SOME CHANGES IN OUR MASS PROCEDURES

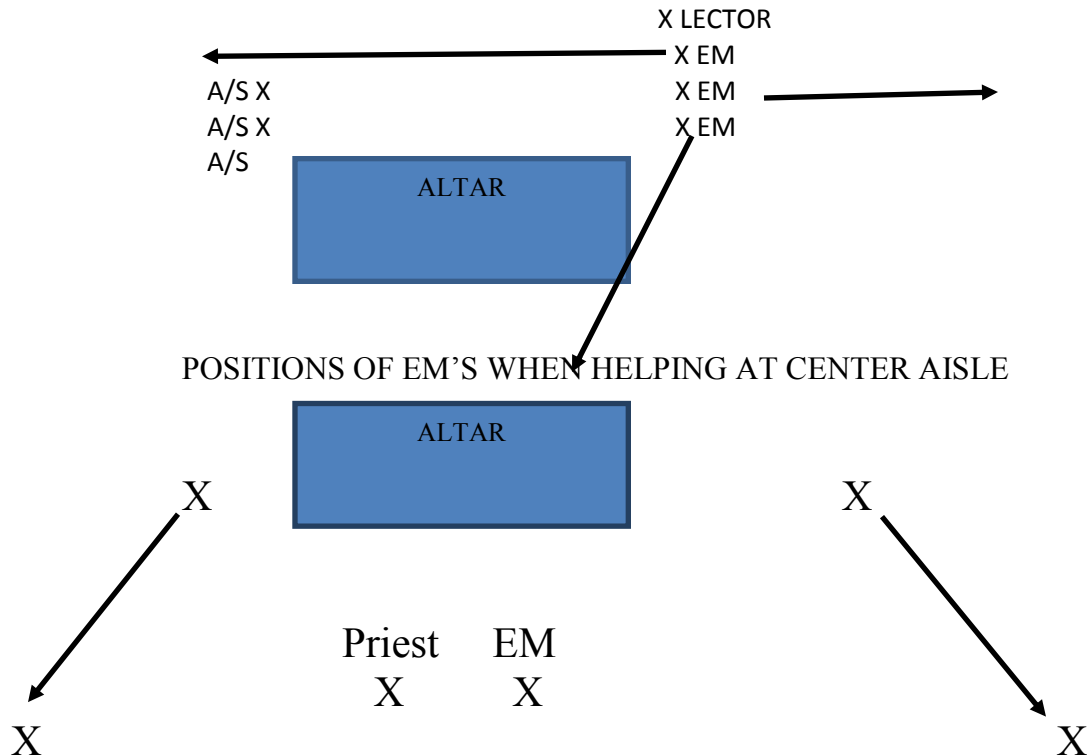

Recently, I conducted a meeting with all of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and our Ushers as to some changes in the procedures at Mass. For best understanding, I will refer to the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion as EMs. One of the most important liturgical documents that the Church should follow is known as the General Instruction on the Roman Missal (GIRM). We are now in the Third Edition. Paragraphs 16, 17 & 18 of the General Instruction state that celebration of the Mass is the height of the Christian life. Therefore, everything that we do as Christians should flow to and from the Mass (16). The ministries and the faithful should draw the most fruits as possible from the Mass that Christ instituted when he gave us himself in his body and blood (17). In order to draw the most fruits (effects) from the Mass, paragraph 18 states that great care should be taken in the liturgy as expressed through signs, symbols and actions to encourage full and active participation to meet the spiritual needs of the faithful.

In following the directive in taking care of the liturgy, I decided, after some consultation, that some minor changes would take place at Mass so as to have a better flow to the liturgy here at St. Ignatius Loyola. These changes took effect on Saturday/Sunday April 28th/29th, 2018. The first change is the position of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at the altar when preparing to receive Holy Communion. Instead of standing behind the presiding priest at the Lamb of God, they are now standing at the side. While the EMHC have a special role in distributing Holy Communion, we do not want to give the impression that they are con-celebrating the Mass in any way. The second change is that the EMs are no longer going to stand in the handicapped section when they arrive as extra help in the distribution of Holy Communion in main aisle area. They will now be standing on the other side of the rail of the EMHCs who are in the center, so as to ensure a better flow of traffic up the main aisle and then back onto the side aisles.

