RE: Closing of Our Lady of Lourdes Elementary School, West Islip

FROM: Sean P. Dolan

We are deeply saddened at the closing of Our Lady of Lourdes Elementary School in West Islip. It is a great loss for the students and parents, as well as the teachers and administrators who have served the school so faithfully. Unfortunately, the unexpected and precipitous drop in enrollment from 206 students N-8 at the close of the 2018 academic year to a current enrollment of 47 students – makes the goal of providing a quality education to nurture and develop students academically, emotionally and spiritually, unsustainable.

Catholic education is critical to the life of the church and to the communities we serve. We are committed to our larger, long-term vision to advance Catholic education and Catholic life on Long Island, with financially strong schools that maintain the highest standards of academic excellence and nurture the spiritual growth of our students and school communities.

The Diocese of Rockville Centre Department of Education will be sending information about other area Catholic schools that students and parents may wish to consider. We will also provide appropriate assistance and support parents may need during this transition period.

The Diocese of Rockville Centre has also established a hotline (516-280-4124) and dedicated email address (education@drvc.org) for comments and questions during this time.

Food Pantry Needs

We extend a hearty "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the Human Services food pantry over the past few weekends. In the past, our pantry had been almost bare during the summer. This year, thanks to you, the pantry shelves have been full! Demand continues to remain high, however. We are still in need and always appreciate donations of cereal, canned kernel corn, black beans, spaghetti sauce and canned tuna. In addition, we could really use peanut butter. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Call us at 935-8846 for more details regarding donations.

Back-to-School Supplies Collection

Where is the summer going? Wasn't Memorial Day only last week? September will be here before we know it and the kids will be heading back to school. Many will need a variety of supplies, so we are asking if the following can be donated: loose leaf paper; colored pocket folders--especially red, blue, yellow and green; colored markers and highlighters (washable and permanent); dry-erase markers (thin ones); colored pencils; 3"x5" ruled index cards; 3"x3" yellow post-it notes; glue sticks; dual-hole pencil sharpeners (with receptacle); rulers--with American and Metric measurements; scissors (blunt and pointy tipped); backpacks: supply boxes (5" x 8" size); and fabric pencil cases with three holes--to put in binders. Thanks in advance for your participation!! We thank you, and the students will thank you! P.S. : We DON'T need notebooks: we have more than enough!

The Patriotic Rosary will take place on Saturday, August 18th at 8am in the Church. All parishioners are invited to attend. Let us sing patriotic songs and continue to pray that the world will unite together in peace and bring an end to this violence here and abroad.

Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

In light of the latest revelations about Cardinal Theodore McCarrick of Washington D.C. , I thought it spiritually beneficial and insightful to share the following letter with you written by Bishop Edward B. Scharfenberger, Bishop of Albany. Bishop Scharfenberger was a former priest of the Diocese of Brooklyn.. His letter states that these and other abuse revelations are signs of a profoundly spiritual crisis in our world. I pray this can be of healing for us all in this time of uncertainty.

Fr. Jim

Bishop Edward B. Scharfenberger sent the following letter to members of the clergy (vicars, priests, deacons, seminarians) on Friday afternoon July 29, 2018. It was also copied to Parish Life Directors and Department Heads at the diocesan Pastoral Center:

My dear brothers in Christ,

A psalm-prayer this morning from the Office of the Hours reads: “Lord Jesus, you were rejected by your people, betrayed by the kiss of a friend, and deserted by your disciples. Give us the confidence that you had in the Father, and our salvation will be assured.”

Like Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, many of our faithful are now feeling betrayed and abandoned by their spiritual fathers, especially the bishops. Perhaps you share this feeling, too. No doubt you have been and will be hearing from your people about how shaken and discouraged they are over public revelations of despicable behavior on the part of a very popular and charismatic Cardinal with priests and seminarians in his care. One holy and faithful Catholic gentleman – a medical professional and a dear friend – texted me just this morning about his family’s utter despondency over this and that the USCCB should disband itself: “[t]heir credibility is shot, probably for decades.”

More words are not going to repair, let alone restore, the damage that has been done. Lawyering, pledges and changes in the bureaucratic structures and policy – however well intentioned – cannot do it either. I do not see how we can avoid what is really at the root of this crisis: sin and a retreat from holiness, specifically the holiness of an integral, truly human sexuality.

In negative terms, and as clearly and directly as I can repeat our Church teaching, it is a grave sin to be “sexually active” outside of a real marriage covenant. A cardinal is not excused from what a layperson or another member of the clergy is not. A member of the clergy who pledges to live a celibate life must remain as chaste in his relationship with all whom he serves as spouses within a marriage. This is what our faith teaches and what we are held to in practice. There is no “third way.”

“Sexual activity” includes grooming and seduction – the kind of experience that one of our brothers tells of in a recent interview in America magazine that you may have seen. The psychological and spiritual destructiveness of such predatory behavior, really incestuous by a man who is held up as a spiritual father to a son in his care – even if not a minor – cannot be minimized or rationalized in any way. On that, it seems to me, we are experiencing an unusual unity amidst the many political and ecclesial tensions in our communities.

Abuse of authority – in this case, with strong sexual overtones – with vulnerable persons is hardly less reprehensible than the sexual abuse of minors, which the USCCB attempted to address in 2002. Unfortunately, at that time – something I never understood – the Charter did not go far enough so as to hold cardinals, archbishops and bishops equally, if not more, accountable than priests and deacons.

It is my belief that the vast majority of clergy – priests, deacons and bishops alike – live or, at least, are striving to live holy and admirable lifestyles. I am ashamed of those of my brothers, such as the Cardinal, who do not and have not. As your Bishop, you can be sure of my support for you and all the faithful during this very difficult time. As the Holy Spirit impels me, I will use every power my office holds on all levels at which I serve, local and national, to further this charge.

