ST. OSCAR ARNULFO ROMERO, PRAY FOR US

Today, Sunday, October 14th Pope Francis will canonize two influential and faithful priests into official Saints of the Church; Blessed Pope Paul VI and Blessed Oscar Arnulfo Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, El Salvador. I had the opportunity not only to visit the hospital of the Divine Providence where St. Oscar Romero was martyred, but also to celebrate Mass at the very altar where his blood was spilled. We will have a Mass of Thanksgiving in Spanish at 7pm Sunday, October 21, 2018 in honor of St. Oscar Romero. Join us please!

My visit was with the youth of my first assigned parish of St. Brigid, Westbury. Every year the Youth Minister from St. Brigid held a pilgrimage for youth and adults sponsored by the CFCA (Children's Foundation for Children and Aging). The purpose of the trip was to see and experience true poverty where many families of St. Brigid originated from and still do today, including our own from St. Ignatius.

When we arrived at the chapel where St. Oscar Romero died while celebrating Mass, I could not help but think about Good Friday and where Jesus spilled his blood on the cross for us out of love. St. Romero did the same out of love for his Church and his Country. I decided to enter the chapel as we would enter our church for Good Friday. I wore red vestments for the occasion. While I prostrated on the floor, all knelt in silence. It was an incredible, indescribable moment in being at the altar where this great man was martyred and thinking about the life of a man who gave himself to Jesus for the souls of his people in need.

Archbishop Romero was born on August 15, 1917. He was ordained a Priest in 1942. After earning a doctorate in ascetical theology, he returned home and became a parish priest and rector of an Inter-diocesan seminary. He was appointed Archbishop of San Salvador, the capital of El Salvador, in 1977.

St. Romero was considered a "safe choice" at the time of the violent Civil War in his country. He refused to make waves against the government in any way, even though it was accused of kidnapping and murdering its own people, for fear of communism. It did not matter if they were guilty or innocent. The Church hierarchy often sided with governing forces at the time, for fear of a communist takeover.

It was not until three weeks after his appointment as archbishop, that Romero was shaken and transformed by the murder of his good friend, Jesuit Father Rutilio Grande, a vigorous defender of the rights of the poor. Five more priests were assassinated in the Archdiocese of San Salvador during Romero's years as its shepherd.

When a military junta seized control of the national government in 1979, Archbishop Romero publicly criticized the US government for backing the junta. His weekly radio sermons, broadcast throughout the country, were regarded by many as the most trustworthy source of news available. St. Romero's funeral was celebrated in the plaza outside the cathedral and drew an estimated 250,000 mourners. His tomb in the cathedral crypt soon drew thousands of visitors each year. On February 3, 2015, Pope Francis authorized a decree recognizing Oscar Romero as a martyr for the faith. His beatification took place in San Salvador on May 23, 2015.

St. Oscar Romero is called the Model Pastor and the Model Bishop for us all. As one Salvadoran woman described him, Archbishop Romero "is not ours but he is St. Romero of the Americas, now he is going to be St. Romero of the world." Following Jesus always requires choices. Romero's fiercest critics conveniently dismissed his choices as politically inspired. He shows us how an incarnational faith must be expressed publicly. Pray for the people of El Salvador and all Salvadorans of our parish today. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us! Fr. Jim, Pastor

The St. Oscar Romero Prayer

This is what we are about. We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water the seeds already planted knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities.

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing this.

This enables us to do something, and to do it very well.

It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest.

We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker.

We are workers, not master builders, ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own .

We are looking to purchase 3 HD TV's for the Adult Education and Religious Education Formation.

Once again, we come to our parishioners to help us attain this goal. No donation is too small or too big.

If any parishioner has a HD TV in good working order, and would like to donate it, please call the Rectory Office at 931-0056.

Thank you!

POPE FRANCIS ADDRESSES FAKE NEWS

In his message for this year's World Communications Day, which was celebrated on May 13th, Pope Francis wrote about the topic of fake news and the dangers of spreading it, reported CNS.

The theme for this year's day was "The truth will set you free. Fake news and journalism for peace."

Fake news, the Pope wrote, grabs people's attention "by appealing to stereotypes and common social prejudices, and exploiting instantaneous emotions like anxiety, contempt, anger and frustration." He said that it is the responsibility of each individual to discern what is real news and what is helpful to share on social media.

At the end of his message, Pope Francis included a prayer that he wrote-based on St. Francis' peace prayer-as a guide for both those who report the news and those who read or watch it.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER FOR COUNTERING "FAKE NEWS"

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Help us to recognize the evil latent in a communication that does not build communion.

Help us to remove the venom from our judgments.

Help us to speak about others as our brothers and sisters.

You are faithful and trustworthy;

May your words be seeds of goodness for the world.

Where there is shouting, let us practice listening;

Where there is confusion, let us inspire harmony;

Where there is ambiguity, let us bring clarity;

Where there is exclusion, let us offer solidarity;

Where there is sensationalism, let us use sobriety;

Where there is superficiality, let us raise real questions;

Where there is prejudice, let us awaken trust;

Where there is hostility, let us bring respect;

Where there is falsehood, let us bring truth.

