The Fight for Freedom in Schools

* The Lyceum, a small, classical Catholic H.S. in Ohio, sued the City of South Euclid, arguing an anti-discrimination law passed last year violates the school's religious rights by threatening penalties for its Catholic stances on issues such as marriage and gender. The new law includes sexual orientation and gender identity as protected classifications. Therefore, if denied a religious exemption, the school's employment and admissions policies, based on deeply-held religious beliefs, could be illegal.

* The U.S. Supreme Court declined to hear a case concerning a PA school district policy to allow transgender students to share a shower, locker room, or restroom matching their gender identity and disregarding the bodily privacy rights of other students.

Not to oppose error is to approve it; and not to defend truth is to suppress it;"

THIS IS MY BODY, THIS IS MY BLOOD

These words were spoken 2000 years ago by our Lord Jesus Christ at the Last Supper on the first Holy Thursday. Ever since that time, Jesus says these same words through the voice of the Priest “this is My body, this is My blood” at every Mass as the priest represents Christ as the head who feeds us with his body and blood each day. Jesus also said “do this in remembrance of Me”. When he said this, Jesus did not just say it might be a good idea, he said doing this, sharing my body and blood, is essential for our salvation. The Solemnity of Corpus Christi highlights that in a special way today.

In the Gospel of Luke today, we have a foreshadowing of what Jesus does at the Last Supper in the miracle of the loaves and fishes. Jesus does the four (4) fold action, the priest does at Mass; the taking, blessing, breaking and sharing of bread which results in the miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 people. Before this, however, Jesus tells his disciples “to feed them yourselves.” He is telling them you have enough with the 2 loaves and 5 fishes. Trust in me. They did and they became the source of Jesus’ nourishment for others.

This is what we are called to do with our lives, to offer them as food for others. Sometimes in life when I feel I have less, I don’t have a great job or little resources to work with, I am not sure of what to do. But each of us, like the disciples, are given 5 loaves and 2 fish with the gifts and talents God gave us. All we need to do is trust, continually offer ourselves at Mass, listen to Jesus’ words and open ourselves to the grace of the sacraments, knowing that Jesus will always be with us. Today reminds us that as we receive the Body of Christ in the Eucharist, we are the body of Christ each day as one community and church family.

In his Easter Sermon 227 to neophytes, newly Baptized Catholic Christians, St. Augustine writes: “If we receive the Eucharist worthily, we become what we receive.” And in receiving Christ, we become one body in him, and through him, one with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Through receiving the Eucharist, we enter into a unique and personal relationship with the Trinity and with one another, the Body of Christ. We become what we eat. This is why we are to go to Mass each week. Let’s face it the world is not easy, life is not easy. However, being with Jesus and receiving him each week will make all the difference. If Jesus can take the simple bread and simple wine and make them into his body and blood, [how much more can Jesus do for us if we allow him? What gifts is Jesus asking you to use to help feed the people he sends into your life? Please join us for the Corpus Christi Procession at 12:30pm today (Sunday) It is a great act of evangelization and witness.

Today as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, we hear Jesus ask his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes.

Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

One of the main focuses of today's feast is the total self-giving of Jesus. The bishops' stewardship pastoral reminds us that "the glory and the boast of Christian stewards lie in mirroring, however poorly, the stewardship of Jesus Christ, who gave and still gives all He has and is, in order to be faithful to God's will and carry through to completion His redemptive stewardship of human beings and their world."

Living Stewardship... Pillar of Prayer

In order to be good stewards of the Faith, we must constantly receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Allow the Lord to energize you to do His will by spending time before Our Lord in your church's tabernacle.
