Bible Study is Back

Come join me, Deacon George Mais as we examine something new. This fall we will explore The Bible and the Sacraments. These sessions will examine the sacraments of the Catholic faith. Exploring their meaning and origin. We will investigate the deeper mysteries the sacraments contain as illustrated in Sacred Scripture.

These sessions will run for about 11 weeks beginning September 12, 2019. We will meet from 7:30PM to 9:00 PM in Room 1 in the Old School. We are asking for a donation of $20 to cover expenses.

If you are interested, please contact me at deacon-george@stignatius.us or at (516) 931-0056 ext. 140 and leave your name and phone number. If you have any questions you can leave them at the same location, and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

VOLUNTEERS URGENTLY NEEDED WEDDING REHEARSAL TEAM

The Wedding Rehearsal Team invites you to join us in assisting engaged couples with their wedding rehearsal. We meet with the engaged couple and their bridal party in the Church, on the evening of the rehearsal, for a walk-through of the ceremony. As a member of the ministry, you will be provided with a list of rehearsal dates and times and asked what is convenient for you. We work in pairs and training is provided. The rehearsals are a joyful time for the engaged couple and their families. It is our goal to ensure that each wedding is a beautiful celebration of the Sacrament. If you would like to join us, please leave your name and phone number at the rectory 516-931-0056.

Pastor's Corner

A LETTER OF FAREWELL - FR. ANDRÉS FERNANDEZ

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

It is with regret that I inform you that I recently received an email from our Associate Pastor, Fr. Andrés. He wrote to me that he will no longer continue serving in his priestly ministry at St. Ignatius Loyola. He stated that after a long and deep discernment, he felt that the Lord was calling him back home to Madrid, Spain. He thanks both English and Spanish speaking parishioners for building such a beautiful parish and community here at St. Ignatius Loyola.

While you are surprised as I am, I am sure it was not easy for Fr. Andres to adjust to American culture being far away from home, especially with his health. The Lord calls each of us in different and various ways. Some to serve abroad and some at home. What matters is, that we serve in the Lord's name.

While many of us have asked "Where is Fr. Andrés?" I am grateful for the service that he has given to us at Mass, Funerals, Weddings and Quinceñeras. One thing to make clear, Fr. Andres is leaving on his own terms. His leaving has nothing to do with the scandals that have recently plagued the Catholic Church. Please pray for Fr. Andrés as he makes a successful transition back home in Madrid, Spain. We wish him well.

In the meantime, I have been in contact with the Diocesan Priest Personnel Office. Unfortunately, it is difficult to get a substitute priest, especially one that speaks Spanish. I am trying my best to work on it. Please pray for our parish that the Lord will send us a good priest who will be willing to work well with all of our people.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Fr. Jim. Pastor

We welcome the Indian Community who is marching down our streets this weekend. May God bless them.

Splendors of Eastern Europe – Including the Passion Play of Oberammergau

When: 11 Days From August 24th to September 3, 2020
Amount: $3,749 from New York
(Air/land tour price is $3,299 plus $450 government taxes/airline surcharges)
Visiting: Will be Visiting Prague, Budapest, Vienna and Munich
Hosted by Sr. Karen Lademann, OP and Fr. Jim Stachacz of St Ignatius Loyola Parish

The tour will take you to some of Europe's most interesting countries, including the Czech Republic, Hungary, Austria and Germany. In addition to our time spent in Oberammergau, we will have the opportunity to enjoy visits to Prague, the beautiful 1,000 YEAR old capital of the E Czech Republic; Budapest, Hungary's enchanting capital on the Danube River; Vienna, Austria's elegant city with an old world ambience and a rich musical heritage; and Munich, the capital of Bavaria.

The price of our tour includes roundtrip airfare, first class/select hotels and guesthouses in Oberammergau, most meals, first class admission tickets for the Passion Play, the services of a professional tour director and sightseeing in a deluxe motorcoach.

It promises to be a wonderful experience for all with time to enjoy the fellowship of old friends and new. NAWAS International Travel is making the arrangements for us and has earned a reputation for reliability and excellence in their near 70 years of business.

While the year 2020 seems a long way off, NOW is the time to make plans and reserve your place on the tour as space is limited. Don't miss out on this opportunity to see the Passion Play and experience the history; culture and remarkable scenery of Eastern Europe!

