GAUDETE SUNDAY- HERE COMES JOHN THE BAPTIST AGAIN

During this Third Week of Advent, we can rejoice, because today is Gaudete or Rejoice Sunday. The name Gaudete is taken from the entrance antiphon of Mass : Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed the Lord is near (Phil 4:4-5)

Since we are close to Christmas, we can rejoice because the Lord is near.

Just when we thought we may have heard the last of him, John the Baptist is just getting started. While you may think that John may crash a party because of his sharp tone and strange clothing, he is a voice to have around because John helps to point us to live in the right direction toward Christ Jesus.

In the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) John is portrayed as a precursor or forerunner of Jesus. In the Gospel of John, he is never identified as the Baptist, but as one whose function is to give testimony to Jesus by his life.

We see in the Gospel of John, that John the Baptist's whole purpose was to testify to the Light. This Light is the Messiah, Jesus Christ. It is a Light that he himself did not create nor is he the Light. This demonstrates that John continues to show us a humility that we too are to emulate. John's own disciples claim that he is the Messiah. The Pharisees and leaders are questioning him as to why he is baptizing if he is not the Messiah.

John calmly never answers their question, but says that his whole life is to testify to the Messiah to come. His primary role in life is to give witness to Jesus. Now, that has been complete as Jesus is prepared to come onto the scene.

John is like a GPS, that you and I are challenged to follow, who leads us past many false voices toward the one true voice who will sustain our lives forever, Jesus Christ.

How about us? How are we a witness of Jesus Christ today? During Advent, we must consider whether our words and actions speak of love, mercy and forgiveness. Would anyone find their way to Jesus because of the words we use and the actions we perform today?

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR 8 NEW ALTAR SERVERS

Last Sunday, we installed eight new Altar Servers. I want to thank them and their parents for saying yes to this beautiful ministry . Thank you also to Mrs. Joan Gonzales, Deacon Mario Gomez, and our veteran servers Stephen and Brigid Gareau for your help and your support in training our new servers. May God bless you all!

PLEASE REMEMBER SUNDAY 4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS DAY

This year Christmas Eve falls on Sunday December 24th. Please keep in mind that participating in Mass for Christmas at 4pm and after DOES NOT SATISFY our requirement for the Holy Day of Obligation for the 4th Sunday of Advent. The 4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve/Day are 2 DISTINCT LITURGIES. In other words, you cannot hit two birds with one stone. Sorry!

While it may be difficult, I ask that we all try to do our best to attend Mass for the 4th Sunday of Advent (5pm or 7pm (Spanish) Saturday, 7:30am, 9:30am or 11:00am Sunday) and for Christmas at any of the following Masses (Christmas Eve 5pm-Church and School-7pm(Spanish) 12 Midnight, 7:30am, 9:30am, 11:00am, 12:30pm or 2:30pm (Spanish)). Look at all the graces we will receive by participating in Mass twice.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

ADVENT IS HERE! Offering us a unique opportunity to grow closer to the Lord and His holy Mother, making this the best Christmas ever. We invite you to visit the kiosk at the back of the church and select a CD to listen to during each week of Advent to deepen your faith and help you prepare for the birth of the Savior. Check out the new titles! The items in the kiosk also make great gifts for loved ones. We appreciate your payment to keep this program going; your cooperation will keep new titles coming in. We just received the new CDs this week

“Continuing our Mission”

We have as of December 5, 2017 reached $1,571,802 in pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

Spiritual Adoption Program
Month Three - Developing Baby

"I can suck my thumb now!"

The baby can now squint, swallow and move his tongue. He sleeps and awakens. Fingernails and toenails form and he now has his own unique set of fingerprints. Sensitive to touch, he will tightly grasp an object placed in the palm of his hand. He breathes amniotic fluid to help develop and strengthen the respiratory system, but he gets the oxygen he needs through the umbilical cord. At the beginning of this month, just nine weeks after conception, he can suck his thumb.

Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer the life of my spiritually adopted pre-born child.

I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.

Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them that at this difficult time. May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child's life.

AMEN

Programa de Adopción Espiritual
Tercero Mes - Desarrollo del Bebé

"¡Hoy me pude agarrar la manita!"

