SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, April 7, 2019 $11,623

Sunday, April 8, 2018 $12,536

HOLY WEEK-PALM SUNDAY-LK. 14-23:56

While it's hard to believe, we have entered into the most sacred time of the year, Holy Week. My hope is that this Lenten season has been fulfilling and grace-filled in helping you journey closer to God.

This period of Holy Week is not only a time for us to weep for our sinfulness, but also a time to be grateful because this is the week that changed and saved the world. Instead of just focusing on Jesus' sufferings 2,000 years ago, we should focus on the love that underlies this suffering. Jesus died because of his great love for you and me so that we can experience a redemption that brings us an eternal life with God forever. Jesus has shown us how to be obedient to the Father by surrendering his life for the Mission of establishing his Kingdom on earth. He said at the Garden of Gethsemane "Father, not my will but yours be done." We also need to focus on how Jesus is still suffering today in our brothers and sisters who are poor, sick, addicted, suffering and in need.

Jesus' journey to Calvary is as much our journey as it is His. Any crosses that we carry in our lives, is helped by the fact that we do not carry them alone. He is right there alongside us. We can shift its weight to Him because we are intimately united with Him through the Paschal Mystery (Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection). Since he overcame the cross, we realize that we too with our trust in Him, can face any obstacles that life places on our path.

There are two images of mercy, only found in Luke's Gospel to reflect upon. Jesus forgives everyone in the midst of the most painful moment of his life from the cross. No matter if they are the soldiers, the mob spitting at him, Pilate or the Pharisees, he says "Father forgive them they know not what they do." Then Jesus forgives the repentant thief who asks to be remembered in Jesus' Kingdom. Jesus says, "today you will be with me in Paradise". Right upon death, the thief becomes the first citizen of creation reconciled and restored. It also challenges us to welcome all others with the same unconditional unfailing mercy with which Jesus welcomes us. The Holy Week/Easter season is the right time to begin. Take advantage of it!

THE EASTER TRIDUUM- Lent ends on Holy Thursday Evening with the Mass of the Lord's Supper. At this time, we begin the Easter Triduum (The 3 Days-Holy Thursday Evening, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, Easter Sunday).

These are the days where we can best express our thanksgiving to Jesus for his ultimate sacrifice of giving his life for us. We invite you to participate in the following:

Morning Prayer at 9am and a Bi-lingual Mass on Holy Thursday,
Morning Prayer at 9am and the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, Morning Prayer at 9am and the Bi-lingual Mass of the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, and rise with Him on Easter Sunday at Mass during the day. Please join us and let the crucified and risen Christ speak to your heart!. Please consider taking time out from your regular schedule from work, play and other items on your list to join us and unite yourself with Jesus.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS—We welcome all our parishioners and visitors who have come to worship with us on this Palm Sunday Weekend. This year our collections have gone down. I ask that you be generous in this Sunday's collection to help us to rebuild our financial foundation.

RECONCILIATION MONDAY, APRIL 15, 2019 -Please join your brothers and sisters across Long Island and New York City in celebrating the sacrament of Reconciliation. Here at St. Ignatius, we will offer the sacrament from 3pm to 9pm. What better way to prepare for Holy Week and Easter then by seeking the Lord whose love for us is greater than any sin we can ever commit. The Confession Schedule for our priests here at St. Ignatius Loyola is as follows:

Fr. Jim 3-6pm

Fr. Andrés 3-5pm& 6-9pm(Español)

Fr. Ben 3-5pm & 6-9pm

Fr. Frank 5-6pm & 7-9pm

Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us! Fr. Jim, Pastor

WATCH:

The New Evangelization requires a new apologetics, that is, a defense of the faith that responds to the questions that believers and non-believers alike are asking today with philosophical and theological arguments rooted in Sacred Scripture, Catholic Tradition, and the best philosophical reflection available.

Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Session 5: Answering Common Questions About Confession

Is this sacrament some arbitrary requirement or does it have an inner logic? The answer to these and many more questions about Confession begins and ends with love.

There will be a Pastoral Council meeting at 7:30pm on Monday, April 15, 2019 in the Rectory at the Lower Level.

UnPlanned

"UnPlanned" has opened in Theatres. Be sure to see this powerful film.

For those who are unfamiliar with Abbey Johnson's story, the film, UnPlanned, is based on the powerful book by the same name.

Abbey was the former Director of a Planned Parenthood Clinic who ultimately went through a complete crisis of heart and conscience by all that she experienced and witnessed. Since that time, she has assisted over 500 employees to leave Planned Parenthood. Her testimony is, again, both powerful and compelling. Regardless of your perspective, there is no doubt that her testimony needs to be a crucial component of the national conversation.

