Another year in Religious Education has come to an end. I would like to thank all of the coordinators, catechists and volunteers who made this year a huge success. We have a few catechists who will be "retiring" this year and I would like to say a very special thank you to these ladies, Allie Cimino, Kate Cimino, Antonia Capasso, Kathy Goldthwaite, Patricia Harrs and Kim Mecina. I hope that they will be able to return to the program in the future. A special thank you to the parents who were very supportive of our program and of the catechists. And a big thank you to the children who came to class every week and tried their best in class. I hope everyone has a wonderful summer.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

While we are now in what used to be the lazy, hazy days of summer, there are some events that I ask all of us to pay attention to so that we are properly prepared when they occur. Recently, Bishop Barres and Mr. Tom Renker, head attorney for the Diocese of Rockville Centre, met with all the pastors of our Diocese to discuss new legislation for victims suffering from sexual abuse. This law could have a profound impact on our parishes and Diocese. There will be more information forthcoming as I receive it from Rockville Centre and will share it with you as best I can.

What is the Child Victims Act?

The Child Victims Act (CVA) is a law that was passed by the NY State assembly and legislature and signed by our Governor that will change the state's strict statute of limitations on sexual crimes against children. The CVA will open up a one year window to revive past claims of any age.

What does the CVA Do?

The CVA does three main things: 1) extend New York's statute of limitations to allow for criminal charges against sexual abusers of children until their victims turn 28 for felony cases, up from the current age of 23; 2) allow victims to seek civil action against their abusers and institutions that enabled them until they turn 55; 3) open up a one year, one time only period, to allow all victims to seek civil action, regardless of how long ago the abuse occurred.

Who will it affect?

This law will affect any organization that works with children and had a child molester as an employee, minister, or volunteer including churches, public and private schools, the Boy & Girl Scouts, day care centers, etc.

When will the CVA go into effect?

The CVA will go into effect on August 14/15 and continue until August 14/15 of 2020.

What else does the CVA mean?

The CVA means that sexual abuse is not only limited to our church. As the Bishops of New York State, the CVA "now recognizes that child sexual abuse is an evil not just limited to one institution, but a tragic societal ill that must be addressed in every place where it exists."

What can I do?

While we are in the waiting period, the best thing you can do is pray that the passage of the Child Victims Act brings some measure of healing to all survivors by offering them a path of recourse and reconciliation. Please also pray for our church that we too will continue to heal and grow despite the darkness that seems to surround us.

I pray that during this 4th of July weekend we give thanks to God for our founding fathers and mothers who sacrificed their lives so that we can freely live, worship and express our faith whether in church or out in the public square. Please welcome Deacon Mañuel Ramos, who will speak to us about our Diocesan Mission in the Dominican Republic this weekend and Fr. Shelton Dias who has arrived. Fr. Andres and Fr. Frank will be away for the whole month of July.

May this summer be for you and your families a time of prayer and renewal. Remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

New York State Catholic Conference

The Official Voice of the Catholic Church in the Empire State

Update

DREAM Act: The Catholic Conference has long supported this legislation to enable undocumented people who were brought to America as children and have been productive, law-abiding members of society, to access certain state financial aid to enable them to attend college. Early in the legislative session, the legislature passed the bill and the governor signed it into law.

Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act: Just before the end of session, the legislature passed a bill long supported by the Catholic Conference to guarantee to farmworkers many of the rights enjoyed by every other sector of the workforce, including the right to collectively bargain, workers compensation and unemployment insurance, a day of rest every week, housing that conforms to the sanitary code, and overtime pay after 60 hours.

Education

Substantial Equivalency Guidelines: Late last year, the state Department of Education (SED) issued "guidelines" requiring public school districts to make site visits to most religious and independent schools to determine if their instruction was substantially equivalent to that of public schools, as is required by state law. Rather than address specific concerns that have been raised about a limited number of non-Catholic religious schools that might be shown to have deficiencies, SED chose to require all religious and independent schools to be evaluated by public schools on an on-going basis, putting public schools in a position to determine whether religious and independent schools in their districts could continue to operate. The Catholic school superintendents are happy to demonstrate the academic rigor of our schools as being equivalent or superior to public schools, but believe putting this task on our competitors is inappropriate and unnecessary. Lawsuits filed by Catholic, Jewish, and other schools were successful in having the guidelines thrown out, but now SED has introduced essentially the same rules in the form of regulations, which are currently in a public comment period. The Conference is working with the Board of Regents and is also pursuing a long-term legislative solution to the matter.

