GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Thomas gets singled out as the one who doubts that Jesus had risen from the dead. But the other Gospels reveal that the other disciples doubted too. I understand why they had trouble believing that Jesus was alive. To think that God loves us enough that he chose to become human to die for our sins is incomprehensible. To accept that he loves us this deeply is almost unbearable. It seems doubtful anyone can love us that much. It seems doubtful that we deserve to be loved that much. It is much easier to doubt than to believe. But Thomas was the first to publicly proclaim the man Jesus as also God: My Lord and my God! he says. The risen Jesus had come into the room, although the doors were locked, and called them back into belief. Through Christ, God shows the disciples - and us - the extent of his love and mercy. We are worth it, even when we doubt, even when we fail. His death and resurrection are testament to that. He will walk through whatever walls exist to tell us. No doubt about it.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The reading from the Acts of the Apostles today describes the reaction to the apostles' joyful and confident proclamation that Jesus was Lord and God after receiving the Holy Spirit. The crowds drew near just to have Peter's shadow fall upon those who were sick. God's mercy has no bounds. How can we be like the first disciples? In what ways do our lives reflect God's mercy on us? Where can our own "shadows fall" so that God's goodness and grace can bring healing and comfort to others? Let us begin our days by giving "thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting," and trust that the Holy Spirit will both remind us of our blessings and continued need for mercy, and guide us to encounters with others who need the same.

PRAY During this Easter season, read a passage from the Acts of the Apostles each day and immerse yourself in the history of the early Church. End your time of reflection by praying the Apostles' Creed, the statement of beliefs of Christians in the first centuries after Jesus' death and resurrection.

Thought of the week

Doubt your doubts before you doubt your faith.

Saint quote ...

*"All of my nothingness is drowned in the sea of Your mercy."
- St. Faustina Kowalska.*

My dear St. Ignatius faith family,

As you may know, since the year 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter has been designated Divine Mercy Sunday. While the background of the feast centers on the devotion deriving from the apparitions of Our Lord given to St. Faustina Kowalska, the Church has invited all of us to contemplate the Risen Lord as the Ambassador of Divine Mercy. His Easter appearance to the apostles, as they huddled together in fear behind the locked doors, is a most suitable Scripture story to reflect on the revelation of God's divine mercy.

A significant aspect of the encounter between the Risen Lord and His disciples is that Jesus self-invites Himself to come to their midst. He does not need to be invited; He does not need to break down doors in order to approach them. Instead, he came and stood among them. Here, the connection to divine mercy is clear. Divine mercy is always there; it is always before us; we need the eyes of faith to see it. It is we who put up barriers or close the doors preventing us from divine mercy. This is precisely what Thomas does at first. Rather than believing in the testimony of his companions, Thomas closes himself off from the community and he refuses to believe them. He might have been hurt that the Lord appeared to the rest of the apostles in his absence.

When Jesus appeared to the disciples the first time, He had already breathed the Holy Spirit on them and charged them with the power to forgive and retain sins. This occurred in Thomas' absence. However, a week later, Jesus again appeared to the apostles; and this time Thomas was with them. Once again, Jesus greeted them again in his signature style greeting: "Peace be with you." Through the peace bestowed upon the apostles and through the power of divine presence and mercy, Thomas was able to grow in his faith and declared the strongest Biblical statements of faith ever uttered: "My Lord and my God!"

In this Sunday's Gospel (John 20: 19-31), Jesus uses the greeting "peace be with you" three times. The word "peace" or "shalom" in Hebrew is a very powerful word, pregnant with rich meaning. When Jesus says "peace," he does not mean just absence of war or violence, He uses it in the typical Hebrew and Biblical traditions.

Shalom is one of the key words and images for salvation in the Bible. The Hebrew word "shalom" refers most commonly to a person being safe and sound, well and whole. It is about the "well-being" of the individual and society and their flourishing. In the New Testament, shalom is revealed as the reconciliation of all things to God through the work of Christ (Colossians 1:19-20).

