Family Mass

Join us for our Family Mass on Sunday, March 18thth at 9:30 AM in the church

All are welcome to join us after the Mass in the Old School basement for coffee, tea, juice, bagels and assorted baked goodies as for our monthly Family Mass hospitality.

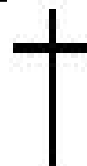

The Patriotic Rosary will take place on Saturday, March 17th at 8am in the Church. All parishioners are invited to attend. Let us sing patriotic songs and continue to pray that the world will unite together in peace and bring an end to this violence that is happening all around the world.

On ALL Fridays of Lent, all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older should ABSTAIN entirely from meat to unite ourselves with the Lord who suffered on the cross and with those who continue to suffer today.

THE CROSS - A SIGN OF SALVATION & JOY

When watching a football game, we often see a fan with the sign John 3:16. The sign points to the Gospel of John Chapter 3 Verse 16. This very chapter and verse are the words we hear in today's Gospel of John; "for God so love the world that he gave us his only Son, not to condemn the world but to give it eternal life". (John 3:16) These words were uttered by Jesus to Nicodemus in a deep conversation they had at night. John states that it was at night because Nicodemus was what we call a cryptic Christian, meaning a hidden or secret Christian. He came at night because he did not want to be discovered by his fellow Pharisees talking to Jesus.

Jesus tells Nicodemus that salvation has now come to the world in his very person. Jesus is the very embodiment of the love and mercy of God we heard about in the Book of Chronicles which gave hope to a people who turned their back on God and are in exile. He is the source of saving life for all who trust and believe in him. That saving life comes to us through our baptism where like Jesus, we are born from above, meaning from heaven. Through Baptism, we share in the eternal life of God in which God breaths his life into us, which is the Holy Spirit.

Every time we look at a crucifix (body of Jesus) or a cross (no body on the cross) we are reminded of the extent of love that God has for us so we are saved from our sins and can live forever in heaven. Because of the cross, paradise is always in our grasp! That is why we can live for JOY. When was the last time you really focused on the crucifix in your home? Do you have a crucifix in your home?

During this 4th Sunday of Lent, the Church can focus on the hope and joy in the midst of our fastings and penances. Today is called Latare or rejoice Sunday! It is taken from the introduction antiphon that begins the Mass: "Rejoice, Jerusalem and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast". (Isaiah 66:10-11). The priest may wear a rose colored vestment just like he did on Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent as a sign of joy. Flowers are usually adorned at the altar as another sign of joy. Latare Sunday is a time where we are about halfway through Lent and are given a glimpse of joy that awaits us at Easter. It is God's way of giving us a shot in the arm before we experience the horrors of Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It also reminds us that no matter what time of season it is, we will always have the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and our hearts will always be filled with joy.

CONTINUING OUR MISSION: UPDATE ON OUR CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

We are almost at our goal in the amount of money received! As of February 27, 2018 we have received $1,043,052.51 dollars in paid pledges. Our goal is $1,570,000.00. We have only $526,948.00 to go! Thank you to all of you who are fulfilling your pledges. Your sacrifice shows your love for Jesus and for your parish! For those who have not given yet, I humbly ask you to prayerfully consider doing so. Remember this campaign is all about equal sacrifice, not equal giving. Please also remember your Sunday obligation to our weekly collection. That has dropped off by 10 to 15% since this past year! Thank you for your generosity!

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Play- but Don't Pray:

Students Fight Back Against Atheist Group:

Beloit, Ohio - A community prayer before basketball and football games, let by a local pastor, has been a tradition at West Branch S.D. for the past 30 years.

The atheist Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF) sent a letter of complaint to the school district in January. This anti-God group routinely attacks and threatens small towns and average Americans for exercising their First Amendment freedoms.

West Branch Superintendent Saxton decided to stop the prayer while exploring a compromise. In the meantime, over 100 students and adults arrived at a recent game wearing "Prayer Matters" tee-shirts.