For more information, please call Sr. Karen Lademann at (516) 673-6709 or KAL714@aol.com

*If interested, do not delay as there

A great big Thank You goes out to Barbara Cheslock and Karen Warner for their dutiful service in preparing and running our parish garage sale this Summer. Thank you also to their team and anyone who gave them a helping hand. As you can see, we had lots of items in Msgr. Tarrant Hall. It was not easy to set up or to disassemble. May God bless and guide Barabara and Karen for all that they have done in helping fundraise for our parish! Fr. Jim

Food Pantry Needs

We extend a hearty "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the Human Services food pantry over the past few weekends. In the past, our pantry had been almost bare during the summer. This year, thanks to you, the pantry shelves have been full! Demand continues to remain high, however. We are still in need and always appreciate donations of cereal, canned kernel corn, black beans, spaghetti sauce and canned tuna. In addition, we could really use peanut butter. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Call us at 935-8846 for more details regarding donations.

Back-to-School Supplies Collection

Where is the summer going? Wasn't Memorial Day only last week? September will be here before we know it and the kids will be heading back to school. Many will need a variety of supplies, so we are asking if the following can be donated: glue and glue sticks, colored pencils (12 packs), black fine-point sharpies, dry-erase markers, white erasers, pointed-tip scissors, compasses protractors, 5"x8" plastic supply boxes, cloth zippered pencil pouches for binders, 2" binders. P.S.: We DO NOT NEED composition notebooks, pens, crayons, or highlighters.. Thanks in advance for your participation!! We thank you, and the students will thank you!

“Continuing our Mission”

Our goal: $1,500,000. We have as of July 23, 2019, received $1,443,725.09 in paid pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Camillus de Lellis

Born in sixteenth-century Italy, St.

Camillus aimed for holiness despite serious setbacks. He had a gambling addiction and became known for being argumentative and contentious. After losing his possessions and even his own shirt through gambling, he was hired by some compassionate Franciscans, but later transferred to a Capuchin order. After being ordained a priest, he and some companions founded the order of the Camellians, who cared for the grievously sick, prisoners, and the plague victims.

Keep the parish lights on

No matter where you go this summer, don't forget your parish back home. Your parish depends upon your help to pay the bills even when you're not home.

"See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him"
(1 John 3:1).

What are the secrets of stewardship?

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10).

Everything we have and all that we are is given to us by God because he loves us and trusts us to be good stewards of his love gifts. A good steward receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes them, shares them, and returns them to God with interest.

Stewardship flows from love. The key is to be continually aware of what God has given us and to be deeply grateful. Good stewards know that they didn't earn their talents or resources and understand that they come from a Father who asks only for true love in return.

Giving feels good. Sharing God's gifts with those in need, whether it is our time, talents, or treasure, feels great. And, it's what Jesus asked us to do.

Stewards are instruments.

Stewardship is actually God's love flowing through us and pouring out through us. The good steward joins in God's own generous nature by acting as God's hands on Earth.

God's purpose is the point. When we waste our talents, dawdle in pointless pursuits, or squander our resources, we put our own desires first ahead of God's will. Good stewards are God-centered rather than self-centered.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics call Rome "home"?

In Matthew 16, Jesus named Peter "the Rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church (Matthew 16:17-18). After the Ascension, St. Peter traveled to Rome for the Gospel, and became the bishop of the Christian community there. He was martyred and buried in Rome, and his successors became the next popes. Historically, the church in Rome proved to be a source of unity, strength, and faithfulness in adversity. Today, Catholics everywhere call Rome, the resting place of St. Peter, "home."

Celebrate your mistakes

Do you dread making mistakes and beat yourself up when you do? Yet, mistakes are outcomes we didn't expect and can lead to growth.

Step 1 – admit your mistake. You can only learn from a mistake if you admit you made one. As soon as we start blaming others, we miss out on any possible lessons.

Step 2 - enlist help. Talking to someone else about what happened gives you the benefit of your friend's experience. He or she may have made a similar mistake or know of a way to deal with it.

Plus, describing the event helps you to think it through and perhaps see opportunities you didn't know were there.

Step 3 – decide for change. Ask, "What will I do better next time?" Real growth and change happen when you see room for improvement. Then commit to making the necessary changes to avoid the mistake in the future.

Making mistakes doesn't make you a mistake.