Shalom is multidimensional. It is about complete well-being — physical, psychological, social, and spiritual. It flows from all of one's relationships being aligned. In other words, it means our relationships with God, with oneself, and with others are in harmony.

Shalom consists of not only outward peacefulness but also peace within. Those who trust in the Lord have inner security; therefore, they can sleep well (Psalm 4:8). God gives "perfect peace"— i.e., profound psychological and emotional peace – to those who steadfastly set their minds on him (Isaiah 26:3).

Jesus brings us peace with other human beings. Our peace with and from God gives us the resources to maintain unity and love with others through continual forgiveness and patience (Colossians 3:13-15).

The reason for the war and violence we experience today is the absence of Jesus and God's shalom among us. May Christ be our peace, our shalom (Ephesians 2:14). May His mercy—Divine Mercy—be our sheltering rock (Psalm 18: 3-4)

Shalom,

Fr. Francis

 THE EVANGELIST

Saint Mark emphasizes the power and the miracles of the Saviour.

The lion, as king of the beasts, is used as the symbol of strength.

The color of the shield is usually red and the lion is gold.

Sometimes, as in the case of Venice, whose patron saint is Saint Mark, the shield is blue and the lion red or gold.

Saint Mark's day is April 25.

St. Mark is the Patron of Notaries

SERVIMOS A DIOS

PASTOR: Rev. Shibi Pappan OIC
(Orden de la Imitación de Cristo)

DIACONADO: Mario y Dora Gómez
José y Judith Contreras.

Evangelio del Domingo de Pascua (Jn 20, 19-31)

Al anoecer de aquel día, el primero de la semana, estaban los discípulos en una casa, con las puertas cerradas por miedo a los judíos.

Y en esto entró Jesús, se puso en medio y les dijo: «Paz a vosotros.»

Y, diciendo esto, les enseñó las manos y el costado. Y los discípulos se llenaron de alegría al ver al Señor.

Jesús repitió: «Paz a vosotros. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también os envío yo.»

Y, dicho esto, exhaló su aliento sobre ellos y les dijo: «Recibid el Espíritu Santo; a quienes les perdonéis los pecados! quedan perdonados; a quienes se los retengáis, les quedan retenidos.»

Tomás, uno de los Doce, llamado el Mellizo, no estaba con ellos cuando vino Jesús. Y los otros discípulos le decían: «Hemos visto al Señor.»

Pero él les contestó: «Si no veo en sus manos la señal de los clavos, si no meto el dedo en el agujero de los clavos y no meto la mano en su costado, no lo creo.»

A los ocho días, estaban otra vez dentro los discípulos y Tomás con ellos. Llegó Jesús, estando cerradas las puertas, se puso en medio y dijo: «Paz a vosotros.»

Luego dijo a Tomás: «Trae tu dedo, aquí tienes mis manos; trae tu mano y métela en mi costado; y no seas incrédulo, sino creyente.»

Contestó Tomás: «¡Señor Mío y Dios Mío!»

Jesús le dijo: «¿Porque me has visto has creído? Dichosos los que crean sin haber visto.»

Muchos otros signos, que no están escritos en este libro, hizo Jesús a la vista de los discípulos. Éstos se han escrito para que creáis que Jesús es el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, y para que, creyendo tengáis vida en su nombre.

Mi querida familia de fe de San Ignacio,

Como sabrán, desde el año 2000, el Segundo Domingo de Pascua ha sido designado Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Mientras que el fondo de la fiesta se centra en la devoción derivada de las apariciones de Nuestro Señor dadas a Santa Faustina Kowalska, la Iglesia nos ha invitado a todos a contemplar al Señor Resucitado como embajador de la misericordia divina. Su aparición pascual a los apóstoles, mientras se currucaban juntos con miedo detrás de las puertas cerradas, es un relato bíblico muy adecuado para reflexionar sobre la revelación de la divina misericordia de Dios.

