WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITIES: THE SMALL WHITE HOUSE

Last year on April 2, 2017, I announced that our small white house on the southwest side of our property was coming down. Fourteen months later, if you haven't yet noticed, I can report that the house was demolished back on May 8, 2018. The house was a piece of St. Ignatius Loyola History. The house was originally built for the sextant of the parish. The sextant was in charge of taking care of the parish grounds. The house was at least 100 year's old. It was used, to my knowledge, by at least 2 families. Coincidentally, I was on one of our parish trips a few years ago when I met the daughter Krystina of a Polish family who was welcomed by Msgr. Bittermann to stay in the house. Msgr. Bittermann employed her dad as the sextant of the parish in the 1960's. He gave the family a new lease on life after escaping the Communist Poland.

After Krystina's family, the house was lived in by the Blanc family. Mr. Blanc became the next sextant of the parish for many years. Some of you most likely knew him. Following the Blanc's, the house was used for a variety of purposes. There was an Ecumenical Counseling Center followed by an organization known as Hope for Stroke. Since then, the house grew into disrepair.

After much consultation and cost analysis, the Finance Council, our Business Consultant Dave and I decided that it was most effective to demolish the house than doing major renovations.

The building was not conducive for a regular house after Hope For Stroke or for offices due to its damages.

With every death however, we believe in new life and new beginnings. So, I am in the process of contemplating how best to use the new space. One idea is to extend the parking lot into that area where the white house stood. We have had problems with parking at some of the more crowded Masses where people park in unauthorized areas making it difficult for emergency personnel to travel through the parking lot. Some have even parked in the private lot of our Dominican Sisters or in front of the priest's garage, which is a "no...no".

In taking all of this into consideration, I am opened to suggestions. I am particularly interested in talking with anyone who is involved in landscaping and/or works for the Town of Oyster Bay and have knowledge of property. Please send me an email or give me a call. Thank You!

20TH ANNIVERSARY OF ORDAINED PRIESTHOOD

This Wednesday June 13th will be my 20th Anniversary as an ordained priest. All I can ask is where did the time go? I am grateful to Almighty God for granting me the opportunity to serve you his people, the Church, with his message of love, unity, mercy, healing and peace. Each day has been a new experience of meeting Jesus. Thank you for your support through these years. I am most grateful to my parents and my family for their continued prayer, love and support. I am glad my dad was with us physically for at least the first 18 years. You are invited to join me at the 9am Mass on Wednesday, June 13th. Afterwards, we will have a little outdoor hospitality, if it does not rain.

CORPUS CHRISTI - MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST 2018

Thank you to all who participated in this year's Corpus Christi Procession. Even though it was cloudy, our procession was a beautiful expression of the Body of Christ bringing forth the Body of Christ in the Eucharist into the world! Thank you to our Emaus Ministry (Spanish Speaking), the Eucharistic Ministers & Homebound Ministry (Spanish speaking) and to our Lectors (English Speaking) for preparing the beautiful altars. Thank you also to Suzanne for the captivating pictures! Thank you also to our liturgical ministers: music, altar servers, lectors and sacristan.

May we always strive to do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us.

Religious Persecution Worldwide - 2 Types:

In North America and Europe we see a "Polite Persecution" through intimidation and legislation.

In Asia and Africa we see more and more "Violent Persecution."

1. Polite Persecution: In Michigan, Fired for her Faith: A Catholic clinical social worker with 20 years experience providing individual psychological counseling to a diverse group of patients, was fired because she refused marriage counseling to a same-sex couple. Her supervisor said she had to be a "social worker first and a Catholic second."

2. Violent Persecution: Radicalized Hindus have increased violent attacks on the religious minorities of Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, and Buddhists. These range from arson of churches to priests beaten & killed, nuns raped, and the destruction of Christian schools, colleges, and cemeteries.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden because of their disobedience. But Jesus says in today's Gospel that when we are obedient to God's will—when we use our gifts to serve one another—we become part of His family. "Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to Me."

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who, through their stewardship of time and talent, find a deeper relationship with God as they go about sharing their gifts and serving others, especially through our parish ministries.