Remember, God is the only one you know who doesn't make them.

from Scripture

Luke 11:1-13, the perfect prayer

If you have ever thought, "I want to pray better," this passage is for you. Here, Jesus teaches his disciples the Our Father. It's actually four prayers in one. First, it's a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God. Second, it is a prayer of petition in which we ask God to provide what we need. Third, it is a prayer asking for forgiveness and the strength to be forgiving.

Lastly, it is a prayer of acknowledgement of God's providence. It makes us admit that God knows and wants what is best for us. In choosing to follow God's will, even when it conflicts with our own, we place our trust in him.

God always answers prayers - usually it's "Yes," "No," or "Wait...I have something better." Also, he wants to know we're committed to what we are requesting. Is it a real need or just a momentary thought? Like the neighbor in this Gospel reading, Jesus encourages us to be persistent and continue to ask for God's help, seek his will, and be open to his grace in our lives.

Q & A

Who can baptize into the Catholic Church?

A member of the clergy is the ordinary minister of Baptism – a bishop, priest, or deacon. In emergencies, if there isn't a priest present, anyone can baptize, even someone who isn't baptized. In the case of an adult, the person to be baptized must have expressed at some point the desire to become a Catholic. The person baptizing must intend to baptize the person Catholic, and must use water and the words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

"The Church finds the reason for this possibility in the universal saving will of God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1256). The fact that anyone can baptize anyone desiring to become part of the Church is a sign of God's love for us. It speaks of God's infinitely great desire to welcome everyone and anyone into his family. Note: Baptism is received only once. If someone is already a baptized Christian but not Catholic, no second Baptism needed.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 5 - St. Elizabeth of Portugal (1336). The daughter of King Peter III of Aragon, she married King Denis of Portugal, whose infidelity caused her much suffering. He later repented and died a holy death. She became known as "the Peacemaker" for resolving political conflicts. After her husband's death, she became a Franciscan tertiary and lived with the Poor Clares.

July 26 – Saints Joachim and Anne (1st century). Little is known about Jesus' grandparents, but we know Mary was raised in a devout home. Her unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises indicate the values with which she was raised.

July 29 – St. Martha (1st century). In Luke's Gospel, St. Martha served Jesus dinner, while her sister Mary sat at his feet and listened. At Lazarus's death, she told Jesus, "I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God" (John 11:27). Because of her faith, Lazarus was brought back to life.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

*¿Cuáles son los objetivos de mi vida? ¿Trato de no hacer esas cosas que van en contra de "buscar las cosas de arriba?"
¿De qué forma procuro vivir el amor fraterno con mi familia, con mis amigos, en el trabajo?
Cuando voy a la Iglesia, ¿le pido a Dios que me ayude a ser más hermano o hermana de mis hermanos?*

Cuando vemos a Jesús en los Evangelios, vemos a un hombre que solía comer con sus discípulos, caminar en grupo, y visitar las casas de sus amigos. Era un hombre que atraía a la gente por sus palabras y su manera de ser. Era profeta, pero no en el tono de Juan Bautista, predicando el arrepentimiento por los pecados. Jesús predicaba el amor de un Dios bondadoso; la abundancia del banquete en la casa de su Padre; la alegría de reunir con los que estaban perdidos; la plenitud por los pobres; el descanso por los rendidos; y la justicia por los oprimidos. Jesús anduvo entre los pobres de la tierra y les prometió la abundancia y la felicidad.

Durante este tiempo de verano, tenemos la oportunidad de practicar esta clase de evangelización. Podemos proclamar la belleza de la vida, que sea compartiendo en los parques, en la playa, en el viaje, en un picnic parroquial, en una visita a la familia. Podemos demostrar la abundancia de nuestro Dios, compartiendo nuestro banquete, que sea de hamburguesas o de bistec.

Podemos servir de imagen de Dios, pasando tiempo en conversación con otros, dándoles importancia y solicitud.

Podemos crear una sociedad donde el valor de la persona no depende de dinero ni posesiones, sino del Espíritu de Dios que compartimos por el don de Bautismo.

La mayoría de las personas viven la vida con la mente puesta en una sucesión de metas. Posiblemente se han decidido conscientemente de sus metas. Tal vez estas nunca fueron dadas a conocer. Las metas nos proporcionan dirección y guía. Si las alcanzamos, podemos considerarnos exitosos. Si conseguimos llevar a término una tarea que valoramos, sentimos como que hemos tenido éxito. Pero, ¿en qué consiste el éxito?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
