PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

Dear Friends in Christ,

This past Monday, June 22, 2020, I have just completed my ninth year as Pastor here at St. Ignatius Loyola. It seems like yesterday when Bishop Murphy informed me that he had assigned me as Pastor to St. Ignatius Loyola. I recall being very excited and happy because you were to be my first parish as Pastor. I was also enthusiastic because I have a special devotion to St. Ignatius since my last year as a Seminarian student. It was at this time that I went on a 30 day silent retreat to reflect on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola. During this time, I felt very close to Jesus who affirmed my calling to the ordained priesthood. When the Bishop assigned me to St. Ignatius I felt my vocational calling was reaffirmed again. These past nine years have been my most fulfilling years as we faced the joys and sorrows, the ups and downs, together as a family of faith.

You have become my family since I took a promise of celibacy saying that I don't belong to a single family of my own. This promise has helped me to give of myself totally and completely to you as my parish family, modeling the life of Jesus who gives of himself totally to us. Another promise was that of obedience. At our ordination, the Bishop asked, "Do you promise obedience to me and my successors?" When I said "yes" at that time, not only to Bishop McGann but also to Bishop Murphy, Bishop Barres and to the future Bishops of our Diocese.

As we begin our tenth year together, it is with sadness that I announce that Bishop Barres has asked me to move on from St. Ignatius Loyola to Pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes parish in Malverne effective Wednesday, August 26, 2020. Though my plan was to complete the next three years at St. Ignatius, God had another plan. This is a clear example from this Sunday's Gospel in Matthew where Jesus says "whoever loses their life for my sake will find it" (Matthew 16:25). As priests and disciples, our lives are not our own.

We have done so much together as a parish family. While we struggled with closing of our beautiful school, we focused on the future as a parish family. We attacked our $2.8 Million debt and almost brought it to nil. We are completing our Capital Campaign that went over our $1.5 million goal. We celebrated the richness of our Catholic faith whether it was through our beautiful liturgies at Mass, the Lenten Missions, the 125th anniversary of our church building, the annual parish picnic, the annual golf outing, the Mardi Gras, the International Night, Family Life, Religious Ed, Faith Formation, and Activities Committee. This could not be done by one person, it was done by you the body of Christ! Just these past three months during the Covid-19 pandemic, I have been blessed to see your lives even more, as we were able to bless many of your homes. What makes our parish special, is that even though we belong to different cultures and traditions, we are all one, whether we are of European, Hispanic, S E Asian, East Asian, African, Caribbean decent, St. Paul writes "though we are many, we all belong to the one body of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:10). You have expressed that well.

I am pleased to announce the name of my successor, Fr. Shibi Pappan (Pronounced Pop-In) who will be assigned as Administrator of St. Ignatius effective August 26, 2020. Please welcome Fr. Shibi with the same enthusiasm as you have welcomed me.

I am grateful to all of the ministries and each one of you for your hospitality, your talent and your treasure in making St. Ignatius Loyola as special as it is today. While I look forward in leading the parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes, I will always remember you in my heart as you have taught me how to be a Pastor. If there was anything lacking in me, if I have hurt anyone in any way or have disappointed you, please forgive me due to my own faults and sinfulness. I hope to take all that I have learned from you to the people of Malverne.

Please keep me in your prayers as I shall continue to keep you in mine. Please continue to support your parish, Fr. Shibi and all of our ministries as you have supported me. You have truly shown me the spirit of our patron, St. Ignatius Loyola, who said "always do things for the greater glory of God." Thank you for your love, your enthusiasm and your faith.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Dear Sisters in Christ,

By the grace of God it appears that our country is finally turning the tide on the COVID-19 crisis, but now we find ourselves facing even more tumultuous situations, with the tragic death of George Floyd, and the riots which have been taking place throughout our country. I pray for the peaceful protesters that their voices be heard, and that as a nation we can one day come together as children of God without divisions.

In Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love - A Pastoral Letter Against Racism, the USCCB in 2018 reminded us, "When we begin to separate people in our thoughts for unjust reasons, when we start to see some people as "them" and others as "us," we fail to love. Yet love is at the heart of the Christian life. When approached and asked what is the greatest commandment, Jesus answered: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mt 22:37-39). This command of love can never be simply "live and let others be." The command of love requires us to make room for others in our hearts. It means that we are indeed our brother's keeper (see Gn 4:9)." ¹

We may find ourselves troubled during these times; frightened, worried, sad, yearning for better days ahead. There are three things we can all do: pray, pray, and pray some more. We know that Jesus taught us to love our enemies. We know how powerful prayer is, and how prayer can change hearts. Pray for those who seek division over unity. Pray for those who choose a culture of death over a culture of life. Pray for those whose hearts are filled with hatred rather than love. Pray for those who look the other way instead of standing up for what is right and just. Pray for those who would tear our nation down rather than work to build it up. Pray, pray, pray.

Take care, may God continue to bless you all, be well, and see you in September.

In Unity and Charity,

Tina Devlin
Regent

Meditaciones breves

San Francisco Caracciolo

Francisco nació en la región italiana de los Abruzos en el seno de una familia noble napolitana y recibió el nombre de Ascanio. De niño ya era conocido por su bondad y su virtud. Tras recuperarse de una grave enfermedad, se hizo sacerdote. Fundó la orden de los Clérigos Regulares Menores con un noble santo, Adorno. Fue el superior de la orden sin desearlo, pero con eficacia. Se le conoció por su amor a los pobres y su devoción al Santísimo Sacramento.

A solas con Dios

Vivimos nuestras vidas en la presencia de Dios, seamos o no conscientes de ello. Aprovechénsenos de ello y estén a solas con él con tanta frecuencia como puedan. Pronto lo verán por todas partes.

"... Y en el desierto, donde has visto que Yavé tu Dios te llevaba como un hombre lleva a su hijo, a lo largo de todo el camino que han recorrido hasta llegar a este lugar"

(Deuteronomio 1:31).

Cuatro formas de hallar la paz

Quando el mundo a nuestro alrededor nos parece muy distinto de lo que nos esperamos, perdemos la paz tranquilizadora y reconfortante que Cristo quiere darnos. Lo mejor que podemos hacer para conseguir la paz en medio del caos es movernos en armonía con la voluntad de Dios. Pongan a prueba estos consejos para una vida más serena.

1. No teman lo que viene a continuación. Temer las consecuencias de la pandemia, preocuparnos por las finanzas, sentir ansiedad por nuestra salud o por la salud de nuestros seres queridos puede conducir a la frustración y al desaliento. No hay paz en intentar salir adelante solos. En lugar de ello, sean francos y pongan todas sus esperanzas, planes y esfuerzos a los pies de Dios. Dejen que él se encargue de sus preocupaciones.

2. Sean bondadosos y amables. El resentimiento, la ira y la frustración destruyen la paz. Sean amables y atentos con su prójimo. Recuerden que Jesús era "manso y humilde de corazón" (Mateo 11:29).

3. Aprendan a vivir con lo que no pueden controlar. Cuando dejen que Dios les ayude a estar por encima de todo eso, tendrán la paz que llega con la aceptación.

4. Consulten con la Iglesia para hallar respuestas. No es siempre fácil distinguir la voluntad de Dios, y por eso Jesús creó la Iglesia católica. Si tienen dudas, acudan en busca de consejo a la Sagrada Escritura, al Catecismo o a un sacerdote o religioso en quien confíen. Al fin y al cabo, están aquí para ayudarnos a alcanzar el paraíso.

¿Por qué hacen eso los católicos?

¿Por qué honran los católicos al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús?

Al final del siglo XVII, Jesús se apareció a Santa Margarita María Alacoque en Francia y le reveló el infinito amor de su corazón, herido por los pecados. Le instó a que divulgara esta devoción en tiempos en los que la gente temía tanto a Dios que descuidaban su amor. En esta fiesta, Jesús se dirige a cada uno de nosotros: "He aquí este Corazón que tanto los ha amado, pero es tan poco amado". Cuando tenemos en cuenta las muchas pruebas de su amor, no podemos evitar amarlo también.

San José, modelo de padres excelentes

Imaginen los brazos que tuvieron a Jesús de pequeño, las manos que guiaron sus primeros pasos, los labios que besaron su frente. Cuando pensemos en la paternidad durante el mes de junio, san José puede ser inspiración y modelo para padres excelentes.

Los padres excelentes dan una infancia sana a sus hijos. San José mostró amor a Jesús, se cercioró de que aprendiera carpintería, lo protegió del peligro y le enseñó a amar a Dios.

