Clergy Corner

My dear faith family of St. Ignatius,

When Jesus entered the City of Jerusalem seated on the back of a donkey, people were excited and exuberant. Waving palm branches, they shouted: “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! ...Hosanna in the highest!” Now, what is the deeper meaning of this event-- the way Jesus entered the city and the way the people waving palm branches and shouting “Hosanna”? Oddly enough, the key to the answer lies in the donkey Jesus was riding. Although we look down upon donkeys, people in biblical times honored them. The donkey was an animal of peace, as opposed to the horse, which was an animal of war carrying soldiers into battle.

Prophet Zechariah had prophesied that the Messiah would ride into Jerusalem on a donkey. Jesus now carries out Zechariah’s prophecy. As Jesus fulfills this prophecy, he makes two important statements. First, he affirms that he is the Messiah of Israel. Second, he reveals that his messianic mission is to bring peace and salvation to all. This revelation was badly needed in Jesus’ time, because many people were getting confused about the Messiah’s mission. For example, some thought an important part of the Messiah’s mission would be to rally people to his cause and drive the Romans out of Palestine into the sea. Hence, Jesus’ action of riding into Jerusalem on “an animal of peace” flies in the face of this idea. It reveals that this Messiah is not going to be a warrior-king. In fact, Jesus has not come to sit on a throne and be served by the conquered people. Instead, He has come to kneel on the floor and wash the feet of his disciples. Jesus has not come to rally people behind him and do battle against other people. Instead, He has come to rally them and do battle against poverty, hunger, hatred, and all forms of injustice. He came to fulfill our dreams and to save us through his suffering and death, and resurrection. Commenting on this Sunday’s “Passion Reading,” Bishop Fulton J. Sheen observed that the Passion is the story of Jesus’ suffering, death, and resurrection and we have a part in it.

In a sense, we are there in the Passion of Jesus Christ. Yes, we are there in one character or another. It might not be wrong to say, one time or another in our lives, we might have been several of them! Sometimes, we are Simon of Cyrene or Veronica who helps Jesus on His way to Calvary. Sometimes, we are John who stays with him at the foot of the cross. Sometimes, we are blustery Peter who lashes out at His enemies. Sometimes, we are Peter who betrays the Lord. We are all there: sometimes with Him, sometimes ignoring Him, sometimes looking the other way. Nevertheless, we are all there!

This week is Holy Week. It is the opportune time to repent and return to the Lord. Let us show that through our corporal works of mercy and our sacramental life. Let us be there with the Lord by participating in the Liturgies of the Sacred Triduum. Let us be there by partaking in the mystery of Jesus’ Last Supper and the mystery of his suffering on Good Friday, so that we can worthily celebrate Holy Easter with great jubilation!

Fr. Francis

Palm Sunday

They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting,

“Hosanna!”

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

“Blessed is the king of Israel!”

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Is 50:4-7 | Phil 2:6-11 | Mk 14:1—15:47 or Mk 15:1-39

Written by THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

From early childhood, I remember Palm Sunday – there was a kind of excitement about receiving the fresh palms, followed by the somber reading of the Passion. The contrast strikes me: While the palms, in ancient times, symbolized goodness and victory, hope and triumph, the account of Jesus' suffering and death reminds us of the price he paid for our redemption. Jesus knew that we can't have one without the other. It is the paradox of the cross: Jesus gave his life so that we might live. For many, the past year has been like one long Good Friday, filled with discouragement, suffering, and loss. As we reflect on Jesus' passion, the palms we carry home remain a sign of hope; we know now how the story will end. As we place our palms in a special place, let us say a prayer of thanks to Jesus and ask for the grace to renew our faith and trust in God as we enter Holy Week.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

There is a richness in the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil that is both humbling and uplifting. This time period, known as the Sacred Triduum (Latin for “three days”), is the official end of Lent, and the summit of the liturgical year. As a society, we give far more attention to the buildup and celebration of Christmas – which is not to deny its importance, of course! – and so sometimes the Triduum is not as familiar to people in both its meaning and importance. Yet, it is during these days that we most intentionally remember and celebrate the gift of our redemption; we liturgically embrace the paschal mystery of Christ: dying he destroyed our death, and rising he restored our life. We have faced a difficult year together, and we rely on each other for prayer. As we continue through this Holy Week, perhaps we can accompany each other by attending the services with one another, or at least setting aside complementary prayer time on our own.