Ya puedo entrecerrar los ojos, tragar y mover la lengua. Me duermo y me despierto. Se me forman las uñas de los dedos de mis manos y de mis pies. Ya tengo mis huellas digitales que son únicamente mías. También tengo sentido del tacto y agarraré con mano firme cualquier objeto que se me ponga en la palma de la mano. Respiro el líquido amniótico para ayudar a desarrollar y fortalecer el sistema respiratorio, pero el oxígeno que necesito lo obtengo a través del cordón umbilical.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente antes de nacer.

Te pido que protejas y acompañes este niño (a) de todo daño.

María y José, les pido

Intercedan por los padres de este Bebé, para que Dios derrame su amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y los guie en este momento difícil.

Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé. AMEN

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. John of the Cross

Raised by his mother after his father's death, St.

John studied with the Jesuits in Spain.

He entered the Carmelite Order in 1563. St. John led a much-needed reform of the Order, encouraging more prayer and simplicity. His reforms were not always popular. He was jailed in a tower for almost a year, yet some of his most beautiful spiritual writing came from this experience.

He was a close friend of St. Teresa of Ávila.

"I am with you always."

Sometimes God can seem distant and silent. Yet, he promised to stay with us always (Matthew 28:20). The same God who came to Bethlehem 2,000 years ago still comes to us now to live in our churches and our hearts. Today, be mindful of God's loving presence. Ask him to help you grow closer to him.

"Draw near to God and he will draw near to you" (James 4:8).

A holy Advent leads to a joyful Christmas

During Advent, we wait for the gift of pure love. Taking time each day this season to create moments of watchful silence and thoughtful preparation will lead to real joy at Christmas.

Watchful silence.

"For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him" (Psalm 62:5).

God does not shout. He speaks quietly and softly, in a "still small voice" (1 Kings 19:11-12). It isn't always heard in the rush of daily life but in the silence of our hearts. During Advent, slow down, quiet down and listen for the still small voice of God.

Prepare. "Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving" (Colossians 4:2). We fall into sin because our hearts are not continuously turned to God. When we confidently turn to him each day, he will give us the protection and strength we need to withstand the darkness of sin. God does not expect us to be perfect but he does want us to be a little better today than the day before. Regular Confession is indispensable.

Celebrate. We were created to have a mutual, loving relationship with God. In fact, he loves us so much that he sent his Son to show us, tell us, and die for us. Celebrate our love story on Christmas with Mass and joy.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics bow during the Nicene Creed?

When we proclaim our belief that God's Son was "born of the Virgin Mary and became man," we bow out of reverence for the mystery that made our salvation possible (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #461). These words recall the moment when Mary became the mother of Jesus, who would, "save his people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21).

This is an amazing truth – out of love of us, God became man, died for our sins, and rose from the dead.

Share the Christmas gift of love

At Christmas time, we are asked to reach into ourselves and bring out only what is kind, generous, and loving. To help, remember that Jesus came to us out of love and wants us to find ways to share his love with others. "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you" (John 15:12). Ultimately, Christmas is about love.

Comfort those who suffer. This time of year highlights financial struggles and hardships. Offer the gift of love by calling your parish office or Catholic Charities (800-919-9338) to learn how you can help others in need.

Offer the gift of yourself. The holidays can be sad for those who are alone. Spending time with someone else – especially when you don't have much to spare – is one of the most precious ways to show you care.

Forgive. There is no better time to offer forgiveness to someone who has wronged you or to ask it of someone you may have hurt. Forgiveness is a powerful form of love in action.

from Scripture

Luke 2:22-40, Look for the Lord

To the uninformed observer, Jesus' birth was unremarkable and his family was quite ordinary. When it came time to present Jesus in the temple, his parents couldn't afford the customary offering of a lamb and gave two pigeons as the offering of the poor instead. As faithful Jews, they did what was required by their faith to thank God for the gift of their child.

Yet, when Joseph and Mary presented their new baby in the temple, Simeon immediately recognized him as the Messiah. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, he prophesied that Jesus was to be "a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel" (Luke 2:32).

Simeon was not alone in recognizing the Lord in the temple. Anna was also filled with the Holy Spirit. Her faith in God's promises gave her hope.

