PRAYING FOR YOU AND FOR UNITY

One of the most awesome tasks as a priest that my brothers and I have is to pray for people like you. There are many times and circumstances where people will ask me as they pass by, Fr. please pray for my family, relative, friend or me. Recently, at a college graduation, security guards were asking for a blessing, joking that they needed it. I learned recently from my spiritual director that the best time to pray for the prayer request, is to do it right on the spot. This helps me not to forget, and secondly I believe that it gives the person some peace at the moment. Knowing that someone is praying for us brings us comfort, because we know that somehow we are connected to the person praying and to God who is listening.

Today we are given an insiders view of Jesus praying to His Father in John Chapter 17 known as the Great High Priestly Prayer. Recently, I read a reflection on this passage from the American Bible Society. It states that in John 17:6-19 Jesus first prays for his apostles, the ones he has known and trained. He prays that they will remain loyal to one another in this time of imminent crisis. He reminds the Father that he has always protected them from harm. He reveals that he is going to return to the Father, clearing the path for his disciples to make that same journey in the future.

In our reading today, John 17:20-26, Jesus continues to pray, not only for the apostles but also for future believers who will believe in him because of the words of the apostles. This means Jesus is praying for us! He is praying that we who respond to the preaching of the Church will share in the same unity He has with His Father. Jesus concludes His prayer saying that the “love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them” too. The love that Jesus speaks about means an attachment. As Jesus is attached to the Father, He desires the same for us too. We show our love for the Father through our love for one another. The one who can help us reach this unity Jesus asks for, is the Holy Spirit. In these days between the Ascension and Pentecost, we pray that the Holy Spirit will come upon us and help us to live in union and communion with one another by our acts of love. Pray the Novena to the Holy Spirit that you can find in the church or online. Go to EWTN.com. If that is too much, you might just want to pray this prayer between now and next Sunday, Pentecost. “Come Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful. And kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth.”

Protecting Religious Freedom & Conscience Rights for Doctors & Nurses

The Conscience & Religious Freedom office within the Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) was created last year to hear complaints from pro-life medical personnel who claimed they're getting fired or retaliated against for their beliefs. This new office is intended to correct this and to stop what Cardinal Timothy Dolan called the "increasing and fierce attack on conscience rights" in medicine.

In its first year, the new HHS division received 348 complaints about religious or moral discrimination, a significant increase over previous years.

Other issues the office considers is people who oppose vaccines that are derived from fetal tissue from aborted babies, and medical students who object to being trained to do abortions. Conscience protections for those who oppose doctor-assisted suicide is also a growing concern as more states legalize the life-destroying practice.

"The only thing that doesn't abide by majority rule is a person's conscience."

Harper Lee,

As we celebrated the feast of the Ascension last Thursday, we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples ...and now through us.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

May 2019

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. John Baptist de Rossi

Born in Voltaggio, Italy, St. John Baptist de Rossi was born to devout, middle class parents. Being an excellent student, he was invited to join the Roman College at the age of thirteen! Ten years later, John was ordained a priest. He spent his days serving prisoners, workers, and the patients of the local hospitals and his nights ministering to the poor people of the street. He died of illness, worn out by his labors.

Turn to Mary

During the month of May, we honor Mary, the Mother of God (and ours, too). Turn to her for guidance and protection and she will bring you to her Son: "Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided."

"His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'" (John 2:5).

Add more joy to your life

Joy is more than a feeling – it comes from making choices that are pleasing to God. Try these tips to add joy to your life.

Give three compliments every day. "Like golden apples in silver settings are words spoken at the proper time" (Proverbs 25:11).

Look for the silver lining in every cloud. "Even though you meant harm to me, God meant it for good, to achieve his present end, the survival of many people" (Genesis 50:20).

Make the best of any situation. "We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Tip generously, give freely to the needy. "He who confers benefits will be amply enriched, and he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed" (Proverbs 11:25).

Say, "thank you," often. "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

Sing in the shower. "But I shall sing of your strength, extol your love at dawn, for you are my fortress, my refuge in time of trouble" (Psalm 59:17).

Trust God's judgment more than your own. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics invoke the Holy Spirit?

As the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit is invoked every time we make the Sign of the Cross. In Baptism, he dwells in our souls and makes us children of God (Romans 8:15). He makes us receptive to God's grace. He also teaches and helps us to pray. He guides and protects us, just as he guides and protects the Church. Through his gifts, he inspires and enables us to do the good we ought to do.

