Discrimination Against Houses of Worship Continues

A New Jersey court's decision that fixing furnaces or repairing broken plumbing in historic church buildings is "religious," is being appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court. The NJ court said that grants earmarked to repair and preserve historic buildings could not go to religious "activities," and defined these activities as basic repairs. But - the Supreme Court had ruled last year that a church cannot be excluded from programs generally available to the public.

What do issues of historic preservation, hurricane recovery, and playground safety have in common? They are, or have been, at the center of court cases and arguments around separation of church and state.

In 2017, FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) was sued by 3 Texas churches and 2 Florida synagogues damaged by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma because they "explicitly denied equal access to FEMA disaster relief grants for houses of worship solely because of their religious status," said Becket Fund attorneys. The administration offered support for the churches seeking relief funds, and by January, 2018, the discriminatory policy was reversed.

Pastor's Corner

CELEBRATION OF DÍA DE LA RAZA The Day of the Races

Every year, our Spanish speaking parishioners celebrate Dia de la Raza, or Day of the Races. It marks the time when Christopher Columbus discovered the Americas on October 12, 1492. His discovery opened the door for many explorers from Spain (Home of Fr. Andrés) including Amerigo Vespucci who gave our continents here the name America. He discovered South America.

On this day, the countries of Central and South America celebrate their traditions and culture with food, dance, traditional clothing and song. Our parishioners come from El Salvador (Home of Deacon Jose), Guatemala (Home of Deacon Mario) Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Ecuador and the Dominican Republic.

This day reminds me of the letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians. He writes may we all “bear with one another in love striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit as you were also called to the one hope of your call one Lord, one faith, one Baptism under one God and Father of all who is overall and through all and in all”. Eph 3-5.

May we reflect on these words of Paul to help us in this culture of division, negative politics and selfishness.

Fr. Jim
Pastor

COMMUNITY NEWS

We are looking to purchase 3 HD TV's for the Adult Education and Religious Education Formation.

Once again, we come to our parishioners to help us attain this goal. No donation is too small or too big.

If any parishioner has a HD TV in good working order, and would like to donate it, please call the Rectory Office at 931-0056.

Here are the latest figures on the Catholic Ministries Appeal as of October 9, 2018:

Goal:	$90,900.00
Pledges:	$53,854.21
Payments:	$49,009.21
Percentage of Goal (pledges)	59.2%

When you donate to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you help more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

Congratulations!

St. Ignatius Loyola congratulates Fr. Ed Sheridan who has been appointed by Bishop Barres as Vicar for Clergy effective November 1, 2018. We also thank Msgr. Peter Pflomm for all his years of service as current Vicar for Clergy over the past five years. May God bless them both!

One Minute Meditations

St. John XXIII

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was born to a poor farming family in Bergamo, Italy. His ordination as a priest in 1904 began a lifetime serving the Church as: the bishop's secretary, a military chaplain, cardinal-patriarch of Venice, and finally, as pope. Even so, St. John never forgot his humble origins, and he was known for visiting the poor, the sick and prisoners. As pope, he is most remembered for opening the Second Vatican Council. He died in 1963.

A Catholic's Job

Every Catholic has three tasks. Know the Catholic faith. We can't share it if we don't know it. Live the Catholic faith. It comes with us wherever we are. Spread the Catholic faith. We can't keep Christ to ourselves.

"In the silence of the heart God speaks. If you face God in prayer and silence, God will speak to you. Souls of prayer are souls of great silence." St. Teresa of Calcutta

Teresa of Calcutta

Three ways to walk Jesus' path

The magnificence of Heaven is simply beyond our comprehension. Our limited minds can't imagine how amazing it is. Jesus came to tell us about it and show us how to get there. He hoped we'd follow in his footsteps and do what he did.

Serve others with love. Jesus asked us to love one another as he did. Some of the ways he showed love were to treat strangers kindly, tend to the material needs of the needy, lend an attentive ear, help people make good and virtuous decisions that bring them closer to God. Try to show love in these ways daily.

Lighten your load. Not only did

Jesus have few material goods, he sent his disciples out to preach with almost nothing. He didn't want them – or us – to get distracted. Jesus knew that the more we have, the more we'd think about our stuff and the less we'd think about God.

Consider shedding what you don't need, and buying only items that replace what is worn out or broken. Give the money you save to charity.

Quiet down.

Jesus frequently went off to be alone with

God. Take some quiet time each day just to keep company with God. Even spending as few as 15 minutes a day with God in silence will bring you peace.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics give new names at Baptism?

Catholics often give their children new names at Baptism to celebrate the new spiritual life of the one being baptized. In the Bible, name changes were often associated with significant life-changes. For example, Simon's name was changed to "Peter" when Jesus singled him out to be the first pope (Matthew 16:18). Often a saint's name will be chosen at Baptism, as a way of placing the baptized person under the patronage of the saint as their intercessor and model in holiness.

Who is the real Catholic Church?

The Catholic Church is not just a building or a group of people. Rather, the real Church is a family begun by Jesus, extending all over the world, stretching through time and space.

In Heaven live those members who completed their earthly lives as God intended.