PRAY A local Eagle Scout built a beautiful outdoor Stations of the Cross at a college campus near us. Visit your parish or outdoor stations and reflect on each one. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has excellent resources for praying the stations: www.usccb.org.

ALL FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD. St. Ignatius of Loyola

HOLY WEEK— THE LAST WEEK OF JESUS ON EARTH AS A HUMAN

PALM SUNDAY : JESUS ENTER TRIUMPHANTLY TO JERUSALEM, fulfilling the ancient prophecy in Zechariah 9:9: Ready To Sacrifice Himself. This incident is recorded in all four gospels, in Matthew 21:1-11, Mark 11:1-11, Luke 19:28-44, and John 12:12-19.

HOLY MONDAY: JESUS CLEANSSES THE TEMPLE AND CURSES THE FIG TREE.

Monday's events are recorded in Matthew 21:12–22, Mark 11:15–19, Luke 19:45-48, and John 2:13-17.

HOLY TUESDAY: JESUS TEACHES IN THE TEMPLE FOR THE LAST TIME.

Recorded in Matthew 21:23–24:51, Mark 11:20–13:37, Luke 20:1–21:36, and John 12:20–38.

HOLY WEDNESDAY: JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

Recorded in Mathew 26:14-16; Mark 14:10,11. and Luke 22:1-6;

HOLY THURSDAY: JESUS INSTITUTES THE HOLY EUCHARIST AND THE PRIESTHOOD IN THE LAST SUPPER FOLLOWED BY THE AGONY IN THE GARDEN OF GETHSAMENNE

Recorded in Matthew 26:17–75, Mark 14:12-72, Luke 22:7-62, and John 13:1-38.

GOOD FRIDAY: PASSION AND DEATH OF JESUS ON THE CROSS AND HIS BODY LAID IN THE TOMB.

Recorded in Matthew 27:1-62, Mark 15:1-47, Luke 22:63-23:56, and John 18:28-19:37.

HOLY SATURDAY: JESUS DESCENDS INTO HELL AND SAINTS FROM HADES TO PARADISE.

EASTER SUNDAY : JESUS IS RISEN. GOD GIVES US ETERNAL LIFE IN JESUS.

Recorded in Matthew 28:1-13, Mark 16:1-14, Luke 24:1-49, and John 20:1-23.

THE SEVEN LAST WORDS OF JESUS ON THE CROSS

There was never a preacher like the dying Christ, and there was never a sermon like these seven words.

By contemplating on these last words of Jesus, especially in this Holy Week, we can better appreciate His sacrifice on the cross for us. Reflect on these words, as though we were present at the time Christ spoke them.

First Word: “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” Luke. 23:34.

Reflection: Forgive others wholeheartedly.

Second Word: “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.” Luke. 23:43.

Reflection: Heaven is real, and salvation is sure for those who truly repent from the heart.

Third Word: When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son.” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” John.19:26-27.

Reflection: Value relationships. Take care of each other.

Fourth Word: “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Mathew.27:46

Reflection: Express your true feelings to God.

Fifth Word: “I thirst.” John.19:28.

Reflection: Be thirsty for the love of God.

Sixth Word: “It is finished.” John.19:30.

Reflection: Don’t give up what you ought to do.

Seventh Word: “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit” Luke 23:46

Reflection: Place your life in God’s hands and hope for a union with Him after death.

CATHOLIC EXPLANATION OF JESUS IN THE TOMB FOR 3 DAYS AND 3 NIGHTS

As per the Jewish custom a day started at sundown on the previous day and even part of a day was considered as the whole day. This explains the "3 days" in the tomb, as Jesus was buried on Friday evening and rose from the dead on Sunday morning, which is recorded in all four Gospels. So Friday, Saturday, and Sunday makes 3 days and 3 nights, and fulfills the prophecy of rising on the third day, according to the scriptures.

