Focus on Religious Freedom
www.cffor.org -March for Life 2019
“RELIGIOUS LIBERTY
Protects the Right to CHOOSE LIFE.”

Participants in the March for Life exercised the 5 rights in our 1st Amendment:

- Freedom of Religion - Speaking and acting in public, driven by faith and conscience
- Freedom of Speech - Speaking opinions publicly, without fear
- Freedom of Press - Thoughts, opinions and prayers disseminated openly
- Right to Peaceably Assemble – Marching, standing and associating together without violence
- Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances - The entire March for Life is a public admonishment of the Supreme Court for assuming to itself the power to legalize abortion

For 46 years the March for Life has been a growing witness, especially from young Americans, to the sacred gift of life. Our organizers experienced the joy, hope and dedication of students from across the nation as they spoke with us at our March for Life exhibit in Washington.

“A person has a property of peculiar value in his religious opinions and in the profession and practice dictated by them.” James Madison

“Our rights are more than ideas, expressions or ideologies. Our rights are actual property and we ought not stand idly by when our property, or the property of neighbor, is taken unjustly.”

WE ARE ALL CALLED

This Sunday, we learn that each of us are called to serve the Lord in some capacity. The interesting thing is that both Isaiah and Peter, who are called, both feel unworthy. That is natural. No one is worthy for the Lord. However, the Lord has made himself worthy for us by being born into the world like us, embracing our humanity and giving us a share in his life.

Isaiah was very young when the Lord called him to serve. Israel was divided into two kingdoms, Judah and Israel. Both states were not following God's ways. So God chose the young Isaiah to lead the people back to him. Isaiah felt unworthy. Even though he may have felt unworthy, this was not an obstacle to God. God made Isaiah aware of his sinfulness and then cleansed him so that he could carry out his plan. God gave him the strength to speak his word, interpret his will and call his people and leaders to seek forgiveness and return to God's ways. At every Mass, right before the Gospel, the priest recalls this event by asking God to cleanse his lips or by praying over the Deacon for God to cleanse his lips so that they can worthily proclaim the Gospel.

Peter is similar to Isaiah in that he too was young and sinful. Peter was also probably more stubborn. Yet, after resisting Jesus' call to drop his nets, he finally listens to his call. That makes all the difference. When we listen to the Lord, great things will happen. We are all called to serve the Lord as Priests, Prophets and Kings from our Baptism. Read paragraph 31 of Lumen Gentium, the Constitution on the Church. There are some of us who are called in a particular way to become an ordained priest, deacon, or religious sister or brother. Jesus may be calling you to share your gifts and talents this way.

Do you know someone who may consider the ordained priesthood?

One special event in March is the retreat for young men ages 16-35 who may have a calling to the priesthood. Bishop John Barres will lead this retreat at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, NY, March 8th through March 10th. There may be a member of your family or someone you know who may be a possible candidate for this retreat. If you know of someone, ask them to consider attending. Go out into the deep and bring others to Jesus. If we don't invite or encourage someone we know, they may never consider the priesthood. My dream was to serve as a meteorologist like Elliot Abrams of Accu-Weather. However, the Lord called me to serve him as a priest by helping people through the storms of life or to recognize his presence when all is bright. I am grateful to God for that. If you or someone you know is interested, please contact me or one of the priests here at the parish or the Vocations Office at (516) 678-5800 x214

vocations@drvc.org

Here is a Prayer for us to catch people for Jesus like the disciples: - Father God, we want the hands of the true fisher of men. Lord, help us not to be afraid to go wherever the fish are. Let us not be afraid to get our hands dirty. Father help us not to just "catch and release" new converts, let us also be disciplers of people as well. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR JEANNE CALHOUN

Jeanne Calhoun, our parish bookkeeper, will not be in the office for the next 4 weeks because she had knee surgery last week. Please keep Jeanne in your prayers for a full and speedy recovery. In the meantime, any business you may need with the business office, please contact Dave Fantry (Ext 118) on Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays or Joan Della Ratta (Ext 117)

Fr. REID IS BACK AND HE THANKS YOU!

I am happy to report that Fr. R. Michael Reid is back! He thanks everyone for their prayers, cards, gifts and concern while he was in the hospital and in rehabilitation. He recently celebrated 7:30am Mass last Sunday, February 3rd. Please continue to keep him in your prayers so that he continues to improve.