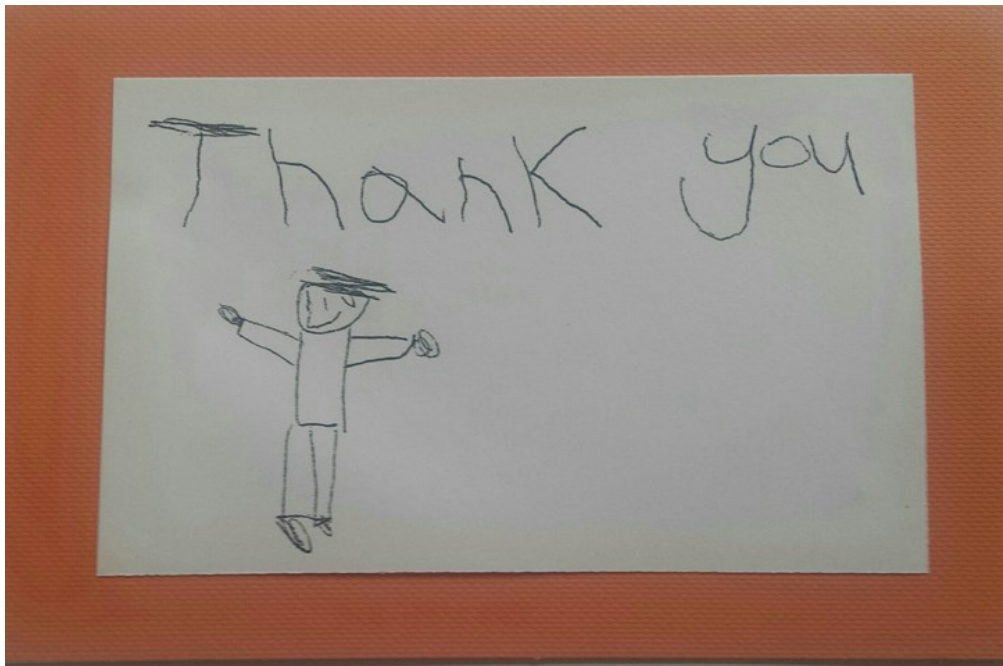

A Message From Dynamic Dylan and his Mom

On May 6, 2018, Holy Family CYO held its' 11th annual Car Wash vs Cancer fundraiser. This year the proceeds were donated to Dynamic Dylan and his mom, Teresa Ma. Dylan, now 6 years old, was diagnosed with stage 4 neuroblastoma in April 2016. However, he has responded well to the various forms of treatment and is currently enrolled in a clinical vaccine trial at Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital. Dylan and his mom attended the car wash and both were afforded celebrity status by the volunteers. Dylan was given gifts, posed for a number of pictures with the volunteers and enjoyed meeting several of Hicksville's bravest, while checking out their fire truck.

On behalf of Holy Family CYO I would like to thank Fr. Gerard, the many volunteers, the various Foundations that sponsored our fundraiser, those who attended the car wash and those who made generous donations. Through the kindness and generosity of so many, we were able to exceed our fundraising goal.

Dylan's mom has a message for all those who made this endeavor so successful. She wrote: "I can't begin to express how much you have helped us and what your gift means to us. The money is definitely helpful and will go to extremely good use. But more than the monetary value, I so greatly appreciate the thought behind the gift. Illness is a burden but you have really lightened the load. For that especially, I thank you."

And from Dylan:

Thank you for your support. Thank you for your kindness. Thank you for caring.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

June 2018

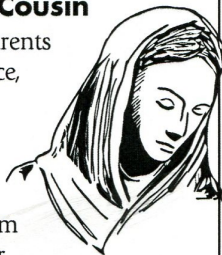

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Germaine Cousin

Born to poor parents near Pibrac, France, St. Germaine had a deformed right hand, suffered from sores on her neck and was sickly from neglect and abuse. Despite her sufferings, she found comfort in God's presence, and prayed the Rosary while she tended the family sheep. She was generous with the poor, despite her own poverty. She even forgave her stepmother, who badly mistreated her. She is the patroness of abuse victims, people with disabilities, and shepherdesses.

