Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office.

We pray to give all of our military personnel the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, August 16, 2020 $11,234
The Assumption $ 1,623
Sunday, August 18, 2019 $10,812

It is hard to believe that my 9 years with you here at St. Ignatius Loyola has come to an end. But, I am grateful that I had these 9 years to serve you. I had the opportunity to teach you, listen to you, laugh with you, cry with you and share in many activities as a priest is called to do acting in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. How appropriate our scripture readings are today with Jesus giving Simon Peter authority over the Church, calling him the rock of the Church and entrusting him with His future mission of the Church. Jesus did this because of Peter's response to His question of "who do you say that I am?" In Matthew's Gospel, Peter responds by saying "you are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Peter pointed out to the disciples and us that Jesus is the Son. He had this ability because he was open to the presence of God the Father working through him. It was a mysterious revelation and a gift given to Peter. Entrusting the keys of the Kingdom of God to Peter is related to our first reading from the Prophet Isaiah. The royal house of Judah could not be trusted anymore by God because they no longer trusted in God. Jerusalem placed its trust in weapons and secure walls against enemies instead of turning to God. Jesus as the Son of God now entrusts the keys of God's kingdom to Peter and His disciples. They are called out of the world to live in a community where the gates of Hell will not overcome, not even death. The role of holding the keys has now been entrusted to us His Church, guarded by the Vicar of Christ, the Pope. Like the disciples, we too have a responsibility to continue the Mission of Jesus and His Church. First however, we need to answer one question that Jesus asks of us, who do you say that I am? Who is Christ in your life and how do you point out the presence of Christ to others?

For me, you as St. Ignatius Parish have shown me the presence of the living Christ in so many ways. You have shown Jesus through your charity. Recall our $2.8 million debt. Because of you and your sacrifice, we have no more debt. More about that later. You have helped raise over $1.5 million due in our Capital Campaign. You have shown me the presence of Jesus by your enthusiasm in celebrating our Catholic heritage here at St. Ignatius Loyola. This was expressed through our beautiful liturgies, the Mardi Gras, the Lenten Missions, the Living Stations of the Cross, the Golf Outing, the Annual Parish Picnic and our Annual International Festival. I also witnessed the love of our faith through Religious Education, Faith Formation and Human Services as well as through our ministries of the Hispanic American Catholics such as the many festivals of prayer and Hispanic culture. We have done so much together as a parish family and I thank you for that. Please show Fr. Shibi Pappan the same hospitality you have given me. What makes our parish special, is that even though we belong to different cultures and traditions, we are all one, whether we are of European, Hispanic, S E Asian, East Asian, African, Caribbean decent, St. Paul writes "though we are many, we all belong to the one body of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:10). You have expressed that well.

Finally I would like to thank the parish staff here at St. Ignatius Loyola and the Sisters of St. Dominic for your support and friendship. You have been my eyes, ears, hands and ideas to help build our parish together. May God bless you for all that you do and all that you are. To all, please stop by Our Lady of Lourdes, in Malverne any time to say hello or to say a prayer.

Please pray for me as I pray for you. I close with the words of St. Paul to the people of Phillipi who wrote, "I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to fulfillment by the day of Jesus Christ." (Pl 1:3-6

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. ¡Dios te bendiga todos! May each of us strive to do all things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

St. Ignatius Loyola, Hicksville
Good-bye to the Debt

One of the biggest challenges facing me as a new pastor back in June of 2011 was the tremendous debt St. Ignatius Loyola had accrued. When I arrived, the parish had debt to the Diocese of approximately $2.7 million. This was a combination of a loan with the Diocese as well as outstanding insurance and assessment invoices. Compound that with the closing of the school, and the debt seemed to be a mountain the parish would never get over.

Over the next few years, the parish slowly started moving in the right direction. We started having operating surpluses each year and were helped by no school subsidy for three years, a freeze on interest charges and rent for the new school building paid by the VEEB program. At the end of fiscal 2015, the parish was still in debt of $2,260,717.

We decided on doing a Capital Campaign with the dual purpose of eliminating the debt and doing some much needed deferred maintenance on the premise. Our goal was an ambitious $1.5 million which, frankly, I thought was going to be a real challenge to attain. The silver lining in this is the Diocese would match our collected amount dollar for dollar and assist with the administration of the Campaign.

