Confirmation

What is it, who can receive it, when can it be received, and who administers it? So many questions. Where do we begin?

Confirmation is a sacrament; it is one of the Sacraments of Initiation of the Catholic Church (Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation). The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes Confirmation as a deepening of baptismal gifts. Through the action of these sacraments, we become disciples of Jesus. Baptism and Confirmation can only be administered once. Through Baptism, we begin our journey as Catholic Christians; Confirmation is the deepening of our Christian identity – we assume the responsibility for living our faith as Catholics.

Every Baptized Christian can be Confirmed. Confirmation is usually administered by a successor of the Apostles – the Bishop of the Diocese. The rite is usually celebrated in the context of the Mass. The candidates are presented to the Bishop who first asks the candidates to renew their Baptismal promises. He then asks everyone to join him in silent prayer for the candidates as he extends his hands over them (a symbol of imposition of hands), asking God to grant them the Spirit as Helper and Guide and to fill them with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Then one by one each candidate, with their sponsor, approaches the Bishop who calls them by their chosen name and traces a cross on their forehead with Chrism (blessed oil) saying “Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.”

I said that the usual administrator of Confirmation is the Bishop. There is one special case each year when the Bishop delegates the pastor of each parish with special authority on Pentecost Sunday, when the Church recalls the first Confirmation of the Apostles. At a specific Mass, the Pastor can confirm adult (persons over 18 years of age) candidates using the same rite.

Around two weeks ago, we had a Lenten Parish Renewal with Fr. Frank De Siano and in the same week we had a Lenten Soup Supper with Sr. Christine Sammons, OP as our Guest Speaker.. Both events were very moving as we prepare ourselves for Easter Sunday. We want to thank our Activities Committee for the beautiful Lenten Soup Supper. We must also thank our Music Director, Jennifer Toohey and Organist, Jennifer Barsamian along with our Sacristans, Tony Condron and Jeff Wallick for all the work they did in making this Mission a very special one.. Thank you Sr. Christine and Fr. De Siano and to all who came and participated in these meaningful spiritual events.

We would like to share with you some photos that were taken:

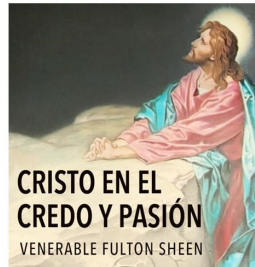

LISTEN:

Fr. Mike Schmitz shares important insights on the meaning of Christ's Cross. He shows how God's rescue mission for us includes the need for each person to embrace his own cross in order to reestablish trust in the Father and the understanding that love requires sacrifice.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Cristo es la luz del mundo. No es el nombre de ninguna secta. Se trata de la luz verdadera que iluminará el camino de nuestra vida para alcanzar la salvación eterna. Pero cuando los hombres nos empeñamos en ver la "luz" con gafas de madera o simplemente no la aceptamos por soberbia, a Cristo no le queda otra más que respetar nuestra libertad.

Los fariseos vieron al ciego de nacimiento muchas veces antes de que fuese curado, pues si era mendigo lo más seguro es que estuviese a la puerta del templo. Pero, ¿por qué ahora le echan en cara de que es un farsante? ¿Por qué ahora no ven el milagro venido de Dios por ser realizado en sábado? Por soberbia y orgullo, por no considerarse como lo que realmente son, simples cables cuya función es la de transmitir la palabra de Dios.

A nosotros también nos puede entrar el pecado de la soberbia si no estamos atentos. Podemos ver signos evidentes de la presencia de Dios, de su amor en nuestra vida y no aceptarlos porque somos más ciegos que el ciego de nacimiento.

Por eso, hay que estar abiertos a la luz de la verdad que es Cristo y no cegarnos en nuestra soberbia. Aceptar a Cristo, aceptar su amistad y su amor, aceptar la verdad de sus palabras y creer en sus promesas; reconocer que su enseñanza nos conducirá a la felicidad y, finalmente, a la vida eterna.

Mensaje de Nuestro Pastor:

Debido a su condición de salud, el Diacono José Contreras, me ha pedido un tiempo de descanso de sus funciones Diaconales. Le he concedido un periodo de tiempo de aproximadamente 6 meses para que pueda encontrar la causa de su malestar. Tal vez lo vean en las misas pero no en el altar. Oremos por el Diacono José y su familia para que pueda reintegrarse pronto a sus funciones de Diacono.

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

En el Evangelio de hoy, el hijo prodigo se arrepiente y encuentra misericordia en el corazón de su Padre. Sepa que su penitencia durante la Cuaresma puede dar a los pobres la gracia de encontrar el corazón misericordioso de Dios Padre.

A través de su limosna esta usted realizando un bien trabajo; mucho mas grande de lo que piensa. Sepa que su moneda de cinco, de diez o de veinticinco centavos se multiplica por las monedas colocadas por otros en la caja de los pobres de San Vicente de Paul.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
