PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

PART-TIME JOB

We are looking for a Part Time Maintenance Worker. The hours will be Saturday 3 to 7pm and Sunday 3 to 7pm and as needed. The responsibilities will include setting Masses up, keeping the Church clean and orderly, closing the Church, setting alarms, etc.

If interested, please call 225-4154.

We need more volunteers to help us with sanitizing the Church after Mass, most especially after the 7am and 9am Masses on weekdays. It is difficult to keep everyone safe with few helpers.

Thank you!

Though you were here a short time, we want to thank you for gracing us with your words and your presence. Fr. John, you will be missed by many.

Bulletin Reflection

“Observe what is right, do what is just.” As stewards of the Faith, we are called to live according to the teachings of the Church.

Living Stewardship ~

Pillar of Prayer:

We will all experience some hurt or pain in our lives. Let us, like the Canaanite woman, run to Jesus and ask Him to have pity on us.

If any parishioner has questions or comments concerning the change of Pastoral leadership and priests here at St. Ignatius Loyola, please write to Bishop Richard Henning at centralvicariate@drvc.org

LITTLE SISTERS of the POOR

THE FOLLOWING IS FROM THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR QUEEN OF PEACE RESIDENCE. REGARDING THE COVID-19

A big thank you to all of you who have provided funds to use to defray the testing expenses. Your concern is most appreciated. We are also most grateful for the continued donations of personal protective equipment (PPE) and alcohol-based hand gel and disinfecting wipes needed to prevent the spread of infection.

On a very positive note, our safety procedures continue to protect the lives of our Residents, Staff and Sisters. These procedures are a physical manifestation of the core belief of the mission of the Little Sisters:

That every life is sacred from conception until natural death. Donations can be sent to Queen of Peace Residence, 110-30 221st Street, Queens Village, NY 11429-2597

In the words of their foundress, St. Jeanne Jugan, “God will help us; the work is His.”

Thought
for the week

May your week be filled with good thoughts, kind people and happy moments.

During the weekday Masses, we ask that everyone who is sitting in the pews in the main part of the Church to leave the kneeler down before they leave their area. This will help expedite the sanitizing process after Mass.

The Blessed Sacrament Chapel is now opened. Fewer seats will be available to create proper social distancing.

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from 9:30am or following a funeral, to 3pm, Monday, Tuesday Thursday and Friday. On Wednesdays, it will be till 6pm and till 4pm on Saturdays.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

August 2020

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish
Rev. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Alphonsus Liguori

Born near Naples, Italy, St.

Alphonsus left his successful legal career for the priesthood. He founded the

Redemptorists

to educate the faithful.

Internal problems resulted in the Order's rejecting St.

Alphonsus. Despite failing health, he was made a bishop.

He lived simply and was generous with the poor. He combated Jansenism, which

imposed a burdensome,

legalistic morality, and

promoted a more moderate,

realistic morality – one driven by love rather than guilt. He is a Doctor of the Church.

Pay God first

It takes money to do God's work in the world and the top funding source for the Catholic Church's ministries is her generous people. Set aside a portion of every paycheck for charity just as you do for your rent or mortgage. Write that check first. Your parish needs your support now, more than ever.

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" (Psalm 27:1).

Lean on our Faith during tough times

Throughout the history of God's dealings with humanity, He has continually brought good out of evil. During this unprecedented time of pandemic, we can remember this history and lean on Him.

Participate in weekly worship.

If public Mass is not an option for you, find ways to join in worship safely. Participate in Mass online and don't miss a Sunday. Support others by setting up a prayer group or Bible study with friends through calls, chats, or online meets.

Practice listening during prayer.

Even though our schedules may have slowed down, our thoughts probably have not. Make mental space to listen to and hear from the Holy Spirit, and allow Him to bring truth and consolation.

Look for the ways God is working in the crisis. Our fear and anxiety can arise from worrying about what might happen. It helps to look for the good coming out of the crisis.

Can you spot unexpected blessings?

Create a safe space in your home. Create a place – a corner, a chair, a large closet – where you spend at least 15 prayerful minutes each day.

Take this time to remember that you are not alone.

