We Pray For Our Dead And We Mourn With You

Nancy Tarnell

Even though Memorial Day is just once a year, the brave men and women who died for this country are constantly in our prayers. May God bless them and also protect and bless those still fighting.

All gave some, and some gave their all.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF JESUS FOR US

As Catholic Christians, we often hear about the importance of prayer in our lives. We may not realize the power prayer has. Prayer is a simple conversation of raising our minds and hearts to God. It demands two simple elements: talking and listening. Prayer allows us to see where God is leading us each day in our lives. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that “prayer is the life of the new heart. It ought to animate us at every moment. It encourages us to remember God more often than we draw our own breath.” CCC 2697 Today our Sunday readings tell us the power prayer can have in our lives.

In Acts 1, the disciples along with Mary, the Mother of Jesus, are gathered in prayer just after Jesus ascended into Heaven. They went back to the upper room where Jesus had the Last Supper. They are in the in-between time; after the Ascension and before they elect a new apostle, Mathias. They are praying now to see what Jesus has in store for them. This was a retreat time for them. Their prayer opened them and prepared them for the power of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This time opened their hearts to the coming of Holy Spirit who will help them to preach and bear witness to Christ, in spite of persecutions. Jesus told the disciples that when the Spirit came, they would receive the power they had been promised (Luke 24:49).

In the Gospel John 17, we are given a very special privilege to listen to the prayer of Jesus to the Father. This is known as the High Priestly Prayer of Jesus. In the first part, Jesus prays for Himself and then for the protection and unity of His disciples. In the second part, Jesus entrusts the disciples to His Father because they have accepted His divine origin and have placed their trust in Him. Jesus prays that they will act as agents of truth and love in the world and that they may be protected from evil. Later on in the Gospel, Jesus prays for us too. He prays that we too like His disciples, will be visible signs of His presence to the world.

During these Covid-19 Pandemic Days, we feel we have been forced into a retreat mode in our homes. Instead of giving into frustration, may we use this as a time of prayer like Jesus, Mary and the disciples. Look what prayer did for them. It changed the world! How much more will prayer change us too? In your prayer, ask the Holy Spirit to help you be Jesus' visible sign to others by acts of truth and love. Pope Francis said “the human person grows more, matures more and is sanctified more to the extent that he or she enters into relationships, going out from themselves to live in communion with God, with others and with all creatures.” One of the oldest Novenas of the Church is the Novena to the Holy Spirit. Please go to www.ewtn.com for this Novena prayer. Pray it as a family. Be like Mary and the disciples in the Upper Room. You may see a real difference!

MEMORIAL DAY-PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED VETERANS

Take time to pray for all of our deceased men and women of the Armed Forces who gave their lives for the freedom of our country. We thank them for their service whether they served at home or abroad. We also pray for our men and women who serve in the Armed Forces today.

May God bless you and Mary keep your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Fr. Jim

In the meantime, you can pray this prayer to receive Holy Communion in a Spiritual Way.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Don't Forget!

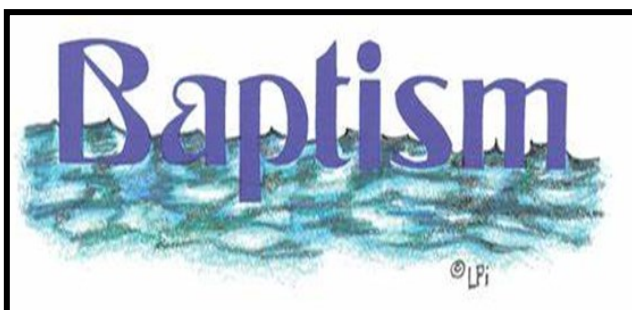

Don't Forget to do the 6's

1. WEAR A MASK
2. HANDS—Wash them Often
3. ELBOW- Cough into it
4. FACE -Don't touch it.
5. FEET—Stay more than 6 ft. apart
6. FEEL SICK? - Stay home

Tell Us Jesus

*O gentle Jesus, hanging high,
And all the world still wonders why.
With what old law did you comply?
With a scary sigh you did die,
Was it an order from above,
Or was it only out of love?
Tell us please, so we will know
Then, in Your favor we will grow.*

STEWARDSHIP

“The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.” Psalm 145:18

The Second Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Prayer

The Second Pillar of Christian Stewardship is prayer but that does not make it any less important than the first pillar. How can we be good stewards of the Faith without God? Mother Theresa said, “God speaks in the silence of the heart. Listening is the beginning of prayer.” When we pray we should allow ourselves to listen to what God wants of us and ask Him to guide us.

Ask yourself right now: how can you serve God today? Tomorrow? Next week? We may know the answer... we could look at our current vocation and see how we can serve God and others. However, sometimes it is not easy to know what God wills of you. Sometimes we may not know how to become good stewards in our community. Sometimes we may even struggle to see what is the point of being a good steward. Prayer to God can comfort us and guide us to do what we should to be the best Catholic steward we can be.

This weekend is Reflection weekend and the best way to practice this weekend is to spend some extra time in prayer. Practice Lectio Divina with the Scriptures, pray the Rosary, or simply say, “Speak Lord, your servant is listening” and sit in silence.

Living Stewardship

Pray. Listen to what God is telling you. God may be moving you to do something for His church or He may be putting someone in your life and asking you to do something for them.

“Continuing our Mission”

Our goal: $1,500,000. We have as of May 13, 2020, received $1,506,089.29 in paid pledges.

Please remember to fulfill your pledge.

When sending in your Capital Campaign payments in the Sunday Collection baskets, please use a separate envelope marked “Capital Campaign”. It makes it hard for the counters to distinguish some of these checks as they may go toward the weekly collection. Thank you so much for your cooperation.
