Clergy Corner

My dear Parish family,

The Fall season seems to be moving quickly, as we are already celebrating All Saints and All Souls Day this week. All Saints' Day is a celebration of all Catholic saints held on November 1. "On this Solemnity, we recall the holy men and women who, having completed their earthly journeys, now live forever with God. These saints, though not canonized, offer us models of abiding faith and love of God and neighbor."

We are called and made with the saints we celebrate throughout the year for one great purpose: to be in a relationship with God forever in the joy and peace of Heaven. All Saints Day reminds us of the power of God's grace to stretch our hearts in the love of God and neighbor, to change us so that we can be counted among the saints in Heaven ourselves. We are called to imitate and venerate saints in the Catholic Church because of their heroically virtuous lives, martyrdom, or offering of life for others. They made a great effort to cooperate with God's grace, overcome temptations, and embrace holiness in all manners of their lives. However, what does veneration mean, and why do we pray the intercession to the saints? Veneration of the saints fosters our faith in God and does not detract from it. Rather, our faith in God is strengthened by our relationship with our brothers and sisters in the faith who are in Heaven. The Church teaches that by imitating the virtues lived by the saints, the saints bring us closer to Christ. When we ask the saints to intercede for us, we ask them to join their wills with the will of God and intercede for us here on earth. This is the Communion of Saints, which we profess every Sunday in the Creed. Please join us for one of our Holy Day Masses on Monday at 7:00 pm (Vigil Mass) and Tuesday at 7.00 am, 9.00 and 12.10 pm.

On November 2, we commend All Souls to the Lord, including those we have loved who have passed, calling to mind our reliance upon our Lord, the source of everlasting life. We invite you to join us for one of the Masses on November 2nd, 7 am, 9.00 am or 7.30 pm for a special service, specifically for those who have died this past year from our parish family and our friendship circle, as we extend our love and support to those who mourn their loss. Families who lost a spouse, child, parent, friend, or relative are invited to light a candle in their memory at this Mass - please get in touch with our Parish Office to take part in this beautiful and comforting time of prayer.

This is a good time to remember that even in death, we honor and revere the body since it awaits the resurrection. When a loved one has died, traditional burial is still preferred, but a cremation is an option. When a loved one has been cremated, their ashes must be kept intact, the same as one would treat a body. The ashes may not be separated or scattered. Instead, they should remain in a proper vessel interred in a sacred place, such as a cemetery (as opposed to being stored in a closet or on a mantle at home).

Please go through the bulletin for the details of All Souls Novena Masses, Memorial Altar, the Book of Remembrance, and the Book of Life.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Shibi

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When will wisdom kick in? Even so many years later, I still struggle with some of the same questions that kept me up at night when I was 21. Fortunately, God is patient with late bloomers. The Book of Wisdom reassures us that, first, God loves us, no matter where we are on the continuum of “having it all together.” Second, the Lord won’t judge us on our worst days, but wants us to grow in wisdom and holiness. The Wisdom writer knows it’s not an overnight process; it is often marked by one step forward, two steps back: “You rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O Lord!” Like Zacchaeus in today’s Gospel, if we seek out Jesus and ask for his help, he will show us the way. Thanks be to a God who comes “to seek and to save what was lost.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

At Mass recently, the priest encouraged parishioners to turn to the person next to them and ask them for whom they would like us to pray. I’ve been at Masses where we introduce ourselves, but this “Hi, how are you, please pray for X” was new to me. As Mass continued, I prayed for Matt, the son of the woman in front of me. She prayed for my friend Jim, whose sore knee had sidelined him during his walk along the Camino de Santiago. How encouraging it must have been for the early Christians to know that St. Paul held them in prayer, “that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.” Just as Jesus seeks us out, we, in turn, can accompany others who may be lost or hurting or who just happen to be in the next pew. Through our prayers, we can build up one another, our parish, and the wider Church.

PRAY When a friend shares a struggle or challenge, don’t be shy about offering your prayers. Make a list of people to pray for and set it by your bedside so you don’t forget.

Thought of the week

*Jesus did not come to shame sinners.
Jesus came to save sinners.*

Saint quote ...

*“Forgiveness is the remission of sins.
For it is by this that,
what has been lost and was found,
is saved from being lost again.”

Prayers for our dearly departed ones

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

It is popularly believed that Our Lord told St. Gertrude that the following prayer would release 1,000 souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was extended to include living sinners as well.