Be not afraid. Choosing to trust God is a decision we can each make. It comes from a determination to surrender with confidence knowing His love is enough.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have so many titles for Mary?

Everything we say about Mary, ultimately, is about Jesus, including her "devotional" titles. Each title highlights an aspect of God's saving plan and Mary's role in it. Many of them have to do with her sinlessness and her motherhood. For example, Mary is called the "Mirror of Justice," Theotokos ("God-bearer"), "Seat of Wisdom", "House of Gold," etc. Mary's titles – like Mary – are meant to draw our focus not to Mary, but to Jesus. Mary always leads us to her Son.

Turn conflict into growth

Criticism can bring you down if you let it. Instead, finding a gracious way to handle criticism can be the key to improving your life, attracting new friends, and becoming a better Christian.

Stay calm. The person delivering the criticism may be having a bad day or seeking attention. Or, she may really want to help and just not be skilled in delivering criticism. Staying calm and avoiding defensiveness helps you look for the rose among the nasty thorns.

Thank the commenter, no matter what is said or how it is delivered. People who make rude comments don't expect you to listen to them, much less be grateful for their comments. Being appreciative is disarming. That's how to turn a critic into a friend.

Weigh the criticism. Do the comments contain something helpful you can use to become a better person? Is the person trying to help, to make things better, to keep you from repeating mistakes, to suggest positive improvements? If not, forget it and move on without anger.

from Scripture

Matthew 16:21-27, Our ways are not God's ways

This passage seems like bad news. First, Jesus predicts his own death. This must have shocked the disciples, to whom it was just revealed that their Master was the long-awaited Messiah. Instead of an epic, Roman-conquering battle plan, Jesus told them he would be executed – seemingly tragedy and defeat, not joy and triumph.

Second, Peter did what we often do when God permits setbacks and suffering. He saw the Cross and wanted to flee – and was harshly rebuked. Yet, if Jesus listened to Peter and turned aside, we would have died in our sins, unable to get into Heaven. Instead, he chose the Cross – for us. He chose us. Through our post-Resurrection lens, what seemed a devastating defeat was actually a decisive victory against sin and death.

Let's be clear: our Father wants us to be happy, but he wants us to be happy forever, not just for today. The key is not to avoid the crosses he sends us, but to accept them trustingly, peacefully, as Jesus did. Jesus helps us carry our crosses, with him taking the heavier end.

Feasts & Celebrations

Aug. 10 – St. Lawrence (258). A Roman deacon to Pope St. Sixtus II, St. Lawrence presented the poor and destitute as the Church's treasure, in answer to Rome's demands for the church's gold. He was martyred shortly afterwards.

Aug. 15 - The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1950). Declared a dogma of our faith by Pope Pius XII, the Assumption celebrates Mary being taken up into Heaven body and soul at the end of her life. Note: This year, this is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation.

Aug. 25 – St. Joseph Calasanz (1648). Seeing the suffering of neglected children, this Spanish priest founded the Clerks Regular of Pious Schools, called the Piarists to educate them. He suffered opposition for his work, which he bore with patience and humility.

Aug. 27 – St. Monica of Hippo (387). St. Monica is best known for converting her wayward son and pagan husband by her patience, piety, and prayers. Her son, St. Augustine, became a great saint of the Church.

Q & A Can the seal of Confession ever be broken?

The seal of Confession refers to the silence binding a priest, under severe penalties, about what he hears in Confession. "[The priest] can make no use of knowledge that confession gives him about penitents' lives." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1467). The penitents are not bound by the seal.

The only two "exceptions" are: If the penitent wants to discuss his previous confession to Fr. X with him, Fr. X must first ask the penitent's permission. Or, if a priest needed guidance from another confessor, he must still ask the penitent's permission and keep the penitent's identity a secret.

In truth, in the Sacrament of Confession the penitent is really addressing Jesus Christ, not the priest, who is simply the "phone line" between the two parties. The purpose of the seal is to encourage people to approach the Lord in complete confidence and experience his mercy. While this enforced silence may seem strange and possibly problematic, the first priority is the salvation of souls. The rest is entrusted to God.