Martha's Guild Rosary Making

The next session of Martha's Guild Rosary Making will be Wednesday, April 17th from 3 to 5pm in the Old School Cafeteria, Rm. B.

COLLECTION FOR HOLY LAND ON GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 2019

On Good Friday, our parish will take up the annual Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land. Each day, the news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the shrinking Christian community there, a community that struggles to remain in the land of Christ’s birth, death and resurrection. Please help support our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land by giving to the Good Friday Collection. This Pontifical Collection allows the Franciscans and others to continue caring for Christianity’s holiest sites and for God’s people in the Holy Land. Please be generous.

El Viernes Santo, nuestra parroquia llevara a cabo la colecta anual del Viernes Santo para la Tierra Santa. Las noticias diarias nos recuerdan de la violencia y la inestabilidad que atormenta al Medio Oriente, pero nosotros raramente escuchamos de la disminuyente comunidad Cristiana que se encuentra alla, una comunidad que lucha por permanecer en la tierra del nacimiento, muerte y resurreccion de Christo. Por favor ayude a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la Tierra Santa. Esta colecta pontifical permite que los Franciscanos y otros continuen trabajando pos los Cristianos en los lugares mas santos y por el pueblo de Dios en la Tierra Santa. Por favor sea generoso con su ayuda.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

La celebración de hoy me trae a la memoria aquel refrán que dice "qué poco dura la alegría en la casa del pobre".

Pasamos muy rápidamente de la celebración de la entrada triunfal de Jesús en Jerusalén a la lectura de la Pasión. Todo en la misma celebración. Oímos al pueblo aclamar a Jesús a su entrada en Jerusalén. Y poco después es el mismo pueblo el que grita ante Pilatos exigiendo que éste condene a Jesús a morir en la cruz.

Hoy nos podemos encontrar nosotros reflejados en ese pueblo. Ya hemos terminado la Cuaresma. Esos cuarenta días nos han ayudado probablemente a conocernos un poco mejor. Sabemos de nuestras incoherencias, de nuestras infidelidades, de nuestras debilidades. Al repasar nuestra vida recordamos que ha habido momentos en los que nos hemos dejado llevar por el entusiasmo. Fueron momentos en los que nos identificamos con Pedro y, como él, le dijimos a Jesús que le íbamos a seguir a donde fuese necesario, que siempre estaríamos a su lado. Como el pueblo de Jerusalén a la entrada de Jesús sobre el borrico, le aclamamos como nuestro señor y nuestro salvador.

Pero también recordamos los muchos momentos en que hemos sido también como ese pueblo de Jerusalén pero unos días más tarde. O como Pedro en el momento de la dificultad. Le hemos negado, hemos abandonado sus caminos y hemos puesto el corazón y la vida y la esperanza en otros señores que nos han llevado inevitablemente a la esclavitud y a la muerte. Como el pueblo de Jerusalén en el momento de la Pasión, hemos gritado "Crucifícale". Y como Pedro hemos preferido decir que no le conocíamos de nada, que nosotros no sabemos nada y que nunca nos hemos cruzado con ese señor al que llaman Jesús.

Nuestra vida se va haciendo también de esas inconstancias e incoherencias. Pero frente a todo ello está la coherencia y constancia de Jesús, el Hijo de Dios, el enviado del Padre, empeñado en mostrarnos su amor hasta el final, hasta dar la vida totalmente por nosotros. Dios es tozudo en su amor. No se mueve ni un centímetro y, aunque nosotros digamos que no le conocemos de nada, sigue reconociéndonos como hijos y hermanos, como miembros queridos de su familia. Ahí está la clave de la celebración de la Semana Santa. Recordamos el amor de Dios por nosotros. Más fuerte que la muerte y, por supuesto, más fuerte que nuestro mismo pecado. El punto clave para entenderlo está en la mirada que lanza Jesús a Pedro cuando éste le ha negado por tercera vez. Fue una mirada llena de cariño. Le conocía bien en su debilidad. Pero no por eso le amaba menos. Hoy esa mirada nos llega a cada uno de nosotros. Nos conoce bien. Por dentro y por fuera. Y nos mira con cariño y amor total.

Para la reflexión

Hoy entramos en la Semana Santa. Ya no es tiempo de mirarnos a nosotros y a nuestras faltas sino de contemplar el amor de Dios manifestado en Jesús. Convendría que encontrásemos un tiempo a lo largo de esta semana para leer con tranquilidad la Pasión de Jesús en los cuatro evangelios. Y dejar que ese relato de amor nos llegue al corazón.
