Martha's Guild Rosary Making
 The next session of Martha's Guild Rosary Making will be Wednesday, September 18th from 2:30pm to 5pm in the Old School Cafeteria, Rm. B.

Bible Study is Back

Come join me, Deacon George Mais as we examine something new. This fall we will explore The Bible and the Sacraments. These sessions will examine the sacraments of the Catholic faith. Exploring their meaning and origin. We will investigate the deeper mysteries the sacraments contain as illustrated in Sacred Scripture.

These sessions will run for about 11 weeks beginning September 12, 2019. We will meet from 7:30PM to 9:00 PM in Room 1 in the Old School. We are asking for a donation of $20 to cover expenses.

If you are interested, please contact me at deacon-george@stignatius.us or at (516) 931-0056 ext. 140 and leave your name and phone number. If you have any questions you can leave them at the same location, and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

See you there. Deacon George Mais

ONE-HUNDRED SIXTY YEARS OF St. IGNATIUS LOYOLA-PRESENTATION

By Joseph Pellicone

This year of 2019, we at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish are celebrating our 160th year of living the Catholic faith and worshipping here in the Hicksville community. What a remarkable event to celebrate and cherish in thanksgiving to God for our church, our people and our faith. In honor of this special time, Mary Ann Lang, a former parish trustee, and I will be hosting a presentation on the beauty, the people and the symbolism of the two churches of St. Ignatius Loyola. The presentation will be held here in the church on Sunday September 29th at 3:30pm. This event is similar to the one we held three years ago in the Hicksville Library. Please join us to see how our forefathers and mothers dedicated and sacrificed their lives to give us the beautiful church we worship in today. If you were not able to make the first presentation in the Hicksville Library, please join us. We will show pictures of the first church and our current church as well as the Pastors, Priests and religious who served here. We will discuss the rich symbolism that we see every Saturday night or Sunday, but don't know its meaning and significance. Please join us for this educational and spiritual event.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN-CONTINUING OUR MISSION-ALMOST THERE

As of September 3, 2019 the amount that we have reached in paid pledges of our Capital Campaign is $1,455,279.84. What an accomplishment! Congratulations and a big thank you to all who have completed their pledges. Thank you also to all those still giving to the campaign. While we have made great strides, there is still more ground to cover. Remember our goal is $1.5 million dollars. We are approximately 96% to our goal. I encourage each person and family who has signed up to keep giving until your pledges are paid. If you have not yet given, you may still do so. Contact our office. Our campaign is about equal sacrifice, not equal giving! The next projects that we will embark on are a fire alarm system for the church and more outdoor cameras around the church. Due to several problems of vandalism, I have decided to place cameras in front and on the sides of the church. This is to ensure your security and protection. Your dollars will help ensure that St. Ignatius Loyola is around for many more years. Thank you again for your sacrifice and your financial gifts. May God bless you for your generosity.

Remember to always act and worship for the greater glory of God! May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility in Amityville, life is good and sometimes very busy.

“We are very happy that more and more of our Priests are taking advantage of this wonderful facility. We thank you for your support, we depend on it, especially now with the increasing costs we are experiencing. We couldn’t do it without you!”

- Rev. Msgr. Thomas Costa,
Vicar for Senior Priests

“Since I arrived at St. Pius X, I have found living here like being at home. I have found much happiness with my fellow priests and in the entire community, and I especially appreciate the support I receive. Thank you for helping to make this home possible.”

- Rev. Msgr. T Peter Ryan

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. “Still on duty,” they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible! Thank You!

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Vincent de Paul

In France in 1580, St. Vincent was born to peasant farmers, but his father, seeing his potential, made sure he received a good education. Vincent was ordained a priest, and served as chaplain to the countess of Gondi. Seeing the poor were spiritually neglected, he founded the Ladies of Charity and the Sisters of Charity to help. To reform the priesthood, he founded the Lazarists to train priests. He is the patron of charitable institutions.

Another reason to attend Sunday Mass

Masses have intentions for which the Mass is offered. By attending Mass, we help those people or causes - including the priest who offers the Mass.

