The Rectory hours for Thanksgiving week

Wednesday, Nov. 22nd. Office closes at 4pm
 Thursday, Nov. 23rd –Thanksgiving-Closed
 Friday, Nov. 24th –Front Office only will be opened from 9am to 3pm

We would like to wish all our parishioners a very Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving.

Congratulations and God's blessings to our now Director of Faith Formation (formerly Director of Religious Education) Mrs. Colleen Tuzzolo.

Colleen was just honored for achieving her new title at a luncheon for all directors by Bishop Barres and Sr. Mary Alice Piil CSJ. In the past, Colleen was considered a Coordinator of Religious Education which limited her role. Now, she has all the rights attributed to a Director. Colleen needs one more class to complete from St. Joseph's to get her MA degree in Theology.

We are filled with joy!

33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Matthew 25: 14-30

The following is the Thanksgiving Proclamation as given by President Abraham Lincoln on October 20, 1864. Please take some time with your family to read and reflect over his words. They are as meaningful today as they were back in the 19th Century.

Please for the sake of keeping the bond of family and relationships together, do your best to not go to the stores on Thanksgiving Day. Black Friday begins at 12 midnight and not before. We have only ourselves to blame in keeping our consumer stores open on a special day where we should be with the ones we love. If you know of someone who is alone, invite them into your home. From all of us here at St. Ignatius Loyola, priests, sisters and staff, have a blessed and joyous Thanksgiving. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. May we strive to do all things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

A Thanksgiving Proclamation by Abraham Lincoln

President Lincoln emphasized a national day of thanks

It is the duty of the nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the over ruling power of God; to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon; and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is the LORD.

We know that by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subject to punishments and chastisements in this world. May we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war which now desolates the land may be a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins; to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people? We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven. We have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown.

But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us. It has seemed to me fit and proper that God should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice by the whole American people.

I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens. And I recommend to them that, while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners, or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to heal the wounds of the nation, and to restore it, as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility, and union. Done at the city of Washington, this 20th day of October, A.D. 1864, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

Christmas Giving Tree

The Christmas Giving Tree will be up and decorated with Angel Cards on the weekend after Thanksgiving and will remain there through Sunday, December 17th. This year, due to space and time limitations, we will be asking for gift cards from Sears, or Target department stores. Please forward gift cards to Human Services by Monday, December 18th, for distribution to our households. Please remember our neediest families during this Christmas season..

Pantry Needs

Sincere thanks to all who have been donating to our parish Food Pantry over the past weeks. Your generosity is truly appreciated. Last month we provided food to 849 people! We have a continuous need for canned vegetables, pasta sauce and pasta, canned tuna and black beans. Cereal is also in high demand. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services during our regular hours on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Some Notes of Gratitude

We would like to thank the Knights of Columbus Joseph Barry Lodge #2520 for their heroic efforts in delivering Thanksgiving turkeys (with all the fixings for a complete Thanksgiving meal!) to our neediest households!

SOCIETY OF
ST. VINCENT
de PAUL

We received a letter from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul regarding the tragic death of Deacon Patrick Logsdon of Anthony House.

They state that Deacon Pat was a faithful servant who brought tremendous love, care and compassion to his ministry. He made an indelible mark, not only on the many men who found the support they needed to turn their life around, but also on so many who have volunteered and contributed to this mission.

Perhaps the greatest legacy that Deacon Pat gave to Anthony House was his commitment to his ministry as he served at the house for 33 years. We recall the Beatitudes as a fitting tribute when we reflect on his passion for the men he served and the many he invited into this ministry.

They will always remember him.

MEMORANDUM

Some questions have arisen regarding how to celebrate Masses on the weekend of December 30, 31, and January 1 (Feast of the Holy Family & Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God). From the General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, when several celebrations fall on the same day, the one with the highest rank is celebrated (no.60). This would seem to suggest that the evening Masses of December 31 would be celebrated as vigil Masses for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God; a solemnity would rank higher than a feast, with the liturgical “day” beginning with the vigil Mass(es). However, because the Solemnity is not a holy day of obligation this year, this means that afternoon/evening Masses on December 31 are for the Feast of the Holy Family, the Sunday celebration. Therefore, the Masses for Mary, Mother of God are only offered on January 1, 2018.

