’s glorious gifts.

Live with charity. Charity is loving God for who he is and loving others because he asked. “And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony” (Colossians 3:14).

from Scripture

Matthew 10:26-33, Keep calm and trust God

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus told his disciples not to fear encountering persecution, but to fear offending God, who has the final say in judging us. We offend God when we deny his love and refuse – through sin – to love him and others. Our faithfulness to Christ will bring us to Heaven, but it will also bring us into conflict.

Conflict with the world has always been a part of the Church’s experience. Even in the United States, we face efforts to undermine Catholic beliefs and values. These attacks don’t hurt us physically, but they can eat away at our faith, our respect for others, and ultimately, our happiness.

Jesus’ advice to his followers 2,000 years ago applies to us today. Instead of being afraid, we can trust God, who watches over all the details of our lives and who wants us in Heaven even more than we want to be there. God won’t make all our problems disappear, but he will give us the strength and grace needed to get through them, especially through daily prayer and the sacraments.

Q & A What is the history behind the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart?

Devotion to the Sacred Heart has been present since the time of the early Church. The Church

Fathers considered Jesus’ Heart to be the source of the sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist, symbolized by the blood and water that flowed from Jesus’ side at the Crucifixion. The devotion continued into the Middle Ages when Pope Innocent VI instituted a Mass for the Sacred Heart.

However, its great popularity as a devotion resulted from the visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a young nun at the Visitation convent at Paray-le-Monial, France. On December 27, 1673, St. Margaret received the first of four great visions of Christ, in which he asked her to spread the devotion and described the practices connected to it. He revealed his great love for us, saying, “Behold this Heart which has so loved men that It spared nothing ... to prove to them Its love.” At first her efforts were rejected, but in 1765 – seventy-five years after her death – Pope Clement XIII officially approved the devotion.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 4 – Pentecost (1st century). After the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus, the Holy Spirit was given to the Church at the first Pentecost. When the apostles received the Holy Spirit, the “new age” of the Church was born.

June 6 – St. Norbert (1134). St. Norbert lived in twelfth century Prémontré, France. He is known for founding the Norbertines to combat heresies and religious indifference. The Norbertines successfully converted heretics, reconciled enemies, and rekindled the faith in indifferent believers.

June 11 – Trinity Sunday. Today, we celebrate the Trinity – one of the great mysteries of our Faith. The Trinity is one God in three Persons: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 18 – Corpus Christi Sunday. Corpus Christi is the solemnity on which we celebrate the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus’ Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. In response to the need for a feast devoted solely to the Eucharist, Pope Urban IV ordered a Church-wide celebration for Corpus Christi in 1264.

This Fathers Day, please consider those Dads who because of an illness or loss of job are having trouble feeding or sheltering their family?

A crisis can take many forms and strike in an instant. The good news is that because of you, the Catholic Ministries Appeal provides the support necessary for our Parish Outreach and Catholic Charities programs to assist those in their time of greatest need.

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal...Dads like James. James saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. James had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to feel ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, James had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in his community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that let them make it through the month. James and his family got the help they so desperately needed.

Today, James is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared James.

Thank you for considering this special request to make a gift to the 2017 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please know that no gift is too small and every gift makes a difference in the lives of Dads like James and so many others. You may pick up information and pledge cards in the back of the Church, or for more information, visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5810 ext. 296

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Glorifica al Señor, Jerusalén.

Se pensara que una parroquia con la adoración perpetua sería poco activa. Pues, tener a los feligreses vigilando al Santísimo Sacramento ciento sesenta ocho horas por semana es en sí un logro grande. Tal vez quisiéramos preguntar: "¿Cómo la parroquia podría encontrar a personas para llevar comidas a la gente sin recursos o para visitar a los asilos de ancianos?"

Creo que la razón queda en el contenido de la adoración. Más tarde o más temprano el que adora se preguntará: "¿Qué es esta cosa delante de mí?" y "¿Qué es el propósito de estar aquí mirándola?" Estas preguntas le llevan al descubrimiento que el objeto en su enfoque no es una cosa sino una persona. De hecho, da cuenta que la hostia en el custodio es el que dice en el evangelio hoy: "Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo..." Es Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios que vino al mundo para compartir la vida divina con los seres humanos.

El propósito de la vigilia es para darse cuenta de esta acción divina. Dicen algunos que la Eucaristía es para consumirse no para adorarse. Pero ¿cómo se podría apreciar una comida rica sin tener el tiempo para saborearla? La contemplación delante del Santísimo asemeja el saborear la comida más rica que hay. Es revolver en la mente lo que significa que el magnífico Dios se limitó a sí mismo para compartir nuestro lote humano. De hecho, hizo dos sacrificios que muestran lo extenso de su amor para el mundo.

Además de hacerse hombre, Dios se entregó a sí mismo a una muerte horribla. Se dice que la crucifixión era una de las formas de tortura más crueles siempre inventadas. Causa no sólo dolor agudo y largo sino también la muerte de la asfixia. Pues sólo un sacrificio tan grande podría recompensar el egoísmo humano que sabemos bien es inmenso.

Si su sacrificio nos ha quitado el pecado, queremos preguntar cómo deberíamos responder a su gracia. También se puede buscar la respuesta en la contemplación delante del Santísimo. San Pablo escribe a los corintios que forman los miembros del cuerpo de Cristo. Y así somos nosotros. Le servimos por ayudar a los demás, particularmente a los pobres e indefensos. Un católico comprometido cuenta de su experiencia como un entrenador de un equipo de voleibol compuesto de jóvenes supuestamente "incapacitados". Dice que los muchachos tuvieron una simpatía tremenda no sólo para uno y otro sino para él también. Se le pregunta: ¿qué les falta más a los "atletas especiales": el interés de otras personas o la oportunidad de competir? Contesta que si algunos tienen el impulso de competir pero todos responden al amor.

Hoy se celebra el Día de Padre en muchos países. Es ocasión para honrar a nuestros padres por sus aportes a nuestro bien. Vemos en su trabajo, su acompañamiento, y sus consejos una vislumbre del sacrificio que nos ha hecho Jesucristo. Y vemos en nuestro aprecio de nuestros padres una semejanza de nuestra respuesta a Jesucristo. Como somos agradecidos de ser partes de sus familias, somos deseosos a servir como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo. Es cierto; somos deseosos a servir a Cristo.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