Los padres excelentes cumplen un cometido superior a ellos. San José sabía que tenía un papel especial en la historia de la salvación educando a Jesús y protegiendo a su familia. Cumplió su papel de padre con fe, en lugar de atender a sus propias necesidades.

Los padres excelentes no se rinden. Si se tiene en cuenta que su esposa nació sin pecado original y que su hijo era Dios, san José podría haberse rendido, sabiendo que jamás podría alcanzar su santidad. En cambio usó sus propios dones para ocuparse de su familia. Entre ellos estaban sus destrezas como obrero, su humildad y su profundo amor por Jesús y María.

de las Escrituras

Mateo 10:37-42, El discipulado: exigente pero gratificante

En este pasaje evangélico, Jesús hace un resumen de las exigencias del discipulado en términos severos. En primer lugar está el asunto de las prioridades. Para los primeros cristianos, era ilegal ser cristiano y la pena era la prisión o la muerte. Ser seguidor de Cristo implicaba literalmente arriesgarlo todo. Sólo Dios es digno de ocupar el primer puesto en nuestros corazones y nuestras vidas.

Ser católico hoy también presenta retos. Mucho de lo que Cristo y la Iglesia nos piden va en contra de lo que la cultura secular aprueba. Todos tenemos una cruz, aunque no tengamos tentaciones del mundo. Seguir a Cristo incluye acarrear nuestras cruces, pero nunca solos y siempre con él.

Lo bueno es que Jesús hizo lo que hizo para que también nosotros podamos hacerlo. Pasó por la muerte a la vida eterna, del sufrimiento a la gloria, del dolor a la alegría. También lo haremos nosotros, si permanecemos cerca de él.

Con su gracia, cada día podemos elegir guardar sus mandamientos y permanecer en su amor. En el paraíso nos daremos cuenta con claridad de que todo valió la pena.

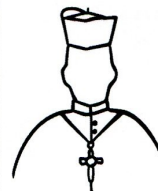

P & R ¿Qué es un cardenal en la Iglesia?

Los cardenales son los obispos que eligen al papa. Tradicionalmente, sólo el clero romano lo hacía. Ahora que la Iglesia es global, los cardenales son elegidos en las diócesis de todo el mundo para representar a la Iglesia en la elección. Viven en sus propias diócesis, pero son titulares de parroquias romanas. En este sentido son semejantes a los senadores de los EEUU.

Hay distintos tipos o "niveles" de cardenales. Los cardenales obispos son los obispos con diócesis en Roma. Este grupo incluye también a los patriarcas de las Iglesias orientales católicas. Los cardenales presbíteros tienen diócesis fuera de Roma pero son titulares de una parroquia romana. Los cardenales diáconos trabajan en la Curia (la corte papal) a tiempo completo.

Sólo el papa puede elegir cardenales entre los obispos, presbíteros o diáconos, pero deben ser primero consagrados como obispos. En una ceremonia especial, el nuevo cardenal recibe un solideo escarlata, un sombrero de ala ancha y un anillo que simboliza su unión con Roma. Los cardenales visten de escarlata para simbolizar su dedicación a la difusión de la fe, hasta el punto de derramar su propia sangre si fuera necesario.

Fiestas y celebraciones

1 de junio – La Santísima Virgen María, Madre de la Iglesia (2018). Jesús nos dio a su madre en la Cruz para que fuera nuestra madre (Juan 19:27). En el cielo continúa rezando por nosotros y cuidándonos como nuestra madre espiritual.

11 de junio – San Bernabé (siglo I). Contemporáneo de los Apóstoles, su nombre significa "hijo de la consolación". Patrocinó a san Pablo y lo acompañó en su primer viaje evangélico.

13 de junio – San Antonio de Padua (1231). San Antonio abandonó una vida de comodidades y riqueza para hacerse fraile franciscano. Tras pasar muchos años de oración y estudio, san Antonio fue encargado de predicar a los herejes y usó sus conocimientos de las Escrituras y de teología para convertirlos.

24 de junio – Nacimiento de san Juan Bautista (siglo I). Antes de que san Juan naciera, su padre Zacarías recibió un mensaje del ángel Gabriel anunciando el nacimiento. Como dudó, fue castigado con la mudéz hasta el nacimiento de Juan.
