GIVING OPENS THE DOOR TO SALVATION

In today's Gospel, we hear about the humorous story of Zacchaeus, the tax collector who meets Jesus. Now, Zacchaeus had two strikes against him in his society. First, he was a tax collector. The job of the tax collector was to work for the Roman Government, the enemy of the people of Israel. So, he was taking money from the people and giving it to their ruler. Second, Zacchaeus was rich. Much of it came from his unscrupulous practices. For example, he would often take some of the tax money for himself. So, here we have this outcast who hears that Jesus is coming. He does his best to find Jesus. Being short, he climbs a tree. Then Jesus, who knows he is in the tree, invites himself to Zacchaeus' house. From that point, Zacchaeus' heart is changed because he knows that Jesus cares for him despite Zacchaeus' sinfulness. In response to God's love for him, Zacchaeus surrenders some of his wealth and restores the injustices he brought onto other people. Jesus replies "today Salvation has come to this house." Zacchaeus' grateful heart opened him up to the grace God had for him found in Jesus.

How about us? How grateful are we to the Lord for all the good things God has done for us? One way we can give back to God in gratitude, is through our treasure. We have almost completed our Capital Campaign, and I am grateful to all of you who have given so much to ensure that our debt is substantially reduced and that our infrastructure is strong. We are now in the process of installing a fire alarm for the church. Now, we have to continue to look ahead and keep growing in our daily operations. This is not a sprint, but a marathon that you and I do together with the Lord at our side. Your reflective consideration of your offering to the parish will make all the difference of whether we continue to build God's Kingdom or struggle in making ends meet. Think about how God has blessed you and your family and then ask what shall I return to the Lord." I have found that the more I give to my church and others, the more God gives back to me. I have found similar stories from many of our parishioners. St. Paul writes "you will be enriched in every way for your great generosity." God knows everything about us. It is in our weaknesses that he draws us in so that He can speak to us and direct us to follow his will. Giving opens our hearts to his voice, just like Zacchaeus. While we do not merit salvation, it is in giving that we open our hearts to salvation. As we continue with our Stewardship, how much more is God asking of you to give to St. Ignatius Loyola? How open are you to God's grace and act of salvation?

WELCOME FR. MIGUEL RIVERA (;BIENBENUDOS!)

This past Monday I received a call from our Vicar for Clergy Personnel, Fr. Edward Sheridan who told me that we will be receiving a new priest here at St. Ignatius. His name is Fr. Miguel Rivera. Fr. Miguel has been in the United States since February 2019. He has at least 2 sisters in Brentwood. He is from San Miguel, El Salvador. Please join me in welcoming Fr. Miguel here to St. Ignatius Loyola. More to come in the future.

Please pray for our 36 Candidates for Confirmation who will be confirmed this Tuesday by Bishop John O Barres. May the Holy Spirit come upon them and enlighten them to be beacons of light for our world.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAS INVITES YOU TO TAKE PART IN

THANK YOU PROJECT

NOVEMBER 9 & 10 2019

Showing our appreciation for those who serve our country

Court Queen of Angels #869, here at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, is joining with Catholic Daughter Courts throughout New York State for The Thank You Project — a letter and notecard writing event to acknowledge our men and women in the Military.

Won't you join us in thanking a serviceman or servicewoman?

All ages are encouraged to participate.
Children may write a simple note or draw a picture.

Members of our court will be outside after all the weekend Masses on November 9th & 10th. Stop by our tables at the priests' garage to write a quick note (or you may drop off one you have already prepared.) We will supply the paper, cards, pens and markers. We will bundle all of our good wishes and send them to the NYS liaison, who will forward your letters around the country and overseas throughout the year.

Important Guidelines: Please refrain from political statements and inappropriate topics or lengthy religious discussions, but you may certainly say you are praying for them. Be positive! No glitter or glued items on children's artwork. Please do not be holiday specific as cards and letters will be sent throughout the year.

For those who can't visit us on the weekend, you may drop off a letter or card (individual envelopes are not needed) at the rectory no later than November 17th to the attention of "Catholic Daughters Thank You Project."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!

Food Pantry Needs

Thank you to all who have been donating to our parish Food Pantry over the past few weeks! Your generosity is really appreciated. Recently, we have seen an uptick in the number of our guests: last month we provided food to 690 people! With such demand, it's hard to keep our shelves stocked. Right now, we could use all varieties of canned vegetables, especially canned corn, potatoes, peas, carrots and mixed vegetables; apple sauce, jelly, pancake mix and syrup, cereal and tuna. Those Chef Boyardee pop-top canned pastas go fast, too (Beefaroni, Ravioli, etc.) Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 3 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days), or by appointment. Call us at 935-8846 for more details regarding donations.