The hope God places in our hearts gives us a desire for the kingdom of Heaven. The Holy Spirit reveals the presence of the Lord to those who want to know him, to receive him, and to be happy with him forever.

Feasts & Celebrations

Dec. 8 – Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1854). On this day, we commemorate that Mary was conceived in St. Anne's womb without original sin. In addition to attending Mass, praying a joyful Rosary is a wonderful way to celebrate.

Dec. 12 – Our Lady of Guadalupe (1531). The Blessed Mother appeared as a Native American maiden to St. Juan Diego, also Native American. She asked that the bishop of Mexico build a chapel for her, and had him carry roses to the bishop as a sign. When the roses were emptied from his tilma (cape), it retained the image of the Blessed Mother.

Dec. 16 – St. Adelaide (999). A Burgundian princess, St. Adelaide had to escape from a murderous plot for the throne. She was rescued by the Holy Roman Emperor, King Otto of Germany. She married him and upon his death ruled for their young son, Otto II. As queen of Germany she was known for charitable works, including founding and restoring monasteries.

Q & A How can I reduce stress this Christmas?

Christmas celebrates the amazing fact that God's Son became one of us to win us eternal life. It's not always easy to focus on the Good News while shopping, wrapping, baking, rushing, and entertaining. Try these tips for a more joyful Christmas holiday:

Set limits. Stick to your spending limits when buying gifts to avoid sticker shock after the holidays. Be choosy about which invitations to accept so that you aren't exhausted when Christmas arrives.

Focus on prayer. Whether it's praying a decade of the Rosary, reading Scripture, or spending time before the Blessed Sacrament in church, daily prayer is a necessity not a luxury.

Prepare your heart. Make an examination of conscience and go to Confession. Experience God's mercy as the priest absolves your sins.

Make it last. For Catholics, Christmas isn't just one day – the season lasts until January. Celebrate The Holy Family (December 31st), The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God (January 1st), The Epiphany (January 7th), and The Baptism of the Lord (January 8th).

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Me alegro con mi Dios.

“Enderecen el camino del Señor”

El Adviento no solamente nos invita sino que también nos conduce a vernos interiormente y reconocer cuales son los pasos que estamos siguiendo para descubrir a Jesús en cada ser humano redimido por el. Es sumamente natural querer encontrar respuestas y querer establecer una relación íntima y profunda con Dios porque el ser humano desea siempre alcanzar la mano de su hacedor, de manera que pueda seguir su obra.

Si centramos todos nuestros esfuerzos en buscar respuestas y cuestionar las bondades de Dios, estaremos siempre en la posición de los judíos que nos presenta el evangelio de este día. Cuestionan una admiración que ellos no querían aceptar porque las apariencias muchas veces son muy contrarias a la verdad. ¿Quién eres tú? Es la pregunta que hacen los judíos a Juan esperando quizás respuestas torcidas ante las amenazas y el peligro de las autoridades. Sin embargo. Juan no niega su identidad sino que más bien reafirma su misión profética repitiendo las palabras de Isaías “Yo soy la voz que grita en el desierto: Enderecen el camino del Señor”. Un grito en el desierto de las conciencias injustas, de los promotores de la maldad en todas sus expresiones, un grito en la tierra que clama por justicia, un grito que busca ser escuchado pues aunque somos polvo, también allí Dios nos acompaña para darnos vida donde aparentemente no existe.

La luz de la cual Juan es testigo, es la luz que el adviento viene a regalarnos para iluminar nuestras tinieblas y dispersar todos nuestros temores. De esta manera podremos gritar también nosotros “Enderecen el camino del Señor”, y contagiar a nuestros hermanos con el gozo y la paz que surgen del encuentro con el Salvador del mundo.

Esta navidad, volvamos al amor del recién nacido, a Jesús, que desde un pesebre nos evangeliza con su sencillez y ternura. Seamos vivos reflejos del amor que hemos recibido, un amor gratuito que desea seguir dándose a los demás a través de nosotros y que nos hace capaces de reconocer la grandeza que hay en lo pequeño, la fortaleza que encierra la humildad y la paz que surge de la obediencia.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
