Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and so we can celebrate that we all belong to the holy family of God which makes us brothers and sisters to each other.
At Christmas this year, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the joy and hope to our “brothers and sisters” who are poor by assisting families, providing food, gifts, utilities and rent bills.
Thank You!.

OUR FAMILIES - A HOLY FAMILY

A woman was at home doing some cleaning when the telephone rang. In going to answer it, she tripped on a scatter rug and, grabbing for something to hold onto, seized the telephone table. It fell over with a crash, jarring the receiver off the hook. As it fell, it hit the family dog, who leaped up, howling and barking. The woman's three-year-old son, startled by this noise, broke into loud screams. The woman mumbled some colorful words. She finally managed to pick up the receiver and lift it to her ear, just in time to hear her husband's voice on the other end say, "Nobody's said hello yet, but I'm positive I have the right number." (James Dent, Charleston, West Virginia Gazette).

Does this story sound familiar? This is all about family as we celebrate the second Feast of Christmas, with this Sunday being the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Often we confuse holiness with perfection. However, even though Jesus, Mary and Joseph were holy, they still experienced the same challenges, growth pains and imperfections of life as you and my family experiences each and every day. Despite that, they were faithful to the path that God laid out for them. The Holy Family teaches us that we too can be faithful to our vocation as a family in love, unity, forgiveness, peace and service, despite the messiness of family life. All we need to do is open our hearts to God and trust God each day as did the Holy Family.

St. John Paul II, tells us that each of our families makes up a domestic (home) church. In his Apostolic Letter Familiaris Consortio (The Role of the Christian Family in the Modern World), he writes that the "Christian family shares in the mission of the Church in building God's Kingdom here on earth" (49). When we gather around our tables, in our living/recreation rooms, around the television, computer or kitchen, pray together, play together, share and care for another, we act as Church. We go to Mass to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ to renew us and help us become more like the family God plans for us to be. The family is "not only a saved community receiving the love of Christ, but a saving community communicating Christ's love to others" by how we act and in our words (FC 49). How does your family communicate Christ's love? We pray especially for all families who experience hardship, dysfunction, addiction and suffering. During this Christmas season and the New Year, invite the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph to bring their presence into your home each day binding your family together, healing any rifts and allowing you to give yourself over to a loving God and others. Then your family will truly be God's Holy Family!

THANK YOU....THANK YOU...THANK YOU AND HAPPY NEW YEAR 2019

Thank you to all who sent us (your priests and staff) Christmas cards, cookies, cakes, fruit, flowers, edible arrangements, gifts and wine. Your generosity shows how much you love your priests and parish staff. May God bless you!

Happy New Year! As we begin the new year 2019, we give thanks for the past and look forward to the future knowing that God is certainly with us! Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always.

St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Spiritual Adoption Program
Month Three - Developing Baby

"I can suck my thumb now!"

The baby can now squint, swallow and move his tongue. He sleeps and awakens. Fingernails and toenails form and he now has his own unique set of fingerprints. Sensitive to touch, he will tightly grasp an object placed in the palm of his hand. He breathes amniotic fluid to help develop and strengthen the respiratory system, but he gets the oxygen he needs through the umbilical cord. At the beginning of this month, just nine weeks after conception, he can suck his thumb.

Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer
the life of my spiritually adopted
pre-born child.

I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.

Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them at this difficult time.
May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child's life.

AMEN.

Programa de Adopción Espiritual
Tercero Mes - Desarrollo del Bebé

"¡Hoy me pude agarrar la manita!"

Ya puedo entrecerrar los ojos, tragar y mover la lengua. Me duermo y me despierto. Se me forman las uñas de los dedos de mis manos y de mis pies. Ya tengo mis huellas digitales que son únicamente mías. También tengo sentido del tacto y agarraré con mano firme cualquier objeto que se me ponga en la palma de la mano. Respiro el líquido amniótico para ayudar a desarrollar y fortalecer el sistema respiratorio, pero el oxígeno que necesito lo obtengo a través del cordón umbilical.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración
la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente antes de nacer.

Te pido que protejas y acompañes este niño (a) de todo daño.

María y José, les pido

Intercedan por los padres de este

Bebé, para que Dios derrame su amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y
los guie en este momento difícil.

Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos
y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé.