The third change concerns when Holy Communion is brought back to the tabernacle. Sometimes, some of us like to stand whether near the tabernacle lingering or from a far, until the tabernacle door is closed and then we genuflect. While that is a nice gesture, it is not part of the practice of the Church at this point in the Mass. The only person or persons who are to genuflect to the tabernacle are those priests/deacons who are directly in front of the tabernacle placing the hosts inside. When we linger or genuflect with the priest/deacon from our seats, we are adding on a ritual within a ritual and drawing attention to ourselves whether we realize it or not. Nowhere in the celebration of the liturgy should any ministers or faithful at the Mass be "standing around" with no purpose or function. The EM's are to bring the hosts to the altar, bow slightly and then depart to the seat. Everyone else should be either sitting or kneeling, if they wish. It is not healthy to show pious showmanship as to who loves Jesus more. Jesus knows what it is our hearts. None of us should be adding anything or taking away anything that is stated in the liturgy in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. It is not MY MASS, it is the CHURCH'S MASS.

ASCENSION THURSDAY- A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

This upcoming Thursday May 10th is Ascension Thursday, a time when we celebrate our Lord's going up to Heaven in completing his mission here on earth. This is a Holy Day of Obligation for all us Catholics here in the Northeast United States. Please make every opportunity to celebrate this special day by coming to Mass on Wednesday at 5pm or at Masses on Ascension Thursday May 10th at 7am, 9am, 12 Noon and 7:30pm.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT –From the Friday (May 11th) after Ascension Thursday to Saturday May 19th

The novena in honor of the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all novenas since it was first made at the direction of Our Lord Himself when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. Addressed to the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, it is a powerful plea for the light and strength and love so sorely needed by every Christian. We invite you to pray this at home or in church. Copies of the Novena will be found in our church. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God.
St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us! Fr. Jim, Pastor

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT (To be recited daily during the Novena)

On my knees I before the great multitude of heavenly witnesses I offer myself, soul and body to You, Eternal Spirit of God. I adore the brightness of Your purity, the unerring keenness of Your justice, and the might of Your love. You are the Strength and Light of my soul. In You I live and move and am. I desire never to grieve You by unfaithfulness to grace and I pray with all my heart to be kept from the smallest sin against You. Mercifully guard my every thought and grant that I may always watch for Your light, and listen to Your voice, and follow Your gracious inspirations. I cling to You and give myself to

You and ask You, by Your compassion to watch over me in my weakness. Holding the pierced Feet of Jesus and looking at His Five Wounds, and trusting in His Precious Blood and adoring His opened Side and stricken Heart, I implore You, Adorable Spirit, Helper of my infirmity, to keep me in Your grace that I may never sin against You. Give me grace O Holy Spirit, Spirit of the Father and the Son to say to You always and everywhere, "Speak Lord for Your servant heareth." Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

To be recited daily during the Novena

O Lord Jesus Christ Who, before ascending into heaven did promise to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me that He may perfect in my soul, the work of Your grace and Your love. Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal, the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten my mind with the light of Your divine truth, the Spirit on Counsel that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining heaven, the Spirit of Fortitude that I may bear my cross with You and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation, the Spirit of Knowledge that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints, the Spirit of Piety that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable, and the Spirit of Fear that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him. Mark me, dear Lord with the sign of Your true disciples, and animate me in all things with Your Spirit. Amen.

The Novena begins on the day after the Solemnity of the Ascension, Friday of the 6th Week of Easter.

FIRST DAY (Friday after Ascension)

Holy Spirit! Lord of Light! From Your clear celestial height, Your pure beaming radiance give!

The Holy Spirit

Only one thing is important -- eternal salvation. Only one thing, therefore, is to be feared--sin? Sin is the result of ignorance, weakness, and indifference The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Light, of Strength, and of Love. With His sevenfold gifts He enlightens the mind, strengthens the will, and inflames the heart with love of God. To ensure our salvation we ought to invoke the Divine Spirit daily, for "The Spirit helpeth our infirmity. We know not what we should pray for as we ought. But the Spirit Himself asketh for us."

Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, Who hast vouchsafed to regenerate us by water and the Holy Spirit, and hast given us forgiveness all sins, vouchsafe to send forth from heaven upon us your sevenfold Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and fortitude, the Spirit of Knowledge and Piety, and fill us with the Spirit of Holy Fear. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SECOND DAY (Saturday of 6th Week of Easter)

Come, Father of the poor. Come, treasures which endure; Come, Light of all that live!

