ADVENT-DO NOT WORRY, THE LORD WANTS US HOME!

Often at Christmas and Thanksgiving we look forward to returning home with our families and friends or cannot wait for our loved ones to return home after not seeing them for a while. They always say "home is where the heart is." For the people of Israel, their heart was back home in Jerusalem because they were forced out of their home to live in Babylon. They had to serve a hostile King Nebuchadnezzar, who had no love for God. In the Book of Baruch, the prophet who was a secretary of the prophet Jeremiah, gives hope to the people of Israel writing that one day they will return home! He tells the people that Jerusalem, their city, will prosper again and God will bring them back home. Their journey represents our journey to our promised land of Heaven. We need to take the time this advent to listen to the voice of another prophet, John the Baptist to lower our mountains of pride, selfishness and greed and fill in our valleys of loneliness, depression and addiction with his love and grace. We have Christ Jesus, who knows us and wants every day to lead us. All we need to do is trust in him, listen to him and follow him.

As we journey through this 2nd week of Advent, may we ask ourselves two questions: 1) What is needed in my life to make the roads of my journey straighter and easier to travel? 2) Where am I in my relationship to Jesus: wondering, an exile or a disciple? Remember, Advent reminds us that our Salvation is at hand! Mary, the mother of Jesus and our Mother will help us too. Please pray this Ancient Prayer of the Virgin Mary together with family and/or friends.

*We turn to you for protection, Holy Mother of God.
Listen to our prayers and help us in our needs.
Save us from every danger,
Glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.*

CHANGE OF SUNDAY EVENING MASS SCHEDULE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 6, 2019

After some study of our Mass attendance, prayerful consideration and consultation with the Parish Staff and Pastoral Council, a decision has been made to discontinue the 5:15 p.m. Sunday evening Mass beginning the first Sunday of January, 2019.

Currently, we have seven Masses each weekend; one on Saturday and six on Sunday. There has been a decline in Mass attendance, at St. Ignatius as in many other parishes, and particularly at the Sunday evening 5:15 pm Mass. The church accommodates 500-600 people, depending on personal size and comfort of seating. We can easily accommodate our average weekend attendance with six Masses each weekend. Therefore, beginning Sunday, January 6, 2019, the Sunday 5:15 pm Mass will be removed. A full church fosters a better sense of community, encourages participation, and conserves resources of priests and maintenance. The Pastoral Council will continue to study Mass attendance and how we as a community can encourage more participation at Sunday liturgy.

People who need to attend Mass on Sunday evening are welcome at the 7 p.m. Mass and at Masses at nearby churches. Thank you for your understanding, especially to all those who have participated at the 5:15pm Mass. Thank you also to Mr. James Sheehan for his music ministry at this Mass. Jim will be playing at other Masses on the weekend as needed.

May we remember to always strive to work for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Come and join us on Monday, December 17th at 7:30PM in Msgr. Tarrant Hall and hear Pastor Greg Dwyer speak about how authentic communication with God, self and others is the key to a healthy and blessed life.

HEALTHY COMMUNICATION FOR CONGREGATIONS

HOW TO BE AUTHENTIC WITH GOD AND OTHERS

Is conflict, competition or a lack of cooperation hindering your church from its mission? Is there lack of unity or a lack of shared values that has your church stuck in dysfunction? These are the challenges facing many churches today. Sanctified communication is the answer. Authentic communication with God, self, and others is the key to a healthy congregation and a blessed life. Pastor Greg Dwyer will share insights with you on how to create authentic communication in your life and within your church. Based on the Bible, Pastor Greg will enlighten and educate your congregation on authentic communication with God, self and others.

In this dynamic presentation on communication, Pastor Greg Dwyer, will teach you 3 powerful insights.

