PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

THE HOLY TRINITY—A COMMUNITY OF LOVE

The Holy Trinity is indeed a mystery. However, this does not mean that we should be intimidated or to think that the Trinity has nothing to do with our lives. The Holy Trinity, God who is Father, Son and Spirit all relate to one another as a community where there is no division. We see this love expressed in our readings today where God's love and mercy is for us, despite our own sinfulness. The God who heard the cries of his people in Egypt, witnessed their affliction and came down to save them (Ex 3:7-10) now sends his Son, the Word- made- flesh (Jn 1:14) so that "the world", that is everyone who believes in him, will not be condemned but may be saved. Each of us is invited into this life of love where we are to live in union and communion with God and one another.

We are also called to be living examples of the Holy Trinity in our relationships each day. The Holy Trinity shows us that it is not self-contained, egotistical and self-absorbed but overflowing love, outreaching desire for union with all that God has made. We are to live our lives as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit relate to each other. When we live lives of love, we live the Trinity. When we foster division in our society as we see these days, parish, families, work, school and our relationships, we choose to stand in evil and we push God away. May we pray for the grace to live our lives in communion with one another so that the Holy Trinity will shine in us forever. Please pray for peace and an end to racism, violence and emotional drama that has plagued our nation for centuries, especially during this past week with the killing of Mr. George Floyd. We pray for him, his family and for all in law enforcement. May Mother of the Church, Mother of Peace, pray for us.

INVITING ALL FIRST HOLY COMMUNICANTS WITH THEIR FAMILY

We are EXCITED TO INVITE ALL OF OUR First Holy Communion children for a Blessing with Jesus Drive-by on SUNDAY, JUNE 14 from 12:30pm-1:30pm. This day is a special day because we as Church celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

Children may wear their communion dresses and suits. Please drive to the entrance in the back on West Nicholai Street by the train tracks. You will be directed to drive in between the two school buildings to receive the blessing from Fr. Jim who will be holding Jesus as the Blessed Sacrament in what is called a Monstrance. Then you may drive to the Blessed Mother Statue near the Human Service building. ONE person may get out of the car and take a picture of their child. That person MUST wear a mask and social distancing must be adhered to. We ask that if your windows are open, to wear a mask as well.

OPEN TIMES FOR THE CHURCH- A CORRECTION

The Church will continue to be open daily for private prayer Monday-Saturday from 12:00 noon to 5:00pm. My apologies for the earlier error in stating that it was open every day. Only one entrance will be open, which will be the door closest to the priest's garage, located on the north side of the church. I ask that each of us follow the safety guidelines before entering the church. (See page 2 of this bulletin)

Also, a box will be placed at the side entrance for anyone wishing to drop off their weekly collections or to make a donation to the church. I want to thank all who have been giving so generously to the parish during this pandemic. Your generosity has helped us through this time of crisis. You may also mail in your envelopes, give online or go through direct giving in our ACH program. Masses will continue to be online at stignatiushicksville.org. At this time, we are able to allow Funerals and Baptisms for up to 10 people only. The priests have been celebrating each of our Mass intentions since March 20, 2020. I thank you for your patience and understanding during these unprecedented times.

May we always strive to do things for the greater glory of God May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. St. Ignatius Loyola pray for us. Fr. Jim

May 28, 2020

Dear Parents, Clergy, and Youth Ministry Leaders,

We hope this email finds you and your family safe and healthy.

As a means of continuing to support you and provide resources in your efforts to reach out to the youth of your community, the DRVC Office of Youth Ministry is excited to announce the launching of an online video series, Long Island Catholic Youth Live.

LI Catholic Youth Live will be a simple weekly, live-streamed video offered through our official Diocese of Rockville Centre Youth Ministry Facebook page, which can be found at www.facebook.com/DRVCYouthMinistry/, as well as a new YouTube Channel. The videos will feature myself and a guest, from our talented pool of Diocesan priests and youth ministers, as well as some guests from neighboring Dioceses with connections to our own. The videos will be about 5-7 minutes in length and will offer both prayer and an inspirational/catechetical presentation, in the form of a dialogue between the 2 hosts. Topics will include prayer, the virtues, and spiritual growth, as well seasonal topics and their application to our own lives. As long as we are in this time of social distancing and quarantine, sustaining faith and hopefulness in light of the circumstances will be a common theme. It is also our intention to make many of these videos bilingual.

All videos will be available to watch after the livestream concludes for those who cannot view them live. Though the series is presented specifically to teenagers, our intention is to offer something of substance and value for people of all ages. Families are encouraged to watch together, and youth ministries may elect to watch along live or at a separate time to generate their own follow up. We're all in this together, and so this series hopes to reflect that call to remain unified as a Church and with our communities throughout the current crisis.