The Gift of Fear-The gift of Fear fills us with a sovereign respect for God, and makes us dread nothing so much as to offend Him by sin. It is a fear that arises, not from the thought of hell, but from sentiments of reverence and filial submission to our heavenly Father. It is the fear that is the beginning of wisdom, detaching us from worldly pleasures that could in any way separate us from God. "They that fear the Lord will prepare their hearts, and in His sight will sanctify their souls."

Prayer-Come, O blessed Spirit of Holy Fear, penetrate my inmost heart, that I may set you, my Lord and God, before my face forever, help me to shun all things that can offend You, and make me worthy to appear before the pure eyes of Your Divine Majesty in heaven, where You live and reign in the unity of the ever Blessed Trinity, God world without end. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

THIRD DAY (7th Sunday of Easter)

Thou, of all consolers best, Visiting the troubled breast, Dost refreshing peace bestow.

The Gift of Piety

The gift of Piety begets in our hearts a filial affection for God as our most loving Father. It inspires us to love and respect for His sake persons and things consecrated to Him, as well as those who are vested with His authority, His Blessed Mother and the Saints, the Church and its visible Head, our parents and superiors, our country and its rulers. He who is filled with the gift of Piety finds the practice of his religion, not a burdensome duty, but a delightful service. Where there is love, there is no labor.

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Piety, possess my heart. Enkindle therein such a love for God, that I may find satisfaction only in His service, and for His sake lovingly submit to all legitimate authority. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

FOURTH DAY (Monday, 7th Week of Easter)

Thou in toil art comfort sweet, Pleasant coolness in the heat, solace in the midst of woe.

The Gift of Fortitude By the gift of Fortitude the soul is strengthened against natural fear, and supported to the end in the performance of duty. Fortitude imparts to the will an impulse and energy which move it to undertake without hesitancy the most arduous tasks, to face dangers, to trample under foot human respect, and to endure without complaint the slow martyrdom of even lifelong tribulation. "He that shall persevere unto the end, he shall be saved."

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Fortitude, uphold my soul in time of trouble and adversity, sustain my efforts after holiness, strengthen my weakness, give me courage against all the assaults of my enemies, that I may never be overcome and separated from Thee, my God and greatest Good. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

FIFTH DAY (Tuesday, 7th Week of Easter)

Light immortal! Light Divine! Visit Thou these hearts of Thine, And our inmost being fill!

The Gift of Knowledge

The gift of Knowledge enables the soul to evaluate created things at their true worth--in their relation to God. Knowledge unmasks the pretense of creatures, reveals their emptiness, and points out their only true purpose as instruments in the service of God. It shows us the loving care of God even in adversity, and directs us to glorify Him in every circumstance of life. Guided by its light, we put first things first, and prize the friendship of God beyond all else. "Knowledge is a fountain of life to him that possesseth it."

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Knowledge, and grant that I may perceive the will of the Father; show me the nothingness of earthly things, that I may realize their vanity and use them only for Thy glory and my own salvation, looking ever beyond them to Thee, and Thy eternal rewards. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SIXTH DAY (Wednesday, 7th Week of Easter)

If Thou take Thy grace away, nothing pure in man will stay, All his good is turn'd to ill.

The Gift of Understanding

Understanding, as a gift of the Holy Spirit, helps us to grasp the meaning of the truths of our holy religion BY faith we know them, but by Understanding we learn to appreciate and relish them. It enables us to penetrate the inner meaning of revealed truths and through them to be quickened to newness of life. Our faith ceases to be sterile and inactive, but inspires a mode of life that bears eloquent testimony to the faith that is in us; we begin to "walk worthy of God in all things pleasing, and increasing in the knowledge of God."

Prayer

Come, O Spirit of Understanding, and enlighten our minds, that we may know and believe all the mysteries of salvation; and may merit at last to see the eternal light in Thy Light; and in the light of glory to have a clear vision of Thee and the Father and the Son. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

SEVENTH DAY (Thursday, 7th Week of Easter)

Heal our wounds--our strength renews; On our dryness pour Thy dew, Wash the stains of guilt away.