Congratulations

Como secretaria de Nassau County Hispanic American Advisory Board, yo, Virginia Da Silva, quiero agradecer a Padre Jim, Padre Andrés, todos los feligreses de San Ignacio de Loyola, Beth Dalton de Dalton Funeraria, Mike de Minuteman Press y Dollar Tree por colaborar tan generosamente para ayudar a las victimas de Puerto Rico. También quiero agradecer a Tony y Bobby y Hector Rodriguez por su ayuda en remover las donaciones. Que Dios los bendiga a

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Dichosa el que teme al Señor!

Dios, junto con el don de la vida, ha dado a cada cual ciertos talentos. Entendemos por talentos dones, cualidades, capacidades que podemos desarrollar a lo largo de nuestra vida. Son como semillas que debemos hacer germinar y fructificar con inteligencia, con un trabajo paciente y esforzado, en cooperación con la gracia divina y según el Plan que Dios nos vaya mostrando. Inmediatamente se nos viene esta pregunta a la mente: ¿cuáles y cuántos son mis talentos? Para ello es necesario conocerse bien uno mismo, iluminado por la luz de Cristo.

Ahora bien, muchas personas descubren sus talentos desde pequeños y aprenden a desarrollarlos. Pero, ¿los usan para el bien, y los usan para el bien común? ¿O se valen de ellos para alimentar su vanidad y su soberbia, para obtener poder, riquezas y placeres que no miran a dar gloria a Dios sino tan sólo a sí mismos? La parábola de los talentos nos recuerda en primer lugar que los talentos nos vienen de Dios y que nosotros sólo podemos entendernos como administradores de los mismos. Por tanto no debemos buscar “apropiarnos” de ellos para buscar exclusivamente nuestro propio beneficio o para hinchar nuestro orgullo y vanidad, sino que hemos de buscar desarrollarlos según el Plan de Dios para el beneficio en primer lugar de aquellos que nos rodean y también de toda la sociedad. Los talentos que cada uno posee tienen, sin duda, una dimensión social fundamental. Por otro lado hay muchos que se menosprecian de tal modo que terminan creyendo que nada tienen de valioso. Viven comparándose con personas exitosas, envidiando tal o cual talento, convencidos de que ellos mismos no tienen ningún talento o la capacidad para desarrollarlos. Son los que terminan enterrando sus talentos.

En realidad, nadie puede decir: “yo no tengo ningún talento”. ¿Es que acaso Dios no nos ha dado a todos la capacidad de amar? ¿Es que no te ha dado el talento del amor? Sí, «el amor de Dios ha sido derramado en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo que nos ha sido dado» (Rom 5,5). ¡Ese es ya un “talento” inmenso, un don precioso!

Quizá has enterrado ese talento, esa capacidad de amar, porque “alguien” te hizo daño, porque alguien se aprovechó de ti o te defraudó, porque tu corazón se endureció, porque ya no eres digno o digna de ser amado, amada, o porque no sabes amar. Sin embargo, ése es un talento que todos podemos recuperar si acaso lo hemos “perdido”, o si nos hemos equivocado, porque el amor es tu vocación más profunda, porque estás hecho, hecha para amar, porque Cristo te ha reconciliado y ha derramado su Espíritu de amor en tu corazón, porque Él ha venido a enseñarnos cómo vivir el amor verdadero. Nadie tiene excusa para enterrar ese talento optando por vivir en la amargura, cerrándose al perdón, negándose a amar al prójimo. Quien cree que no tiene ese “talento”, es porque ha hecho la opción —y se mantiene tercamente aferrada a ella— de no amar, de enterrar ese talento.

Y en no otra cosa consistirá el juicio: el día que seas llamado a la presencia del Señor, se te preguntará qué hiciste con ese talento. ¿Acogiste el amor de Dios en tu corazón? ¿Te esforzaste en amar cada día como Cristo mismo nos amó? ¿Multiplicaste ese talento viviendo la caridad con tu prójimo, en lo pequeño, en lo escondido, en lo cotidiano y rutinario? ¿O lo enterraste, sintiendo el odio, el resentimiento, el egoísmo, el individualismo, la indiferencia, negando el perdón, cerrando el corazón a las necesidades del prójimo?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