One Minute Meditations

St. Dominic of Silos

St. Dominic was a Benedictine monk, born around 1000 AD in Navarre, Spain.

Recognized for his leadership abilities, he was made abbot, but was exiled for refusing to sell monastery lands to the local ruler. He was welcomed by King Ferdinand I of Castile and appointed abbot of St. Sebastian's monastery at Silos. Joan of Aza prayed for a child and saw a vision of St. Dominic. Her son, whom she named Dominic, founded the Dominican Order.

Anticipate Advent

A rich Advent makes a joyous Christmas. Use the four weeks before Christmas to prepare for Christ's coming. Offer extra prayers, perform penance, and receive the sacrament of Reconciliation.

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel" (Luke 2:29-32).

Celebrate Christmas with child-like wonder

There is no greater miracle than the gift of love Christmas represents. We didn't earn it and we can't deserve it. Yet, we get so harried with the holiday rush that we miss the wonder of it. Ever notice how children never do? This year, slow down and celebrate Christmas like a child.

Tie gifts with heartstrings. Instead of boosting credit card balances or draining your checking account, keep what you give simple, meaningful, and from the heart. For example, give a coupon for babysitting to friends with children. Prepare a meal for someone who needs a break from cooking.

Offer your hearth. The holidays can be lonely for people separated from their loved ones by distance, death, or circumstance. Watch for anyone who needs a "home" and invite them to yours.

Choose peace. Instead of enduring the Christmas commercials and bad holiday specials, record the good shows and watch while you relax. Or rent your favorite spiritual movies. Better still, turn off the television, computer, and cell phone, and enjoy the silence.

Greet the Babe with joy. Seek reconciliation in Confession so you can receive the Eucharist at Christmas.

Sing like an angel. Check your local listings for Christmas concerts, Messiah sing-a-longs, or other spiritual songfests. Host a caroling party in your home and sing loud with Christmas joy.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics celebrate Christ's birth?

Every Christmas, we celebrate that Jesus, the Son of God, became man—while retaining his divinity—and died for our sins and rose again. We believe this because God, who is Truth, revealed it.

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called 'Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace'" (Isaiah 9:6). God came to Earth and lived among us.

Honor the spirit of St. Nick

St. Nicholas is one icon of the holiday season that has meaning in both the secular and spiritual celebrations of Christmas.

We know that St. Nicholas was born at the end of the third century in Asia Minor. His parents died when he was young and left him well off. His uncle, the archbishop of Myra (southeast of Turkey), ordained him and upon his uncle's death, Nicholas served as bishop until his own death. Throughout he suffered imprisonment and persecution.

One legend involving St. Nicholas concerns a desperate man on the verge of selling his daughters into slavery to pay his debts. Nicholas secretly threw a bag of gold into an open window (some say down the chimney) in the man's house to stop him.

Our present-day Santa Claus stems from the legends of St. Nicholas, but in the Church he is a saint, a confessor of the faith, and a holy bishop. We can learn from his generosity to the poor, and imitate his acts of kindness to others.

from Scripture

Luke 2:41-52, Living in the world

In this reading, the Holy Family went to Jerusalem when Jesus was twelve years old. This was an important time in Jesus' life. Back then, a Hebrew boy became a man around that age, and was recognized in a ceremony called a Bar Mitzvah. On this occasion, Jesus decided to stay behind, causing anxiety to his parents.

heavenly Father but he understood the time to fulfill them would come later. Meanwhile, he returned obediently with his earthly parents to Nazareth and fulfilled his duties to them.

Jesus respected his family, yet he continued to pursue his place in God's plan. The lesson is that we can grow in holiness in wherever

God has placed us. Christians can be found in neighborhoods, schools, and workplaces. In all these places, we have to find ways to live a holy life in the world.

Feasts & Celebrations

Dec. 4 – St. John Damascene (749). A Doctor of the Church and the last of the Greek Fathers, St. John was born in Syria when it was under Muslim rule and was counselor to the caliph. He is known for his writings in favor of the use of sacred images for devotion. These writings brought him into serious conflict with the heretical Christian emperor. He later became a monk under the direction of St. Sabas.

Dec. 12 – Our Lady of Guadalupe (1531). The Blessed Mother appeared as a Native American maiden to St.

