TO GOD, THERE IS NO SIN THAT IS UNFORGIVEABLE

In today's Gospel, we are invited into the drama of the adulterous woman who is about to be stoned to death. Yet, we see how Jesus responds to the men who want to stone her and the adulterous woman. He writes something in the ground that some say could have been the sins of the men who were going to stone her to death. Then he forgives the woman and says "go and sin no more".

This tells us of the merciful way God responds to us when we sin. While God desires us not to sin, he is all loving and merciful toward us when we sin and challenges us like the adulterous person to change our hearts and our ways. In addition as Pope Francis says, "God never tires of forgiving us of our sins". What better place to experience God's forgiveness than in the Sacrament of Reconciliation also known as Confession and Penance. In a daily homily in 2015, Pope Francis states that "confession is not a judgement nor is it like going to the dry cleaners who remove the stain of sins. It is the encounter with a Father who always forgives, forgives all, forgets the faults of the past and then even celebrates". In confession not only are our sins forgiven, but it also helps us to be able to get to the root of the sin, where we need healing, so as to prevent more sins in the future. But, we should keep going until we see the Lord face to face in eternal life.

Please take every opportunity next Monday of Holy Week, April 15th when St. Ignatius and all of the parishes in Nassau, Suffolk, Queens, Brooklyn, Manhattan and the downstate counties of New York offer Confessions from 3pm to 9pm. If you feel funny coming to the priests you know here at the parish, then go to the other parishes. Remember, that anything said in confession is held under a seal that can never be revealed according to Church teaching.

THE BELLS OF ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA

You may have heard of or even watched the Bells of St. Mary's (1945) starring Bing Crosby and Ingrid Berman. In the movie, they even sing a song called the Bells of St. Mary's. This weekend I am writing about the Bells of St. Ignatius Loyola. Up in our tower, we have two bells, a small one that was brought from the original church and a larger one that was donated in the 1890's. The larger bells weighs approximately 755 pounds that is next to the older one. The parishioners who donated that bell are William Braun, Henry C. Stolz, Valentine Lotterman, Sebastian Braun and August Schreiber. They convinced Fr. Lawrence Fuchs that a new bell was imperative and that it would give a strong voice to the community.

Since then, we have had a digital carillon for quite some time. Today, you may have noticed a different more fuller sound in our bells. Recently, we purchased a new carillon of bells called The Adagio II Carillon from the Verdin Company. This is a fully automatic digital carrion system providing the traditional sound of real cast bronze bless and bell music. The Adagio II provides a simple convenient way to instantly ring bells or play music. The Adagio II comes pre-packaged with a wide variety of carillon bells, music, hymns, liturgical bell functions, Westminster clock, chime melody, hour strikes as well as general religious music favorites. As we journey toward Holy Week and Easter, please tune your ears to the beautiful music that will come from our tower. I hope the bells will help to lift our hearts more in prayer, knowing that God is always close to us.

PALM SUNDAY AND HOLY WEEK

Please note the schedule for Palm Sunday and Holy Week and the Triduum (3 days). The 9:30am Mass will begin at 9:15am in Msgr. Tarrant Hall. We will then process from the hall to the front of the church. All people are expected to meet in the Old School building unless you have difficulty walking.

Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Why Would Anyone Become Catholic?

Why would intelligent, successful people give up careers, alienate friends, and cause havoc in their families...to become Catholic? As he was considering his own move into the Church, Donald Johnson traveled around the country to get answers from some of today's most prolific Catholic converts.

UnPlanned

“UnPlanned” has opened in Theatres.

Be sure to see this powerful film

For those who are unfamiliar with Abbey Johnson's story, the film, UnPlanned, is based on the powerful book by the same name.

Abbey was the former Director of a Planned Parenthood Clinic who ultimately went through a complete crisis of heart and conscience by all that she experienced and witnessed. Since that time, she has assisted over 500 employees to leave Planned Parenthood. Her testimony is, again, both powerful and compelling. Regardless of your perspective, there is no doubt that her testimony needs to be a crucial component of the national conversation.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

manifestación del poder, la maravilla de las maravillas.

Regresando de ultratumba, Lázaro sale a nuestro encuentro portador de una nueva forma de vencer la muerte, revelador de un nuevo tipo de resurrección. Antes de examinar en profundidad este hecho, contemplemos las circunstancias externas de la resurrección, ya que la resurrección es el milagro de los milagros, la máxima

El Señor había resucitado a la hija de Jairo, jefe de la sinagoga, pero lo hizo restituyendo simplemente la vida a la niña, sin franquear las fronteras de ultratumba. Resucitó asimismo al hijo único de su madre, pero lo hizo deteniendo el ataúd, como anticipándose al sepulcro, como suspendiendo la corrupción y previniendo la fetidez, como si devolviera la vida al muerto antes de que la muerte hubiera reivindicado todos sus derechos.

En cambio, en el caso de Lázaro todo es diferente: su muerte y su resurrección nada tienen en común con los casos precedentes: en él la muerte desplegó todo su poder y la resurrección brilla con todo su esplendor. Incluso me atrevería a decir que si Lázaro hubiera resucitado al tercer día, habría evacuado toda la sacramentalidad de la resurrección del Señor: pues Cristo volvió al tercer día a la vida, como Señor que era; Lázaro fue resucitado al cuarto día, como siervo.

Mas, para probar lo que acabamos de decir, examinemos algunos detalles del relato evangélico. Dice: Las hermanas le mandaron recado a Jesús, diciendo: «Señor, tu amigo está enfermo». Al expresarse de esta manera, intentan pulsar la fibra sensible, interpelan al amor, apelan a la caridad, tratan de estimular la amistad acudiendo a la necesidad. Pero Cristo, que tiene más interés en vencer la muerte que en repeler la enfermedad; Cristo, cuyo amor radica no en aliviar al amigo, sino en devolverle la vida, no facilita al amigo un remedio contra la enfermedad, sino que le prepara inmediatamente la gloria de la resurrección.

Por eso, cuando se enteró —dice el evangelista— de que Lázaro estaba enfermo, se quedó todavía dos días en donde estaba. Fijaos cómo da lugar a la muerte, licencia al sepulcro, da libre curso a los agentes de la corrupción, no pone obstáculo alguno a la putrefacción ni a la fetidez; consiente en que el abismo arrebate, se lleve consigo, posea. En una palabra, actúa de forma que se esfume toda humana esperanza y la desesperanza humana cobre sus cotas más elevadas, de modo que lo que se dispone a hacer se vea ser algo divino y no humano.

Se limita a permanecer donde está en espera del desenlace, para dar él mismo la noticia de la muerte, y anunciar entonces su decisión de ir a casa de Lázaro. Lázaro —dice— ha muerto, y me alegro. ¿Es esto amar? Se alegraba Cristo porque la tristeza de la muerte en seguida se convertiría en el gozo de la resurrección. Me alegro por vosotros. Y ¿por qué por vosotros? Pues porque la muerte y la resurrección de Lázaro era ya un bosquejo exacto de la muerte y resurrección del Señor, y lo que luego iba a suceder con el Señor, se anticipa ya en el siervo. Era necesaria la muerte de

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
