Confession and Its Seal of Secrecy is Under Attack

A new bill in California seeks to remove "penitential communications" - the most sacred relationship between clergy and penitent in a formal confession - from current law. If the CA legislature enacts this bill, Catholic priests, bound by Canon Law not to disclose the contents of a confession, could face criminal prosecution and imprisonment for refusing to comply.

Catholics believe that confession is between the penitent and Christ with the priest representing Christ and able to talk to, advise, counsel, or simply listen to the person. The penalty for any priest who divulges anything heard in confession is automatic excommunication.

Since 2003, the states that have tried to force clergy to violate the seal of confession are Maryland, Kentucky, Nevada, Florida, New Hampshire, and Louisiana. All introduced bills were eventually rejected and did not pass into law.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER - "SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY"

The celebration of the Sunday of the Divine Mercy takes place on the second Sunday of Easter. What is it and why is this day so important for Catholics? These are some things we should know about this important day of Divine Mercy:

Sunday of Divine Mercy is based on private revelations

The celebration of this feast is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish religious who received messages from Jesus about his Divine Mercy in the town of Plock, Poland.

It is part of the calendar of the Church since Pope Saint John Paul II

In the year 2000, Pope Saint John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina and during the ceremony he declared: "Therefore, it is important that we fully accept the message given to us by the Word of God on this second Sunday of Easter, which from now on, the whole Church will designate with the name of 'Sunday of the Divine Mercy' ". (Homily, April 30, 2000)

The Church invites to celebrate the Divine Mercy in various beautiful ways

The Church dispenses a plenary indulgence to those who celebrate devoutly: "to make the faithful live this celebration with intense piety, the same Supreme Pontiff (John Paul II) has established that the aforementioned Sunday be enriched with plenary indulgence so that the faithful may receive more abundantly the gift of the consolation of the Holy Spirit and thus cultivate a growing charity towards God and neighbor, and once obtained from God the forgiveness of their sins, they in turn generously forgive their brothers. " [Decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary of 2002]

The Divine Mercy is linked to the Gospel of the second Sunday of Easter

The image of the Divine Mercy represents Jesus at the moment when he appears to the disciples in the Cenacle - after his Resurrection - when they are given the power to forgive or retain their sins. This moment is recorded in John 20: 19-31, which is the reading of the Gospel this Sunday. That passage is read that day because it includes the appearance of Jesus to the apostle Thomas, in which he invites him to touch his wounds. This event occurred on the eighth day after the Resurrection (John 20:26) and is, therefore, used in the liturgy eight days after Easter.

Confession is the action of Divine Mercy until the end of time

Jesus empowered the apostles (and their successors in the ministry) with the Holy Spirit to forgive or retain (not forgive) sins. Because they are empowered with the Spirit of God to do this, their administration of forgiveness is effective: it actually eliminates sin instead of just being a symbol of forgiveness.

Let us celebrate and enjoy this wonderful day of Divine Mercy in order to participate in its prizes and blessings that come to us from the open Heart of Jesus.

Fr. Andres A. Fernandez, Pastor Associate

CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS COLLECTION

MAY 4TH AND 5TH.

As you know, the annual collection for Catholic elementary schools is May 4/5. Half of the money collected in parishes with schools, and parishes that support regional schools, stays with the school, and the other half is sent to the Diocese and is given to Tomorrow's Hope Foundation for scholarships. The money from the non-school parish is sent to the diocese and goes for Tomorrow's Hope scholarships.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Jesus, I Trust In You!

The Divine Mercy image is a depiction of Jesus based on the devotion initiated by Saint Faustina Kowalska. "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish," Jesus told Faustina, according to her diary, which has been studied and authenticated by the Church over several decades. "I also promise victory over enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death."

Our Lady of Fatima Devotions

Our Lady of Fatima devotions will be held on Saturday, May 4, 2019, at 8:30AM, before the 9AM Mass.

Nocturnal Adoration Society

Nocturnal Adoration will be held this month on Saturday, May 4, 2019 It will begin at the conclusion of the 5:00 PM Mass and end with Benediction at 9:00PM. Come and spend one hour with the Lord. Everyone is welcome to join in this vigil of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

ADOPT A GARDEN

The “Adopt a Garden” volunteers strive to beautify the gardens and grounds around St. Ignatius Loyola. Each volunteer of volunteer family has an area that they keep beautify during the garden season, beginning around mid-May. You will need to weed, plant and water your adopted garden. About an hour a week is all that you will need to maintain your garden. Each adopted garden will have a sign with the volunteers name on it.

We have various sized gardens that are available for adoption. If you are interested, please call Bart at 516-225-4177 or Judy/Gene at 516-433-8037. Thank You and God bless you.

“Continuing our Mission”

Our goal: $1,500,000. We have as of April 15, 2019, received $1,376,286.45 in paid pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

Meet Payton, an adorable and courageous little girl, who just recently turned two years old. In October 2018 Payton was diagnosed with high-risk acute lymphoblastic leukemia (ALL) and is currently undergoing chemotherapy treatments at Cohen's Children's Hospital. Payton has two siblings, including a twin sister. Payton's mom and dad are not only dealing with the stress of a child battling pediatric cancer but they are also faced with burgeoning medical expenses.

If you would like to assist this family, come join us on May 5, 2019 (rain date May 19), from 8:30am-1pm, at our twelfth annual CYO Car Wash vs Cancer fundraiser at Holy Family School in Hicksville. The proceeds from this event will be donated to Payton's family. With only one parent working and mounting medical bills, this family really needs our help.