Our hope in this endeavor is to provide some simple, faith-based content specifically for the youth of Long Island and their families. We are "going live" with the video as a means of creating the feel of an event each week, which many Catholic teens are currently missing in not having regular youth ministry gatherings and experiences at this time. Our Office and a simple venture like this could never take the place of consistent, localized parish ministry, but we hope it offers you a positive tool to enhance your outreach to the youth and their families, in the spirit of the New Evangelization.

If you have any questions about Long Island Catholic Youth Live, please do not hesitate to contact us. Know of our prayers for you and your families during this time.

In Jesus,

Nolan Reynolds
Director of Youth Ministry

*In the meantime, you can pray this prayer to receive Holy Communion in a Spiritual Way.
An Act of Spiritual Communion
Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen*

*Thank you to our Town of Oyster Bay Councilwoman, Vicki Walsh and Nassau County Legislator, Rose Walker for coordinating food donations from the entire town of Oyster Bay area to help fill the food pantries of St. Ignatius Loyola, Holy Family, Our Lady of Mercy and the United Methodist Church of Hicksville. We had at least 200 tons of food. This all took place on Saturday, May 23, 2020.
Thank you also to our Coordinator of Human Services, Joe Samuldolski for helping to coordinate this effort. Thank you also to Sr. Carol Radosti O.P., Coordinator of Outreach for Holy Family, Sr. Beth, R. O.P. and to all who volunteered during this day. Thank you to all who donated food for the hungry and needy. You have all been the eyes, hands, arms and feet of Jesus Christ for those in need during this unprecedented times.
Fr. Jim*

STEWARDSHIP

Faith-in-Action Weekend

“Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.”

Matthew 25:40

The Fourth Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Service

“Go and pronounce the Gospel of the Lord.” We hear these words proclaimed at least once a week. We may understand what these words mean and we may also understand that we are called to be the Hands of Christ on earth, as St. Teresa told us. We may also make a commitment after every Mass to become better Catholics and citizens the upcoming week. However, we get busy during the week and go about the week doing the same old things.

This week make one commitment to be of service to the Lord and to others. The coronavirus and lockdown have seemed to completely change our lives for the time being. We may have loved ones or elderly neighbors who are sick or out of work and in need of some form of service. We may think we do not have the tools or chance to be of service to them. However, what may seem like a small, insignificant task such as a phone call, may be so large of a gift to them. Remember, what we do for others, we do for Christ.

Right now, your prayers and communications to others could be a great service to those in need.

Living Stewardship

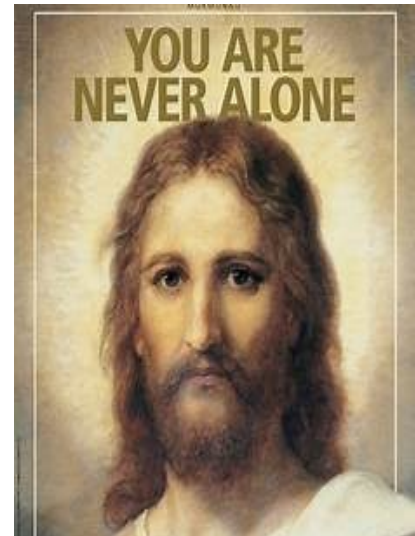

As Christian stewards we need to be of service to others. Everyone can be of service, every little bit of service is worth so much! A phone call to a lonely senior, a nice tip to a delivery driver, or giving to the Catholic Ministries Appeal are all great ways to practice simple, yet great, acts of service.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

We Are Never Alone

My children want my help sometimes, and other times, not so much. I remember being a teenager and young adult myself. At times, I thought I knew everything. I didn't need help because I was just so darn smart. Truth is, I needed to find my own way. I needed to stretch my wings and prove to myself and my family I could fly. I assume that is what is happening with my own children as well. It just seems so different now that I'm the parent.

Human beings need help. We need community, and we need to rely on one another. At Pentecost, we reflect on Jesus sending to the Church a helper, the Holy Spirit. God interacting with us in this manner means we are never truly alone. We focus most of the time on the Spirit of God as the assistance we need, and we do need Him for sure. However, since it is that very same Spirit that turned us into "Church" from a band of people looking to carry on after Jesus' ascension, at Pentecost we gained more than divine help: we gained each other.

Today, the Church needs help in a profound way. We need to lean on the Holy Spirit to blow through the Church with a profound renewal. But we cannot forget that we have been given each other to lean on as well. We are a gift to each other, and together with the Spirit's help, we are the Body of Christ here on earth. We must be strong and stand for one another. If we do that, this Pentecost will bear fruit that will be with us for many Pentecosts to come.