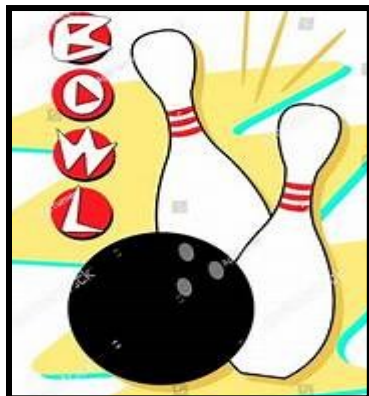

Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

 Joan and Anne

In the Gospel today, the disciples decide to leave everything to follow Jesus. We are also called to follow Jesus, who tells us that “whatever you do to the least of mine, you do for me.”

Our gift to the poor can bring the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

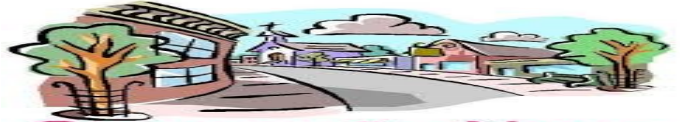

“Continuing our Mission”

We have as of February 5, 2019 reached $1,588,183.80 in pledges and $1,337,016.80 in paid pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Please join Bishop Barres in congratulating and giving thanks to the Holy Father for the historic appointment of Bishop Robert Brennan as Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus, Ohio.

Until Bishop-designate Brennan's installation as Bishop of Columbus on March 29, 2019, Bishop Frederick F. Campbell will continue leading the Diocese.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Seguro que todos hemos visitado alguna de esas iglesias antiguas en las que en el ábside, pintado o en un mosaico, encima del altar, se ve la figura enorme de un Cristo. No está crucificado sino sentado en un trono. Tiene en sus manos los signos de la realeza. Y le rodean los apóstoles, los ángeles y los santos. Es una representación de la corte celestial. Cristo en todo su poder. Esa representación se llama "Pantocrátor". Quería comunicar a los que la veían la solemnidad, la majestad y la eternidad de Dios. Ante esa imagen, la respuesta del hombre es la que da Isaías en la primera lectura: "¡Ay de mí, estoy perdido!" La majestad y el poder de Dios es tan grande que nos sentimos totalmente anulados ante él.

Pero el Evangelio nos cuenta otra historia. Nos cuenta una historia real.

Algo que ha sucedido en nuestro mundo. Aquel Dios, que estaba representado en todo su poder y majestad, se ha bajado de su trono, se ha acercado a nosotros, se ha hecho uno de nosotros. Ha caminado por nuestras calles y habla nuestro idioma. Ha sentido el frío y el calor. Ha llorado y ha reído con nosotros. En Jesús Dios se hace carne, se encarna. Ésa es la historia, la gran historia, que nos cuenta el Evangelio. El Evangelio de hoy nos acerca a un momento de la vida de Jesús. Está hablando de Dios a la gente, cerca del lago. El gentío es grande y pide a Pedro que le deje subir a su barca para hablar desde ahí. Cuando termina, le invita a remar mar adentro para echar las redes. Ahí se produce la confusión. Ya habían estado toda la noche trabajando y no habían pescado nada. Pero en su nombre vuelven a echar las redes. Se produce el milagro. Y, curiosamente la reacción de Pedro es parecida a la del profeta Isaías en la primera lectura: "Apártate de mí, Señor, que soy un pecador". Pedro se da cuenta de que Jesús es algo más que un predicador, que un profeta. Jesús es Dios mismo. No es el Dios en poder de la primera lectura, pero es Dios. Es Dios cercano, hecho hombre, amable, lleno de compasión y misericordia.

Curiosamente también, Dios actúa del mismo modo tanto en la primera lectura como en Evangelio: salva, purifica, perdona y envía. El profeta se sentía perdido e impuro, Pedro se sentía pecador. A los dos, Dios les recoge, les levanta y les hace colaboradores de su plan de salvación. "No temas, desde ahora serás pescador de hombres". Para Isaías y para Pedro, y también para nosotros que escuchamos hoy estas lecturas, se abre un nuevo futuro más allá de nuestras limitaciones, de nuestros pecados. Dios nos llama a colaborar con él, a ser mensajeros y testigos de su amor y de su misericordia para todos los hombres y mujeres. Y todo eso por pura gracia y amor de Dios (segunda lectura).

Para la reflexión

Cuando entro en la Iglesia y me pongo en la presencia de Dios, ¿me siento perdido como Isaías o pecador como Pedro? ¿O experimento que

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
