Bible Study is Back

Come join me, Deacon George Mais as we examine something new. This fall we will explore The Bible and the Sacraments. These sessions will examine the sacraments of the Catholic faith. Exploring their meaning and origin. We will investigate the deeper mysteries the sacraments contain as illustrated in Sacred Scripture.

These sessions will run for about 11 weeks beginning September 12, 2019. We will meet from 7:30PM to 9:00 PM in Room 1 in the Old School. We are asking for a donation of $20 to cover expenses.

If you are interested, please contact me at deacon-george@stignatius.us or at (516) 931-0056 ext. 140 and leave your name and phone number. If you have any questions you can leave them at the same location, and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

Diocese of Rockville Centre FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What is the Child Victims Act?

A: A law passed by the New York state legislature and signed by Governor Andrew Cuomo on February 14, 2019, that lifts for one year the statute of limitations for filing lawsuits by child victims of sexual abuse. The one-year window begins August 14, 2019 and ends August 14, 2020. This law will allow currently time-barred lawsuits to be brought against individuals as well as public and private institutions, regardless of how many years or even decades ago the abuse may have taken place.

Q: What effect will the Child Victims Act have on the Diocese of Rockville Centre?

A: Bishop John Barres and his leadership team have been preparing for months with diocesan legal and financial professionals as well as with the pastors of our 133 parishes. While the ultimate effects of the Child Victims Act on the Diocese of Rockville Centre and its parishes are not yet known, and may not be known for some time, we expect the daily work of the diocese's many ministries to continue uninterrupted.

Q: What has the diocese done about the sexual abuse of children by members of the clergy?

A: Since 2003, the diocese has taken many decisive steps to protect children. Through its robust reporting mechanisms, the diocese has released the names of all clergy and employees accused of the sexual abuse of a minor, whether credible or not, to the proper law enforcement authorities. The majority of clergy accused of abuse, most of which happened decades ago, have died; others have left the priesthood – and the name of every single person accused, whether credible or not, has been turned over to law enforcement.

The diocese continuously works to strengthen its efforts towards child protection, abuse prevention and pastoral outreach to survivors. Through our Child Victims Assistance Program, the diocese reports all allegations of sexual abuse of a minor to the appropriate district attorney. Allegations of abuse are thoroughly investigated. We offer a hotline (516-594-9063) and respond within 24 hours with pastoral care and support we work closely with law enforcement and make certain that all allegations of child sexual abuse against clergy or lay employees and volunteers are reported to the appropriate District Attorney. We provide pastoral outreach to survivors and educational programs for abuse prevention and we have imposed and strictly enforce robust controls, such as screening of new hires and requiring employee training.

In 2017, the Diocese of Rockville Centre initiated the Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program (IRCP) to offer the opportunity for some measure of healing and justice to those who were abused by diocesan clergy.

The IRCP program allows survivors of clergy sexual abuse to file confidential claims and receive financial compensation. It continues to offer survivors a confidential option for reconciliation. To date, 370 people have filed claims with our IRCP. The vast majority of claimants - 277 to be exact—have accepted compensation totaling just over $50 million, with 75 – 80 claims still being processed.

Developed in 2017, the IRCP builds on the reforms and best practices for protecting our children in the Catholic Church. The outreach of Bishops and survivors' assistance coordinators to survivors and their families, a firm zero tolerance policy regarding sexual abuse, immediate reporting and cooperation with civil authorities, diocesan and parish audits, the ongoing training of clergy, employees and volunteers to prevent child abuse, extensive background checks on clergy, employees and volunteers, thorough screening of our seminarians preparing to become priests – these are just some of the examples of the proactive procedures which have been integrated into every dimension of the Catholic Church's life for many years.

Q: Did my weekly donations to the Church fund the IRCP settlements?

A: No parishioner donations were used to fund compensation paid to sexual abuse survivors. The money came from strong investment returns the diocese was fortunate to have. Diocesan insurance programs also helped fund the compensation payouts.

Q: Are the children of the diocese safe today?

A: Absolutely. In most cases, the horrific claims of sexual abuse by priests made by survivors happened decades ago. Most of those accused are deceased or have left the priesthood. Members of the clergy against whom a credible and substantiated claim of child abuse has been made are permanently removed from ministry.

Q: What does the diocese say to those survivors who will file lawsuits because of the Child Victims Act?

A: The Diocese of Rockville Centre takes seriously and investigates all allegations of sexual abuse. We commend the courage of those who come forward to share their experiences and wish to see justice, healing and reconciliation prevail.

Q: I have read that dioceses in other states that passed a similar Child Victims Act were forced to file Chapter 11 (bankruptcy). Will the Diocese of Rockville Centre be forced to follow a similar path?

A: Bishop Barres and his leadership team have worked diligently with the diocese's financial and legal advisors to assess its financial position and maximize the availability of insurance coverage to meet the demands that will likely be imposed by anticipated CVA litigation. The diocese will continue to consult with legal and financial experts to determine the best approach to sustaining the good work of the Church.

Q: Will my school or parish be forced to close because of any potential financial necessity?

A: While the diocese does not know the full impact of the Child Victims Act, we intend to work diligently to see that no schools or parishes will be forced to close as a result of the CVA. We do not believe, at this time, that the closure of parishes or schools because of the CVA would be a likely outcome.

Q: Will employee pensions or retirement funds be impacted?

A: The Diocese of Rockville Centre will do everything within its legal power to preserve and protect employee pensions and retirement funds. That said, it is too early to say definitively, but in diocesan settlements in other parts of the country, no employee pension money or retirement funds were impacted.

Q: How many survivors of clergy sexual abuse are expected to sue the Diocese of Rockville Centre?

