Summary of Fiscal Report

For the Fiscal Years Ended August 2016 through 2019

St. Ignatius Loyola had an operating deficit for the third consecutive year with a Net Operating Deficit of $17,435 for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2018. This improves on the loss in fiscal 2018, which was $33,971. Collections were down 5.2% from 2018 and are down 23% since fiscal 2016 or $178K in that time frame. Other factors contributing to the deficit are increased salaries and decreases in Perquisites, Christmas and Easter collections and regular donations and bequests. A positive is the increase in income from fund raisers including the Garage Sale, golf outing and friends of St. Ignatius raffle.

While the parish has an operating deficit over the last two years, the parish has been able to reduce its indebtedness to the Diocese of Rockville Centre from ($2,051,389) in 2016 to ($287,282) as of August 31, 2019. This is due to the success thus far of the Capital Campaign, which has raised over $1,465,000 so far and the matching grant from the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The matching grant so far has amounted to $1,200,000.

Even while paying down the debt, the parish has been able to complete a number of much needed capital projects. Since the inception of the Campaign, the parish has replaced the rectory doors, painted the interior of the church, repaved the parking lot, replaced the Convent windows, put LED lighting into the church, did work on the church steeple and dormer and purchased a new organ. Our fire alarm project is underway and the last two items of replacing the leaders and gutters and re-carpeting the altar area should be completed by August of 2020. This is a great accomplishment that would be impossible without the support of our parishioners. Our hope is to complete the remaining capital projects and to be debt free by the end of calendar year 2020.

Dear friends in Christ and of St. Ignatius Loyola,

Two weeks ago I wrote to give you giving some insight into the plight of our parish Sunday collections. Today I write to announce that we will be undergoing an Enhanced Offertory Program encouraged by the Diocese of Rockville Centre and sponsored by Cathedral Corporation in Rome, NY.

The Enhanced Offertory program is a 6 week program (that is measured throughout 14 weeks). The program aims to increase the offering of each parishioner by stressing the importance of giving. The program starts with 3 weekends of in-pew talks. Some of our active parishioners, whom you know, our Deacons and myself will speak at the masses to stress the importance of giving as a disciple of Christ, especially giving to our parish.

During this first weekend, parishioners are introduced to the spirituality of giving. The talk will be given by our parishioners. The second weekend walks us through the program itself. The talk will be given by our deacons and some parishioners. Finally the third weekend is the commitment weekend which will be done by me. Please take the time to open your hearts, minds and ears to listen. Ask the Lord to guide you in the process. Thank you for your great generosity!

Remember to always act and worship for greater glory of God! May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us! Fr. Jim, Pastor

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lk 18:9-14

Real Presence

In a recent PEW Research Center study, nearly seven-in-ten Catholics (69%) said that they personally believed that during Catholic Mass, the bread and wine used in Communion “are symbols of the body and blood of Jesus Christ.” The survey also tested whether Catholics know what the Church teaches on the subject. Most Catholics (43%) who believe that the bread and wine are symbolic, do not know that the Church teaches that transubstantiation occurs, that the bread and wine actually become the body and blood of Jesus Christ while not changing their appearance.

Therefore, when we receive Holy Communion at Mass, we are receiving the REAL PRESENCE of Jesus Christ contained in the host which we consume. Transubstantiation has given us the opportunity to be joined with our savior, Jesus Christ; to eat his flesh and drink his blood and remain in him and he in us so that we can be raised up by him on the last day.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states in article 1374: “In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist ‘the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained.’”

The great stumbling block for Dr. Scott Hahn and many other protestants is from the Gospel of John: Jesus said “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.... Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (Jn 6:51, 53-55)

At the Last Supper, when Jesus had taken the bread, he gave thanks and broke it and said: “This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” And likewise, taking the chalice after supper, saying, “This chalice which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.” (Lk 22:19-20) Jesus himself has stated that the bread is his body and the wine is his blood.

This is not the first time this issue surfaced; back in 831 when St. Paschasius Radbertus, a Benedictine monk, wrote a short book on the Eucharist, Concerning the Body and Blood of the Lord to explain that the bread and wine become the body and blood of Jesus Christ. In 844, a revised copy was sent to the Emperor Charles the Bald (the Holy Roman Emperor) after which the emperor selected Ratramnus Maurus to refute some assertions of Paschasius because there was some misunderstanding of some of the words that St. Paschasius had used in his book. This argument persisted until the 10th century, when Pope Sylvester II stated, in a document of the same title, that St. Paschasius was correct, that the host is the body and blood of Christ. Again, in the 16th century, the Calvinists denied the real presence stating that the host was just bread and the wine was just wine.

