PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

+	Sunday, July 12, 2020	$12,466
	Air Conditioning	$ 1,178
	Sunday, July 14, 2019	$11,065

A big thank you to all of our young people and their families preparing for their First Holy Communion, who came for a drive-thru procession on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi on Sunday, June 14. Each family blessed themselves, prayed the Hail Mary and were blessed by Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Many of our First Holy Communicants brought food for the homeless and the poor. Thank you to Mrs. Tuzzolo, Mrs. Malerba and their team for creating this beautiful experience. Even in a pandemic, Jesus is present in the Eucharist!

OUR NEW ADMINISTRATOR OF ST. IGNATIUS

(Our apologies for the light print in introducing Fr. Shibi Pappan. Here is a reprint of his welcome and biography)

Fr. Shibi Pappan (PRONOUNCED –POPP-IN), will arrive as the Administrator of St. Ignatius Loyola on Wednesday, August 26, 2020. Many of you have asked Fr. Jim what is an Administrator and how does that differ from a Pastor? An Administrator has all of the responsibilities of both temporal and pastoral needs of a parish without carrying the title of Pastor. An Administrator cannot make certain decisions without permission from the Bishop. An Administrator has the potential of becoming a Pastor. For example, Msgr. Ed Tarrant first served St. Ignatius Loyola as an Administrator before being named Pastor.

Fr. Shibi is a priest of the Bethany Ashram Religious Order, formerly known as the Order of the Imitation of Christ. According to Church Canon Law, Fr. Shibi cannot be named Pastor until there is an agreement between his Religious Order and the Diocese of Rockville Centre. This is what happens when any priest is assigned as the leader of any parish, no matter the religious order to which he belongs. Once the canonical agreement is reached, Fr. Shibi will be named Pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola.

Fr. Shibi's Biography

Fr. Shibi Pappan arrived in the United State from India in November of 2014 and one month later was assigned to St. Patrick's Church in Smithtown to serve as Associate Pastor. He is a member of the Bethany Ashram religious order (formerly known as the Order of the Imitation of Christ). Fr. Shibi grew up in Kerala, India as the youngest of three children. His mother, T.C. Saramma, was a homemaker. She died in 1997. His father, G. Pappan, was a government worker. His sister Sheeja and brother Shibu are both married and both have two children.

As a child, Fr. Shibi says he was fascinated by the work of the priests. He says the priests from the Order of the Imitation of Christ were exemplary models for him which inspired him to join them. The Order of the Imitation of Christ (OIC) is indigenous of India. It was founded by Servant of God Archbishop Mar Ivanios, OIC.

Fr. Shibi has a Masters Degree in Sociology and Psychology as well as a BED (Bachelor of Education). He also holds a Bachelors Degree in Philosophy and Theology from JDV Seminary in Pune, India. In 2018, Fr. Shibi graduated from St. John's University, NY with a Masters Degree in Education.

Ordained on November 21, 2005, Fr. Shibi's first several years as a priest has been very busy and productive. He simultaneously served as a parish priest and as principal and boarding master of a senior secondary school. During his tenure, he constructed one church and renovated another. After his four and half years as Associate Pastor at St. Patrick's, Fr. Shibi's plans called for him to return to Kerala, India to assist the victims of the horrific and historic flooding in the region last summer.

However the Diocese of Rockville Centre and Fr. Shibi's religious order decided to keep him in the United States and appointed him at St. Joseph's Church, Garden City. Msgr. Bennett also came from St. Joseph's Garden City to St. Ignatius Loyola. Traditions and connections continue, all in the good Lord's time. Please welcome Fr. Shibi with the same St. Ignatius enthusiasm as you have welcomed Fr. Jim.

PLEASE NOTE

-Fr. Jim will be away thru Monday July 27, 2020

Thank You for Receiving and Accepting Me

“I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now”. Phl 1:1-5

With this same desire of Saint Paul, I want to express my gratitude to the community of Saint Ignatius of Loyola for receiving me in difficult times of Covid-19. During this time, I have prayed for each faithful member of St. Ignatian family in Hicksville. May God continue to bless and protect this wonderful and lovely community.