Bless, don't curse!

When you are angry at someone else, don't judge or criticize him or her. Instead offer a prayer, a Rosary or a Mass for his or her intention and ask God to bless you both. It's so much more effective.

Build up your trust in God

Are you afraid to trust God with your life? Do you give him your problems but take them back when he doesn't do what you want?

It is only when we have complete trust in God that our lives work well.

God is trustworthy. A trustworthy person has high moral integrity and character. We have thousands of years of history in the Bible that prove God means what he says and says what he means. He always does what he promises.

God is capable. Certainly God took excellent care of King David, Job, Moses and even Jesus and his family.

He is certainly capable and interested in taking care of you. God has power over all creation, so he clearly has the ability to accomplish anything. He has infinite wisdom, so he knows what you need. More to the point, God loves you with unimaginable intensity so he always wants what is best for you. In fact, God is more qualified than you are to take care of what you need.

Are you ready to really trust God? Start by thanking him no matter what. Everything that he allows to happen to us is for our good. Then remind yourself that God is fully in charge. Finally, ask him what you should do next and do it.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics use bells during Mass?

The practice of ringing bells during Mass is an old tradition. It is used to mark the crucial parts of the Mass: the Epiclesis (the prayer invoking the Holy Spirit to transform the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ), and after the elevations of the host and the chalice (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, #150). Today, the ringing of bells invites us to make a sacred response and reflect on the mysteries of God's presence.

No need to fear death

Death can be a fearful unknown but Christians know that it is a doorway that leads to something wonderful. Still, the idea can produce anxiety in even the strongest Christian. Consider taking steps to reduce that anxiety.

Pray daily. Talking to God each day, reading Scripture, and spending time in prayer is the best way to nurture a personal relationship with him. When we know God intimately and personally, we trust him and know to rely on his justice.

Go to Confession weekly. The Precepts of the Catholic Church require Catholics to attend the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) at least once a year or when aware of serious sin. However, to stay as close to a state of grace as possible, consider going weekly. Confess all sins of which you are aware.

Attend Mass weekly or even daily, if possible. "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink" (John 6:55). Jesus initiated the Eucharist to fortify us against the temptations and sin of this world.

from Scripture

Luke 16:19-31, Our brother's keeper

This is one of the clearest and most direct parables Jesus told. It starts with Lazarus, a beggar who lay suffering, miserable and ignored outside the home of a rich man. By contrast, the rich man had a wonderful and comfortable life on earth, oblivious to what was happening outside his very door. In the afterlife, however, there is a reversal of fortunes. It is the rich man who suffers torment and begs for relief.

The rich man wasn't a bad man. The parable didn't say he had gotten his wealth through dishonest means or had done anything evil. He was condemned because he'd become blind to the suffering of others. He knew what God expected of him, but didn't do it. His suffering in the afterlife was a just punishment. The Bible makes it plain that Jesus wants us to love each other as he loves us. When we live our faith, we transform our prayers into deeds of love as Jesus asked. As he demonstrates in this parable, the reward for doing what Jesus asked will be eternal joy.

Q & A Why does Scripture say God "rested" on the sabbath?

God didn't rest because he was tired; he was setting an example for us. He rested so we would do the same (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #2172). We weren't made to work non-stop, but for a balance of work and rest.

God rested to enjoy the goodness of creation (Genesis 1:31). We can get so focused on work we lose perspective. God knew the world wouldn't always be perfect but still made sure to appreciate goodness when he saw it.

Lastly, God rested to make the sabbath holy—a day for prayer and worship. God doesn't need our acts of worship, but we do. At every Mass we affirm his goodness, power, wisdom, and mercy to us. We receive our Lord, with countless graces, into our hearts.

"No one is father like God is Father" (CCC, #239). He knows we need time off, so he requires us to rest. He knows we need to know we're loved, so he commands us to visit him every Sunday so he can remind us.