We should be grateful for all of those who have come forward to expose these patterns of sin in the lives of some – as well as the institutional sins of denial and suppression of those brave witnesses whose warnings went unheard or unheeded, so that some of the harm might have been prevented.

I hope and pray that others who may have suffered such traumatic experiences at the hands of their spiritual fathers will find the courage to say so. To you, if you are among them, and to them I offer my support and assistance in any way the resources I have can muster.

Let me be clear, however, in stating my firm conviction that this is, at heart, much more than a crisis of policies and procedures. We can – and I am confident that we will – strengthen the rules and regulations and sanctions against any trying to fly under the radar or to “get away with” such evil and destructive behaviors. But, at its heart, this is much more than a challenge of law enforcement; it is a profoundly spiritual crisis.

Blessed Pope Paul VI prophetically warned us in Humanae Vitae of the long-range consequences of the separation of sexuality and sexual behavior from the conjugal relationship. Contemporary culture in our part of the world now holds it normative that sex and sexual gratification between any consenting persons for any reason that their free wills allow is perfectly acceptable. This is not a sexuality befitting of human beings that responds to the need and true desire of every human person to be respected and loved fully and unconditionally.

All of us who are ordained to preach what the Church teaches must practice what we preach and teach. We also need to uphold what our faith proclaims about the gift and beauty of human sexuality, fully lived in its essential conjugal meaning. A culture of virtue and chastity – in short, personal holiness – rooted in a trusting and committed relationship with Jesus Christ is the path toward healing and wholeness, even as we seek to drive the evil behaviors among us from the womb of the Church.

I invoke upon you and all of those whom you lovingly serve, the Lord’s blessing, through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, to whom our Diocese is consecrated.

In the peace of Christ that surpasses all understanding,

Your brother and servant in Christ,

+Edward B. Scharfenberger, Bishop of Albany

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Recordemos que el prólogo de Juan inicia con un hermoso himno, en el que se pronuncia que "La Palabra se hizo carne y habitó entre nosotros". Con esto Juan se refiere a la encarnación de Dios al interior de la carne humana. Jesús no solo habita en un cuerpo humano, sino en la "carne", que es lo más profundo de nuestra humanidad, es lo más humano de la humanidad. Esto significa que Dios se humaniza profundamente. De esta manera, la encarnación de Dios muestra un gesto de plena solidaridad con la humanidad, sobre todo con lo más frágil y vulnerable del ser humano. Por eso, Dios no se muestra lejano e indiferente al mundo, pues a través de la encarnación y humanización de Dios, se hace radicalmente íntimo a nosotros, en particular se solidariza con los más indefensos y explotados en el mundo. Esto es un escándalo, una radicalización del amor divino que se humaniza para nosotros y entre nosotros.

Bajo esta misma lógica del Dios que se humaniza y que su humanización nos diviniza podemos entender las paradojas del texto del Evangelio que escuchamos hoy. Jesús es el pan de vida. Esto indica, en primer lugar, que Dios se solidariza con su pueblo, y que por lo tanto no los deja morir de hambre: aquí se hace referencia explícita al maná bajado del cielo durante los 40 años que el pueblo de Israel, después de escapar de la esclavitud en Egipto, ambula por el desierto en búsqueda de la tierra prometida. Jesús reconoce este amor solidario de Dios para con su pueblo Israel, enviándoles el maná, el pan, el sustento necesario para su sobrevivencia. En otros pasajes del Antiguo Testamento, también se observa a Dios que se preocupa por su pueblo, y que invita a los judíos a hacer lo mismo, procurando por aquellos que más pasan hambre (los niños, los ancianos, las viudas, los forasteros). Sin embargo, Jesús hace explícito que cuando él dice "yo soy el pan que baja del cielo", esto no sólo se refiere a Dios que alimenta a su pueblo. En segundo lugar, y más radicalmente, Jesús está diciendo que Dios se convierte en alimento para su pueblo. Ahora Dios es "pan", alimento, sustento para nuestras vidas. Así como Dios se humaniza en la encarnación, así ahora se convierte en alimento, para ser parte de nuestros propios cuerpos, de nuestras propias vidas. Y, una vez más, el Evangelista Juan no deja de lado las paradojas. Así que, en tercer lugar, aquí también encontramos una paradoja. Dios se convierte en alimento para formar parte de nuestros cuerpos y del corpus de toda la creación; pero esto con el fin de que nosotros nos convirtamos en el corpus Christi, en el cuerpo de Cristo, el cual participa, más radicalmente de Dios. He aquí el corazón de la teología de la Eucaristía: somos un solo cuerpo el cual forma parte de Dios. Aunque Dios es totalmente "Otro", sin embargo se da como alimento, forma parte de nosotros. Y esto con el fin de hacernos parte de Dios. Dios se hace presente como Eucaristía, con el fin de que nosotros nos convirtamos en personas Eucarísticas.

Existen muchos tipos de hambres. Está el hambre física y material, la carencia de alimento y sustento. Y como hemos visto, esto es bastante grave en el mundo actual. Pero también existe el hambre de afecto, de reconocimiento, de relaciones pacíficas. Hay quienes experimentan hambre por justicia, por la verdad y el amor, sobre todo viviendo en un mundo donde prevalece tanta injusticia, en donde se manipula a la gente, donde existe tanto odio.

Por eso hoy nos presentamos ante el altar y reconocemos nuestras propias hambres personales e interpersonales, pidiendo a Dios que siempre nos de su pan de vida eterna, el verdadero alimento que nos convierte en seres Eucarísticos, transformándonos en alimento para todos, sobre todo para quienes más sufren de hambre física, emocional y espiritual.