I also want to inform you that His Excellency, the Reverend Bishop John Barres assigned me to Saint Anne in Brentwood to help as Associate Pastor on August 26, 2020. As our patron saint, Ignatius of Loyola said "whatever we do, may it be for the greater glory of God". God wanted me to spend six beautiful months with this lovely community of St. Ignatius of Loyola seeking to do God's will in everything. Doing God's will makes us free and available to serve His people. I will always be grateful for your welcome and your love toward me as a priest. I will continue to pray to Almighty God for each of you and may God maintain you in the same love you manifest for every priest.

Fr. John Victor, OMI

STEWARDSHIP

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin Reflection

In today’s Gospel reading, we are told the parable about the wheat and the weeds. This parable reminds us that the world is not perfect and that on Earth there will be good people and evil people. This parable should remind us to not get discouraged and lose faith when we hear of all the evil in the world.

Living Stewardship

Pillar of Hospitality

In today’s Responsorial Psalm, we praise God for being good and forgiving. We are also called to practice a good and forgiven nature. This week, pray for those who have hurt you and begin on the path of forgiveness.

Without any struggle, you would never have discovered your strength.

2020 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

“No vocation is born of itself or lives for itself. A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people. Did not Jesus say: “By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another” (Jn 13:35)?

–Pope Francis

Your Appeal donation supports vocations to the priesthood in our Diocese. It ensures that our seminarians have the time, resources and guidance they need to discern their vocation, begin their human and spiritual formation and embark on a life-time commitment of holy service as priests.

On June 20th, our Diocese received a double blessing when Bishop Barres ordained two more men to serve God's people in this time and place as members of Christ's priesthood. With great generosity of mind, heart, and spirit, Fr. John Crozier and Fr. Rafal Borowiejski have willingly dedicated their lives to Christ and have become wonderful role models for all of us, by placing their trust in Jesus and answering the call to follow Him more closely.

“Catholic priests are contemplative and missionary instruments of the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ expressed in the Word of God, the Catholic Mass and all the Sacraments.”

- Bishop Barres

Please consider donating to the Appeal and support Vocations in our Diocese.

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Benedict of Nursia

Born to a wealthy Italian family, St. Benedict was educated in Rome during the barbarian invasions – a time of division, chaos, and failing morals. Dismayed at the rampant immorality of his peers, he fled Rome and lived as a hermit in the mountains. Attracted by his holiness, many people sought him out. St. Benedict went on to found twelve monasteries in Subiaco and the famous Monte Cassino, which became a center of holiness, learning, and culture.

Keep the parish lights on Whether or not your parish has gone back to public Mass, please make your weekly donation by mail before you leave. Your parish depends upon your help to pay the bills even when you're not home.

"In the silence of the heart God speaks. If you face God in prayer and silence, God will speak to you. Souls of prayer are souls of great silence." St. Teresa of Calcutta

Share your faith

In this time of uncertainty, followers of Jesus know that worry is unnecessary. We know God wants us to experience his peace and share it with others. Try these tips to help others lean on God:

Go deep into God's love. It is ours today, tomorrow, and forever. "... Good indeed is the Lord, His mercy endures forever, his faithfulness lasts through every generation" (Psalm 100:5). Experiencing Sacraments, reading Scripture, and spending time in prayer are keys to growing in God's love and sharing it.

Share your confidence in God's care. Jesus promised that God will give us all we need, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on ... your heavenly Father knows that you need them all" (Matthew 6:25, 32). Stress stems from the absence of certainty and control over our future.

When we put ourselves in God's care, we can feel peace.

Demonstrate trust in God. While we may not be completely free from worry, St. Paul wrote, "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have bishops?

In the Catholic Church, a bishop is an ordained minister who holds the fullness of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Bishops teach doctrine, govern Catholics in their jurisdictions, and represent the Church.