I believe we are allowed to express ourselves and it's our freedom guaranteed by the Constitution. I want the praying to continue. West Branch student - 14

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

All that we have and all that we are comes from the Lord. "We are truly His handiwork," says St. Paul in the second reading, "created in Christ Jesus to lead the life of good deeds which God prepared for us in advance."

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who remain steadfast to their Lenten promises through increased prayer, sacrifice and almsgiving.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

«Como Moisés levantó la serpiente en el desierto, así tiene que ser levantado el Hijo del hombre», le dice el Señor Jesús a Nicodemo. El episodio al que hace referencia es aquel en que los israelitas en su marcha por el desierto fueron mordidos por serpientes venenosas a causa de su rebeldía frente a Dios (ver Núm 21, 4-9). El pueblo vio en ello un castigo divino. Una visión antropomorfizadora hace que muchas veces veamos como “castigo divino” lo que en realidad no es sino consecuencia del mismo pecado del ser humano. En cambio, Dios no quiere el castigo ni la muerte del malvado, sino que cambie de conducta y viva (ver Ez 18, 23), Él «quiere que todos los hombres se salven y lleguen al conocimiento pleno de la verdad» (1Tim 2, 3-4).

En aquella ocasión Moisés intercedió a favor de su pueblo y suplicó a Dios que liberase a los israelitas del fruto de su rebeldía. Dios respondió: «Hazte una serpiente [de bronce] y ponla sobre un mástil. Todo el que haya sido mordido y la mire, vivirá». El Señor Jesús da a entender que aquello no era sino una figura de lo que en Él se habría de realizar plenamente. Como aquella serpiente de bronce, también Él sería elevado en un madero. Quien lo mira es liberado del efecto mortífero del veneno del pecado: no morirá para siempre, sino que tendrá una nueva vida y tendrá la vida eterna.

Pero, ¿de qué mirada se trata? No ciertamente de una mirada superficial y retenida por la incredulidad o las dudas, sino de la mirada profunda y penetrante de la fe, aquella mirada que nos permite reconocer en el Crucificado al Reconciliador y Salvador del mundo, al Hijo de Dios mismo.

Sólo esa mirada de fe nos abre al mismo tiempo a la comprensión del amor inaudito que Dios nos tiene: «tanto amó Dios al mundo que dio a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en Él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna» (Jn 3, 15). ¿Es posible comprender o intuir el amor que Dios nos tiene y su magnitud? ¡Cuánto debe amarnos Dios, para habernos llamado a la vida, para invitarnos a participar de su misma comunión de amor divina! ¡Cuánto debe amarnos Dios que a pesar de nuestras rebeldías, rechazos e infidelidades, no nos trata como merecen nuestras culpas (ver Sal 103[102], 10) sino que en cambio nos ha entregado a su propio Hijo para nuestra reconciliación y salvación! En verdad, «por el grande amor con que nos amó, estando muertos a causa de nuestros delitos, nos vivificó juntamente con Cristo y con Él nos resucitó» (Ef 2, 4-6). Dios nos invita hoy a mirar con fe a Aquel que por nosotros ha sido clavado y elevado en el Altar de la Reconciliación. Al mirar al Señor crucificado con la mirada penetrante de la fe, encontramos en Él el perdón de los pecados, la reconciliación, la curación de nuestras heridas más profundas, la liberación del odio, el aliento para ponernos de pie si caemos, la fuerza interior para seguir avanzando en medio de las dificultades cotidianas así como para perseverar firmes en medio de las pruebas más duras. Al mirarlo con fe se nutre nuestra esperanza de participar con Él algún día en su misma victoria, de alcanzar la vida eterna por la participación en su misma resurrección. Al mirarlo con fe nos experimentamos inundados de su amor, despertando en nosotros el deseo y propósito de amar como Él a Dios, a Santa María su Madre y a todos los seres humanos.

Dirijamos esa mirada de fe cada día al Señor elevado y glorificado en la Cruz, glorificado y elevado a la derecha del Padre por su gloriosa resurrección, y que nuestra mirada jamás se aparte de Él. Y que esa mirada nos lleve a la obediencia de la fe, a siempre y en todo a hacer lo que Él nos diga (ver Jn 2, 5).

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