A: It is impossible to predict, but the diocese is working with the best financial and legal talent to find the least disruptive means through this challenging time.

Q: How long will it take to fully litigate all the lawsuits filed under the Child Victims Act?

A: Again, it is impossible to predict, but for some dioceses it took a number of years to reach a final settlement with all of the survivors who filed lawsuits.

The coming months will require perseverance and prayer if we are to emerge even more dedicated to Christ's saving mission. As the opening of this legislation takes place near the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, we are reminded to turn to Mary our Mother and draw courage from the one who did not look away from her suffering Son. She waited patiently, suffered with him, and shared in his victory over sin and death.

This is the same Mary who, as Mother of the Church, gathered with the Apostles in the locked room, waiting for the power of the Holy Spirit to descend at Pentecost. As we enter a time of Paschal Mystery suffering, may Mary guide us, so that together we may continue to carry out the mission of her Son: the building up of the Kingdom of God throughout Long Island and the world.

Olga S. Jordan
(1932-2019)

Recently, St. Ignatius Loyola celebrated a Funeral Mass for the soul of Olga S. Jordan who died on July 4, 2019. Olga served our parish in many ways, first as a Secretary for our Religious Education Program for many years and then as a Receptionist in our parish office.

Olga had always shared her time and talent in special ways whether it was with hospitality, parish mailings, helping a co-worker with a project or helping me with office work. Olga never thought of her work as just a job, but as a ministry in showing the face of Jesus to all she served. I am grateful to almighty God for Olga's tenacity, her smile, her zeal and her life of faith.

Olga carried the cross of Christ when she had a stroke two years ago. Since then, she was in and out of different hospital such as Northwell Plainview, Glenn Cove Hospital, Glen Cove and then was moved to the Central Island Healthcare Nursing Home in Plainview.

During this time, Olga faced great odds but did not allow them to define her life. Olga always carried her zeal right to end. Our prayers and sympathy to Olga's daughters Michele and Ruth and to their families. She was very proud of her children and grandchildren. May Olga now be welcomed into the arms of our Lord who now says to her "Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." (Matthew 25:34).

Rest in peace with God, Olga.

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA 129 BROADWAY, HICKSVILLE, NY 11801 (516) 931-0056

Dear Friends of St. Ignatius,

June 2019 – St. Justin, Martyr

It is hard to believe that it has been four years since our Special Friends last raffle. Now that the winter is behind us and the warmth of May brings us flowers, like Jesus, who resurrected from the dead, we are resurrecting our Special Friends Raffle. We thank all who have contributed to our Capital Campaign, which has enabled us to make important repairs and improvements in our buildings and grounds. However, it is now time to renew this raffle exclusively for the benefit of the parish to help us thrive in our many programs and services we offer and to help cover the cost of maintaining parish operations.

On Saturday, September 7, 2019 we will again host our parish picnic beginning with Mass at 5:00pm outdoors (weather permitting). This is a time for us as a parish to celebrate our heritage, our culture and our faith. It is also a time where we come together from many backgrounds as one Body of Christ to reconnect with others for one last “fling” of summer. Please Join Us!

By participating in our Annual Special Friends drawing at the Parish Picnic on Saturday, September 7, 2019, you will not only help our parish but you have a chance to be the winner of one of our monetary prizes. Seven (7) cash prizes are awarded that day: $2,500, $1,500, $1,000 and two (2) $500 and two (2) $250. Winners need not be present to win and will be notified. Please help us, if you can, by returning the completed tear-off section below along with your check as soon as possible. We enthusiastically encourage you to ask your relatives, friends, business and professional associates, in fact everyone you know to be subscribers.

Thank you for your generous support in the past and for your ongoing support of St. Ignatius Loyola, the Mother Church of all Hicksville. As long as we keep our eye on Jesus Christ, our rock and foundation, the parish will prosper in so many ways. We find that when we work together, God is present in our midst. As our patron, St. Ignatius Loyola writes “May we all do things for the greater glory of God.” May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

¿Hemos hecho de nuestra fe cristiana una religión a la carta? ¿Qué cosas hemos dejado de lado, que no nos gustan porque son demasiado exigentes? ¿Nos callamos ante nuestros amigos o familiares en cosas de la Iglesia que sabemos que deberíamos defender?

¡A mí me toca hoy acoger ese Fuego del divino Amor en mi corazón! ¡A mí me toca dejarme enardecer totalmente por él, para que transformándome en amor yo mismo, cada vez más y completamente, pueda encender otros corazones humanos por el anuncio del Evangelio, tocándolos con esas como "lenguas de fuego" que brotan de todo aquél o aquella en quien arde fuerte el amor a Dios!

El Señor, nuestro Amigo, nos invita a compartir también hoy sus anhelos, nos alienta prender fuego en el mundo entero con una vida encendida en el amor a Él, con una vida santa y luminosa por las obras. ¡Seamos como antorchas ardientes que disipen las tinieblas de muchas mentes y enciendan el amor a Dios en muchos corazones! ¡Con ardor anunciemos a Cristo y su Evangelio, a tiempo y destiempo!

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

In today’s second reading, St. Paul encourages us not to grow weary or lose heart, but to persevere in following Jesus. Our willingness to stand up for the Truth, even in the face of conflict and division, is one way to measure our discipleship.

Living Stewardship... Pillar of Prayer

Never, ever be ashamed of your prayer life. Say grace before every meal, go to Mass, and pray for others. Your prayers may encourage others to start praying as well.

Without God our week

would be

Sinday

Mournday

Tearsday

Wasteday

Thirstday

Fightday

Shatterday

7 days without God

makes one weak.
