CAPTIAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE
SEPTEMBER 2017

Amount Received	Amount Pledged
$852,276.46	$1,569,120.85

Here is the latest graphic describing where we are in our Capital Campaign. As you can see, we are doing very well. However, there is still more work to be done.

If you have not pledged or pledged and not given yet, please consider giving what you can. Any amount you can give is greatly appreciated! Our dollars will only be matched by the dollars that actually come in, NOT the dollars pledged.

Thank you all for your generosity!

FAREWELL TO
Fr. PETER PONOOLY

This week we bid a sad but grateful farewell to Fr. Peter Ponooly who will be going to a new assignment as an Associate Priest at St. Patrick's Church in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn where Msgr. Michael Hardiman is the Pastor. Fr. Peter will be serving there for a certain period of time.

Fr. Peter has been a gracious and helpful presence over the past three months. Words cannot even express the gratitude that I have, on behalf of our staff and you, on the work that Fr. Peter has done for us.

. Thank you for your inspiring words in the Pastor's Corner. You have certainly lifted us closer to Christ.

We hope that since Fr. Peter is not too far away and still actually on Long Island, (the western end) though Brooklynites may deny, that he might find his way back to us sometime in the future. He always has a home here at St. Ignatius Loyola. May God bless you and guide you as you go on to serve the people of St. Patrick's. If you are heading over the Verrazano Bridge, stop by and see Fr. Peter. I am sure he would be delighted.

PILGRIMAGE TO FATIMA & LOURDES

I just returned from a beautiful pilgrimage to Fatima and Lourdes with 76 other pilgrims from St. Raphael, St. Barnabas, St. Ignatius Loyola and other parishes from Texas to Florida. It was a journey beyond imaginable proportions. One thing that struck me was that no matter where we traveled, the faith of the people was very strong and moving. I felt the power of Christ not only in the Mass but in the hearts of each pilgrim that was there.

I want to personally thank St. Karen Lademann who organized this beautiful journey. Thank you also Fr. Robert Holz, my Pastoral Companion who helped preside at the various Masses that we celebrated at each shrine we visited. More to come on our journey!

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God.

St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Fr. Jim, Pastor

Please join us on Saturday, October 14th at 8am as we gather in church to pray for “Respect Life” with the Rosary and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Food Pantry Needs

We extend a hearty "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the Human Services food pantry over the past few weekends. In the past, our pantry had been almost bare during July and August. This year, thanks to you, the pantry shelves have been full! Demand continues to remain high, however. We are still in need and always appreciate donations of cereal, pasta, canned kernel corn, black beans, spaghetti sauce and canned tuna. In addition, we could really use peanut butter. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Call us at 935-8846 for more details regarding donations.

One Minute Meditations

St. Wenceslaus

Raised by his devoutly Christian grandmother, Ludmilla, King Wenceslaus worked closely with the Church to end the persecution of Christians in Bohemia. "The Good King" encouraged German missionaries, built churches, and cared for the sick and poor. Political conflict culminated in his assassination. One morning, led by his brother, Boleslaus, a group of nobles killed Wenceslaus on the doorsteps of a church. He was immediately recognized as a martyr and is one of the patron saints of Bohemia.

Pass on the gift

In the encyclical, Caritas in Veritate, Pope Benedict XVI said, "Love is God's greatest gift to humanity, it is his promise and our hope." As God's children, we convey his love to others through acts of charity.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, [then] I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me"
(Revelation 3:20).

You can change the world

Through the gift of free will, humans can choose to do good or choose evil. Most choose good, but when we learn of suffering caused by evil in the world, we can feel discouraged and powerless. Yet, through God, we have the power to transform the world.

Don't depend on you. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight" (Proverbs 3:5). Fixing this fallen world is beyond our abilities alone. God has the power, however, to bring true peace and healing to the world. Lay all your concerns at God's feet and then have confidence that he is at work.