Members in Purgatory did their best to follow Jesus but died without having made adequate penance for their venial sins. Our prayers will help them get to Heaven.

And those of us who are members on Earth are still living within the family, trying to make the journey to Heaven.

All three groups make up the Church and we are all connected forever. So not only can we ask our friends on Earth to pray for us, we can appeal for prayers to those who are face-to-face with God.

The Church began with Christ but is populated by humans who don't always choose well. Still, we are all called to live fully in Christ's image. Those of us on Earth just have to keep trying.

from Scripture

Mark 10:46-52, a blind man leads

Bartimaeus was a blind beggar who saw Jesus clearly. When he heard that Jesus was near he cried out, "Son of David," a title reserved for the Messiah. Although people tried to shush him, Bartimaeus persisted until Jesus noticed him and called him over. Immediately, Bartimaeus threw off his cloak and ran to Jesus' side. Even the little he had was discarded to get to Jesus.

Jesus, "Master," Bartimaeus asked Jesus for his sight. When his prayer was answered, Bartimaeus followed Jesus as his disciple.

It is this profound trust that Jesus wants to elicit from the crowd – and from us. The difficulties of being Christian in a secular world can blind us to the joys of following Jesus. Try to approach Jesus with excitement and humble confidence. When we trust him as Bartimaeus did, we become true disciples who can tackle the difficult task of leading others down the road to God.

Bartimaeus stood before Jesus humbly, but he was confident that Jesus had the power to do whatever he asked. The only person in Mark's Gospel to call

Q & A How can I get more out of Scripture?

In the crush of daily life, Scripture reading may get overlooked. Yet, spending daily time with God's Word is the surest way to hear his voice. Try these tips:

Get a Catholic Bible. There are more books in Catholic versions. You don't want to miss important doctrine they contain. Catholic Bibles will have the words "Imprimatur" and/or "Nihil obstat," meaning that the margin notes are in keeping with Church teaching.

Start deliberately. Pick a book, one of the Gospels, perhaps, and read it each day section by section or chapter by chapter. Give it your full attention while reading. Read the footnotes, and write down any connections it inspires to your life.

Memorize a verse. Did a line or verse strike you? Write it down and learn it by heart. The more you know of God's Word, the more you know of God.

Look for a take-away: Ask God what he wants you to know from your time with his Word. Then be sure to listen with an open heart.

Feasts & Celebrations

Oct. 2 – Feast of the Guardian Angels. All of us have a guardian angel, in charge of protecting us and watching over us day and night. Each angel is unique, and no two are alike. On this feast day, remember to thank the Guardian Angels for the work they do to bring us to Heaven.

Oct. 7 – Our Lady of the Rosary (1571). Pope Pius V created this feast in thanksgiving to Our Lady of Victory who helped the Christians defeat the Ottoman Turks. Since it was believed that they won after praying the Rosary, the feast was renamed Our Lady of the Rosary by Pope Gregory XIII.

Oct. 9 – St. Denis (250). Originally born in third-century Italy, St. Denis was sent with two companions, Rusticus and Eleutherius, to Christianize Gaul (modern day France). St. Denis became the first bishop of Paris. The three men were martyred by the pagan authorities for their success in converting souls to Christ. He is a patron saint of France.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

La forma de pensar de Jesús es diferente de la forma de pensar del mundo. Entre nosotros hay personas con poder. Se les nota en la ropa, en las cosas que usan, en la casa. Miran a los demás de arriba abajo. Desprecian a los que no son como ellos. Y muchas veces se aprovechan de los demás.

Jesús tenía más poder que nadie. Era el Hijo de Dios. Habría podido vivir como nadie nunca ha vivido en este mundo. Pero no lo hizo. En cambio nos vino a ofrecer el amor de Dios. Lo hizo de una forma práctica. No se contentó con decir hermosas palabras. Salió a los caminos, entró en los pueblos, se encontró con los enfermos, les dio palabras de aliento y esperanza, compartió sus dolores.

Al final de su vida, lavó los pies a sus discípulos, para dejarles bien claro que su vocación era el servicio, pasar la vida dedicado al bienestar de los demás y no a que los demás le hiciesen sentir bien a él.

Eso es lo que hace diferente a Jesús. Jesús no se aprovechó de nadie sino que se acercó a los que sufrían y les dio todo lo que tenía. Jesús renunció al poder y a la autoridad para encontrarse de tú a tú con cada uno de nosotros y hablarnos del amor que Dios nos tiene. Por eso el que quiera ser más importante en el Reino, tiene que empezar por hacerse servidor de todos. No hay otro camino. Se lo dejó muy claro a los hijos del Zebedeo. Y hoy nos lo dice con claridad a nosotros: si queremos ser felices más vale que nos empecemos a preocupar por el bienestar y la felicidad de los que nos rodean, porque sólo con ellos seremos nosotros felices. Imitando a Jesús encontraremos la verdadera felicidad.

Para reflexión

¿Crees que Jesús escogió el mejor camino para salvamos (hacerse servidor de todos)? ¿Te preocupas de verdad de hacer felices a los que te rodean, especialmente a tu familia y a tus amigos? ¿Crees que ésa es la mejor forma que tienes de dar testimonio de Jesús?
