Lent is a call not just to “give up something” but more important to “give something for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

CDs for Lenten Season

The new order of CDs for this Lenten season from the Lighthouse have finally arrived. We have reordered a popular title and added some new ones. The new titles are: Love Conquers All, The True meaning of Easter, Love Sacrifice and Trust, Down to Earth, La Humanidad y Divinidad de Cristo, and Enciende la Llama. We also ordered the Seven Last Sayings of Christ, which we had before and seemed to be enjoyed. The CDs will be in the kiosk in the Broadway entrance of the Church and in Room B in The Old School. Please stop and check them out, place your donation in the slot and enjoy! The donations are necessary to enable us to order the next set of CDs. For any questions, we can be reached through the Rectory.

THE TRANSFIGURATION COMING DOWN THE MOUNTAIN

During the Second Sunday of Lent, we always read and hear about the Transfiguration of Jesus before his three central disciples, Peter, James and John. Jesus brought them up the mountain to give them a taste of his Resurrection. When he became dazzling white, standing along side the prophets Moses and Elijah, he wanted to show them his true identity as the Christ who was the fulfillment of all they had known, especially in the law (Moses) and the prophets (Elijah). He also was transfigured to help and strengthen them for the suffering to come at the Cross. The disciples got a taste of God's power and glory.

However, they eventually came down the mountain to face the challenges and the suffering of life to come. If they never came down the mountain, then they would not have been able to be witnesses of God's powerful grace and love. Before they came down the mountain, the Father spoke before Jesus and said "This is my beloved Son, listen to him."

Each of us have been witnesses of the power of God in Jesus on that mountain. We have experienced God's glory at Mass, in the Eucharist, the sacraments, through God's word, in prayer, through our experiences and through other people.

Each of us however, must also come down the mountain into the rubble and challenges of our lives. Otherwise, our God given moments will only be kept to ourselves and we will not grow nor will others come to know the presence of God. May Lent remind us to come down the mountain to share Jesus' presence in our lives with those we meet. May it also remind us that while in the valleys of life, we need to remind ourselves of the mountain so that we remember and live all that Jesus has given and spoken to us. Then we will be like Abraham, we will live like the stars in the sky forever!

THANK YOU LORRAINE MIERZEJEWSKI, TERRY LOCKE AND OLGA JORDAN FOR THE CHRISTMAS RAFFLE. It was a HUGE success totaling $12,880, and the prizes were $3,050 leaving a profit of $9,830 to our parish.

Because influenza is a contagious respiratory illness, some basic measures that can help to prevent the spread of influenza include: Practicing good hygiene, especially by washing your hands frequently with soap and water, and if possible, to use a hand sanitizer! Avoid touching your mouth, eyes and nose! Covering your mouth when you sneeze or cough with your arm and not your hand! Get a flu vaccine each year.

Parishioners are reminded that: If they are sick, especially with flu-like symptoms, they should stay home for their own well-being and that of others. If parishioners are sick or suspect they are sick with a contagious illness, they are not bound by the Sunday Mass obligation. Parishioners are urged, but not required, to receive Holy Communion on the hand instead of the mouth. Exchanging the Sign of Peace without physical contact (i.e. shaking hands)— parishioners may still exchange nods, offer a verbal greeting, a smile, or a simple bow of the head.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

There have been changes at Dalton Funeral Home as explained in the letter below.

December 11, 2017

Hello!

Just a quick note to give you a personal update on the latest changes at the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home. My cousin, Tim Dalton, and I have been the third generation of our 94 year old business for over three decades. Earlier this year, Tim decided it was time to retire and go off on some new adventures, (he is a professional underwater photographer too). In order to allow that to happen, we went searching for a new partner and have successfully found one that requires us to carry on as we have always done.

The Carriage Services group is a small collection of elite funeral homes that focuses on continuing the traditions of the funeral home while supporting their efforts behind the scenes (payroll, HR, insurance etc.). I have been asked to continue to manage the daily operation of the Dalton Funeral Home for at least 5 years, with an option for 5 more. Being with all of you as we continue to provide services to families in their most difficult times gives me tremendous satisfaction. I am enthusiastically looking forward to this new partnership and celebrate Carriage's encouragement to continue with our community involvement which is one of our core values.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me personally, anytime. Thank you for all you do throughout the year. You really are one of the unsung heroes in my opinion. Enjoy the blessings of this holiday season and the New Year.

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Beth".

Spiritual Adoption Program
Month Five – Developing Baby

“Mommy felt me kick today!”

This month marks the half-way point to birth, and the baby is very active. Sleep habits develop and his mother can feel him move and stretch, particularly when she is resting. He is big and strong enough to kick hard against the uterine wall and dent it. Up to now, although he swam with ease in his watery world, he was too small for her to detect because the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. Babies born at this age have survived. _

Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer
the life of my spiritually adopted
pre-born child.