Supplies for the Homeless

Supplies of personal hygiene products for the homeless are dwindling. We are in need of travel-size toothpaste and shaving cream. Tooth brushes and disposable razors are always in short supply, as well as white athletic tube socks! The homeless are always looking for extra large and 2XL hoodie sweatshirts, and XL sweatpants, especially now that temperatures are dropping. Oh, and most important of all: prayers are always welcome--please keep our less fortunate neighbors in your prayers. Clothing donations can be brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 3 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days), or by appointment. Please don't leave bags of clothing outside our door! Call us at 935-8846 for more details regarding donations. Joe Samodulski, Human Services

Queridos amigos en Cristo y amigos de San Ignacio de Loyola, Hace dos semanas les escribí dándoles a conocer la situación difícil en la que nos encontramos en cuanto a las donaciones de cada domingo. Hoy les escribo para anunciar que vamos a empezar un programa de Aumento de Donaciones apoyado por la Diócesis y patrocinado por la Cathedral Corporation en Rome, NY.

El programa de Aumento de Donaciones es un programa que dura seis semanas (y evaluado a través de 14 semanas). El propósito del programa es para aumentar la donación de cada feligrés recalcando la importancia de dar. El programa comienza con charlas de púlpito a través de tres semanas. Algunos de los que darán las charlas serán nuestros propios feligreses, quien Uds conocerán. A demás hablarán los diáconos y yo me dirigiré a Uds en la misa para recalcar la importancia de dar como discípulo de la Cristo y especialmente donarle a nuestra parroquia.

Durante el primer fin de semana se le va a presentar a los feligreses el concepto de la espiritualidad de dar. Uno de los feligreses dará esta charla. En la segunda semana, hablaremos de sobre el programa más a fondo.

Finalmente, yo presentaré en la tercera semana en la cual consiste en el compromiso. Por favor contemplen y abran sus corazones, sus mentes y sus oídos para escuchar. Pídanle al Señor que los guíe en este proceso. Gracias por su generosidad. Que Dios los bendiga y que la sagrada Madre los guarde a Uds y a sus familia siempre. San Ignacio de

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

¿Me preocupo de las apariencias y del qué dirán tanto como para olvidarme de la realidad de mi vida? Hoy Jesús me está mirando y me dice que quiere quedarse en mi casa ¿qué le voy a responder? ¿No me está dando la oportunidad de cambiar algunas cosas? ¿Cuáles?

La respuesta de Zaqueo es inmediata: «bajó en seguida y lo recibió muy contento» (Lc 19,6). ¡Qué diferencia con nuestra actitud muchas veces tan lenta y desconfiada! ¡Cuántas veces tenemos miedo de abrirle al Señor la puerta de nuestro corazón y dejarlo entrar! ¡Cuántas veces, aunque nuestro corazón nos reclama un encuentro mayor, respondemos ante la invitación del Señor: “no Señor, de lejos nomás, porque dejarte entrar a mi casa ya es mucha intimidad y demasiado compromiso”!

Zaqueo no duda ni un instante, inmediatamente lo lleva a su casa y le abre las puertas de su corazón de par en par. Es allí, en su casa, donde se produce el encuentro transformante con el Señor, encuentro que lleva a la conversión profunda, radical, valiente, audaz. ¡Así es el encuentro con el Señor cuando le abrimos de par en par las puertas, cuando lo dejamos entrar a lo más íntimo de nosotros mismos! La conversión, el cambio de vida, es fruto de un encuentro real con Jesucristo: «la mitad de mis bienes, Señor, se la doy a los po-bres; y si de alguno me he aprovechado, le restituiré cuatro ve-ces más» (Lc 19,8).

Fruto de la oración, de aquella que es encuentro auténtico con el Señor, es la conversión que se expresa en la acción decidida por cambiar todo aquello que en nosotros se aparta de las enseñanzas del Señor, todo aquello que lleva a defraudar al prójimo y atenta contra la caridad. No se mide una buena oración por la intensidad del sentimiento, sino por cuán decididos estamos a cambiar, a corregirnos, a pedir perdón a quienes hemos ofendido y a “restituir cuatro ve-ces más” a quienes hayamos podido defraudar por nuestro egoísmo. Por una buena oración la mezquindad y el egoísmo ceden para dar paso a la caridad y generosidad multiplicada.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.