Since the Fourth Lateran Council (1215), the Church has taught that transubstantiation occurs during the consecration of the Mass. “Trans-“ means to pass from one thing to the next; thus when the priest says “this is my body” over the bread and “this is my blood” over the wine, the Eucharistic elements still look, feel, smell, and taste like bread and wine; but they are the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

When the Council of Trent met (1545-1563) they declared: “Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and his holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.”

The council of Trent based its declaration on the 4th century Fathers of the Church – St. John Chrysostom, and St. Ambrose.

St. John Chrysostom (347-407) wrote: “It is not man that causes the things offered to become the Body and Blood of Christ, but he who was crucified for us, Christ himself. The priest, in the role of Christ, pronounces these words, but their power and grace are God’s. This is my body, he says. This word transforms the things offered.”

St. Ambrose (Bishop of Milan 374-397) wrote: “Be convinced that this is not what nature has formed, but what the blessing has consecrated. The power of the blessing prevails over that of nature, because by the blessing nature itself is changed.... Could not Christ’s word, which can make from nothing what did not exist, change existing things into what they were not before? Is no less a feat to give things their original nature than to change their nature.”

For those of us who understand philosophy, there is this further documentation of the real presence. St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274), in his Office on the Feast of Corpus Christi, reaffirms the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. He wrote that the word substance can have a technical meaning. It means what a thing is beneath its appearance. Philosophically, substance is distinguished from accidents. Accidents are what can change about a substance without changing what it is.

This term accident - sounds strange to us because today we use the term accidents to speak about something happening which was not intended (an auto accident, I spilled the milk); but St. Thomas was using the term philosophically; in philosophy an accident is any entity or event contingent upon the existence of something else. Let me give some examples of accidents: your height, your location, what you are wearing, what you are doing. So, accidents really don’t change without some physical action, but substance can change without affecting the accident. This is what happens during Mass when the priest consecrates the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ what the Church calls transubstantiation.

our country

Court Queen of Angels #869, here at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, is joining with Catholic Daughter Courts throughout New York State for The Thank You Project — a letter and notecard writing event to acknowledge our men and women in the Military.

Won't you join us in thanking a serviceman or servicewoman?

All ages are encouraged to participate.
Children may write a simple note or draw a picture.

Members of our court will be outside after all the weekend Masses on November 9th & 10th. Stop by our tables at the priests' garage to write a quick note (or you may drop off one you have already prepared.) We will supply the paper, cards, pens and markers. We will bundle all of our good wishes and send them to the NYS liaison, who will forward your letters around the country and overseas throughout the year.

Important Guidelines: Please refrain from political statements and inappropriate topics or lengthy religious discussions, but you may certainly say you are praying for them. Be positive! No glitter or glued items on children's artwork. Please do not be holiday specific as cards and letters will be sent throughout the year.

For those who can't visit us on the weekend, you may drop off a letter or card (individual envelopes are not needed) at the rectory no later than November 17th to the attention of "Catholic Daughters Thank You Project."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

¿Miro a algunos de mis hermanos o familiares con desprecio? ¿Por qué? ¿Es que no tengo nada de que avergonzarme? ¿Cómo me debería comportar con ellos si actuase como lo haría Jesús?

Sí, hay en cada uno de nosotros una profunda raíz de soberbia, raíz que debemos arrancar. Y no hay otro modo de vencer la soberbia sino ejercitándonos en la virtud contraria: la humildad.

La humildad es andar en verdad, es reconocer nuestra pequeñez ante Dios, nuestra absoluta dependencia de Él. La humildad es reconocerse pecador ante Dios, necesitado de su misericordia, de su perdón y de su gracia. En cuanto al prójimo, es no creerse más, ni mejor, ni superior a nadie.

¿Quieres crecer en humildad? No dejes de acudir a Dios para pedirle que perdone tus pecados. Asimismo, procura acoger toda corrección con humildad. No respondas mal a quien te haga ver un error o un defecto tuyo, no te justifiques, guarda silencio y acoge lo que de verdad tiene la corrección. Si has actuado mal, pide perdón con sencillez. Y si alguien te ha ofendido, perdónalo en tu corazón. No te resistas a perdonar a quien te pide perdón. Asimismo proponte no juzgar a nadie, pues sólo el Señor conoce lo que hay en los corazones. Examínate con frecuencia a ti mismo y fíjate en tus propios defectos, para que antes que criticar a los demás por sus defectos busques primero cambiar los tuyos.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

Thought
for the week

One should never take the easy road, but rather the right road, no matter how long the travel.