What will you keep after Easter?

Lent is a chance to take a look at our lives, jettison what is bad, and keep what is good beyond the celebration of Easter. What will you keep after the Easter season?

Fasting? Skipping a meal and spending the time in prayer is a great way to prepare for an important decision or a critical task we are about to take on. It's a way of saying, "God's will be done."

Doing more with less? The simplicity of Lent reminds us of how much we have and how little we really need. Keep going through the closets and bookshelves of your life and give away what you don't absolutely need.

Thinking of others? American Catholics have more than any Catholics in the world today. When we feel hunger or can't buy everything we want, we can think of our brothers and sisters around the world who are hungry or needy all the time. Being Catholics unites us to the one Body of Christ no matter where we are.

from Scripture

John 14:23-29, Jesus keeps his promises

This Gospel reading comes from Jesus' Farewell Speech at the Last Supper. After spending three years together, he had to prepare the close-knit group for his Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension into Heaven. Yet, before he ascended, he promised to remain with them always (Matthew 28:20).

Jesus assured his disciples—and us today—that, even though they wouldn't see him, he would continue to be invisibly but powerfully present to them if they kept his word. He and his Father would dwell in them by grace. He would send the Holy Spirit to guide and comfort them. He gave them the gift of his peace, and he promised that he would return to them.

It's tempting to think that being Catholic would be easier if we could see Jesus and hear his voice. In fact, he continues to be spiritually present in his Church: in her worship, prayer, sacraments, and charitable outreach. He is especially present in the Eucharist—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity (CCC, #1374). We don't have to go back in time. We see him at every Mass.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 13 – Our Lady of Fatima (1917): The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three children near Fatima, Portugal and asked that they pray the Rosary for peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners and for the conversion of Russia.

May 15 – St. Isidore the Farmer (1170). Born in Madrid to a poor farming family, he married St. Mary de la Cabeza and worked for a wealthy landowner. He spent many hours in prayer and caring for the sick and poor. It is said his food baskets were never empty.

May 25 – Pope St. Gregory VII (1085). Pope Gregory worked to eliminate corruption in the Church and defended it from attacks on its authority. For this he suffered and died in exile.

May 30 – Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (1st Century). This solemnity marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven. Note: In many dioceses, observance of Ascension has been moved to the following Sunday.

Q & A Can I have a devotion to Mary and still worship God well?

One question frequently asked of Catholics is, "Why do you worship Mary?" In fact, we don't worship Mary. Worship is the adoration we give to God where we acknowledge him as Creator, Savior, and Lord. Mary is a creature like us. She is not divine, so we can't worship her.

However, we can honor her. She is the Mother of God, since Jesus is God (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #495). Secondly, on the Cross, Jesus gave her to us as our mother and entrusted us to her care (John 19:26-27). Thirdly, we honor her for the good she did and still does for us, and for her holiness.

God is not jealous of our devotion to Mary, just as an artist wouldn't be jealous if his greatest masterpieces were praised. Turning to Mary for her intercession isn't a problem either. Mary's role (and ours) is to help get us to Heaven, which is exactly what God wants, too. Be rest assured, Mary always leads us to her Son, Jesus.

Meditaciones breves

San Juan Bautista de Rossi

San Juan Bautista de Rossi nació en

Voltaggio, Italia, de padres devotos de clase media.

Como era un estudiante excelente fue invitado a estudiar en el Colegio Romano a la temprana edad de 13 años. Diez años más tarde, Juan fue ordenado sacerdote. Pasaba los días ocupándose de los presos, los trabajadores y los enfermos de los hospitales, y las noches cuidando a los pobres de las calles. Murió enfermo, agotado por todo lo que había trabajado.

Encomiéndense a María

Durante el mes de mayo honramos a María, Madre de Dios (y también nuestra). Encomiéndense a ella pidiendo guía y protección y ella los llevará hasta su Hijo: "Recuerda, oh misericordiosa Virgen María, que jamás se ha dicho que alguno de los que buscan tu protección, imploran tu ayuda y piden tu patrocinio haya sido abandonado por ti".

"Pero su madre dijo a los sirvientes: 'Hagan todo lo que él les diga'". (Juan 2:5).

Añada más alegría a su vida

La alegría es más que un sentimiento: surge de elegir lo que agrada a Dios. Ponga a prueba estos consejos para añadir alegría a su vida.

