For Couples Who Are Planning a Wedding

When planning your wedding, it is important to remember to reserve the date with the Church before booking your reception venue. We receive many calls from couples who reserve the venue first and then are disappointed when the Church is not available on that date.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

All Catholics fourteen years and older, are bound to abstain entirely from meat on all the Fridays of Lent.

TO EXPERIENCE A RESURRECTION, AN EXODUS IS NECESSARY

Every Second Sunday of Lent, we hear the Gospel story of the Transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain. Each of the Gospel writers Matthew, Mark and Luke have their own take on the events of that day. While the theme of darkness, resurrection and glory are the same, there are some points that the different authors like to stress. In Luke's Gospel, we get the sense of the importance of the Exodus. The great Exodus that we all know from the Book of Exodus is the freedom of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. This was the most transformative event of their lives. They were in Egypt after hundreds of years in slavery. Now, by God, acting through Moses, they were saved by journeying through the Red Sea and the hardship of the desert only to have a whole new life in the Promised Land of Israel.

For us, Jesus' death and resurrection is our Exodus from the slavery to sin and death to a whole new life of freedom. The Transfiguration of Jesus, serves as a foretaste of the resurrection of Jesus. This event happened to help the disciples not to be discouraged and to give them a boost to face the suffering of Jesus on the cross to come. We see however, that Peter wants to stay on the mountain. He, and probably the other disciples, want to remain in glory as symbolized by the building of three tents. However, for Jesus, we have to keep moving toward the cross. In order to experience the fullness of the Exodus of the Resurrection, they must journey on with Jesus to the cross just like the Israelites had to journey through the desert to the promised land. Jesus reveals to us that we too have to go through our Exodus of the Cross of our lives in order to "enter into his glory."

The question we need to ponder during this second week of Lent is, what Cross do we need to face and embrace in our lives? Are we running away from it or are we journeying toward it like Jesus and his disciples. Remember, that no matter the suffering we face in this world, we have Christ who can lead us through it and overcome it. Also, St. Paul tells us (Romans 8:18) that the suffering we experience in this world is nothing compared to the glory that Christ Jesus will reveal to us in Heaven. We just need to take time and listen to the words of Jesus and be open to the moments of glory his presence, like going to Mass..

MY PARISH APP

Last year, each parish in the Diocese was given a gift by being able to subscribe to a smart phone application called MY PARISH APP, for free. This year however beginning in March, the application has a fee. The parish has to pay $105 for its use on a monthly basis. The app is used to help us read the parish bulletins easily on our phones, read about different teachings of the church and to receive messages from the parish about current events. If you use the App, and would like to continue to use it, please consider a donation. I am not sure how long we can continue to have it if the parish has to pay this monthly bill without your help.

THE CREED FOR LENT AND EASTER

During Lent and Easter, after the homily, we will pray the Apostles Creed. This is the original statement of belief that the early Christians used at Baptism. Since this is the season of preparing and receiving Baptism for our catechumens, what better time to pray the Apostles Creed to remind us of the importance of our Baptism.

GUYS AND DOLLS PLAY-AT HICKSVILLE HS

Congratulations to all the young men and women who acted or worked at the play of Guys and Dolls at Hicksville High School last weekend. Your hard work was evident in the fruits of the play. It was nice to see some of our parishioners involved in this play. You brought the presence of Jesus, even if you were not conscious of it. It is also a great sign of hope to see such talent in all of our young people. May God bless you for your gifts and endeavors.

Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

St. Patrick's Breastplate

I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

I arise today through the strength of Christ birth with His Baptism, through the strength of His Crucifixion with His Burial, through the strength of His Resurrection with His Ascension, through the strength of His descent for the Judgment of Doom.

I arise today through the strength of the love of Cherubim, in obedience of Angels, in the service of the Archangels, in hope of resurrection to meet with reward, in prayers of Patriarchs, in predictions of Prophets, in preachings of Apostles, in faiths of Confessors, in innocence of Holy Virgins, in deeds of righteous men.

I arise today, through the strength of Heaven: light of Sun, brilliance of Moon, splendour of Fire, speed of Lightning, swiftness of Wind, depth of Sea, stability of Earth, firmness of Rock.

I arise today, through God's strength to pilot me, God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak for me, God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me, God's host to secure me: against snares of devils, against temptations of vices, against inclinations of nature, against everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and anear, alone and in a crowd.

I summon today all these powers between me (and these evils): against every cruel and merciless power that may oppose my body and my soul, against incantations of false prophets, against black laws of heathenry, against false laws of heretics, against craft of idolatry, against spells of witches and smiths and wizards, against every knowledge that endangers man's body and soul. Christ to protect me today against poison, against burning, against drowning, against wounding, so that there may come abundance of reward.