Child Protection

Child Victim's Act: This act passed the legislature in late January and was signed by the governor. It extends the civil statute of limitations for child sexual abuse to the victim's age 55, and the criminal statute of limitations to the victim's age 28. Further, it creates a one-year "window" where survivors can bring claims for old time-barred cases no matter how long ago. The Conference, which had long opposed the bill, removed opposition when legislators amended it to include survivors of abuse in public institutions. Previously, as we pointed out for many years, public schools and municipalities were shielded from the retroactive window due to a loophole in existing law. The Conference called on the legislature to completely eliminate the criminal statute of limitations and provide an opportunity for mediation to those who preferred it over litigation. The sponsors declined at the time, but legislation was taken up later in session to significantly extend criminal statutes of limitations for many sex crimes, including against minors.

Erin's Law: On the last night of the legislative session, New York became the 37th state to pass Erin's Law, which mandates age-appropriate curricula in grades K-8, which helps children, school staff and parents to spot grooming and other behaviors that may lead to abuse, and educates them on how to avoid and report abuse or potential abuse. The Catholic Conference strongly supported this legislation.

Background Check Fee Increase: Hidden away in state budget, which passed earlier this session, was an increase in the state fee for employee criminal background checks, bringing the total cost from $65 per employee to $95. The state should be promoting policies to encourage more businesses and not-for-profits to perform background checks. This will have the opposite effect, potentially at the expense of children. The Catholic Conference asks the state to revisit this issue in the next session and to pass legislation to reimburse not-for-profits for criminal background checks aimed at preventing child sexual abuse and other crimes.

Catholic Conference

The Official Voice of the Catholic Church in the Empire State

Other

Marijuana Legalization: Gov. Cuomo came out strongly in favor of legalization of recreational marijuana this session, after years of holding the opposite viewpoint. The Catholic Conference released a statement in March opposing legalization. Fortunately, the measure was not passed this session. The legislature did, however, pass legislation effectively decriminalizing possession and expunging criminal records for low-level marijuana convictions.

Pantry Needs

It seems as if summer has arrived all of a sudden. School is out and many are off to vacations. We find that the pantry shelves are barer at this time. As a result, we are very low on canned corn, jarred pasta sauces, peanut butter and jelly, rice, red kidney beans, mixed vegetables, canned potatoes and macaroni and cheese. We are also looking for men's blue jeans--sizes 30 through 34. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services during our regular hours on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Please DO NOT leave donations outside of our door in the weather, as those items often are broken into or become wet and unusable. Again, we are overwhelmed by parishioners' generosity. Thank you to all who donate!

Respect Life News from Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Queen of Angels No. 869 Spiritual Adoption Program Month Nine - Developing Baby

It's my birthday! Thank you so much for all your prayers. Because you prayed for me, I got the best of all gifts - Life!

Your spiritually adopted baby was born this month - - nine months after her mother conceived her. The only change at birth is a change in the external life support system of the baby. She is no different now than she before birth, except that she breathes and eats differently. She is truly a miracle. She began as a 46-chromosome cell and has grown over the past nine months into this unique human baby we now can see. Never before in history, nor ever again, will anyone exist who is exactly like your spiritually adopted baby. Your prayers saved her life. Thank you on behalf of all of the little babies and their mothers for your loving prayers that helped to bring them to birth "so that they might have life and have it to the full!"

¡Es el día de mi nacimiento! Muchas gracias por todas sus oraciones. Gracias a ellas ustedes me han dado el mejor regalo que se puede dar, el regalo de ¡La Vida!