The Gift of Counsel

The gift of Counsel endows the soul with supernatural prudence, enabling it to judge promptly and rightly what must be done, especially in difficult circumstances. Counsel applies the principles furnished by Knowledge and Understanding to the innumerable concrete cases that confront us in the course of our daily duty as parents, teachers, public servants, and Christian citizens. Counsel is supernatural common sense, a priceless treasure in the quest of salvation. "Above all these things, pray to the Most High, that He may direct thy way in truth."

Prayer: Come, O Spirit of Counsel, help and guide me in all my ways, that I may always do Thy holy will. Incline my heart to that which is good; turn it away from all that is evil, and direct me by the straight path of Thy commandments to that goal of eternal life for which I long.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

EIGHTH DAY (Friday, 7th Week of Easter)

Bend the stubborn heart and will, melt the frozen warm the chill. Guide the steps that go astray!

The Gift of Wisdom

Embodying all the other gifts, as charity embraces all the other virtues, Wisdom is the most perfect of the gifts. Of wisdom it is written "all good things came to me with her, and innumerable riches through her hands." It is the gift of Wisdom that strengthens our faith, fortifies hope, perfects charity, and promotes the practice of virtue in the highest degree. Wisdom enlightens the mind to discern and relish things divine, in the appreciation of which earthly joys lose their savor, whilst the Cross of Christ yields a divine sweetness according to the words of the Saviour: "Take up thy cross and follow me, for my yoke is sweet and my burden light."

Prayer: Come, O Spirit of Wisdom, and reveal to my soul the mysteries of heavenly things, their exceeding greatness, power and beauty. Teach me to love them above and beyond all the passing joys and satisfactions of earth. Help me to attain them and possess them for ever. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Act of Consecration, Prayer for the Seven Gifts

NINTH DAY (Saturday, Vigil of Pentecost)

Thou, on those who evermore Thee confess and Thee Adore, in Thy sevenfold gift, Descend; Give Them Comfort when they die; Give them Life with Thee on high; Give them joys which never end. Amen

The Fruits of the Holy Spirit

The gifts of the Holy Spirit perfect the supernatural virtues by enabling us to practice them with greater docility to divine inspiration. As we grow in the knowledge and love of God under the direction of the Holy Spirit, our service becomes more sincere and generous, the practice of virtue more perfect. Such acts of virtue leave the heart filled with joy and consolation and are known as Fruits of the Holy Spirit. These Fruits in turn render the practice of virtue more attractive and become a powerful incentive for still greater efforts in the service of God, to serve Whom is to reign.

Prayer: Come, O Divine Spirit, fill my heart with Thy heavenly fruits, Thy charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, faith, mildness, and temperance, that I may never weary in the service of God, but by continued faithful submission to Thy inspiration may merit to be united eternally with Thee in the love of the Father and the Son. Amen.

Our Father and Hail Mary ONCE. Glory be to the Father SEVEN TIMES.

Mary Our Mother –Week One

May 2018

*“He cannot have God
for his Father who has not the Church
for a mother”*

(Saint Cyprian of Carthage)

STEWARDSHIP IN MOTION

Motherhood The Ultimate Stewardship

May is traditionally connected with motherhood in both secular and religious realms in our society. Mothers Day is a major holiday for much of the retail and dining world and the greeting card and floral businesses get a significant bump each time the calendar closes in on that special Sunday. The Church's connection with motherhood, however, stretches back far beyond the establishment of the secular celebration of mothers – in fact, it dates to the foot of the cross.

“When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, ‘Woman, behold your son!’ Then he said to the disciple, ‘Behold your mother!’ And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.” (John 19:26-27). By entrusting his mother to his beloved disciple, Saint John, Christ selected her to be the mother of all of us who are also his beloved disciples. We are doubly given Mary as our mother when Saint Paul instructs us that we are members of Christ's Body. Mary, the mother of Christ, then becomes the mother of all who are a part of his body. She rightly then is conferred with the title of “Mother of the Church.” It is instructive for us, then, to explore more deeply the importance of this title and to consider what it means for us.

While mankind's fall in the Garden of Eden was precipitated by Eve's disobedience, it was Mary's complete obedience and cooperation with God that models for us the perfect discipleship that is the desire of every Christian. The Blessed Virgin Mary – “the New Eve” – served an instrumental role in giving Jesus his earthly life; she thus participates in a most profound way in Christ's gift of his grace and divine life to us, and made it possible to receive eternal life through his redemption.