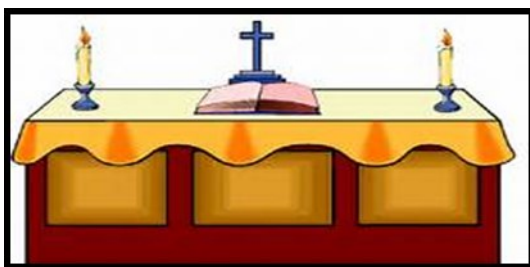

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ in breadth, Christ in length, Christ in height, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

Amen.

Congratulations to Tom Kennedy who was recognized by Nassau County and County Legislator Rose Marie Walker for all the hard work he has done for Cub Scout Troop 382. Tom is an outstanding role model for service and leadership. May God bless him in all of his endeavors.

As you can see by the photos below, a great time was had by all at this year's Mardi Gras. The Mardi Gras helped pave the way for the Season of Lent. Thank you to all who participated. Thank you to all of the members of our Activities Committee for their hard work. They can always use another hand. If you are interested, contact the Rectory to be a part of this exciting ministry. To be a part of the parish, become involved! Peace, Fr. Jim

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Si el domingo pasado se nos recordaba nuestra identidad cristiana como parte fundamental de nuestro ser, las lecturas de este domingo nos invitan a tomar conciencia de que esa identidad no la poseemos todavía. Aunque la hayamos recibido como herencia, la tenemos que hacer nuestra. La fe nos viene dada por haber nacido en una familia cristiana, la fe pertenece a nuestra herencia cultural, pero es nuestra responsabilidad convertir esa herencia en una realidad viva. Del mismo modo que nuestros mayores la vivieron y a través de ellos, de su testimonio vital, la hemos recibido, igualmente sólo seremos capaces de entregársela a la próxima generación en la medida en que la fe forme parte de nuestra vida cotidiana.

El Evangelio de hoy nos relata la historia de la transfiguración. El hecho de que Jesús se transfigurara ante los apóstoles pone de manifiesto que aquellos no poseían todavía la fe plena. No eran capaces de verle tal cual era. No eran capaces de verle todavía con los ojos de la fe. Lo veían apenas como un hombre. Un hombre grande, ciertamente. Pero apenas un hombre. Jesús se transfigura delante de ellos para que se den cuenta de quien es. A los apóstoles les queda todavía un largo camino de maduración en la fe, de ir creciendo al lado de Jesús, de aprender a vivir de acuerdo con el Evangelio. Lo mejor de esta historia es que Jesús no les deja solos en ese proceso. Está con ellos, los acompaña, los ayuda, los orienta. Es paciente con sus errores. Cuando caen, los levanta y los anima para que sigan caminando con él. La transfiguración no es más que una etapa en el camino de seguir a Jesús. Suben al monte y luego bajan. Sigue el camino, a veces difícil, pero los apóstoles saben ahora que tienen a Jesús con ellos. Que no les va a dejar de su mano.

Nosotros estamos en una situación parecida. De nuestros padres, de nuestros mayores, hemos recibido una herencia cristiana, una herencia de fe. Fue el mejor tesoro que nos pudieron dar. Nos lo dieron con amor. Ahora es nuestra responsabilidad que esa fe esté viva, que ser cristianos sea algo más que un mero nombre. No siempre es fácil vivir como cristiano. En el trabajo, en casa, con los amigos, con los hijos. A veces surgen problemas. Hay momentos difíciles. Pero sabemos que Jesús siempre está con nosotros. Podemos confiar en él porque nunca nos abandona. En este tiempo de Cuaresma, la Iglesia nos pide que revitalicemos nuestra fe. Para que nuestra herencia cristiana no sea como ese tesoro que se entierra y no sirve para nada. Para que sea como el campo que trabajado, abonado y regado da muchos frutos de vida para nosotros y para nuestras familias.

Para la reflexión

Ser cristiano, vivir y actuar como tal. ¿es algo que sólo es de los domingos por la mañana, cuando voy a misa? ¿Que significa para mí ser cristiano en el trabajo? ¿Y con mi familia, con mis hijos? ¿Qué tendría que cambiar en mi vida para que ser cristiano algo más que de nombre?

Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco:

Debido a su condición de salud, el Diacono José Contreras, me ha pedido un tiempo de descanso de sus funciones Diaconales. Le he concedido un periodo de tiempo de aproximadamente 6 meses para que pueda encontrar la causa de su malestar. Tal vez lo vean en las misas pero no en el altar. Oremos por el Diacono José y su familia para que pueda reintegrarse pronto a sus funciones de Diacono.

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

La Cuaresma es un llamado no solo a “Abstenerse de algo” sino lo mas importante, es “dar algo para el pobre”. En donde quiera que viva cerca de la parroquia, siempre hay familias pobres a una corta distancia de su casa. Cuando tienen necesidad, ellos tocan la puerta de la rectoría. Ellos están en realidad tocando la puerta de su casa.

Conoce a alguna familia que necesite asistencia? Por favor llame a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul para que juntos podamos ayudar al que sufre y al pobre.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

*Remember always to forget
The troubles that have passed away
But remember to remember
The blessings of each day.*