Su bebé espiritual ha nacido este mes. Nueve meses después de que su madre lo concibió. No es diferente ahora de lo que fue antes de nacer, a excepción de que ahora respira y come de una manera diferente. Ella es realmente un milagro. Empezó como 46 cromosomas y ha crecido durante los pasados nueve meses, convirtiéndose en este bebé, un ser humano único. Nunca antes en la historia existirá alguien que sea exactamente como su bebé espiritual. Sus oraciones le han salvado la vida. Gracias en nombre del bebé y sus padres, por sus oraciones amorosas que los ha ayudado a traer al bebé al mundo

A sincere thank you to all our parishioners who generously donated to the Spiritual Adoption Baby Shower hosted by Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Queen of Angels. ## Meditaciones breves

San Juan Fisher

Nacido en Beverley, Inglaterra, san Juan Fisher fue un reconocido estudioso y obispo. Sirvió como capellán de la madre del rey Enrique VIII. La relación con la familia real se deterioró cuando san Juan denunció que el rey se divorciara de la reina Catalina y se negó a reconocer al rey Enrique como cabeza de la Iglesia de Inglaterra. Fue detenido dos veces pero permaneció fiel a la Iglesia católica hasta su martirio. Comparte festividad con santo Tomás Moro.

Al modo de san José

En la vida de san José, Dios encontró el silencio que necesitaba para ser escuchado por encima del ruido del trabajo de un carpintero y fue capaz de establecer una inmediata relación. Cuando Dios hablaba, san José obedecía al instante. Dios nos hablará también a nosotros en el silencio de nuestras vidas.

"Si reconocemos nuestros pecados, fiel y justo es el para perdonarnos los pecados y purificarnos de toda injusticia" (1 Juan 1:9).

¿Es real el pecado?

El mundo nos dice que el pecado no existe y que sólo tenemos que tratar de ser buenas personas. Esto no basta. El pecado se produce cuando no seguimos las leyes de Dios. Hacer frente al pecado es incómodo, pero las consecuencias son eternas.

La ley de Dios es la ley. Aunque pensemos que somos "buenos" y que otros nos toman como ejemplo, es Dios quien a final decidirá si hemos sido "buenos". Como lo que cuenta es su opinión, su ley es la ley.

El pecado es real. El mundo nos dice que el pecado no existe, pero los católicos sabemos que el pecado es una "falta deliberada en pensamiento, palabra, obra u omisión contraria a la ley eterna de Dios" (CIC). La ley se encuentra en los Diez Mandamientos, las Bienaventuranzas y en las Escrituras. La ley dice que el pecado es real.

Sin admitir la culpa no hay perdón. El pecado no confesado nos separa de Dios. "Pues encubriste tu rostro de nosotros, y nos dejaste a merced de nuestras culpas" (Isaías 64:6). Al no reconocer la culpa perdemos el perdón de Dios.

El plan. Examine cada noche los actos del día y pregunte si agradan o no a Dios. Decídase a mejorar y dé los pasos necesarios para cambiar. Busque la absolución mediante el sacramento de la Reconciliación. Luego, cuando se encuentre con Dios, él le dirá: "Bien, siervo bueno y fiel" (Mateo 25:23).

¿Por qué hacen eso los católicos?

¿Por qué creen los católicos que la Iglesia es santa?

La Iglesia es santa no sólo porque algunos de sus miembros lo son, sino porque Dios, que la creó, la guía, la mantiene y la purifica, es santo. La Iglesia dispone de los medios para crecer en santidad: los sacramentos, los Diez Mandamientos, la oración y la virtud de la caridad. Esta santidad procede de la vida de los santos que siguieron con fe a Cristo y que practicaron la virtud con heroísmo. "La Iglesia es, pues, 'el Pueblo santo de Dios' y sus miembros son llamados 'santos'" (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, #823).

Podemos ayudar a nuestros sacerdotes a ayudarnos

El párroco es celebrante, maestro, consejero y director financiero. Trabaja más de 60 horas a la semana, ocupándose de todo desde la administración de los sacramentos hasta de sacar la basura, y a pesar de esto nueve de diez sacerdotes dicen que son felices con su labor. Nuestro apoyo puede ayudarlos a mantener su fortaleza:

Rece por un sacerdote cada día. Dígaselo pues saber de sus plegarias le dará fuerza en momentos difíciles.

Expresa su agradecimiento. Dígale a su párroco cuando algo que ha hecho o dicho le ha sido útil a usted.

Envíele una nota de ánimo o un correo electrónico, o menciónesele después de la misa.