Un aspecto significativo del encuentro entre el Señor Resucitado y sus discípulos es que Jesús se auto-invita a venir en medio de ellos. No necesita ser invitado; no necesita derribar puertas para acercarse a ellos. En cambio, vino y se paró entre ellos. Aquí, la conexión con la misericordia divina es clara. La misericordia divina está siempre ahí; está siempre ante nosotros; necesitamos los ojos de la fe para verlo. Somos nosotros los que ponemos barreras o cerramos las puertas que nos impiden la misericordia divina. Esto es precisamente lo que hace Thomas al principio. En lugar de creer en el testimonio de sus compañeros, Thomas se cierra a la comunidad y se niega a creerles. Le pudo haber dolido que el Señor se apareciera al resto de los apóstoles en su ausencia.

Cuando Jesús se apareció a los discípulos por primera vez, ya había soplado el Espíritu Santo sobre ellos y les había dado el poder de perdonar y retener los pecados. Esto ocurrió en ausencia de Thomas. Sin embargo, una semana después, Jesús se apareció nuevamente a los apóstoles; y esta vez Thomas estaba con ellos. Una vez más, Jesús los saludó de nuevo con su característico estilo de saludo: "La paz sea con ustedes". A través de la paz concedida a los apóstoles ya través del poder de la presencia divina y la misericordia, Tomás pudo crecer en su fe y declaró las declaraciones bíblicas de fe más fuertes jamás pronunciadas: "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!" En el Evangelio de este domingo (Juan 20, 19-31), Jesús utiliza tres veces el saludo "la paz sea con ustedes". La palabra "paz" o "shalom" en hebreo es una palabra muy poderosa, cargada de un rico significado. Cuando Jesús dice "paz", no se refiere simplemente a la ausencia de guerra o violencia. Lo usa en las tradiciones típicas hebreas y bíblicas.

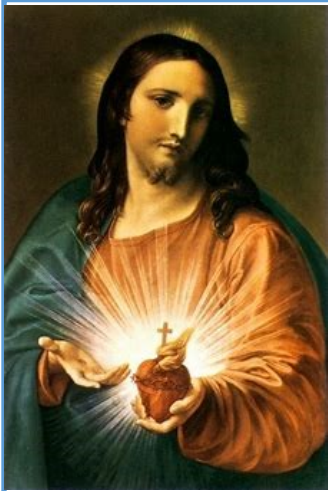

Shalom es una de las palabras e imágenes clave para la salvación en la Biblia. La palabra hebrea "shalom" se refiere más comúnmente a una persona sana y salva, sana y completa. Se trata del "bienestar" del individuo y la sociedad y su florecimiento. En el Nuevo Testamento, shalom se revela como la reconciliación de todas las cosas con Dios por medio de la obra de Cristo (Colosenses 1:19-20).

Shalom es multidimensional. Se trata del bienestar completo: físico, psicológico, social y espiritual. Fluye de todas las relaciones de uno que están alineadas. En otras palabras, significa que nuestras relaciones con Dios, con uno mismo y con los demás están en armonía.

Shalom consiste no solo en la paz exterior sino también en la paz interior. Quien confía en el Señor tiene seguridad interior; por lo tanto, pueden dormir bien (Salmo 4:8). Dios da "paz perfecta", es decir, profunda paz psicológica y emocional, a aquellos que fijan su mente en Él (Isaías 26:3).

Jesús nos trae la paz con los demás seres humanos. Nuestra paz con y de Dios nos da los recursos para mantener la unidad y el amor con los demás a través del perdón y la paciencia continuos (Colosenses 3:13-15). La razón de la guerra y la violencia que experimentamos hoy es la ausencia de Jesús y el shalom de Dios entre nosotros. Que Cristo sea nuestra paz, nuestro shalom (Efesios 2:14). Que su misericordia, la Divina Misericordia, sea nuestra roca protectora (Salmo 18: 3-4)

Shalom,
P. Francisco

"He aquí el Corazón que ha amado tanto a los hombres, que no se ha ahorrado nada, hasta extinguirse y consumarse para demostrarles su amor. Y en reconocimiento no recibo de la mayoría sino ingratitud."