Amen.

Pope Francis,

Message for World Communications Day 2018

El próximo domingo, Domingo Mundial De Las Misiones, estamos llamados a ser parte de los esfuerzos misioneros de la Iglesia, apoyando a sacerdotes misioneros, Hermanas y Hermanos religiosos, y Catequistas Laicos que brindan un servicio amoroso a los más necesitados. Como católicos alrededor del mundo, aquí en casa y en las Misiones, se reúnen en la Eucaristía alrededor de la mesa del Señor, dejemos orar por el trabajo misionero mundial de la Iglesia y ofrecer ayuda financiera a través de la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe para las comunidades vulnerables de Asia, África, América Latina y las Islas del Pacífico.

The St Ignatius Loyola Spiritual Adoption Program

This month, parishioners are asked to participate in this wonderful program. The sign up for the Spiritual Adoption Program begins this weekend. This will be our 5th year! Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, St. Ignatius Loyola Parish will begin a Spiritual Adoption program for young and old alike next week.

The members of St. Ignatius Loyola parish family will have the opportunity to "spiritually adopt" a child who is newly conceived this month. Not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. In fact more than 4,000 babies will lose their lives to abortion each day. It is these babies that you're being asked to pray for and "adopt." You may "adopt" a child individually or as a family by using the Adoption Certificates found in the pews. You are asked to name the child for whom you will be praying, thereby giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves. You will be asked to pray for your unborn child and all unborn children, for the power of prayer is great. You will receive monthly reports on the third weekend of each month through the parish bulletin and posters describing your baby's development and your child will be "born" in June.

There are millions of unborn babies desperately in need. Won't you please "spiritually adopt" one and share the love God has given you?

el Programa de Adopción Espiritual de San Ignacio de Loyola

En este mes, pedimos a los feligreses que participen en este maravilloso programa. La inscripción para el Programa de Adopción Espiritual comienza este fin de semana. Este será nuestro quinto año!

Todo el mundo ama la belleza y la inocencia de un bebé. Como expresión de ese amor, La Parroquia de San Ignacio de Loyola comenzará un programa de Adopción Espiritual la próxima semana, para los jóvenes y adultos.

Los miembros de la familia parroquial de San Ignacio de Loyola tendrán la oportunidad de "adoptar espiritualmente" un niño recién concebido este mes. No a todos los bebés concebidos les es permitido nacer. De hecho más de 4.000 bebés pierden sus vidas al ser abortados, cada día. Son estos los bebés que se les está pidiendo para que oren y los "adopten."

Usted puede "adpotar" un niño de forma individual o en familia, mediante el uso de los Certificados de Adopción que se encuentran en las bancas. Se le pide que le de un nombre al niño por quien está orando, dando así al bebé la humanidad que él o ella se merece. Se la pedirá que ore por su bebé adoptado, y todos los niños no nacidos, pues el poder de la oración es grande. Usted recibirá informes mensuales, el tercer fin de semana de cada mes, a través de boletín de la parroquia y carteles que describirán el desarrollo del bebé, hasta su "nacimiento" en junio. Hay millones de niños no nacidos que necesita urgentemente de tus oraciones. ¿No te gustaría "adoptar uno espiritualmente" y compartir el amor que Dios te ha dado?

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

El Evangelio cuenta una historia que habla también de la sabiduría. Un hombre se acerca a Jesús. Está preocupado por alcanzar la vida eterna. Y pregunta a Jesús qué debe hacer. Ya cumple los mandamientos. Todos. Jesús, entonces, le abre nuevos horizontes. Si quiere de verdad ser feliz, poseer la vida eterna, ha de dejarlo todo, quedarse sin nada y centrarse en lo único que vale la pena: seguir a Jesús. Es un gran desafío. Porque para alcanzar la verdadera sabiduría hay que saber relativizar todo lo que se tiene, todo lo demás. No se encuentra la vida en las cosas que se poseen ni en cumplir todos los mandamientos.

La verdadera sabiduría está en reconocer que todo es don, un regalo que Dios nos hace. Y sólo cuando nos volvemos a él con las manos vacías, somos capaces de acoger ese don enorme que es la felicidad o la vida eterna.

A los ricos se les hace difícil entrar por ese camino. Están muy preocupados con las cosas que tienen. Pasan el día pensando en cómo tener más y en cómo defenderlas mejor. Los otros se les antojan amenazas. Los ven como ladrones que les quieren quitar lo que es suyo. Sólo si son capaces de liberarse de las cosas que tienen, descubrirán en el rostro del otro a un hermano o hermana y se darán cuenta de que la felicidad está en el encuentro fraterno con los demás. Todos como hermanos y hermanas entre nosotros y como hijos e hijas de Dios.

¿Dónde crees que está la verdadera felicidad? ¿Qué caminos has recorrido hasta ahora para buscarla? ¿Cuáles han sido los resultados de tus