Choose the good. Evil can be contagious. Sometimes the best way to live a life of good is to avoid bad influences or people that can pull us away from God. "... Pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord" (2 Timothy 2:22). The bonus? Your good life may inspire others.

Sharpen your Sacramental sense.

Sacraments are opportunities to share in God's divine life. These supernatural encounters with God strengthen our will, enlighten our minds, and inspire us to a closer relationship with God. Don't miss an opportunity to meet Christ at Sunday Mass or the Sacrament of Reconciliation. His grace will keep you strong.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have two versions of the Creed?

The Apostles' Creed is the summary of the beliefs of the early Church. The Nicene Creed is the expanded form of the Apostles' Creed, stemming from two Church councils (Nicaea, 325 AD; Constantinople, 381 AD) intended to combat Arianism, which proposed that Jesus was not God but a kind of super-saint.

Therefore, the Nicene Creed emphasizes Jesus' divinity and his divine Sonship (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no.465). The Nicene Creed is common to both the Western and Eastern Churches.

Maintain your spiritual health

Just as visiting the doctor for regular checkups is key to maintaining our physical health, consistent maintenance is important for good spiritual health. Try these suggestions to craft a schedule to stay in top spiritual condition:

Daily: Everything we need to know to strengthen our consciences and make good decisions is in the Bible. It is in Scripture that we discover God's guiding voice. Take time daily to pray, read Scripture, and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal its message for you.

Weekly: Attend Mass each Sunday and Holy Day.

Do whatever is necessary so you can receive Communion. This is key.

Monthly: When we hold ourselves accountable, our actions become more pleasing to God. Seek forgiveness each month in the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession).

Annually: In our noisy world, it can be hard to hear God's voice. Find a Catholic retreat center near you and get away with God. Or, spend a whole day in a favorite park or vacation spot praying and listening. Center your day around God.

from Scripture

Matthew 20:1-16a, Better late than never

In this Gospel reading, Jesus compared God's kingdom to a vineyard in the charge of a generous landlord. In the parable, the landlord hired groups of workers at different times of the day: at the start of the workday, at midmorning, noon, midafternoon, and finally, at five o'clock in the evening. Yet he paid all the same wage.

The vineyard is God's kingdom and God is the landlord. Some Bible scholars propose that the earlier groups of workers represented the Jewish people, who had followed God's laws for thousands of years, while the Gentiles were the latecomers. The workers also stood for those whom God calls at different stages of life: from infancy, adolescence, adulthood, and old age.

All the laborers received the same reward. It must have shocked Jesus' listeners to hear that the landlord paid those who worked one hour as if they'd worked for eight. Still, all were rewarded. Clearly, God's ways are not our ways. What is important is not how many hours we've served God, but that we served him when he called us.

Q & A If God is everywhere, why do we have to attend Mass?

While God is everywhere, he is present in the Eucharist in a special way. When, in the context of the Mass, the priest speaks the words of consecration over the bread and wine on the altar, they are mysteriously transformed into the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ. Although the characteristics of the bread and wine remain, they are substantially different (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1376). In that moment, Jesus is as present as he was to his Apostles in the Upper Room.

The Eucharist does for our souls what food does for our bodies. You wouldn't go for weeks without eating and still expect to be strong and healthy. From the Eucharist, we receive all the graces we need for the rest of the week. Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). Our need for strength and rest are satisfied by Christ. The Church commands us to receive weekly what is, in fact, essential for our spiritual well-being.

Feasts & Celebrations

Sept. 4 – St. Rose of Viterbo (1252). Born to poor parents in Viterbo, Italy, Rose used her gift of preaching to teach the women and girls in her neighborhood about the faith. As a young woman, she spoke out in support of the pope against the Ghibellines, who supported the emperor, Frederick II. She wanted to join the Carmelites, but was refused. She died at the age of seventeen and was buried at that same convent.

Sept. 14 – Exaltation of the Holy Cross (300s). St. Helena (mother of Emperor Constantine), made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, retracing places in Jesus' life. She discovered three crosses, one of which was thought to be the Cross on which Jesus died. On the site, Constantine built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher.