- Discover what focus and identity can do for creating unity
- Learn how non verbal communication is hindering your mission
- Acquire the insight of written goals towards your vision

Pastor Greg Dwyer is a dynamic and mesmerizing keynote speaker, workshop leader and Use The Power of Your Mind, Former Illusionist Reveals Five Secrets For Your Success author on a mission to assist your congregation to use their God given gifts to their full potential.

Pastor Greg knows the insights of influence and communication which will make a difference in your relationships with God, others and self. This will make a positive impact on your congregation.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF HICKSVILLE

A Prayer for Our Country

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

*O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life.
Amen.*

Homebound Holy Communion

Any parishioner who is unable to attend Mass and wish to receive the Holy Eucharist in their home, please contact the Parish Office at 931-0056. It is important that a Parish Eucharistic Minister bring the Blessed Sacrament to you.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist urges us to "Prepare the way of the Lord," and this is what Advent is all about. We are called to help prepare the way of the Lord by making the real meaning of Christmas come alive in our own hearts, in our family and to reach out to those in need.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor to celebrate Christmas.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

La esperanza tiene un tiempo concreto. La esperanza no es algo que quede siempre en un futuro borroso y sin formas. La esperanza condiciona nuestra forma de vivir aquí y ahora. La esperanza nos hace pensar en algo que da sentido a lo que sucede aquí y ahora, en este momento, en mi vida y en la de mis hermanos, en el mundo y en el universo. En Adviento nuestra esperanza, la confianza en que este presente nuestro tiene sentido, encuentra sus raíces en el relato, repetido cada año y nunca asimilado del todo, del nacimiento de Jesús. A ese recuerdo se orienta todo el Adviento.

Pero hace falta que nos demos cuenta de que el relato del nacimiento de Jesús no es un mito de la antigüedad. No es una historia inventada para justificar unos determinados comportamientos o creencias. Es algo que sucedió en un momento histórico determinado, en un lugar geográfico concreto. El nacimiento de Jesús es la encarnación de Dios. Y esa encarnación es real.

No es una visión. No es una novela de ficción.

No es un sueño. Jesús fue un personaje histórico. Se relacionó con personas concretas. El Evangelio de Lucas se esfuerza por presentarlo en conexión con los hechos históricos del momento. Si Jesús fue bautizado por Juan, entonces Lucas nos informa de que Juan comenzó su ministerio profético en el año quince del reinado del emperador Tiberio. Y da más información histórica.

No es baladí recordar que la encarnación sitúa a Dios en nuestra historia, en un momento y un tiempo concreto. Eso significa que nuestra vida cristiana, la que se desarrolla y despliega a partir de la fe y esperanza en la salvación que Dios nos ofrece en Jesús, se vive y experimenta en lo concreto de nuestra historia. Eso significa que nuestra relación con Dios no tiene lugar fuera de esta historia sino en esta historia.

El Adviento nos hace bajar de las alturas, nos hace salir del silencio de nuestros cuartos y capillas, de nuestras iglesias y rituales. Nos invita a ir a la calle, a mezclarnos con el ruido de la gente, de los coches, de los vendedores, de los pobres que piden limosna y de las sirenas de la policía. El Adviento nos recuerda que ahí es donde encontramos a Dios. El primer sacramento, el más auténtico y real de todos, es la persona humana.

Cualquier persona humana es signo y presencia de Dios. Cuando Dios escogió acercarse a nosotros, lo hizo asumiendo un rostro concreto, el de Jesús. Desde entonces, cualquier rostro —y quizá con más fuerza, los más sucios, los más desgarrados, los más sufrientes— es sacramento de la presencia de Dios entre nosotros. Hoy, aquí y ahora, volvemos la mirada a nuestros hermanos y hermanas y descubrimos que Jesús, el que viene, da sentido a nuestro compromiso por hacer un mundo más justo y más fraterno.

Para la reflexión

¿Soy consciente de que mi vida cristiana se juega en la relación con mis hermanos y hermanas? ¿Veo en ellos y ellas la presencia de Dios que me

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
