CAPITAL CAMPAIGN - CONTINUING OUR MISSION WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITIES?

Recently, during the brutal cold weather, work was completed on the roof of our rectory by George Parsons Roofing. 112 pieces of slate that were either cracked or broken replaced by new ones. new year by giving to your parish. Remember no gift is too small. Our campaign is all about equal sacrifice, not equal giving. Contact the rectory business office.

FIRST RECONCILIATION

Congratulations to all of our children in 2nd Level who have recently received their first Sacrament of Reconciliation (also called Confession and Penance). Thank you to our Director of Religious Education, Colleen, her staff and catechists for their hard work. May the example of our young people inspire each of us to avail ourselves of the sacrament. We offer it here on Saturdays at 4pm and additional times during Advent and Lent. You may also make an appointment with one of the priests who is on call for the day.

THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If you know someone who is ill and homebound, please contact the rectory office and let us know so we can visit. Our policy is the priest visits first and then the family has a regular schedule with an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. I want to thank all of our EM's who faithfully bring the Lord each week to those in need. There have been too many families where a homebound person did not have the opportunity to receive Communion and/or Anointing of the Sick before he/she died. Please keep this in mind.

Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Fr. Jim
Pastor

On January 22, the 46th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, Governor Cuomo signed into law the dangerous “Abortion Expansion Act”. Attached is the official statement just released from the Catholic Bishops of New York State.

A Statement from the Catholic Bishops of New York State

Words are insufficient to describe the profound sadness we feel at the contemplated passage of New York State’s new proposed abortion policy. We mourn the unborn infants who will lose their lives, and the many mothers and fathers who will suffer remorse and heartbreak as a result.

The so-called “Reproductive Health Act” will expand our state’s already radically permissive law, by empowering more health practitioners to provide abortion and removing all state restrictions on late-term procedures. With an abortion rate that is already double the national average, New York law is moving in the wrong direction.

We renew our pledge to offer the resources and services of our charitable agencies and health services to any woman experiencing an unplanned pregnancy, to support her in bearing her infant, raising her family or placing her child for adoption. There are life-affirming choices available, and we aim to make them more widely known and accessible.

Our Governor and legislative leaders hail this new abortion law as progress. This is not progress. Progress will be achieved when our laws and our culture once again value and respect each unrepeatable gift of human life, from the first moment of creation to natural death. Would that not make us truly the most enlightened and progressive state in the nation?

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Este domingo entre la primera lectura y el evangelio hay una distancia enorme. La primera lectura relata un momento de la historia de Israel en que el pueblo, una vez vuelto del destierro, escucha de nuevo la proclamación de la ley. Es la ley de Dios. Son las normas que Dios dio a sus padres en el pasado y que deben ser obedecidas en todo momento. A cambio el pueblo tendrá la vida. Si el pueblo fue vencido por sus enemigos y tuvo que ir al destierro, fue precisamente porque no obedeció esas normas como debía.

En el Evangelio nos encontramos con una situación muy distinta. Jesús ha vuelto a su ciudad natal después de un tiempo fuera. Ya ha comenzado su vida pública y a sus conciudadanos ha llegado su fama. Se siente enviado por Dios para predicar el Reino de Dios. ¿Estamos ante una nueva proclamación de la ley? ¿Va a dar Jesús unas normas nuevas en oposición a las que desde antiguo había recibido el pueblo? Posiblemente sus conciudadanos se hacían también estas preguntas. Por eso, cuando entra en la sinagoga, le invitan a hacer una lectura de los profetas y a que les hable.

Sorprendentemente, Jesús escoge un texto que no habla de normas ni de leyes. Habla más bien de él mismo y de su misión. Jesús se sirve de un texto del profeta Isaías para explicar a sus conciudadanos, y de paso también a nosotros, cuál es el contenido de su misión, por qué está predicando por los pueblos y los caminos de Galilea. Es que Jesús se siente dominado, poseído, por el Espíritu de Dios. Ese espíritu no hace de él alguien superior a los demás. No le convierte en un rey que, como el resto de los reyes de la tierra, se vale de su autoridad para dominar, oprimir y esclavizar. Él ha sido enviado para anunciar la buena nueva a los pobres, liberar a los cautivos y devolver la vista a los ciegos. Ésa es su misión.

No se trata por tanto de que Dios, a través de Jesús, nos vaya a dar normas nuevas, quizá más fáciles, quizá más difíciles, que tenemos que obedecer. En absoluto. Jesús viene a hablarnos de un Dios que nos trae la salvación, que quiere que seamos libres, que dejemos de sufrir, que seamos felices. Ésa es la misión de Jesús. Los que hoy formamos su comunidad, somos los encargados de llevar esta buena nueva a los que sufren, a los oprimidos, a los cautivos, a los pobres. Para que todos conozcan al Dios que nos ama y nos salva.

Para la reflexión

¿Hay cerca de ti personas que necesitan ser liberadas de alguna opresión? ¿Tú mismo, quizá? ¿Cómo te libera Jesús?
¿Cómo libera a tu familia? ¿Te dejas liberar?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