In addition to filling the need for leadership in a family as big as the Church, bishops link us to the Apostles. The Apostles chose disciples to fill their office after them, and passed on to them the authority and faith they had received from Christ. This spiritual treasure was passed from bishop to bishop by consecration in an unbroken line up to today. This way, the faith would be available in every age to the rest of the Church.

Where is the real Catholic Church?

The Catholic Church is not just a building or a group of people. Rather, the real Church is a family begun by Jesus, extending all over the world, stretching through time and space.

In Heaven live those members who completed their earthly lives as God intended. They watch over us when we ask.

Members in Purgatory did their best to follow Jesus but died without having made adequate penance for their venial sins. Our prayers help them get to Heaven.

And those of us who are members on Earth are still living within the family, trying to make it to Heaven.

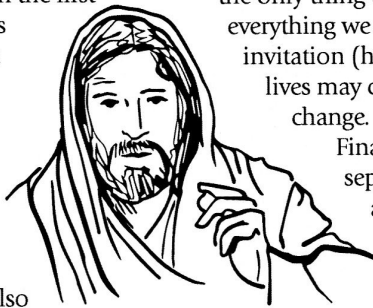

All three groups make up the Church and we are all connected forever. So not only can we ask our friends on Earth to pray for us, we can appeal for prayers to those who are face-to-face with God.

The Church began with Christ but is populated by humans. Still, we are all called to live fully in Christ's image. That means the Church is anywhere we are.

from Scripture

Matthew 13:44-52,
The kingdom is worth everything

Jesus used the parables in this Gospel passage to emphasize the life-changing value of the Kingdom. In the first parable, a man discovers – seemingly by accident – a treasure buried in a field. He sells everything he has to purchase the field. In the second scenario, a merchant finds a valuable pearl after diligent searching. He also sells everything he has to possess the pearl.

loves – is the only thing that really feeds our souls. God's unconditional love is the only thing that is worthy of everything we have. If we accept his invitation (he won't force us), our lives may change as our hearts change.

Finally, Jesus compared the separation between the evil and righteous to the sifting that happens when a large catch is brought ashore.

Similarly, when we put our whole life in service to our love for God, then the individual pieces fall into place around that love. Whatever is contrary to this love falls away.

By these parables, Jesus taught that being part of God's Kingdom – accepting his love for us and loving others as he

Q & A "There's a saint for that!"

Down the ages, Catholics have invoked the saints for their prayers, even for everyday things. It was a way of offering everything to God, through the saints' prayers, even little things like losing your keys! Here are some "holy helpers":

Airplane travelers, astronauts: St. Joseph of Cupertino miraculously levitated while at prayer.

Accountants, bankers: St. Matthew the Apostle was a dishonest tax collector until Christ called him to be an Apostle (Matthew 9:9).

Battle, soldiers, doctors, police: St. Michael the Archangel led the angels to victory against the Devil and his forces (Revelation 12:7-9).

Finding lost things: St. Anthony of Padua prayed and recovered his stolen prayer book.

Plagues, pestilence, sick people: St. Roch cared for victims of the plague in Italy.

Students, teachers, schools: St. Thomas Aquinas, once teased as "the Dumb Ox," was actually one of the most brilliant scholars in the Church.

As a reminder, we can always pray "straight to God" with our prayers. The saints, our companions, are only meant to guide us to God.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 3 – St. Thomas (1st Century). Known as "doubting Thomas" for requesting proof of the Resurrection, he made a beautiful profession of faith when he received proof, "My Lord and My God" (John 20:28). Tradition says that Thomas traveled to India and was martyred near Mylapore.

July 14 – St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1680). A smallpox epidemic in her Native American village left Kateri orphaned, disfigured, and half-blind. Introduced to Catholicism by missionaries, she was baptized at the age of 19 and moved to a Christian village where she lived in holiness.

July 22 – St. Mary Magdalene (1st century). Mary Magdalene, from whom Jesus expelled seven demons, helped to financially support Jesus' ministry (Luke 8:2) and stood by the cross of Jesus with his mother (John 19:25). She first informed the Apostles of Jesus' Resurrection.

