Reverence for the Eucharist

God our Father assembles His people to sing His praise. Gathered around the table of the word and of the Eucharist, we are nourished with His grace and sent forth to make His kingdom come. Each generation of believers has continued to recognize the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread. Listed below are reminders of how we can receive Him more reverently and lovingly.

When you enter the church, please face the tabernacle and genuflect before entering your pew.

How Do I Receive Communion?

EITHER IN THE HAND OR ON THE TONGUE

PREPARE

yourself to receive the Body of Christ by opening your heart to Him and building a reverence for the Sacrament.

Bow your head before reaching priest.

I. If you receive on the hand--

APPROACH the altar and put out your hands to receive the Host. Hold your hands as Cyril of Jerusalem described in the 4th century: "... do not go stretching out your open hands or having fingers spread out, but make ... a throne... which shall receive the King".*

PRESENTATION
Your priest or minister will present the Host to you. He will say, "The Body of Christ," you answer "Amen." Receive the Host reverently with cupped hands *Either hand may hold the other; the left hand is usually above the right by custom.

COMMUNICATE

yourself by taking one step to the side and then placing the host in your mouth. Use your underneath hand to do this.

RETURN
to your place in the congregation.

Remember

* TAKE CARE not to drop any piece of the Host.

* LET ALL your gestures express reverence.

* DO NOT REACH for the Host; the priest will place it in your mouth. Slightly cupped hands place one hand under the other.

II. If you receive on the Tongue --
If you wish to receive the Host on your Tongue After "The Body of Christ," say "Amen" and accept the Host with mouth open and without extending your hands.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

August 2019

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. John Eudes

St. John Eudes was born in Normandy to a farmer. Against his parents' wishes, he entered the Congregation of the Oratory when he was twenty-two and was ordained two years later. He worked for the sick and the poor, especially the plague victims. He is best known for beginning the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and for founding the Eudists, a religious order dedicated to reforming the seminaries of his time and to preaching missions.

Judge not

It is tempting to view others' behavior and feel the need to correct it. Remember that criticizing others is a serious business. "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven" (Luke 6:37). Better to worry about our own behavior and let others do the same.

"Listen to counsel and receive instruction, that you may eventually become wise"
(Proverbs 19:20).

What is in your spiritual toolbox?

Can you imagine trying to build a house with just a hammer? It won't be as effective as using the right set of tools. So, too, we can face life on our own, or we can let God give us the tools we need to thrive. A useful spiritual tool box will include this equipment:

Sacraments:

Grace – a share in God's divine life and friendship – comes to us most effectively through the Sacraments. When we frequently receive the Eucharist and regularly participate in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, the resulting grace is a key tool that strengthens us to live out our lives in God's friendship.

Scripture: When facing challenges, we often "hear" the voice of a beloved parent, favorite teacher, or wise friend in our heads providing guidance from conversations past. Scripture helps us to "hear" God's voice. Through the Bible, God has equipped us with all that we need to succeed in this world and live with him eternally in the next.

It is meant to be lived.

Companions: "Do not be led astray: 'Bad company corrupts good morals'" (1 Corinthians 15:33). Despite their best intentions, the wrong friends can lead us away from God. Choosing companions who support our faith, hold us accountable, and share our love for God are important elements in our spiritual toolboxes.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe Mary was assumed into Heaven?

Catholics believe that at the end of her life Mary was taken, body and soul, into heavenly glory (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #966). This belief was officially stated by Pope Pius XII in 1950, but it had been held since the early Church. Mary was "full of grace" (Luke 1:28) and remained sinless throughout her life. Having carried the Son of God within her, her Assumption into Heaven preserved her body from the corruption in the grave.

Avoid the Sunday slump

Attending Mass is the most important thing Catholics do each week, but even the most committed can fall into a Sunday slump. So consider these ideas to make the Lord's Day truly special.

Attend Mass somewhere new. Occasionally being in a different environment can help us look at the Mass with fresh eyes and give us a new perspective. We can be reminded that the Catholic faith is universal. There are people in small towns and big cities all over the world who come together at Mass to praise God.

Get away. Plan a day trip around attending Mass. There are churches that have mosaics, relics, and amazing art. Find the closest basilica or cathedral, or a Catholic Church with a history. Attend Mass there and then find other activities in the town to do.

Attend mass in another language. For example, some churches have Masses in Latin, others have Spanish Masses, and so on.

Make it a date. Invite a friend to join you and enjoy a meal afterward.

from Scripture

Luke 13:22-30, The narrow gate

In this Gospel passage, we read Jesus' answer to the million-dollar question: "Will only a few people be saved?"

The gate to Heaven is "narrow", open to whoever can "fit through." When an ancient city was threatened the gate was locked. Hidden in part of the wall was a narrow opening so no one could enter with armor or weapons. Even an enemy would have to enter unarmed.

serious sin, unforgiveness, undue attachments to earthly goods, etc.

We may be surprised. People who felt entitled to Heaven in this life will be turned away, while others deemed "unworthy" will be welcomed in. It comes down to

Or, to use modern example, the gate of Heaven is like the gate at the airport, in that we may need to get rid of extra or unsafe baggage before going through it. Here, this may be unconfessed whether we can part with the extra or unsafe baggage in our hearts. Jesus said, "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved" (John 10:9). The moral: pack wisely and find the Gate.

Q & A What did Jesus mean by "turn the other cheek"?

