This week's column was written by Deacon Mario Gomez
I want to take this opportunity to thank the entire community of St Ignatius Loyola for your prayers and support. I will like to share about one of the ministries in which I am serving the Lord and his Church, and it is RICA.

What's RICA?

It means rite of Christian initiation for adults, a process which unbaptized adults are instructed in the teaching and practices of Catholicism and introduced into the Catholic Church.

It consists of various rites that usually take place in Sunday's Mass. Sometimes in the process, there are involved baptized adults or Catholics who are preparing to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

Our Lord Jesus said: "COME AND SEE" (JOHN 1,39)

Jesus invites people to see him and to see that he fulfills what he promises. Come with me and follow me, is perhaps the simplest definition of our faith.

RCIA is a path where we discover our catholic faith. It is difficult to see everything in the beginning, but it reveals itself as our brothers and sisters as we walk with the Lord and follow him. It is the Lord who guides us in this journey of faith.

This process begins in September and culminates at the Easter Vigil. It has several stages, but it's important to remember that understanding faith is as important as having faith.

Stage 1:

Questions: In which they want to know about Jesus, what is faith?

Stage 2:

Catechumens: During this period we study sacred scripture, and discuss the main points of catholic doctrine. (Sacraments, Mass, Mary, history of salvation etc.)

Stage 3:

Purification and illumination: This stage takes place in the weeks leading up to Easter, and is a time dedicated to a deeper spiritual preparation to receive the sacraments during the Easter Vigil. Those who had completed their preparation, become members of the church by receiving the sacraments of Christian initiation that are Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Stage 4:

Mistagogia (post baptismal catechesis) This is the last stage and usually last several weeks from Easter to Pentecost. it's a time to reflect on the mysteries of the sacraments and to begin to live your new faith in a practical way.

Registrations are now open. We meet every Tuesday, which started September 24 from 7pm to 9pm that is in Spanish, Deacon George does English preparation. Please get in contact with him for time and dates.

I want to thank Migdalia Vasquez and Luis Reyes who work along with me in this program. Without their help, it will be almost impossible to run this program and the invitation is open to anyone who wants to volunteer.

May God bless them in this ministry and others that they perform in our parish.

Brothers and sisters in Christ lets pray for these catechumens that the Lord may accompany them and enlighten them on this path of preparation. Remember our mission statement We believe, We welcome, We worship, We serve.

May the God of love bless you Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Deacon Mario

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

¿Procuro informarme de lo que les sucede a mis hermanos y hermanas, tanto cercanos como lejanos? ¿Cómo me solidarizo con ellos? ¿Qué hago para ayudarlos?

Posiblemente la mayoría de nosotros no pertenecemos ni a uno ni a otro grupo. No estamos entre los “Lázaros” de este mundo. Podemos disponer de lo mínimo y un poco más, a veces hasta bastante más. Pero tampoco nos parecemos al rico de que habla la parábola ni a esos ricos de nuestro mundo que frecuentan unos ambientes donde nosotros mismos seríamos vistos como “andrajosos Lázaros”. A partir de ahí podemos pensar que la parábola no tiene nada que decirnos. Sencillamente no se dirige a nosotros. En todo caso, hasta nos sentiríamos más cerca del sufrido Lázaro. Nos ha tocado trabajar mucho y hemos sacado poco. Esperamos que en el otro lado nos toque una buena vida. Pensamos que más bien nos tocará estar con Lázaro en el seno de Abrahán.

Pero las parábolas siempre exageran un poco la realidad. Y la exageran para que la entendamos mejor. En la oposición entre el rico y Lázaro comprendemos mejor que no podemos vivir una vida en la que miremos apenas a “mis” propios intereses y preocupaciones. Lázaro son los pobres andrajosos que a veces vemos por las calles. Pero Lázaro es cualquier persona que cerca de nosotros está necesitada de cariño y atención. En muchas ocasiones no se trata de dar dinero sino de ofrecer nuestro tiempo, nuestra compañía, una palabra de aliento, de comprensión. Vivir en cristiano significa abrir los ojos para ver allá de mis intereses y deseos, de lo que me gusta. Vivir en cristiano es interesarme por mi hermano hasta dar la vida por él. Exactamente como Jesús hizo.