There are several ways you can help. First, come get your car washed. Second, volunteers to wash cars are desperately needed. Please let me know if you or your child are available to wash cars-even if it is just for an hour. Finally, donations are welcome. If you cannot attend the car wash but would like to donate please make your check payable to Eric Barboza (Payton's dad) and send to me at 2 Mitchell Ct. Hicksville NY 11801.

If you have any questions please email me at hebsweb@optonline.net or call me at 516 761 6647.

Thank you.

One Minute Meditations

St. Isidore of Seville

Born in Seville, Spain, St. Isidore succeeded his older brother, St.

Leander as

Bishop of Seville, at a time of social and religious division.

By founding seminaries and schools throughout Spain, St.

Isidore effectively converted the invading Visigoths and turned Seville into a center of culture and learning in the ancient world. He presided over two important Church councils,

wrote a thorough encyclopedia

that became widely used for nine centuries, and donated generously to the poor.

Just adore

Do you ever run out of conversation during your prayer time? Worse, do you tire of praying the same things over again? Try sitting in silent adoration of the one who loves you most. What words can be better than that?

"There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear.

For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love"

(1 John 4:18).

Meet God at "Little Easter"

One amazing fact of which Easter reminds us is that God lives and lives with us. Yet, as the joy of the celebration fades, we may feel distant from our loving, living God. In fact,

we can renew our Easter

joy every week at Mass

on Sunday, our "little

Easter." It's a great place to find God.

The Priest.

During Mass, the priest is not acting on his own but in the person of Christ ("In

Persona

Christi"). Bishops

and priests act in persona Christi

when they offer Mass, forgive sins, preach on behalf of the Church, and perform other acts of shepherding and teaching. So, we find God in the priest.

The Word. Much of what goes on at Mass is directly from Scripture – the prayers we say together, the hymns

we sing, the readings, etc.

Since Scripture is the inspired word of God, we can find God in his Word.

The Eucharist. What

starts as bread and wine becomes the body and blood of Christ. So we meet God in the consecrated

Eucharist.

The People.

When we unite

to praise God,

we are his Church. "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I

in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20).

So God is there when we worship

with others at Mass.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics veil statues in church during Lent?

Many churches veil statues in red or purple cloth during the last two weeks in Lent. This period of time is traditionally known as Passiontide, when we focus more intentionally on the coming events of Holy Week. Covering over the images and crucifixes in our churches is a kind of "visual fast"

and a reminder of this solemn liturgical season. The joy of the Easter celebration is visually communicated when the statues are un-veiled and the church is beautifully decorated.

The perfect love waits for you

It is said that in order to attract the perfect love, we have to become the perfect lover. God is the perfect love. All we need to do to claim his love is to become better lovers ourselves.

Be alone together. "Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Two people in love need to be alone together so love can grow. Make time to be alone with God every day.

Meet for frequent dates. A loving relationship can't flourish on just one date per week. Would you be able to get enough of your beloved by just getting together on Sundays? Try to make Mass more than once a week.

Reread his love letter. "I will never forget you. See, upon the palms of my hands I have written your name" (Isaiah 49:15-16). Re-reading love letters rekindles feelings of warmth between lovers.

The Bible is the longest, most passionate love letter there is. Read it to find out how God really feels about you.

from Scripture

John 20:19-31, Two Visits of Mercy

This Gospel passage is about the two resurrection appearances of Jesus to his Apostles in the Upper Room. In the first appearance, Jesus forgave the Apostles and gave them his peace. He also gave them the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive sins in his name.

The second visit was for St. "Doubting" Thomas. He refused to believe that Jesus was really risen, despite the evidence of ten eyewitnesses. While it is better to "see" by faith and still believe, Jesus had mercy on St. Thomas's very human doubts and appeared to him. St.

Thomas was open to accepting the Truth when it found him. From this Gospel passage, we know we can bring our doubts, fears, and need for forgiveness to God, especially on this second Sunday of Easter—Divine Mercy Sunday. We can trust

God, who in this passage, proves that his deepest nature is merciful love.

Q & A

What does the Mass do for us?

The qualities of the Mass make participating in it essential for our spiritual health.

Thanksgiving: The Mass centers around the Eucharist – the "sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving" (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1359). In thanking God for his blessings, we recall demonstrations of his goodness, power, and love. This reminds us that there is a God who loves us beyond imagining. He doesn't need our praise, but we need to experience thanksgiving.

Sacrifice: When the priest offers the Body and Blood of Christ under the appearances of bread and wine, Jesus' sacrifice on Calvary is renewed in an unbloody manner and made present for us again. At Mass, we can unite our own sacrifices to Christ's and offer them to the Father (CCC, #1367, 1368).

Communion: Under the appearances of bread and wine, Jesus is really and physically present (CCC, #1376). When we receive Communion, Christ comes to dwell in our hearts, to strengthen, heal, and love us. Communion unifies the whole Church in Heaven and on Earth (CCC, #1370).

Feasts & Celebrations

April 14 – Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion (1st Century): On Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we recall Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, when he was greeted by crowds waving palms and cheering. This Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week.

April 17 – St. Stephen Harding (1134): St. Stephen and two companions founded a new religious order in Citeaux. As abbot, he guided the community through many hardships. Finally, St. Bernard of Clairvaux and several companions joined St. Stephen and he revived the order. St. Stephen founded twelve more religious communities throughout France. He is credited with writing the constitutions of the Cistercian Order.

April 20 – St. Agnes of Montepulciano (1317): Born in Tuscany, Italy, St. Agnes was a Franciscan nun who founded a Dominican order. At a young age, she begged her parents to let her enter the Franciscans. When she was thirteen, the pope asked her to found a monastery at Procena. Inspired by a vision, she founded a Dominican order at Montepulciano.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