I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.

Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them that at this difficult time.

May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child's life.

AMEN.

Programa de Adopción Espiritual
Mes Cinco – Desarrollo del Bebé

“¡Mi mamá sintió mis pataditas hoy!”

Este es el punto medio del embarazo y estoy muy activo. Estoy desarrollando mi capacidad de dormir y mi mamá puede sentir cuando me muevo o me estiro, especialmente cuando ella está descansando. Soy lo suficientemente grande y fuerte para dar fuertes pataditas a la pared externa del útero y dejar mi huella. Hasta ahora, a pesar de que he nadado fácilmente en mi mundo acuático, soy demasiado pequeño para que mi mamá me sienta, ya que la pared interna del útero es insensible. Los bebés que nacen en esta edad han sobrevivido.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración
la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente antes de nacer.

Te pido que protejas y acompañes este niño (a) de todo daño.

María y José, les pido

Intercedan por los padres de este Bebé, para que Dios derrame su
amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y
los guíe en este momento difícil.

Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos
y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé.

AMEN

“Continuing our Mission”

We have as of February 15, 2018 reached $1,572,744 in pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Pedro, Santiago y Juan experimentan algo fascinante, maravilloso: ven al Señor transfigurarse ante sus ojos, lo ven en todo su esplendor, perciben la intensa luz que irradia todo su ser, su Gloria, y aunque esta intensísima y tremenda experiencia los asusta, más es el gozo extraordinario que inunda el corazón de los apóstoles: «Señor, ¡qué bien se está aquí! ¡Hagamos tres tiendas!», es como decir: «¡Quedémonos aquí para siempre! ¡No queremos que este gozo intenso pase nunca!»

A veces sucede algo parecido en nuestro propio peregrinar de fe: Dios nos concede en un momento oportuno una experiencia espiritual intensa que quisiéramos que se prolongue para siempre, que nunca se acabe. Sin embargo, experiencias como esas no duran para siempre, y acaso duran sólo un instante. Y así, luego de “ver brillar la gloria del Señor”, como los Apóstoles debemos “bajar del monte”, volver a la vida cotidiana, a la lucha a veces tediosa, a la rutina absorbente de cada día, a soportar fatigas, tentaciones, dificultades, pruebas, adversidades, etc.

¿Y dónde quedaron aquellas experiencias intensas que el Señor les regaló? ¿Fueron acaso tan sólo una ilusión y fantasía de momento, una autosugestión, es decir, una mentira? Así suelen autojustificarse y engañarse aquellos que abandonando la lucha y apartando sus ojos de la eternidad deciden “vivir del momento”. Quieren sustituir con fugaces “experiencias extremas”, repetidas una y otra vez hasta el cansancio y la saciedad, la profunda y duradera felicidad que sólo el Señor les puede dar. A quienes de este modo huyen de su interior y del Señor ciertamente no les queda más que lanzarse frenéticamente a buscar saciar su hambre y sed de infinito con borracheras de todo tipo, con sensaciones fuertes, intensas, a través del placer sensual, del poder, del tener, o a través de la adicción al trabajo, a la acción superficial e ininterrumpida. Así, en el día a día, son como pobres mendigos que buscan saciarse con migajas, o peor aún, con alimento para cerdos, queriendo acallar el grito incontenible de sus corazones que clama por un Pan Vivo que sacie su hambre de felicidad, de paz, de auténtica comunión en el amor.

¡Qué importante es valorar y atesorar aquellas experiencias que Dios nos regala en algún momento de la vida, experiencias a veces muy intensas, otras muy suaves y sencillas, para no sucumbir ante las pruebas y cruces que encontraremos en el camino, para no dejarnos seducir por los espejismos que en momentos de desierto espiritual nos invitan a abandonar el camino del Señor, el camino que por la cruz conduce a la gloria, sugiriéndonos “volver a Egipto”, es decir, optar por una vida más fácil, más cómoda y placentera, más “light”, más ajustada a nuestra mediocridad!

Así, pues, en los momentos de prueba, en los momentos en que el cielo se nos nubla, cuando la oscuridad parezca cubrirlo todo y la espesa tiniebla del dolor inunde tu mente y corazón, haz memoria de los momentos de luz, momentos en que el Señor se ha mostrado en tu vida con suma claridad. Estas experiencias son como el sol: no podemos dudar de su existencia aunque por momentos las nubes densas lo oculten, y así no lo veamos en días, semanas, meses, sabemos que está siempre allí, que está detrás de las nubes o tormentas que se interponen de momento. Cuando te toquen esos momentos duros y difíciles, no desesperes: abrázate a la Cruz del Señor, reza intensamente y espera con paciencia el nuevo nacimiento del Sol, el triunfo del Señor en tu vida.
