WE ARE CALLED TO BE PRUDENT AS JESUS' DISCIPLES

I have to admit that today's parable that Jesus tells took me for a surprise. At first, it seems that Jesus is praising the dishonesty of the steward who was wasting his master's goods. However as you read deeper into the story, what Jesus is praising is the steward's ingenuity and prudence. The steward knew he would be without a job and home after his Master fired him. So, he called in his master's debtors and gave them a discount to help them and give them an advantage. He in return would be cared for by the debtors. Jesus is not judging the steward's honesty or dishonesty, but is comparing his resourcefulness to the lack of daring motivation on the part of his own disciples. The steward drew on his worldly wisdom and acting cleverly in providing for himself a future and helping those who were poor. Jesus is saying we need to do the same. So many people in our world today use their talents for tear down instead of build up. We can make the difference by asking Jesus for the virtue of prudence. Prudence according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC #1806), is the virtue that uses practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it. The "prudent man (woman) looks where he is going." It is saying or doing the proper thing at the proper time and in the appropriate manner. It is the ability to know when to do something or nothing at all.

The question we can ask ourselves is how prudent am I with my gifts, talents and resources in advancing the Kingdom of God? How do I use my gifts and my finances to help others? Where do I need to work a little bit more so that I am thinking less of self and more of others?

Please remember our CAPITAL CAMPAIGN-CONTINUING OUR MISSION! We are at 97% of our goal of $1.5 million.

Remember to always act and worship for the greater glory of God! May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

ONE-HUNDRED SIXTY YEARS OF St. IGNATIUS LOYOLA-PRESENTATION

This year of 2019, we at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish are celebrating our 160th year of living the Catholic faith and worshipping here in the Hicksville community. What a remarkable event to celebrate and cherish in thanksgiving to God for our church, our people and our faith. In honor of this special time, Mary Ann Lang, one of our former parish trustees, and I will be hosting a presentation on the beauty, the people and the symbolism of the two churches of St. Ignatius. The presentation will be held here next week on Sunday, Sept. 29th. This event is similar to the one we held three years ago in the Hicksville Library. We will see how our forefathers and mothers indicated and sacrificed their lives to give us the beautiful church we worship in today. If you were not able to make the first presentation in the Hicksville Library, please join us. We will see the pictures of the first church and our forefathers and mothers as well as the Pastors, religious who served here. We will see the rich symbolism that we see every day in the church. Please join us to see how our forefathers and mothers indicated and sacrificed their lives to give us the beautiful church we worship in today. ## Para la reflexión

*¿Utilizo bien los recursos de que dispongo o los despilfarro en gastos inútiles que no me benefician, ni a mí ni a mi familia?
¿Cómo los debería usar?
¿Cómo contribuyo a crear fraternidad con mis bienes?*

En el evangelio de hoy Jesús nos cuenta la historia del administrador injusto. Sabe que va a ser despedido y procura utilizar todos los recursos de que dispone para hacerse con amigos que le garanticen su futuro. Ya se sabe, "hoy por ti y mañana por mí". Jesús no pretendía hablar de economía. Simplemente planteaba la situación de un hombre que se encuentra en una situación límite y que es capaz de discurrir lo suficiente como para sacar partido de ella en orden a cubrirse el futuro. Pero a nosotros nos vale la comparación y no es difícil aplicarla al mundo de la economía que tan importante es en nuestra sociedad.

En primer lugar, ¿quién no está a punto de ser despedido? Ciertamente hoy se vive una situación de precariedad laboral. Pero es que además, nuestra estancia en este mundo es limitada, nuestra vida aquí tiene fecha de caducidad, aunque no esté escrita en la etiqueta como en los productos del supermercado. No sabemos de cuanto tiempo disponemos. En segundo lugar, ¿no es injusto el dinero que tenemos? ¿Podemos decir que es "mío"? Los recursos de este mundo son para todos y en la fraternidad todo se comparte. Así que lo mejor que podemos hacer es compartir aquello de lo que nos hemos apropiado. Y, tercero, que mejor que compartirlo haciendo amigos, creando fraternidad, estableciendo lazos de solidaridad. De esa manera lo que en nuestra sociedad nos separa —lo mío y lo tuyo, mi dinero, mi casa...—, se convierte en instrumento de fraternidad. Y, de paso, nos encontramos con la llave que nos abre la puerta a una vida mejor, a una vida más plena en la que ya aquí podemos saborear la vida del Reino: la fraternidad de los hijos de Dios.

Al final, los que se dedican exclusivamente a cuidar lo "suyo" convierten el dinero, lo que poseen, en un ídolo, en otro dios al que sirven con pasión y devoción. Pero se equivocan porque Dios sólo hay uno. Y los bienes de este mundo no son más que instrumentos al servicio del Reino.
