SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Because of the Holiday scheduling, we will post the collection amounts next week.
Sorry for any inconvenience.

This week Deacon Mario Gomez tells us about Advent.

ADVENT 2019

The first Sunday of advent marks the beginning of the liturgical year, its time of great anticipation as we await the arrival of Christ on Christmas morning. In fact, the word Advent comes from the Latin word advenire that means coming or arriving.

Just as in Lent, the liturgical color of Advent is purple. Both of the seasons prepare for a great feast day in the Church year. The final days of Advent from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

The color purple, also connotes the penitential dimension of the season of Advent, is a time of preparing, quieting and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas. The altar is also meant to be decorated in a more restrained manner during this season.

The advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. Right in the middle of Advent, several Marian feast are also celebrated.

They are the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary and the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

"At Christmas we on earth receive Jesus the bread from heaven, it is a bread that never grows stale, but enables us even now to have a foretaste of eternal life,, I want to come to Bethlehem, Lord, because there you await me. I want to realize that you, lying in a manger, are the bread of my life. I need the tender fragrance of your love so that I, in turn, can be bread broken for the world."

May each Christmas , as it comes, find us more and more like Him, who at this time became a little child for our sake, more simple minded, more humble, more holy, more affectionate, more resigned, more happy, more full of God.

During advent, we prepare for Christ's coming in three ways, as an infant who came into this world over two thousand years ago, as Our Lord and Savior coming into our hearts right here and now, and as the Son of Man who will come into this world again at the end of time. We do not know when the last of these will occur, so this season is a good opportunity to focus on preparing our hearts for Jesus now, perhaps by looking for his face in those we encounter.

God bless you all, Merry Christmas

Deacon Mario

Our second collection is for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Many senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for little or no pay. Today, religious communities often do not have enough savings to meet retirement needs. Your gift helps provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders. Please be generous.

Done en acción de gracias

“Las monjas me dejaron huellas para siempre”, escribe una donante. “Siempre daré las gracias por mi educación católica”. Agradecemos a los miles de miembros mayores en comunidades de religiosas, religiosos y sacerdotes de órdenes católicas que laboraron incansablemente para educar a los jóvenes y servir a los necesitados. La segunda colecta de la semana próxima se destinará al Fondo para la Jubilación de Religiosos, que ayuda a cientos de comunidades religiosas a cuidar a sus miembros ancianos. Les rogamos que sean generosos.

St Ignatius Pride: In our Church, In Our Children, In our Community

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Para la reflexión

Si el Señor llegase hoy a mi casa, ¿estoy ya preparado para su venida? ¿Qué cosas tendría que quitar de mi vida? ¿Qué cosas tendría que mejorar en mi vida? ¿Que habría que hacer en mi vida de familia, en mi relación con los amigos y en el trabajo? ¿Hay ahí cosas que cambiar o mejorar?

El Evangelio nos dice que la venida del Señor romperá todas las actividades habituales, aquello en lo que se nos van ordinariamente los días. Se dejará de hacer pan, de cultivar los campos, de ir al trabajo, de casarse. Porque ese día empezará algo radicalmente nuevo. Algo tan nuevo que es posible que sigamos haciendo pan y cultivando los campos y yendo al trabajo, pero todo tendrá un sentido nuevo y diferente porque el Señor estará en medio de nosotros. Su presencia curará nuestras heridas y hará que la justicia y la paz reinen entre las personas y los pueblos. Su presencia hará que nuestra vida sea diferente. Por eso, hay que estar atentos. No podemos dejar que la presencia del Señor nos encuentre despistados o sin preparar adecuadamente.

Es tiempo de hacer caso a lo que nos dice san Pablo en la carta a los Romanos. Ya es hora de despertarse porque la salvación está cerca. No sabemos cómo, dónde ni cuándo vendrá Jesús, pero sí sabemos que tenemos que estar preparados. Y para estar preparados, él nos da los mejores consejos: vamos a dejar de lado las obras de la oscuridad, las veces en que nos dejamos llevar por la envidia, la codicia y el desamor. Vamos a vivir como si Jesús ya estuviera aquí, que no hay mejor forma de estar preparados. Se trata de vivir a la luz del Evangelio, dejándonos llevar por el amor de Dios que cuida de sus hijos, de su familia, de nosotros. Volvamos los ojos hacia aquellos con los que vivimos. Con ellos, nunca sin ellos ni contra ellos, es como construiremos la solidaridad y la justicia que harán que nuestro Señor nos encuentre preparados cuando llegue.

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us.
