Knights of Columbus
World Day of Prayer for Peace
September 11th

*God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth.
Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.
God of understanding, overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy, we seek your light and guidance as we confront such terrible events.
Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.
Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope, and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.
Amen*

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, Sept. 3, 2017	$13,412
Hurricane Harvey Relief	$4,070
Sunday, Sept. 4, 2016	$12,092

It is now more than two weeks since hurricane Harvey wreaked havoc in and around Texas, leaving a trail of deluge, disease, distress, devastation and death. Though the fusty floodwaters have finally receded, the headache and heartache are just beginning. For many, picking up the pieces of their shattered lives and rebuilding their future, will be a long road. Help for the victims of the monster rainstorm is pouring in from different quarters. I am moved by the “Christian spirit” of those who go out of their way to help. Many Long Islanders have pitched in with their widow’s mite; they know what it is to be hit by a hurricane; they have been there. This is a testimony to who we are as humans and how we care for one another as members of a community and country.

It is true that God knows and cares for us individually. But our God is encountered and experienced more in community. The story of creation, salvation and sanctification is the story of a community, which experienced God in communion. The Bible is basically the sacred record of and testament to the divine-human encounter and experience of a people. Yahweh God chose the people of Israel, consecrated, constituted and covenanted them into a community as part of his specific divine design. The Church is first and foremost a community of the believers of Christ, who founded and formed the new people of God to continue his saving function. We are members of the family of God, sisters and brothers to one another. I have come all the way from India to minister in this parish and you accept me as a brother in faith, a priest of God and a servant of the Church. The local community, particularly our parish, is a microcosm of the universal Church. It is our family of faith. God wants and wishes to love us and save us through this community, through our brothers and sisters in faith. As participants in the communion of our loving God, and as members of a small ecclesial community, we have certain duties and responsibilities.

When someone has done something wrong against us, our first reaction is to be upset, annoyed and angry, and find ways and means to get even with the person. Instead of addressing the issue and solving the problem, we make the situation worse for both sides. In any relationship, be it family or friends, misunderstandings and conflicts are bound to happen. If we manage them well, in the spirit of Christian faith, they can serve as stepping stones to finer and deeper relationship. This weekend’s Gospel teaches us how to handle conflicts with fraternal correction, forgiveness and love. If we follow Jesus’ three-step practical advice with openness and honesty, our conflicts can be solved. The goal is to win over the erring and estranged member, build the community, and promote relationship, unity and peace.

When a member of our own family falls ill, we leave no stone unturned to offer him or her adequate medical care. This is applicable also on the spiritual realm. But often we fail to take notice of the erring and ailing member of our family or parish. We do not feel comfortable to confront the person because we are imbued with the so-called modern culture’s insistence that we should not interfere in the life of others; we must live and let live. We forget we are members of the family of God; we are sisters and brothers in Christ. We have a responsibility to care for one another’s spiritual health. As Edmund Burke rightly observed, “All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.” Nonetheless, we have no right to sit on judgment and condemn anyone. Loving confrontation and correction of an estranged brother or sister should be prompted by Christian charity, and done with great respect and true friendship. And the offending person must have the humility to accept the wrongdoing and mend his/her wayward ways.

Belonging to the ecclesial community means taking responsibility for one another and being involved in the life of its members. This is part of being a compassionate and caring community. I am responsible, first and foremost, for myself. But I also need to look out for the other. I must have the Christian spirit to involve myself in the issues and problems and challenges facing the community of the local Church. When I know that two members of the ecclesial family are at odds with each other, I must go out of my way to help broker reconciliation, healing and peace. I am my brother’s/sister’s keeper.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

¡Ojala escuchen hoy su voz!: “No endurezcan vuestro corazón”.

El Señor nos habla de la obligación que tenemos de corregir a quien vemos que peca: «Si tu hermano llega a pecar, vete y repréndele, a solas tú con él». Pero, ¿quién puede corregir a su hermano en la fe sino aquel que con humildad se deja corregir y ha sido corregido muchas veces él mismo, ya sea por la palabra del Señor, por el consejo y advertencia oportuna —y a veces la reprensión dura— de su padre o madre, de un maestro, de un amigo que lo es de verdad, de un hombre o mujer de Dios?

Por ello cabe preguntarnos: ¿cómo reacciono yo ante la corrección de quien busca apartarme del pecado, de quien busca mi bien? A nadie le gusta que lo corrijan, y menos de forma enérgica: «Cierto que ninguna corrección es de momento agradable, sino penosa» (Heb 12,11). En verdad, toda corrección incomoda, avergüenza, duele, y cuando hiere la vanidad y soberbia despierta ira, rencor y odio contra la persona que corrige. Algo de eso nos sucede a todos. Ante una corrección solemos reaccionar mal, airadamente, nos defendemos y justificamos como podemos, contraatacamos ofendiendo o desautorizamos a quien nos corrige con estas o semejantes expresiones: “¿y quién te crees tú para criticarme, para decirme a mí lo que tengo que hacer? ¡Mírate a ti mismo! ¿Tú haces esto y lo otro, y te atreves a corregirme? ¡No te metas en mis asuntos!”. Tanto podemos ofendernos que incluso a veces “castigamos” a la persona que ha buscado nuestro bien quitándole el habla. En fin, tan necios e insensatos nos volvemos, por nuestra vanidad herida y por nuestra soberbia, que en contra de toda evidencia pensamos que “el otro se equivoca” y que “toda corrección es una agresión injusta a mi persona”.

Por evadir la dolorosa corrección vivimos escondiéndonos, ocultándonos, obrando en las tinieblas al punto incluso de llevar una doble vida. ¿A quién le gusta exponer a la luz su maldad, sus errores, sus vicios? Quien así vive, piensa que es preferible mentir, manejar y manipular la verdad, a decir con valor: “yo he obrado mal, pido perdón, acepto las consecuencias de mis actos y pido ayuda, pues quiero enmendarme, corregir mis errores, ser mejor cada día, liberarme de la esclavitud de mis vicios y pecados, quiero madurar y crecer hasta alcanzar la estatura de Cristo mismo”. En vez de eso, nos dejamos vencer por el miedo al castigo, a pasar un mal rato, a ser rechazados por aquellos cuya confianza hemos defraudado. Y así, mientras seguimos envueltos en la mentira, amparados en las tinieblas, muchas veces nos enredamos más aún en una conducta equivocada, viciosa, pecaminosa, pasando de cosas pequeñas a cada vez mayores.

Así pues, si quieres acercarte cada día más al ideal de perfección que es el Señor Jesús, no rehuyas la corrección. Acéptala con humildad y sencillez. Entiende que a veces no vemos cosas que otros ven, y que el pecado en el que nos enredamos tiene la virtualidad de deformar la realidad para que “mágicamente” llames “bien o bueno para mí” lo que en realidad es un mal objetivo y te destruye, haciendo daño a otros también. No tienes por qué enojarte con quien te muestra tus yerros para que puedas enderezar tus pasos por el camino que conduce a la vida. Al contrario, sé agradecido, escucha lo que se te dice, discierne a la luz de la palabra divina aquello que debes cambiar, y pide fuerzas al Señor para cambiar lo que no se ajusta a las enseñanzas divinas. Así te acercará cada día más al divino Modelo que es el Señor Jesús.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