July 24 – St. Charbel Makhlouf (d. 1898). A Maronite hermit, St. Charbel lived a life of solitude and holiness. He had a reputation as a wonder worker, even among his Muslim neighbors.

2020 CAMPAÑA DE APOYO A LOS
MINISTERIOS CATOLICOS
DIÓCESIS DE ROCKVILLE CENTRE

“Ninguna vocación nace por sí misma o vive por sí misma. La vocación surge del corazón de Dios y brota en la tierra buena del pueblo fiel. ¿Acaso no dijo Jesús: “En esto conocerán todos que sois discípulos míos: si os amáis unos a otros?” (Jn 13:35)” Papa Francisco

Sus donativos apoyan vocaciones sacerdotales en nuestra Diócesis. Esto permite que nuestros seminaristas dispongan del tiempo, recursos y la guía necesaria para discernir su vocación, para así iniciar su formación personal y espiritual y comprometerse a consagrar su vida al servicio del sagrado sacerdocio.

El 20 de Junio, nuestra Diócesis recibió una doble bendición, cuando el Obispo Barres ordenó al sacerdocio a dos seminaristas, quienes se pondrán al servicio del pueblo de Dios. Con gran generosidad de corazón y espíritu, el Padre John Crozier y el Padre Rafal Borowiejski voluntariamente han decidido dedicar sus vidas a Cristo y convertirse en modelos para todos nosotros, poniendo su confianza en Jesús y respondiendo al llamado de seguirlo más cercanamente “Los sacerdotes católicos son instrumentos contemplativos y misioneros de la Divina Misericordia de Jesucristo expresados en la Palabra de Dios, la Santa Misa y todos los sacramentos”.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Después de todo lo que Dios ha hecho y sigue haciendo por mí, cabe ahora preguntarme: ¿Cómo respondo yo? ¿Qué semillas acojo yo en mi corazón? ¿Las que siembra Cristo o las que esparce el Maligno? ¿Me esfuerzo por vencer el mal con el bien? ¿O contribuyo al mal del mundo consintiendo el mal en mi mente, en mi corazón y en mi acción?

Para poder abstenernos del mal y obrar el bien lo primero que debemos hacer es examinar, identificar y distinguir entre lo que es bueno y lo que es malo: «Examinadlo todo y quedaos con lo bueno». ¡Tarea tan difícil hoy en día, cuando tantos sumidos en un mar de relativismo «llaman al mal bien, y al bien mal»! La cizaña, para quien no tiene el ojo entrenado, se confunde fácilmente con el trigo, y así sucede con el mal: se presenta siempre con apariencia de bien, como algo que “es bueno para ti”. Más detrás de la apetecible carnada, se encuentra siempre el anzuelo que lleva a la muerte.

Para no dejarnos engañar por quien es el padre de la mentira, es necesario habituarnos a examinar todo pensamiento que viene a nuestra mente y todo sentimiento que surge del corazón a la luz de las enseñanzas divinas.

Ten en cuenta que el criterio para juzgar si algo es bueno o malo nunca puede ser: “lo que a mí más me gusta”, “lo que me hace sentir mejor”, “lo que a mí me parece”, “lo que todos hacen”, u otro semejante. ¡No! No es un criterio llevado por las modas de pensamiento, por las propias opiniones, por las democracias, por los caprichos, por los sentimientos o sensaciones del momento lo que te ayudará a distinguir entre el bien y el mal. Sólo un criterio objetivo puede liberarnos del relativismo y del subjetivismo, del engaño en el que fácilmente podemos ser envueltos. Ese criterio objetivo lo encontramos en lo que Dios, profundo conocedor del corazón humano, nos enseña. Cuando el mal se te presente con apariencia de bien, aférrate a la enseñanza divina. Cristo mismo utiliza ese modo de discernimiento cuando se encuentra ante las tentaciones en el desierto.

Para saber discernir acertadamente es necesario adentrarte cada día en el conocimiento de la Escritura. De ese modo te irás nutriendo de los criterios divinos, para que discerniendo correctamente, puedas también con la gracia divina obrar correctamente.
