CHANGE OF SUNDAY EVENING MASS SCHEDULE
EFFECTIVE JANUARY 6, 2019

After some study of our Mass attendance, prayerful consideration and consultation with the Parish Staff and Pastoral Council, a decision has been made to discontinue the 5:15pm Sunday evening Mass beginning the first Sunday of January 6th.

Since I arrived at St. Ignatius Loyola seven years ago, I noticed that we have more Masses than people coming to our church. Currently we have 7 Masses each weekend; 1 on Saturday and 6 on Sunday. There has been a steady decline in Mass attendance at all of our Masses, particularly the Sunday evening 5:15pm Mass. The full capacity of the church appears to accommodate 500-600 people, depending on personal size and comfort of seating. It has been evident that, given this seating capacity, our church is too large for a Mass that averages less than 100 people during the year. We can easily accommodate our average weekend attendance with less than 6 Masses on Sunday. Therefore, beginning Sunday, January 6, 2019, the Sunday 5:15pm Mass will be removed.

A fuller church fosters a better sense of community, encourages participation, and conserves resources of priests and maintenance. People who need to attend Mass on Sunday evening are welcome at the 7 pm Mass and at Masses at nearby churches. Thank you for your understanding, especially to all those who have participated at the 5:15pm Mass. Thank you also to Mr. James Sheehan for his music ministry at this Mass. Jim will be playing at other Masses on the weekend as needed.

ADVENT- BE PREPARED

Happy New Year, everybody! I write this because we are not entering a new secular calendar year, we are entering a new Church liturgical calendar year beginning with this season of ADVENT! So it is appropriate to say "Happy New Year?"

When the Church begins the First Sunday of Advent, she proclaims it a new liturgical year. Since the Second Vatican Council, the Church year is divided into 3 cycles or years, A,B and C. Each cycle focuses on a particular Gospel. During Cycle A we focus on the Gospel of Matthew. During Cycle B we focus on the Gospel of Mark. During Cycle C we will focus on the Gospel of Luke.

The first reading from the weekday Mass readings is divided into Cycles 1 or 2. During Cycle C, we will hear the readings from Cycle 1. Then we alternate to Cycle 2 the next liturgical year. After three years, we will have heard much from all of our Gospel readings.

The word Advent comes from the Latin term "adventus" or coming. During the first two weeks until December 16th, we will focus on the Christ who will come again. From December 17th thru December 24th our focus is on the Christ who came at Christmas in Bethlehem. The Gospel of Luke this Sunday focuses on the end times and Jesus' coming again in glory.

Fr. Jim's Column (Continued)

Jesus refers to the end, not to scare or frighten us, but to prepare us to be ready to meet him face to face. Luke tells us that nothing here on earth lasts forever: whether it is nature, the cosmos, politics, money, our Christmas purchases and even our own bodies. Bishop Robert Barron writes, "don't expect to find your ultimate fulfillment in any of it" that is, the material world. Our only true happiness is to be found in God.

Jesus, who is God on earth, leads us to the God the Father. Jesus gives us every reason to hope that despite life's challenges and threats, he will get us through this world and help us to share in his eternal glory in Heaven to come. May we never forget that Jesus is our only source of our salvation. May we take this Advent to stop, pray, light the candles of an advent wreath, listen and talk to Jesus so that we discover him as Emmanuel, God with us at all times. As St. John Paul II tells us, "be not afraid" your salvation is at hand. A blessed and Happy Advent to All! I share with you this Ancient Prayer of the Virgin Mary and I invite you to pray it during this season of Advent.

*We turn to you for protection, Holy Mother of God.
Listen to our prayers and help us in our needs.
Save us from every danger,
Glorious and Blessed Virgin. Amen.*

May we remember to always strive to work for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Religious Retirement Collection

Weekend of December 8th and 9th

Senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests ministered for years for little or no pay. Their sacrifices now leave their religious communities without adequate retirement savings. Your gift to the collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps to provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. Please be generous.

