Theme: Jesus is the Good Shepherd.

Breaking Open the Word: Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel Jn 10:11-18
*Jesus said: I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd.
 This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."*

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this lovely reading about Jesus as shepherd, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Jesus tells us he is the Good Shepherd, but how do you experience God guiding and protecting you?

Question for Youth: How do you feel about Jesus' being your shepherd? What does it mean to you that he lays down his life for you?

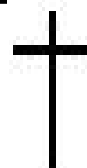

Question for Adults: What qualities of God does the image of the Good Shepherd suggest? How do you experience God in this way?

Happy Easter Season Everyone! From Easter Sunday, April 1st to Pentecost, May 20th we are celebrating the Easter Season! Since the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ is the most momentous event of our Christian faith, the Church gives us 50 days to reflect, pray, witness and have a party! We have this Easter Season to remind us of how significant the Lord's resurrection is to our very faith and lives as Christians.

The readings reflect the significance of the resurrection in the life of the Church. In the Gospel of Luke this Sunday, the two disciples who have just encountered the risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus, have returned to the upper room only to find the rest of the disciples still locked in the upper room for fear that those who killed Jesus will also come for them. Jesus, however appears once again to assure his friends that he is truly risen and is victorious over death. He even proves his risen presence by eating and drinking with them at the table and allowing them to touch him. He then gives them a detailed recounting of how the prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) have been fulfilled by his passion, death and now the resurrection. Jesus is definitely not a ghost nor a risen corpse. He has a glorified body, one that we too will have one day after we die on this earth.

Jesus calls his disciples witnesses of these things, in which they are called to go out and challenge others to repent, be baptized and share in Christ's victory. We too are witnesses of the resurrection. We are to share the Good News, which will challenge others to live the life of Jesus and bring them to eternal life.

One person, who is a true witness of the risen Jesus, was Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Back on April 4th, the Nation commemorated the 50th Anniversary of his assassination in Memphis, Tennessee. Dr. King was in Memphis to give support to the striking sanitation workers who were marching for fair treatment in the work place and a decent wage. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voter Rights Act of 1965 were signs of hope that racial justice would stem the tide of racism that existed before and after the Civil War.

One hundred years since that conflict which tore the country apart over the issue of slavery, the evil of racism still festered in our country. Martin Luther King knew that and was determined to engage in peaceful protest even at the risk of his own life. That is what brought him to Memphis on that fateful day.

Bishop Barres recently wrote a pastoral letter marking this event. Bishop Barres states, We do not simply mark the anniversary of the death of Dr. King for its historical significance. His example compels us to act in our own time and place. We must examine our consciences as individuals, as a church, and as a society asking for healing of our past sins against the sacredness of human life and our failures to recognize the dignity of others who are made in the image and likeness of God.

The dream of racial equality that Dr. Martin Luther King embraced has yet to be fulfilled. It remains the task of this generation and future generations inspired by his vision and self-sacrifice. To respect others, no matter the race, color or creed, by our words and actions, makes us witnesses of the resurrection to future generations to come.

EASTER JOY - THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR CARDS AND GIFTS

Thanks to all of you who have sent Easter cards and given Easter foods, candies and gifts either to the priests and/or to me. May your generosity be blessed a thousand fold by our Lord! May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Focus on Religious Freedom
From Catholics for Freedom of Religion
<http://www.cffor.org>

Freedom of Worship's Assault on "Freedom of Religion":

"Freedom of worship" means religious beliefs should remain in a home or house of worship and that faith is a private affair that is relegated to personal activities or weekend worship services. "Freedom of religion" means religious believers can say and do as their conscience dictates in the public square. It includes freedom of worship but is also the right to evangelize, change their religion, have schools and charitable institutions, and conduct their jobs and businesses according to their conscience and religious beliefs.

Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; ... First Amendment to the Bill of Rights.

“Continuing our Mission”

We have as of April 3, 2018 reached $1,574,454 in pledges and $1,083,273 in paid pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

Dear Friends:

Thank you for your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal. The Catholic Ministries Appeal offers us a unique opportunity to be the Hands of Christ's Mercy and His instrument of Dramatic Missionary Growth on Long Island and beyond, as it supports so many good works we accomplish together as Church.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal supports works of evangelization and ministries that provide spiritual, educational and charitable assistance to hundreds of thousands of men, women and children across our Diocese. So much of the vital work of our Church would not be possible if not for your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Our Holy Father Pope Francis said: "...Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of His love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy." The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a critical part of that calling, making it possible for Christ's mercy to reach throughout our entire Diocese.

We see it in the smiles and laughter from our seniors at our community centers who, maybe for the first time in a long time, are socializing and sharing a hot meal with others. We see it the faces of those who, because of Catholic Charities, have long term sobriety and are reunited with their families. We see it in the joy of a seminarian as he completes his studies, and is ordained to the priesthood, and we see it in the excitement of a college student, away from home for the first time, finding faith-filled friends through a Catholic Campus Ministry program.

Through your prayerful consideration and reflection, I invite you to once again take part in the work of our Church by making a sacrificial gift to the 2018 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Together we can continue to be agents of Jesus' mercy.