Thursday after Sunset to Friday Sunset is Friday	Friday after Sunset to Saturday Sunset is Saturday	Saturday after Sun set to Sunday Sunset is Sunday
Jesus died at 3PM on Friday and was laid in the tomb.	Jesus body in the tomb	Jesus resurrected in the dawn of Sunday, met the disciples on the way to Emmaus
Day 1 (Preparation day for Sabbath)	Day 2 ( Sabbath Day– women Rested)	Day 3 (First day of the week –3rd Day)

Thought of the week

Suffering is no longer a suffering, when we accept it and find a meaning for it.

Saint quote ...

You must accept your cross. If you bear it courageously, it will carry you to heaven. St. John Mary Vianney

WHAT, HOW AND WHY TO CONTINUE WHAT WE PRACTICED IN THE LENT FOR THE REST OF OUR LIVES.*THE QUALITIES WE CONCENTRATE IN EVERY LENT

PRAYING, PATIENCE, SELF CONTROL, HUMILITY, ANGER MANAGEMENT, HONESTY, FAITHFULNESS TO GOD AND OUR LOVED ONES, CONCENTRATION IN WHATEVER WE DO, COMMITMENT TO OUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS, REASONABLE USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA, APPRECIATING OTHERS, HELPING OTHERS, CHARITY WORKS, CONTROL LUXURY, SPEND QUALITY TIME WITH FAMILY, DISCIPLINED LIFE, CLEANLINESS, CRITICIZE LESS, DO NOT JUDGE.

We did all these to improve ourselves and make us better individuals and for that same reason, none of these qualities are to be stopped, but should become our habits for our own welfare and that of our family and friends, and the community as a whole.

FOOD HABITS

We fasted on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, some fasted on all Fridays, abstained from meat on Fridays, avoided favorite food and drinks especially sugar, chocolates and alcohol. We did all of these to identify ourselves with the passion of Jesus, as a penance for the sins we committed, to have a little more control over our body and it's desires. All these reasons still exist. But Resurrection is the base of our faith. So without forgetting that, and Christ's redemption, on every Friday or at least on First Friday, it is good to practice any of these or all . Maybe a Fish meal on all Fridays and a Vegan meal on First Fridays. Just like we celebrate His resurrection and other important days by feasting, let us fast in gratitude for all the sufferings He endured out of love for us. A weekly practice of this habit, will help us to be on track in a better way.

PIOUS PRACTICES

We did Stations of the Cross on every Friday. Maybe on every First Friday, it is good to reflect on these stations. Daily Bible Reading, and other spiritual books, attending an extra Mass at least on Fridays or Saturdays or on other holidays or feast days of the Church. The key point is to be close to God, and Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist is very important for our spiritual nourishment. The Divine Mercy Chaplet and Rosary are our spiritual weapons to overcome the evil. Frequent self analysis and going to confession is a very good practice. Make frequent examination of conscience, an important part of our lives.

CHARITY

Sharing food, clothes or other items with the less fortunate is significant all the time as long as there are people who need them in our neighborhood.

If we did all these in an extremely strict way in lent, shouldn't we do these at least in a moderate way for the rest of our lives, rather than going back fully to a relaxed life and following everything during next lent. Then what is the point in doing all these. Only if we find meaning in what we do, we will do it and if we do not know why we did this, then are not these some rituals we did just for some self satisfaction, like the pharisees fasted and prayed in their times. We should be doing all of these, not because the Church taught us to, but because we are thankful for what He did for us.

As we have seen the worst side of the pandemic, we know better than earlier the importance of a single breath.

If God asks us to give him a list of all the things we need for the day, on a daily basis, how much time will we have to spend only for that purpose alone. Some intellects may now think, just make copies of the requirement list and give it to God. But are your needs the same every day? Of course, some basic needs are our daily requirements. What if God tells that copies are not accepted. Our God is so good that He provides us everything we need even before we ask Him. Let us not take Him for granted and hurt Him. Prayer is not making a wish list, but spending some time daily in conversation with Him telling Him of your life and learning from His life. Let us do this joyfully for the rest of our lives and make our lives more meaningful every day.