Feasts & Celebrations

Sept. 1 – St. Giles (8th Century). A saint shrouded in mystery, he was a hermit who lived near the Rhône River in France. He was also known as a miracle worker and his fame drew crowds and disciples to his side, and even attracted the attention of King Charles. The king offered to fund a monastery if St. Giles agreed to be its first abbot, which he did. St. Giles is patron of the poor, cripples, beggars, and the disabled.

Sept. 14 - The Exaltation of the Holy Cross (c.326). St. Helena (mother of Emperor Constantine) discovered three crosses while on pilgrimage in Jerusalem. One of them was thought to be the Cross on which Jesus died. On the site Constantine built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher.

Sept. 21 – St. Matthew the Evangelist (1st century). Also known as Levi, he was a notorious tax collector. St. Matthew left everything when Jesus called him to spread the Gospel. He wrote the Gospel According to Matthew.

Recordando y cuidando a nuestros sacerdotes ancianos

Cuando recuerda a su párroco preferido u otro sacerdote que estuvo en su parroquia, ¿Alguna vez se ha preguntado cómo estará o donde estará viviendo?

Pues bien, para nuestros sacerdotes ancianos que viven en la “Residencia Geriátrica de Vida Plena San Pío X” en Amityville, la vida es buena y a veces bastante atareada.

Nos alegra mucho que cada vez más y más de nuestros sacerdotes están entrando a esta maravillosa institución. Dependemos de su colaboración, muy especialmente ahora debido a las alzas en los costos. ¡Sin su ayuda no podríamos hacerlo, muchas gracias!

Vicario para sacerdotes ancianos

Desde que llegué a la Residencia San Pío X, he sentido que vivir aquí es como estar en casa. Estoy feliz con mis compañeros sacerdotes y con toda la comunidad, y estoy muy agradecido del apoyo que me brindan. Gracias por ayudar a que esta Residencia sea una realidad.”

Rev. Mons. T. Peter Ryan

Pese a estar jubilados nuestros sacerdotes ancianos mantienen su rol pastoral y el residir en San Pío X les da la oportunidad de ser miembros activos de nuestra comunidad Diocesana. Ellos están “Aún en servicio” ejerciendo como nuestros maestros, consejeros y guías espirituales

El próximo fin de semana será la colecta pro fondos de la Residencia Geriátrica San Pío X en donde viven sacerdotes jubilados. ¡Por favor sea tan generoso como sea posible! ¡Muchas Gracias!

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

Cuándo he tomado decisiones importantes en mi vida ¿me he dejado llevar por lo que opinaban los demás? ¿Me ha preguntado qué habría hecho Jesús en una situación similar? ¿Creo que, si hubiera actuado como Jesús, habría sido más feliz?

Jesús nos invita a vivir así el don de la libertad, a liberarnos de todas las ataduras que nos esclavizan. La familia es a veces una invitación a mantenernos siempre niños, a ser uno más del rebaño, a hacer no lo que debemos hacer sino lo que a los demás les parece bien que hagamos. Seguir a Jesús es dejar la casa donde vivimos. Quizá no en el sentido físico o geográfico sino en el sentido afectivo. Dejar ese lugar mental donde nos sentimos seguros, donde ya tenemos respuestas para todo. Seguir a Jesús es salir a la intemperie, dejarnos afectar por lo que piensan, sienten y sufren nuestros hermanos, los hombres y mujeres de este mundo.

Cargar con nuestra cruz significa aceptar nuestras heridas y limitaciones, nuestros errores del pasado. No negarlas sino asumir que son parte de nuestra historia, de nuestro ser. Y caminar con la mirada puesta al frente, confiando en que Dios curará todas esas heridas, confiando en que el don de la libertad, del encuentro gozoso con el hermano y con Dios, compensará con creces todo lo que hayamos dejado atrás.

Ser cristiano y seguir a Jesús tiene mucho que ver con aprender a ser libre y, en libertad, descubrir que somos hijos de Dios y hermanos de todos. Jesús nos muestra el camino y nos enseña que sólo dejándolo todo podremos encontrarnos con la vida y la felicidad.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