Mindfulness

When we make efforts to be fully aware and awake to everything we do and all that surrounds us, we become mindful of God's gifts and the grace available to us. "Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth" (Colossians 3:2). This takes practice, joyful effort, and discipline.

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the firmament proclaims the works of his hands.

Psalm 19:3

Spring cleaning for the soul

When a home is closed up during a long, stuffy winter, Spring is a time to open it up, air it out, and give it a brisk, thorough cleaning. The last few weeks of Spring offer us the opportunity for a brisk, thorough cleansing of our souls, too.

Let in the sunlight. Raise the shades and illuminate the dark and dusty places of your life to reveal whatever is keeping you from a close relationship with God. Is accumulating money or possessions your top priority? Are you trying harder to impress others than working to please God? Do bad habits (excessive food, alcohol, drugs) dominate your life? Make an honest spiritual assessment and get busy cleaning.

Clear out cluttered closets. Is there something stuck in the corners of your conscience that needs to be cleaned out and thrown away so you can put God first in your life?

Do you harbor unconfessed sin or an old grudge or unresolved disagreement? Seek forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (Confession), perform your penance, make amends, and let it go.

Freshen up. What spiritual change have you been meaning to make? Do you need to make weekly Mass more of a priority? Does your prayer life need refreshing? Have you wanted to learn more about your faith? Now is the time.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholic Bibles have more books than Protestant Bibles?

When Martin Luther translated the Bible into German, he chose to leave out the Old Testament books that weren't originally written in Hebrew: Tobit, Judith, Wisdom, Sirach, Baruch, 1 and 2 Maccabees, and parts of Esther and Daniel.

However, the Catholic Church, under the Holy Spirit's guidance, confirmed that the books Luther removed are divinely inspired and chose to keep them (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #120). The Council of Trent (1545-1563) affirmed the current composition of the Bible.

Take a new look at the Mass

"Mass is the same every week. I don't always get something out of going." Sound familiar? A ritual we know so well can seem predictable or even routine. Consider these gifts you get from attending Mass:

Open your mind to something new. Within the Mass are lots of intriguing, mysterious, or just plain interesting ideas. Listen during the Scripture readings, the homily, or the Eucharistic prayer for something that strikes you and talk with God about it. He'll help open your mind to something new.

Help others without leaving your seat. We all know people near and far we would like to help. Distances and barriers disappear at Mass. When Jesus becomes present in the Eucharist, the entire Body of Christ is present. So you can pray for anyone you would like to support and the entire Body prays with you.

Make a change. Find at least one idea within the Mass that makes sense and seems possible and put it into practice. One new idea can change your life.

from Scripture

Luke 1:57-66, 80, God means what he says.

Sometimes God has to take drastic action to get our attention. Before John the Baptist was born, Zechariah was visited by an angel and told that his prayers for a son would be answered in a miraculous way. He also said Zechariah's son would prepare Israel for the long hoped-for Savior.

One might think that the appearance of an angel should have been enough to convince Zechariah of the truth of the message, but he was still skeptical that what the angel said was possible. He wasn't listening with all his heart, so God shut Zechariah's mouth to make it easier for him to hear and see the truth.

When the baby was born, Zechariah demonstrated his obedience in deciding to name the child John, just as the angel had said, and his mouth was opened.

Zechariah's first words showered praise on God and told the people around him of God's faithfulness and awesome love. He reminded us that we can always trust God's love and care. Listen for God's voice and remember that all things are possible for God.

Q & A My prayer life is dull. How can I spice it up?

One of the struggles of many Catholics is "praying more." More than an item on our to-do lists, prayer is meant to be a conversation between us and the One who loves us. Here are some tips to "spice" it up:

When: Pick a time of the day to pray when you are alert and can do your best thinking. 15-20 minutes is recommended for best results. Pick a time and protect it.

What: With so many devotions to choose from, it can be hard to pray well in 20 minutes. Choose one devotion and set a number of days for it – two weeks, a month, two months. If the quality of your prayer didn't improve afterwards, pick a different devotion.