Espera a conocer los hechos. La visibilidad del sacerdote puede llevar a malentendidos. Concédale al sacerdote el beneficio de la duda hasta que se conozcan bien todos los hechos.

Arremánguese. El trabajo del sacerdote es más fácil si cada uno usamos nuestras habilidades en nuestra parroquia. Pregúntele cómo puede ayudar.

Vaya a misa. La mejor forma de apoyar a nuestras parroquias es asistir a misa cada fin de semana y día de precepto. Actuar en la persona de Cristo es el beneficio mayor del trabajo.

de las Escrituras

Lucas 9:51-62, El perfil de discípulo

Este pasaje del evangelio expone los requisitos del discipulado. El primer hombre, lleno de entusiasmo, expresó su intención de seguir a Jesús. Jesús le recordó que no tenía hogar, familia o lugar para dormir. Las dificultades de abandonar lo que se tiene y de prescindir de las cosas para seguir a Cristo han disuadido a muchos.

que espere. Nuestra obligación como discípulos es obedecer.

El tercer hombre quería despedirse de su familia antes de partir. Jesús sabía que cuando un campo se labra, mirar hacia atrás puede torcer el surco. Usó ese ejemplo, para que el tercer hombre entendiera que si de verdad queremos seguir a Cristo, no podemos cambiar constantemente nuestra decisión.

Tendremos que hacer sacrificios para seguir a Jesús, pero él nos promete que las recompensas valdrán mucho más que lo que dejamos atrás.

P & R ¿Qué es la "culpa católica?"

La cultura de masas se suele referir negativamente a la "culpa católica", dando a entender que los católicos se sienten abrumados por su conciencia pesados de haber obrado mal.

Lo cierto es que la culpa tiene una función. Nuestra conciencia es como la brújula en nuestro auto y la culpa es lo que nos dice que vamos por mal camino. Nos ayuda a recuperar el rumbo en este caso hacia el Cielo.

Hay culpa buena y culpa mala. La culpa buena es la que sentimos cuando hacemos algo a propósito sabiendo de que está mal, es decir, si pecamos. El pecado daña nuestra relación con Dios y es perjudicial para nosotros. La culpa "sana" requiere que el corazón se arrepienta y que cambiemos de comportamiento. Para los católicos la culpa debería desaparecer cuando se recibe el perdón en la confesión.

Sin embargo, la culpa que no se corresponde con el pecado, o seguir sintiendo culpa por los pecados ya confesados, es culpa mala. Esta culpa "inútil" niega la bondad de Dios, su misericordia y su poder para salvar. También nos quita la paz y la alegría. Si usted forceja con la culpa mala, pida ayuda a un sacerdote, a un consejero o a un amigo en quien confíe.

Fiestas y celebraciones

5 de junio – San Bonifacio (754). Conocido como el "apóstol de Alemania", san Bonifacio fue un monje dedicado a predicar el evangelio en Alemania. Convirtió a muchos al cristianismo y restauró diócesis en Baviera, Turingia y Franconia.

17 de junio – Santa Emilia de Vialar (1856). Aristócrata francesa, santa Emilia usó el dinero de su herencia para fundar una orden religiosa, la Congregación de las Hermanas de san José de la Aparición. Cuidaban a los enfermos y fundaron escuelas en Europa, África y Asia.

23 de junio – Domingo del Corpus

Christi. En esta solemnidad celebramos la transformación del pan y el vino en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo en la Eucaristía. Esta solemnidad fue establecida por el papa Urbano IV en 1264 como respuesta a la necesidad de un día festivo dedicado a la Eucaristía.

29 de junio – Santos Pedro y Pablo (siglo I). Pedro, un humilde pescador transformado en algo extraordinario por la gracia de Dios, fue elegido por Jesús para dirigir la Iglesia. Saulo perseguía a la Iglesia en sus primeros tiempos, pero se convirtió en el gran apóstol Pablo, transformado también por la gracia.

Jesús, sólo llevándote en mi corazón
podré transmitir tu paz, tan necesaria en el mundo convulsionado por la violencia y la inseguridad. Por intercesión de san Lucas, concédeme que todos mis pensamientos, palabras
y obras siembren la paz, principalmente en mi propia familia

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