To understand Jesus' instruction of "turning the other cheek" (Matthew 5:39), it's necessary to understand some cultural context. Someone striking you on the right cheek would've used his left hand, which was considered unclean in Jesus' day. Striking with the left was for slaves, children, and anyone else you considered your social inferior. Turning the other cheek told the aggressor, "I am your equal. You will not treat me that way again."

To "turn the other cheek" is often misinterpreted as an order to do nothing to stop evil. What it really means is, do no evil to stop evil. Instead, we can graciously respond to cruel remarks (if they deserve a response at all), get outside help, work for changes in policies, show kindness to our oppressors. Most of all, pray for the aggressor's change of heart. You don't always know the fruits of your prayers until later on. Resisting the temptation to "get even" is possible with the grace of God, who forgave his persecutors from the Cross.

Feasts & Celebrations

Aug. 6 - The Transfiguration of the Lord. Tradition says that Mt. Tabor was the site of the Transfiguration during which Christ appeared radiant in the company of Moses and Elijah, and a voice was heard to say, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (Matthew 17:5).

Aug. 8 - St. Dominic (1221). Born to a noble family in Spain, St. Dominic studied to become a Franciscan canon regular, but left to preach against the widely popular but dangerous Albigensian heresy. He founded the Order of Preachers, or "Dominicans," who successfully defeated this heresy. He is also credited with receiving the Rosary from Our Lady and teaching the prayer to others.

Aug. 22 - Queenship of the Blessed Virgin. In 1954, Pope Pius XII established this feast day to celebrate the Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Mary's queenship is rooted in Scripture and Tradition.

As the mother of the King, Mary can intercede for us in Heaven.

Dear Friends of St. Ignatius,

June 2019 – St. Justin, Martyr

It is hard to believe that it has been four years since our Special Friends last raffle. Now that the winter is behind us and the warmth of May brings us flowers, like Jesus, who resurrected from the dead, we are resurrecting our Special Friends Raffle. We thank all who have contributed to our Capital Campaign, which has enabled us to make important repairs and improvements in our buildings and grounds. However, it is now time to renew this raffle exclusively for the benefit of the parish to help us thrive in our many programs and services we offer and to help cover the cost of maintaining parish operations.

On Saturday, September 7, 2019 we will again host our parish picnic beginning with Mass at 5:00pm outdoors (weather permitting). This is a time for us as a parish to celebrate our heritage, our culture and our faith. It is also a time where we come together from many backgrounds as one Body of Christ to reconnect with others for one last “fling” of summer. Please Join Us!

By participating in our Annual Special Friends drawing at the Parish Picnic on Saturday, September 7, 2019, you will not only help our parish but you have a chance to be the winner of one of our monetary prizes. Seven (7) cash prizes are awarded that day: $2,500, $1,500, $1,000 and two (2) $500 and two (2) $250. Winners need not be present to win and will be notified. Please help us, if you can, by returning the completed tear-off section below along with your check as soon as possible. We enthusiastically encourage you to ask your relatives, friends, business and professional associates, in fact everyone you know to be subscribers.

Thank you for your generous support in the past and for your ongoing support of St. Ignatius Loyola, the Mother Church of all Hicksville. As long as we keep our eye on Jesus Christ, our rock and foundation, the parish will prosper in so many ways. We find that when we work together, God is present in our midst. As our patron, St. Ignatius Loyola writes “May we all do things for the greater glory of God.” May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

¿Hemos hecho de nuestra fe cristiana una religión a la carta? ¿Qué cosas hemos dejado de lado, que no nos gustan porque son demasiado exigentes? ¿Nos callamos ante nuestros amigos o familiares en cosas de la Iglesia que sabemos que deberíamos defender?

En el Evangelio nos encontramos con Jesús y él nos habla con claridad. Si queremos salvarnos, si queremos alcanzar la verdadera felicidad, nos invita a seguirle, nos invita a vivir de una determinada manera. No nos promete que siempre va a ser fácil estar con él. Si al maestro lo clavaron en la cruz, no podemos pensar que a sus seguidores les va a ir mucho mejor. Es lo que nos dice Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy: "He venido a prender fuego en el mundo". No dice que haya venido a poner paños calientes para que nos sintamos bien. No. Jesús pretende cambiar este mundo, revolucionarlo, ponerlo patas arriba. Eso no es fácil. A veces es causa de dolor y división. La paz llegará después. El Reino es algo que llega pero primero hay que conquistarlo, hay que esforzarse. Para conseguir la justicia es preciso luchar contra la injusticia.

Por eso, lo más importante de la vida del cristiano no es participar en la misa del domingo. Ese es el lugar de encuentro con la comunidad. Pero donde un cristiano se juega su ser cristiano, es en su vida diaria, en la relación con su familia, sus compañeros de trabajo, sus amistades. Ahí es donde hay que vivir en cristiano. Aunque eso signifique ir en contra de la opinión de los demás o perder su amistad. Porque ser cristiano no es responder siempre con una sonrisa a todo lo que nos dicen, sino saber poner por delante, con cariño pero también con fuerza, la verdad del Evangelio. Pero no nos asustemos. Recordemos los muchos que han dado y dan su sangre en defensa de la fe. Su testimonio nos debe animar a vivir con más radicalidad nuestra vida cristiana.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus explains to us that there is more to being a disciple than just bearing the name. There needs to be some effort on our part to show we are Christians.

Living Stewardship... Pillar of Hospitality

This week let the world see the Love of Christ in you. Do good for others, speak the truth and start to cultivate a daily prayer life. Your hospitality as a Christian can go a long way in the life of another.

Thought
for the week .....

*Dance as if no one were watching,
Sing as if no one were listening,
And live every day as if it were your last!*