Month of April Devotion

As per Catholic tradition, this month is dedicated to The Holy Eucharist. So Our Spiritual goal for this is month to say “O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine, All Praise and Thanksgiving be every moment Thine” as many times as possible and to make spiritual Communion. By saying either the Spiritual Communion Prayer given below, or by a simple prayer like: “ Jesus I love You above all and everything. Come into my heart and make me fully Yours.”

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

MEMBER PROFILE: TOM KENNY

My name is Thomas Kenny, and I'm a member of the St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish and a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Our founder, the Blessed Frederic Ozanam, is an example of someone who looked beyond himself to the needs of the people around him. In his own words, "We must do what is agreeable to God. Therefore, we must do what our Lord Jesus Christ did when preaching the gospel. Let us go to the poor!" He ministered. After reading articles about Blessed Frederic Ozanam, I wanted to help the poor. But, I didn't know how.

Then, a few weeks later, I saw a truck headed east on Old Country Road. It sported big letters along the side (WE HELP PEOPLE!) and on the driver's door was written St. Vincent de Paul Society. Not long after, the St. Vincent de Paul Chapter of St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish was recruiting at a Sunday Mass. I joined. And, in the 9 years since, I've learned so much about how to help.

Sometimes, when we say, "The poor," it is an abstraction--just an idea. Working with St. Vincent de Paul Society has allowed me to meet those who struggle with poverty--people who have lost their jobs; people who are struggling to pay their rent, electric or oil bills; people who are in need of clothing and furniture. As a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society I have met the poor. I know their names. I have looked into their eyes. I have heard their stories of love and loss. I have been humbled by their faith.

I've learned that generosity is a win win. Generosity breeds joy. I am honored to be able to play a part in the St. Vincent de Paul Society, to be able to help people in need. I have realized that Jesus didn't ask us to go to the poor simply to help them. He wants to help us. Generosity is mutual. I have been helped as much as I have helped.

None of this would be possible without our silent partner. You--the people of St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish, who responded so generously to our fundraiser back in September. We could help because you helped. We are one. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul and the poor of our community thank you.

Oh, please continue to contribute--invest your time and treasure as Jesus did. Do it for the poor and do it for yourself. We are one. St. Vincent de Paul, Pray for us. Blessed Frederic Ozanam, Pray for us

Rincón de Clero

Mi querida familia de fe de San Ignacio,

Cuando Jesús entró en la ciudad de Jerusalén sentado en el lomo de un burro, la gente estaba emocionada y exuberante. Agitando ramas de palmera, gritaron: “¡Hosanna! ¡Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor! ... ¡Hosanna en las alturas! "Ahora, ¿cuál es el significado más profundo de este evento: la forma en que Jesús entró en la ciudad y la forma en que la gente agitaba palmas y gritaba "Hosanna"? Curiosamente, la clave de la respuesta está en el burro que montaba Jesús. Aunque despreciamos a los burros, la gente en los tiempos bíblicos los honra. El burro era un animal de paz, a diferencia del caballo, que era un animal de guerra que llevaba soldados a la batalla.

El profeta Zacarías había profetizado que el Mesías entraría en Jerusalén en un burro. Jesús ahora lleva a cabo la profecía de Zacarías. Mientras Jesús cumple esta profecía, hace dos declaraciones importantes. Primero, afirma que es el Mesías de Israel. En segundo lugar, revela que su misión mesiánica es traer paz y salvación a todos. Esta revelación era muy necesaria en la época de Jesús, porque muchas personas estaban confundidas acerca de la misión del Mesías. Por ejemplo, algunos pensaron que una parte importante de la misión del Mesías sería unir a la gente a su causa y expulsar a los romanos de Palestina al mar. Por lo tanto, la acción de Jesús de entrar en Jerusalén en “un animal de paz” va en contra de esta idea. Revela que este Mesías no será un rey guerrero. De hecho, Jesús no ha venido a sentarse en un trono y ser servido por los pueblos conquistados. En cambio, ha venido a arrodillarse en el suelo y lavar los pies de sus discípulos.