It is with extreme pleasure that I tell you that we reached our goal and are debt free for the first time in decades. We were able to do all projects on our list as well as replacing a boiler in the convent. In addition, the Diocese wrote off the last remaining portion of the loan, leaving us with a rainy day fund in case other projects arise.

I can't tell you how proud I feel of this accomplishment and really want to thank the parish community of St. Ignatius for your tireless effort in getting to the goal and getting the parish solvent after many years of struggle. As I move on, I will always have fond memories of the parishioner base at St. Ignatius. You accomplished something so special and I will always be grateful for all you did for St. Ignatius and for me.

Father Jim

Are there different types of Catholicism?

The Catechism explains how “the mystery of Christ is so unfathomably rich that it cannot be exhausted by its expression in any single liturgical tradition.”

If you ask about different “types” of Catholicism, the first answer is that there is only one type of Catholicism. This refers to the central beliefs of the Catholic Church as expressed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The Church is one: she acknowledges one Lord, confesses one faith, is born of one Baptism, forms only one Body, is given life by the one Spirit, for the sake of one hope (cf. Eph 4:3-5), at whose fulfillment all divisions will be overcome. (CCC 866)

At the same time, the Church has also fostered this one belief system within the context of a diversity of liturgical traditions that were born from particular communities in Europe and the Middle East.

The Catechism explains how “The mystery of Christ is so unfathomably rich that it cannot be exhausted by its expression in any single liturgical tradition” (CCC 1201). This has resulted in a liturgical diversity that is as ancient as the early Church.

When Christians first starting coming together, they did so in three particular communities: Rome, Antioch and Alexandria. The Catholic faith was taught the same in each of these locations, but the liturgical expression of that faith was different.

Over time, these Christian communities expanded into even more locations and then new liturgical expressions were developed. As of today there are 24 primary “Churches” within the Catholic Church, each of which has its own traditions that have been passed down through the centuries.

The Catechism explains that not all liturgical expressions were accepted, and that there are particular criteria set in place.

The criterion that assures unity amid the diversity of liturgical traditions is fidelity to apostolic Tradition, i.e., the communion in the faith and the sacraments received from the apostles, a communion that is both signified and guaranteed by apostolic succession. (CCC 1209)

With this in mind, the diversity within the Catholic Church is quite remarkable and allows local communities to embed the message of Jesus Christ into their own culture.

To give a brief overview, here is a list of these 24 different types of Catholicism, according to the three ancient communities from which they developed.

Hello! My name is Deacon Art Candido!

As DIRECTOR OF DIACONATE FORMATION, my ministry is to FORM CATHOLIC MEN INTO DEACONS who serve in our Diocese of Rockville Centre.

If you have ever thought about SERVING GOD AND THE CHURCH as a deacon, I invite you and your wife to attend one of our INFORMATION SESSIONS so I can share about the diaconate with you.

There are three meeting dates to choose from—

7:00 PM Tuesday, September 15th
4:00 PM Sunday, September 20th OR 7:00 PM Thursday, September 24th

at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception

We need more volunteers to help us with sanitizing the Church after Mass, most especially after the 7am and 9am Masses on weekdays. It is difficult to keep everyone safe with few helpers. Thank you!

Food Pantry Needs

This has been a most extraordinary summer, as we all know. Human Services extends a heart-felt "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the pantry over the past weeks. Unfortunately, we cannot accept clothing during this pandemic. Demand for food remains high, however. We are still in need and always appreciate donations of cereal, canned kernel corn, black beans, spaghetti sauce and canned tuna. In addition, we could really use peanut butter. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Joe Samodulski, Human Services

Back-to-School Supplies Collection

The school year is due to start shortly. It will be different from any other year, to be sure, with social-distancing and remote learning. However, school supplies will still be needed more than ever, with many more families affected financially by the pandemic.

We are asking if the following supplies can be donated: loose leaf paper, glue sticks, colored pencils (12 packs), composition notebooks, dry-erase markers, erasers, pointed-tip scissors, compasses, protractors, 5"x8" plastic supply boxes, cloth zippered pencil pouches for binders, 2" binders. P.S.: We DO NOT NEED pens, crayons, or highlighters. Thanks in advance for your participation! We thank you, and the students will thank you!