Why: Many times, we go to God looking for answers, which is good. However, prayer's purpose isn't about getting information from God, but developing a relationship with him. The best thing we can do is be present to the one who loves us and wants to be with us.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 1 – St. Justin Martyr (165). Justin was a Christian convert who searched for Truth. After his conversion, he held debates with pagans. When ordered by a judge to renounce his faith or die, St. Justin responded, "Nobody in his senses would give up truth for falsehood." He was martyred for his undying faith.

June 8 – Solemnity of the Sacred Heart (1765). At the end of the seventeenth century, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque began receiving visions of Jesus, who urged her to spread devotion to the Sacred Heart. The image of Jesus with his heart exposed in unquenchable flame – the Sacred Heart – is a reminder of his intense and eternal love for us.

June 29 – Saints Peter and Paul (1st Century). Peter was the apostle chosen by Jesus to lead the Church. The Gospels include some unflattering stories of Peter, showing that he was ordinary, made extraordinary by God's grace. An early persecutor of the Church, Paul became the Great Apostle, also transformed by grace.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Son los llamados "Delits", que significa los "intocables" los "impuros". En la cosmovisión hinduista, todas las personas nacen dentro de una casta que determina el rango de importancia de cada persona. Es un sistema piramidal, en donde los que están arriba de la pirámide gozan todos los beneficios, mientras que los que están debajo de la pirámide tienen muchas carencias. Pero aún más por debajo de todas las castas, se encuentran los "Delits", quienes no gozan de ninguna clase social, de hecho son considerados como infra-humanos, casi animales, basura humana. Ellos son "intocables" porque los consideran "impuros"; la gente no debe verlos, ni hablar con ellos, mucho menos tocarlos, pues podrían contagiarse con su impureza. Aún su sombra es impura. Los Delits no tienen derecho a tener propiedades y sólo pueden trabajar en lugares de inmundicia y miseria. El cristianismo en la India nunca ha podido erradicar totalmente este sistema de castas, ni ha podido ofrecer a los Delits lazos de hermandad e inclusión. En algunas iglesias y templos cristianos de la India, los Delits ocupan un lugar segregado del resto de la comunidad.

No cabe duda de que el principal efecto del pecado consiste en construir muros entre las personas, en separarnos no sólo de Dios, sino también los unos de los otros. Así lo expresa el mundo simbólico del Libro del Génesis que hoy escuchamos. Después de haber comido el fruto prohibido, Adán y Eva se avergüenzan de su propia desnudez, y esto delata que se sienten culpables por lo cometido; y así se crean divisiones, y culpan mutuamente, incluso culpan a Dios mismo. El pecado, entonces, consiste en creer que no somos parte de Dios y de la creación. Cuando perdemos el vínculo que nos hermana con todo el cosmos y con Dios, dejamos de vislumbrar nuestra participación con Dios y con todas las creaturas. Los unos se colocan por encima de los otros, se crean "castas" de grupos que excluyen a otros grupos humanos. Construimos getthos visibles e invisibles, lanzando de tras de esos muros a los "intocables", los "abyectos".

Los Delits en el mundo de hoy son los migrantes, los indocumentados, los sin-casa, los sin-nombre. A ellos se les grita, se les ofende, se les explota, se les viola y asesina. Son infrahumanos, la basura de la sociedad. El pecado construye estos muros, aplasta y abusa a los "otros".

Y sin embargo, Jesús toca a los intocables; eso lo descubrimos en muchísimos pasajes de los Evangelios, en donde Jesús rompe con estos muros, y se pone del lado de los más excluidos en la sociedad de su tiempo. Jesús anda con las prostitutas y los pecadores, con las mujeres y los leprosos, con los más "raros" y quienes son rechazados. No sólo Jesús toca a los intocables, también se deja tocar por ellos, recibiendo de ellos el flujo del amor divino. "Estos son mi madre, estas mis hermanas, esta es mi familia".

¿Quiénes son los Delits en tu barrio, en tu trabajo o escuela, en tu ciudad y en tus iglesias? ¿Cómo aprender a tocar a los intocables, como lo hizo Jesús, al grado de también aprender a ser tocados por ellos? ¿Cómo superar el miedo y el odio que tenemos hacia quienes son diferentes, ya sea por color de piel, género, sexualidad, estatus migratorio, nivel económico, religión? ¿Cómo tratarnos como hermanos y hermanas, como miembros de

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