Elogie tres veces cada día. "Manzanas de oro con filigranas de plata es la palabra dicha oportunamente" (Proverbios 25:11).

Busque lo positivo en cada contratiempo. "Ustedes quisieron hacerme daño, pero Dios quiso convertirlo en bien para que se realizara lo que hoy ven: conservar la vida de un pueblo numeroso" (Génesis 50:20).

Aproveche al máximo cada situación. "Sabemos, además, que Dios dispone todas las cosas para el bien de los que lo aman, de aquellos que él llamó según su designio" (Romanos 8:28).

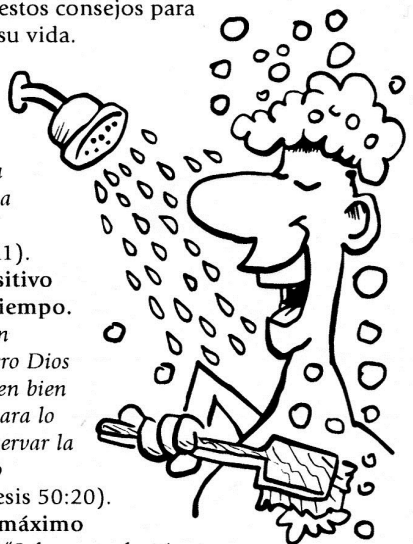

Deje propinas generosas, sea magnánimo con los pobres. "El hombre generoso prosperará, y al que da de beber le saciarán la sed" (Proverbios 11:25).

Diga "gracias" con frecuencia. "Den gracias a Dios en toda ocasión: esto es lo que Dios quiere de todos ustedes, en Cristo Jesús" (1 Tesalonicenses 5:18).

Cante en la ducha. "Pero yo cantaré tu poder, y celebraré tu amor de madrugada, porque tú has sido mi fortaleza y mi refugio en el peligro" (Salmo 59:17).

Confíe en el criterio de Dios más que en el de usted. "Confía en el Señor y de todo corazón y no te apoyes en tu propia inteligencia; reconócelo a él en todos sus caminos y él allanará tus senderos" (Proverbios 3:5-6).

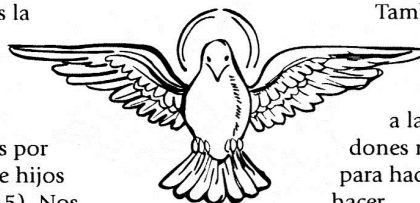

¿Por qué hacen eso los católicos?

¿Por qué invocan los católicos al Espíritu Santo?

El Espíritu Santo es invocado cada vez que hacemos la Señal de la Cruz, como tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad. Viene a nuestras almas por el Bautismo y nos hace hijos de Dios (Romanos 8:15). Nos vuelve receptivos a la gracia de Dios. También nos enseña y nos ayuda a rezar. Nos guía y nos protege, igual que guía y protege a la Iglesia. Mediante sus dones nos inspira y nos capacita para hacer el bien que debemos hacer.

¿Qué seguirá haciendo después de Pascua?

La Cuaresma es una ocasión de examinar nuestras vidas, deshacernos de lo que es malo y conservar lo bueno una vez pasada la celebración de la Pascua. ¿Qué conservará después de la Pascua?

¿Ayunar? Saltarse una comida y pasar el tiempo en oración es una forma estupenda de prepararse para una decisión importante o una tarea crucial que vamos a realizar. Es una forma de decir "Se hará la voluntad de Dios".

¿Hacer más con menos? La sencillez de la Cuaresma nos recuerda lo mucho que tenemos y lo poco que realmente necesitamos. Siga limpiando los armarios y los estantes de su vida y dé lo que no necesite.

¿Pensar en los demás? Los católicos de los Estados Unidos tienen más que cualquiera de los católicos del mundo hoy día. Cuando sintamos hambre o no podamos comprar todo lo que queremos, podemos pensar en nuestros hermanos y hermanas del mundo que tienen hambre y necesidades constantemente. Ser católicos nos une al Cuerpo de Cristo estemos donde estemos.

de las Escrituras

Juan 14:23-29, Jesús siempre guarda sus promesas

Esta lectura del Evangelio procede del discurso de despedida de Jesús en la Última Cena. Después de pasar tres años con ellos, tenía que preparar al unido grupo de sus seguidores para su Pasión, Muerte, Resurrección y Ascensión al Cielo. Pero antes de ascender les prometió que se quedaría con ellos para siempre (Mateo 28:20).