Juan Diego, also Native American. She asked that the bishop of Mexico build a chapel for her, and had him carry roses to the bishop as a sign. When the roses were emptied from his tilma (cape), it retained the image of the Blessed Mother.

Dec. 28-The Holy Innocents. On this day, we remember the infants massacred by King Herod's soldiers (Matthew 2:16-18).

We also pray for the safety of unborn children.

Q & A What, exactly, is meant by "fear of the Lord"?

"Fear of the Lord" is more about awe—recognizing God's power and might – than about fear of the merciful creator who loves us most. Fear of the Lord is also known as "reverence," and is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit listed in Isaiah: "The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding...counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord" (Isaiah 11:2). These gifts, when used, make us open to God's love.

Fear of the Lord helps us have a healthy respect for God's majesty. We fear offending God for the same reason we fear offending someone we love. If we really love someone, we wouldn't do anything (on purpose) to hurt them or damage the friendship. This is what happens when we sin. "The [Christian] no longer stands before God as a slave, in servile fear, or as a mercenary looking for wages, but as a son" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1828).

MISA DOMINGOS

Es sumamente hermoso y consolador saber que tenemos a esta maravillosa familia -a Jesús, María y José- como protectora de nuestras propias familias. Pero no sólo. Ellos son también el prototipo y el modelo más perfecto de familia que hemos de imitar en nuestra vida. ¡Cuánta delicadeza, ternura y comprensión reinaría entre esas almas tan singulares! ¡Qué trato tan dulce, cariñoso y respetuoso dispensaría José a María, y Ella a su esposo! Y, ¿cómo sería el amor y la obediencia que animara a Jesús hacia sus padres y de todos entre sí! Sin duda alguna, pasar un rato junto a ellos sería como gozar del cielo en la tierra.

Se podría tal vez decir que hoy no es un día para pensar en cosas tristes. Y es cierto.

Sería más hermoso meditar en la belleza de la Sagrada Familia o evocar hermosos recuerdos de la nuestra. Sí. Pero, por desgracia, lo que estoy diciendo no son inventos o cuentos chinos, sino hechos que suceden a diario. En este caso, evitar esos temas "molestos" sería como taparnos los ojos para no ver la realidad y para evitar sentir en nuestra conciencia el aguijón del pecado y de tantas injusticias que se cometen hoy en el mundo. Sería un pecado gravísimo de omisión, de egoísmo y de comodidad no pensar en los demás o no tratar de hacer algo por ellos.

Recordemos, aquel elocuente testimonio de la Madre Teresa de Calcuta. Ella gritaba al mundo entero: "Si oyen que alguna mujer no quiere tener a su hijo y desea abortar, intenten convencerla para que me traiga ese niño. Yo lo amaré, viendo en él el signo del amor de Dios".

Tal vez podamos preguntarnos qué podemos hacer nosotros, desde nuestra casa, para ayudar a solucionar este grave problema. Nos parecerá que somos impotentes y que nada podemos aportar. Sin embargo, no es así. Te voy a sugerir algo brevemente.

Estamos todavía celebrando estas hermosas fiestas de la Navidad. Acaba de nacer el Niño Dios en Belén y en nuestros corazones. Pues no olvidemos que Jesús, al encarnarse y al hacerse uno de nosotros, se identifica con cada niño y con cada ser humano. Por eso nos dijo que todo lo que hagamos a los demás, lo considera como hecho a Sí mismo; que el que recibe a un niño en su Nombre, lo recibe a Él; y que los ángeles contemplan en cada niño el rostro mismo de Dios.

Por eso, no podemos no pensar, amar y ayudar a los demás. Comencemos por las cosas pequeñas, por hacer aquello que sí está al alcance de nuestra mano realizar. Comencemos por amar y ayudar al niño de la calle que nos pide limosna; enseñemos a nuestros hijos a compartir con los pobres lo que Dios sí nos ha dado a nosotros. ¿Por qué no invitar a un niño pobre o a una de estas familias a cenar un día a nuestra casa? ¿Te parece excesivo? Sugiramos a nuestros niños que le regalen uno de sus juguetes a alguno de esos pobrecitos, o que lo inviten a jugar con ellos, como hacen tantas familias buenas en las Misiones de Semana Santa.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
