As I am writing this column, our Fr Shelton Dias is on his way home to his Diocese of Columbo, Sri Lanka. I want to thank Fr. Shelton for all of his priestly work here at St Ignatius. He has touched many lives here, including my own. I pray that he will be back with us next Summer of 2020. Please pray for Fr Shelton that his priestly ministry will be a continued success!

Being A Faithful Parishioner is its Own Reward

Sometimes my staff and I will often here this phrase “I’ve been a parishioner for 40, 50 etc years in this parish and I deserve what I want.” While a person may be sincere in this statement, this is not a good example of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. In the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus speaks about the humility of the Servant. We are all servants of Jesus. In the parable, we find in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus says. “We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do” Luke 17:10. In other words belonging to St Ignatius Loyola or any Catholic parish is itself its own reward. We should not be looking for more, otherwise we are defeating the purpose of being a Catholic Christian. We are not Burger King “have it your way.” May we all pray for the virtue of humility.

May we always strive to live for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola. pray for us!

SERVIMOS A DIOS

PASTOR: Rev. James T. Stachacz

PASTOR ASOCIADO:

DIACONADO: Mario y Dora Gómez

José y Judith Contreras.

Lo mismo se puede decir de la fe en Dios. No se trata de aceptar unas verdades imposibles de comprender y decir “vale, lo acepto”.

No se trata de comulgar con ruedas de molino. Se trata de experimentar la presencia de Dios, de sentirlo presente en mi vida, en la vida de los hermanos y hermanas, en la vida de la Iglesia, en el mundo, en la creación, y confiar que esa presencia es una presencia bondadosa, hecha de amor y misericordia, que desea nuestra libertad, nuestro bien, nuestra felicidad.

Pero a veces nuestra fe decae. Esa relación de confianza conoce momentos de debilidad, de recelo, de sospecha. Entonces nos sentimos desanimados, sin fuerzas. El amor de Dios que sentíamos que llenaba nuestro corazón de fuerza y entusiasmo se desvanece.

El compromiso por ser mejores, por ayudar a los necesitados, por amar a los que viven con nosotros, por perdonar sin medida, como Dios nos perdona, flaquea. Todos hemos experimentado alguna vez esos sentimientos de duda, de pérdida de la confianza.

Ahí viene la petición de los apóstoles. “Señor, auméntanos la fe”. Y el texto de Pablo que nos dice: “reaviva el don de Dios que recibiste... porque Dios no nos ha dado un espíritu cobarde sino un espíritu de energía, amor y buen juicio”.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