Jesús no ha venido para unir a la gente detrás de él y luchar contra otras personas. En cambio, ha venido para unirlos y luchar contra la pobreza, el hambre, el odio y todas las formas de injusticia. Vino para cumplir nuestros sueños y salvarnos a través de su sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección. Al comentar sobre la “Lectura de la Pasión” de este domingo, el obispo Fulton J. Sheen observó que la Pasión es la historia del sufrimiento, la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús y nosotros somos parte de ella.

En cierto sentido, estamos allí en la Pasión de Jesucristo. Sí, estamos ahí en uno u otro personaje. Puede que no esté mal decir, en un momento u otro de nuestras vidas, ¡podríamos haber sido varios de ellos! A veces, somos Simón de Cirene o Verónica que ayuda a Jesús en su camino al Calvario. A veces, somos Juan quien se queda con él al pie de la cruz. A veces, somos un Pedro violento que arremete contra sus enemigos. A veces, somos Pedro que traiciona al Señor. Todos estamos allí: a veces con Él, a veces ignorándolo, a veces mirando para otro lado. Sin embargo, ¡todos estamos allí!

Esta semana es Semana Santa. Es el momento oportuno para arrepentirse y volver al Señor. Demostremos eso a través de nuestras obras corporales de misericordia y nuestra vida sacramental. Estemos allí con el Señor participando en las Liturgias del Sagrado Triduo. ¡Estemos allí participando del misterio de la Última Cena de Jesús y del misterio de su sufrimiento el Viernes Santo para que podamos celebrar dignamente la Santa Pascua con gran júbilo!

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

A través de estos dos capítulos, Marcos intercala varias historias sobre el trato de Jesús por sus enemigos y sus amigos (discípulos y seguidores). Aquí, líderes en Jerusalén quieren arrestarlo durante la principal fiesta judía, pero con tanta gente presente, incluso peregrinos de otros lugares, no saben cómo hacerlo. Luego es Judas, “uno de los doce”, quien tristemente se ofrece para ser usado como vehículo de traición para entregar a Jesús a sus enemigos. El texto no nos dice la motivación por la cual Judas se deja usar de esta manera, pero a través de estos capítulos sobre la pasión de Jesús, traición, abandono y poca fe son evidentes aun entre los supuestos amigos de Jesús, lo cual es parte de la solemne tristeza de estos pasajes.

Sin embargo, es otro tipo de preparación para la muerte la que trae esperanza en medio de la desesperanza. Intercalada entre el deseo del arresto de Jesús y la disposición de un discípulo de ayudar con esto, está la bella historia de una mujer que unge la cabeza de Jesús con un aceite carísimo. Vemos la conexión de esta historia con otras mujeres que ungen los pies de Jesús, pero en Marcos, la historia se relaciona con una unción en preparación para la muerte. Por ende, Jesús es ungido en su cabeza, como para el entierro. Algunos protestan, dice Marcos, porque el dinero podía servir a los pobres. Sin embargo, Jesús se da cuenta de que los que protestan no son sinceros en sus palabras, dado que poco se habían preocupado hasta entonces por los pobres que siempre habían tenido y seguirían teniendo con ellos. Simplemente, no quieren aceptar cuán importante es tener a Jesús con ellos. Por lo tanto, Jesús los reprende y predice una buena memoria histórica sobre el acto de esta mujer en favor de Jesús.

Oración para colocar en el hogar las palmas benditas del Domingo de Ramos

Este domingo inicia la Semana Santa con la celebración del Domingo de Ramos, donde recordamos la entrada triunfal de Jesús a Jerusalén entre palmas y ramos de olivo. La liturgia de las palmas anticipa el triunfo de la resurrección.

A continuación, una oración para colocar las palmas benditas en casa: Bendice, Señor, nuestro hogar. Que tu Hijo Jesús y la Virgen María reinen en él.

Danos paz, amor y respeto,
para que respetándonos y amándonos
los sepamos honrar en nuestra vida familiar, sé Tú, el Rey en nuestro hogar. Amen.
Amén.