Thank you for your love for the mission of the Church. I will be keeping you and your family daily in my Masses and prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Las manos de la Misericordia de Cristo.

Estimados amigos,

Agradezco que en años anteriores hayan colaborado con la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos. Esta campaña nos ofrece la oportunidad única de convertirnos en las Manos de Misericordia de Cristo y así ser sus instrumentos de Dramático Crecimiento Misionero, dentro y fuera del área de Long Island. Mediante la campaña, todos juntos, unidos como iglesia, podemos lograr hacer tantas obras buenas.

La Campaña de Ministerios Católicos sostiene la labor de evangelización y los ministerios que brindan asistencia espiritual, educativa y caritativa a cientos de miles de hombres, mujeres y niños en toda nuestra Diócesis. Sería imposible que nuestra iglesia hiciera gran parte de esta vital labor si no contáramos con su ayuda a la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos.

En palabras de nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco: "...Dejémonos renovar por la misericordia de Dios, dejémonos amar por Jesús, dejemos que la fuerza de su amor transforme también nuestras vidas; y hagámonos instrumentos de esta misericordia. La Campaña de los Ministerios Católicos responde a ese llamado, llevando la misericordia de Cristo a toda nuestra Diócesis.

Vemos la misericordia en las sonrisas de los ancianos que acuden a nuestros centros comunitarios, donde quizá después de mucho tiempo pueden socializar y comer un plato de comida caliente junto a otras personas. La vemos en los rostros de quienes gracias a Caridades Católicas, han podido conseguir mantenerse sobrios y reunirse con sus familias. La vemos en la alegría del seminarista al culminar sus estudios y ordenarse sacerdote; vemos la misericordia en la emoción del estudiante universitario, que estando fuera de casa por primera vez, encuentra que su Campus Universitario tiene programas en donde puede compartir su fe con otros jóvenes.

En oración y meditación, los invito a que una vez más participen en la labor de la iglesia haciendo un donativo a la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos. Juntos podemos continuar siendo instrumentos de la misericordia de Jesús.

Agradezco su amor por la misión de la iglesia. Sepan que los tendré presentes, tanto a usted como a su familia, en mis oraciones y en la celebración de la Santa Misa.

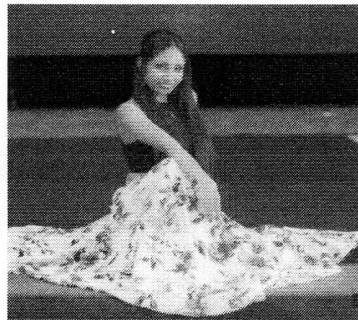

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Muy Reverendo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre

mí, muéstrame tu
rostro en aquellos
con los que
camino; entibia mi frío corazón.
¿Alguna vez se
han encontrado
con alguien

dirigían a vuestro destino? Pudo ser en cualquier lugar: en un tren, un bus, una carretera, un paseo dominical, una fila en un hospital, la entrada del dentista; y se produjo una conversación entre ustedes. Los pacientes de la sala de espera de un doctor, suelen contar todo tipo de detalles sobre ellos y sus hijos. Sucedió lo mismo a estos discípulos en esta caminata dominical: en una penosa circunstancia de sus vidas, se encuentran con un desconocido que les da sentido a algunos aspectos de sus problemas. Jesús les dió sentido a sus angustias, a través de su Presencia y su Palabra. Una buena conversación puede mejorar un mal día. Una buena oración también.

Cada Eucaristía es Emaús; cada momento en que escuchamos las Escrituras, es el camino a Emaús. Siempre vamos por ese camino, mientras Jesús nos habla y parte el pan de su amor. La Palabra da sentido a nuestras vidas, así como escuchar de Jesús las Escrituras fué para los discípulos; el partir el Pan de Vida, nos alimenta en la misma forma como Jesús hizo en la Última Cena con sus discípulos. Con la Palabra y el Pan, ellos fueron a las comunidades y al mundo, con sus relatos de cómo habían reconocido al Señor. La lectura diaria de los Evangelios, y el pan nuestro de cada día, pueden hacer lo mismo para nosotros.

Las huellas de nuestros pasos a lo largo de los caminos de nuestras vidas, son siempre acompañadas por los pasos de Jesús. Los corazones ardieron y las lágrimas desaparecieron cuando el Señor Resucitado entró en las vidas de sus seguidores. La oración nos entrega el tiempo para que su Palabra entre a lo profundo de nuestros corazones, consumiendo nuestros egoísmos y temores, dejándonos sólo con la llama del amor.

Los decepcionados discípulos le preguntan al caminante que los acompañan, si él es el único que no sabe "lo que ha pasado allí estos días". De hecho, Él es el único que lo sabe verdaderamente. Pero, como un buen consejero, les deja exponer sus sentimientos y relatar sus historias. En oración, me invita a hacer lo mismo.

Los discípulos estaban muy "atascados", incapaces de ver lo que había sucedido bajo la luz de la Palabra de Dios. Jesús está presente en su Palabra, acompañándome en las experiencias de mi vida, dando sentido

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