Jesús aseguró a sus discípulos—y a nosotros hoy—que aunque no lo vieran seguiría estando con ellos, presente de forma invisible pero poderosa, si ellos cumplían lo que él les había pedido. Él y su Padre vivirían en ellos por la gracia.

Enviaría al Espíritu Santo para que los guiara y los consolara. Les dio el don de su paz y les prometió que volvería con ellos.

Es tentador pensar que sería más fácil ser católico si pudiéramos ver a Jesús y escuchar su voz. Lo cierto es que sigue estando espiritualmente presente en su Iglesia: en el culto, la oración, los sacramentos y las obras de caridad. Está especialmente presente en la Eucaristía, su Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad (CIC, #1374). No tenemos que retroceder en el tiempo. Lo vemos en cada misa.

P ¿Puedo tener & devoción a María sin R dejar de adorar a Dios?

Algo que se les suele preguntar a los católicos es: "¿Por qué adoran a María?" La verdad es que no adoramos a María. La adoración es la veneración que damos a Dios en la que lo reconocemos como Creador, Salvador y Señor. María es una criatura humana como nosotros. No es divina, así que no podemos adorarla. Sin embargo, podemos honrarla.

En primer lugar, es la Madre de Dios, porque Jesús es Dios (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, #495). En segundo lugar, Jesús nos la presentó en la Cruz como nuestra madre y nos dejó en sus manos (Juan 19:26-27). En tercer lugar, la honramos por el bien que hizo y sigue haciendo y por su santidad.

Dios no tiene celos de nuestra devoción a María, lo mismo que un artista no tiene celos de sus obras maestras cuando son alabadas. Pedir la intercesión de María tampoco es un problema. La misión de María (y la nuestra) es ayudarnos a ir al Cielo, que es exactamente lo que también desea Dios. Tenga por seguro que María siempre nos lleva a Jesús, su Hijo.

Fiestas y celebraciones

13 de mayo – Nuestra Señora de Fátima (1917). La Santísima Virgen María se apareció a tres niños cerca de Fátima, Portugal, y les pidió que rezaran el Rosario por la paz, por el fin de la Primera Guerra Mundial, por los pecadores y por la conversión de Rusia.

15 de mayo – San Isidro Labrador (1170). Nacido en Madrid en una familia de pobres campesinos, se casó con santa María de la Cabeza y trabajó para un rico terrateniente. Pasaba muchas horas rezando y ocupándose de los enfermos y de los pobres. Se cuenta que sus cestillos de comida nunca estaban vacíos.

25 de mayo – San Gregorio VII, papa (1085). El papa Gregorio trabajó por eliminar la corrupción en la Iglesia y la defendió de los ataques contra su autoridad. Por esto sufrió el exilio y murió en él.

30 de mayo – Solemnidad de la Ascensión del Señor (siglo I). Esta solemnidad marca el fin de la misión salvadora de Jesús y su triunfante entrada a los cielos. Nota: En muchas diócesis, la celebración de la Ascensión ha sido trasladada al domingo siguiente.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

*¿Hemos sentido alguna vez a Dios ausente de nuestra vida?
¿Qué hemos hecho en esos momentos? ¿Confiamos en Dios y creemos que nos enviará su Espíritu?
¿Cómo damos testimonio de nuestra fe en Jesús en nuestra comunidad y en nuestra familia?*

La fiesta de hoy nos tendría que hacer pensar en cómo vivimos nuestra fe. Deberíamos aprender a tener con nosotros y con nuestros hermanos la misma paciencia que Dios tuvo con los discípulos y que tiene con nosotros. Como los buenos libros necesitan ser leídos varias veces para apreciar todo su valor, así la fe necesita tiempo, estudio y oración para que llegue a hacerse vida en nosotros. Nuestra comunidad cristiana crecerá en la medida en que todos crezcamos también en la escucha del Señor. Como los discípulos, habrá días en que sintamos la presencia de Dios cerca de nosotros y otros en los que nos sintamos solos. Todo es parte del proceso que nos llevará a vivir en plenitud nuestra fe, a ser testigos del Reino en nuestro mundo. La fiesta de hoy nos tiene que ayudar a poner nuestra confianza en Jesús. Aunque nos parezca que estamos solos, él nos ha prometido su Espíritu. Y Jesús no falla nunca