More than simply a bystander or simply an actor in the history of salvation, Mary is much more. As Blessed John Cardinal Newman explains, “She had a meritorious share in bringing about our redemption.” Further, Newman says, “She suffered more keen and intimate anguish at Our Lord's Passion and Crucifixion... by reason of being His Mother. Not in body, but in soul, she suffered a fellow passion; she was crucified with Him, the spear that pierced His breast pierced through her spirit.”

In our quest to live lives of stewardship, we seek to use our gifts wisely and to share the blessings we have received with others. Mary is a perfect role model for us in this endeavor. Again examining Cardinal Newman's teaching, we find his assurance that Mary's intercession for us is characterized by a unique power, given her spiritual maternity. “While she defends the Church, neither height nor depth, neither men nor evil spirits... can avail harm to us, for human life is short, but Mary reigns above, a queen forever." She becomes our partner in prayer, and an efficacious advocate on our behalf. As the Catholic Catechism instructs us, "the prayer of the Church is sustained by the prayer of Mary and united with it in hope." (CCC 2679)

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your co-operation.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Hoy escuchamos otra vez el mandamiento que Jesús dejó a sus discípulos: que se amen los unos a los otros como El les había amado. Es el punto clave de su enseñanza- un mensaje profundo que ya estamos acostumbrados a leer. Por eso, no tiene el impacto que debe tener, porque está lleno de desafíos no solamente al nivel personal, sino al nivel de la comunidad y de la Iglesia.

Jesús empezó su relato hablando del amor que el Padre le tiene a Él. Pero los primeros discípulos sabían que este amor del Padre no salvó a Jesús de su pasión y muerte. Pudieron entender que el amor era más un compromiso que una protección del mal. El amor íntimo que existía entre Jesús y su Padre le ha llevado a Jesús a entregar todo, hasta su vida para quedar fiel a su Padre. Es un amor que es completamente libre de egoísmo. Es un amor que le llevó a dar su vida para el bien de todos.

Este amor es universal, libre de egoísmo, y compasivo. Cuando Jesús dijo, "Yo no les llamo siervos...a ustedes los llamo amigos, porque les ha dado a conocer todo lo que le he oído a mi Padre", el está diciendo que este amor no solamente destruye el abismo que existe entre esclavo y amo, pero que destruye el abismo que existe entre Dios y la persona humana.

El mandamiento es vivir esta clase de amor que se expresa en abrirse a recibir al extranjero, compartir con el necesitado en la mesa y soportar las cargas del otro.

Cornelio era un capitán del ejército, uno de los que habían crucificado a Jesús. Pedro tuvo dudas acerca de su deseo de seguirle a Cristo, recordando todo lo que había sufrido su amigo y maestro. Pero al ver que El Espíritu Santo se ha derramado sobre los paganos, el cambió de opinión y le ofreció las aguas del Bautismo.

Pedro tenía que aprender que el mensaje de Jesús extendía a gente con diferencias étnicas, religiosas y políticas. El mandamiento de amor nos impulsa a abrir el corazón a tales personas hoy en día. Tal vez estas personas no van a aceptar nuestra fe, pero debemos ofrecerles hospitalidad, apoyo, y ayuda cuando les encontramos. No era fácil en el tiempo de los primeros discípulos, y no es fácil hoy. Sin embargo, es el mensaje expresado en las lecturas sagradas de hoy.

En estos domingos después de la Pascua, la Iglesia nos ofrece mensajes de unidad, de servicio y de amor. La semana pasada hemos leído de la necesidad de producir frutos y hoy la necesidad de incluir en nuestro círculo de amigos a los que no nos parece, ni en idioma, en tradiciones, o en etnicidad. Como Jesús es la encarnación del amor del Padre, así, tenemos que ser la encarnación del amor de Jesús. En nuestra sociedad que está marcada por divisiones económicas, raciales y culturales, el mandamiento nos impulsa a vivir como modelos de amor que proclaman que la gracia de Dios es más grande que la presión de nuestra cultura.

Nuestra parroquia San Ignacio Loyola te esta llamando ...

Miles de laicos responden a su bautismo poniendo sus dones al servicio de su parroquia. Así, los párrocos, que a menudo se encuentran muy solos, llevan a cabo, junto con los laicos, la misión a la que está llamada el Pueblo de Dios: ser luz de las gentes, ser luz en la comunidad. Te gustaría ser parte de uno de nuestros 16 activos ministerios?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