Hermanas, hermanos y sacerdotes católicos de órdenes religiosas de edad avanzada laboraron durante muchos años con poco o ningún pago. Sus sacrificios ahora dejan a sus comunidades religiosas sin ahorros suficientes para su jubilación. Su donativo a la colecta de hoy al Fondo para la Jubilación de Religiosos proporciona fondos vitales para medicamentos, enfermeros y más, para cientos de miles de religiosos ancianos. Sean generosos

Come and join us on Monday, December 17th at 7:30PM in St. Ignatius Loyola Church and hear Pastor Greg Dwyer speak about how authentic communication with God, self and others is the key to a healthy and blessed life.

HEALTHY COMMUNICATION FOR CONGREGATIONS

HOW TO BE AUTHENTIC WITH GOD AND OTHERS

Is conflict, competition or a lack of cooperation hindering your church from its mission? Is there lack of unity or a lack of shared values that has your church stuck in dysfunction? These are the challenges facing many churches today. Sanctified communication is the answer. Authentic communication with God, self, and others is the key to a healthy congregation and a blessed life. Pastor Greg Dwyer will share insights with you on how to create authentic communication in your life and within your church. Based on the Bible, Pastor Greg will enlighten and educate your congregation on authentic communication with God, self and others.

In this dynamic presentation on communication, Pastor Greg Dwyer, will teach you 3 powerful insights.

- Discover what focus and identity can do for creating unity
- Learn how non verbal communication is hindering your mission
- Acquire the insight of written goals towards your vision

Pastor Greg Dwyer is a dynamic and mesmerizing keynote speaker, workshop leader and Use The Power of Your Mind, Former Illusionist Reveals Five Secrets For Your Success author on a mission to assist your congregation to use their God given gifts to their full potential.

Pastor Greg knows the insights of influence and communication which will make a difference in your relationships with God, others and self. This will make a positive impact on your congregation.

About Greg

- Greg was ordained a Lutheran minister in 1992. He holds a MDiv and a Masters of Arts in Religious Studies
- He has served four parishes in the LCMS and has worked at Concordia College-NY in Church Relations
- Greg is the recipient of the Dale Carnegie Highest Award for Achievement

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Comienza el Adviento. Es tiempo de preparación para la Navidad, cuando celebraremos el nacimiento de Jesús. A todos nos sale en ese tiempo a flote el corazón de niño, a veces demasiado hundido entre las muchas preocupaciones, problemas y trabajos. Pero las cuatro semanas de Adviento son algo más que un tiempo de preparación para esa celebración. La espera del aniversario del nacimiento de Jesús, nos sitúa en la misma tensión en que vivió el mundo y la creación entera ante el nacimiento del Mesías. Hace dos mil años es como si un escalofrío hubiese recorrido el mundo. El Salvador estaba a punto de llegar. Nos gustaría que la salvación prometida en Jesús se hubiese manifestado ya del todo. Y ésta es precisamente la tensión en que vamos a vivir estas cuatro semanas. La espera de la celebración del nacimiento se nos mezcla con la esperanza de que el Señor Jesús venga definitivamente a nuestros corazones y a nuestro mundo.

La primera lectura de este domingo y el Evangelio nos ponen en esa tesitura. Viene el Señor y con él trae la justicia y el derecho. La paz será una realidad para todos (primera lectura). En el Evangelio resuena todavía el eco de los anuncios apocalípticos que escuchábamos hace pocos domingos, pero hay un mensaje nuevo que cierra el ciclo y da sentido a todo lo que se ha dicho en esos mensajes: "Cuando empiece a suceder esto, levantaos, alzad la cabeza, se acerca vuestra liberación". De esa forma la esperanza supera al temor.

Pero hay que ir a la segunda lectura para encontrar la clave que nos diga como se debe vivir este tiempo de esperanza. Nos pide Pablo que rebosemos de amor mutuo. Ésa será la forma como, cuando llegue Jesús, nos encontrará santos e irreprochables. Una vez más es el amor la característica que ha de llenar la vida del cristiano. Su esperanza se ha de manifestar en una especial capacidad de amar a los que viven cerca de él. Porque el que espera a un Dios que es amor y reconciliación vive ya bajo la ley del amor y de la reconciliación. Si no es así, es que su esperanza no es auténtica.

Para la reflexión

¿Siento como míos los dolores y sufrimientos de mis hermanos y hermanas en este mundo? ¿Cómo podría irme preparando para la celebración del nacimiento de Jesús? ¿Qué signos de esperanza podríamos ofrecer en nuestra comunidad o parroquia?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