Sept. 21 – St. Matthew the Evangelist (1st Century). Also known as Levi, he was a notorious tax collector. St. Matthew left everything when Jesus called him to spread the Gospel. He wrote the Gospel According to Matthew.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Recuerda, Señor, que tu misericordia es eterna.

Un hijo rebelde, que se niega en un primer momento, aunque luego recapacita y hace lo que su padre le pide. Otro hijo que dice "sí", "voy", "haré lo que me pides", pero que finalmente no hace lo que su padre le pide. Ante esta parábola inevitablemente surge la pregunta: ¿cómo le respondo yo a Dios? ¿Con cuál de los dos hijos me identifico yo? ¿Con el primero? ¿Con el segundo? ¿O acaso tengo de ambos?

Cuantas veces le hemos dicho "sí" al Señor y finalmente no hicimos lo que nos pedía. ¿Por qué esta incoherencia? En el fondo, queríamos hacer lo que Dios nos pedía, pero esperábamos que fuera "más fácil", que no implicase tanto esfuerzo, oposición por parte de amigos o familiares, renunciadas, sacrificios, y a veces opciones radicales. ¡Quisiéramos un cristianismo "light"! Y cuando nos encontramos con tantos obstáculos (externos o internos), dificultades, tentaciones, nos descubrimos tan débiles, frágiles, inconsistentes, incoherentes. Entonces nuestro "sí" inicial se convirtió lentamente en un "no", nos dejamos vencer por miedos, perezas, caídas, y nos echamos atrás.

Así nos convertimos en "medio-queredores", hombres y mujeres de voluntad dividida, que decimos que queremos hacer lo que Dios nos pide pero no ponemos los medios suficientes para hacerlo o no perseveramos en ellos.

El Señor nos da siempre la posibilidad de recapacitar y de actuar como hijos obedientes. Nos alienta y estimula en este empeño de decirle "sí" a Dios y de ser coherentes en la vida cotidiana el ejemplo de María, Madre de Jesús y nuestra: Ella es la mujer del "sí" pronto, firme, radical, decidido a Dios y a sus Planes, Ella es la Mujer coherente, que inmediatamente pone por obra lo que Dios le pide y sostiene su "sí" con firmeza en medio de las pruebas más duras y difíciles. Con amor maternal Ella nos invita a hacer «lo que Él os diga» (Jn 2,5).

¿Pero cómo saber qué es lo que me pide Dios, de modo que pueda hacer lo que Él me diga?

Lo primero es conocer y cumplir los Diez Mandamientos, tal como Cristo le recuerda al joven rico (ver Mt 19,16-19; ver Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 2052-2557; Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 434-533).

Lo segundo es hacer lo que Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo, nos enseña con su palabra y ejemplo (ver Mt 7,21 y siguientes). Para ello es fundamental que cada día conozcamos más y mejor al Señor Jesús, su persona, sus enseñanzas, su pensamiento, para esforzarnos en vivir como Él vivió.

Pero además de lo que nos pide a todos, Dios tiene un plan particular para cada uno de nosotros. Éste es un designio que brota de su amor, de su sabiduría y del profundo conocimiento que Dios tiene de mí. Él sabe qué camino debo seguir para ser feliz y de diversos modos me va señalando ese camino a lo largo de mi vida. Es responsabilidad de cada uno descubrir ese Plan, poniéndome a la escucha, buscando, indagando, rezando, preguntándole a Dios: ¿Cuál es tu Plan específico para mí? ¿Cuál es mi vocación, cuál la misión particular que tú quieres que realice? ¿Qué quieres que haga hoy, en este tiempo, o a lo largo de toda mi vida?

Es necesario que en oración te pongas ante el Señor y le preguntes a Él sin miedo. Reza cada día, ponte a la escucha en el silencio del corazón, indaga los signos, consulta a personas de Dios, y ¡lánzate confiadamente a hacer lo que Él te diga!

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