Prayer Of St. Gertrude The Great

“Eternal Father, I offer thee the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church,

Thirty first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin Reflection: : In today's Gospel, Zacchaeus went to great measures to get a glimpse of Jesus. When he met with Him, he had a change of heart and turned from his former ways.

Living Stewardship- Pillar of Hospitality: : Let us learn from Zacchaeus and realize that we are called to help those less fortunate than us.

Rincón de Clero

La temporada de otoño parece avanzar rápidamente, ya que esta semana estamos celebrando el Día de Todos los Santos y los Difuntos. El Día de Todos los Santos es una celebración de todos los santos católicos que se celebra el 1 de noviembre. “En esta solemnidad, recordamos a los santos hombres y mujeres que, habiendo completado su camino terrenal, ahora viven para siempre con Dios. Estos santos, aunque no canonizados, nos ofrecen modelos de fe permanente y amor a Dios y al prójimo”.

Somos llamados y formados con los santos que celebramos durante todo el año con un gran propósito: tener una relación con Dios para siempre en el gozo y la paz del Cielo. El Día de Todos los Santos nos recuerda el poder de la gracia de Dios para expandir nuestros corazones en el amor a Dios y al prójimo, para cambiarnos de modo que podamos contarnos entre los santos en el Cielo nosotros mismos.

Estamos llamados a imitar y venerar a los santos en la Iglesia Católica por sus vidas heroicamente virtuosas, martirio u ofrenda de vida por los demás. Hicieron un gran esfuerzo para cooperar con la gracia de Dios, superar las tentaciones y abrazar la santidad en todos los aspectos de su vida. Sin embargo, ¿qué significa veneración y por qué rezamos la intercesión de los santos? La veneración de los santos fomenta nuestra fe en Dios y no la resta. Más bien, nuestra fe en Dios es fortalecida por nuestra relación con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la fe que están en el Cielo. La Iglesia enseña que imitando las virtudes vividas por los santos, los santos nos acercan a Cristo. Cuando pedimos a los santos que intercedan por nosotros, les pedimos que unan sus voluntades a la voluntad de Dios e interceden por nosotros aquí en la tierra. Esta es la Comunión de los Santos, que profesamos cada domingo en el Credo. Únase a nosotros para una de nuestras Misas del Día Santo el lunes a las 7:00 de la noche (Misa de vigilia) y el martes a las 7:00 y 9:00 de la mañana y 12:10 de la tarde.

El 2 de noviembre, encomendamos todas las almas al Señor, incluidos aquellos a quienes hemos amado que han fallecido, recordando nuestra confianza en nuestro Señor, la fuente de la vida eterna. Lo invitamos a unirse a nosotros para una de las Misas el 2 de noviembre, 7:00 y 9:00 de la mañana o 7:30 de la noche para un servicio especial específicamente para aquellos que fallecieron el año pasado de nuestra familia parroquial y nuestra amistad mientras extendemos nuestro amor y apoyo a aquellos que lloran su pérdida. Las familias que perdieron a un cónyuge, hijo, padre, amigo o pariente están invitadas a encender una vela en su memoria en esta Misa; comuníquese con nuestra Oficina Parroquial para participar en este hermoso y reconfortante tiempo de oración.

Este es un buen momento para recordar que aún en la muerte, honramos y reverenciamos el cuerpo ya que espera la resurrección. Cuando un ser querido ha muerto, todavía se prefiere el entierro tradicional, pero la cremación es una opción. Cuando un ser querido ha sido incinerado, sus cenizas deben mantenerse intactas, al igual que se trataría un cuerpo. Las cenizas no podrán separarse ni dispersarse. En su lugar, deben permanecer en un recipiente adecuado enterrado en un lugar sagrado, como un cementerio (en lugar de estar guardados en un armario o sobre un manto en casa).

Consulte el boletín para conocer los detalles de las Misas de la Novena de Todos los Santos, el Altar Conmemorativo, el Libro del Recuerdo y el Libro de la Vida.

En Jesús y María,

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Lucas (Lc. 19, 1-10)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús entró en Jericó e iba atravesando la ciudad. En esto, un hombre llamado Zaqueo, jefe de publicanos y rico, trataba de ver quién era Jesús, pero no lo lograba a causa del gentío, porque era pequeño de estatura. Corriendo más adelante, se subió a un sicomoro para verlo, porque tenía que pasar por allí.

Jesús, al llegar a aquel sitio, levantó los ojos y le dijo: «Zaqueo, date prisa y baja, porque es necesario que hoy me quede en tu casa». Él se dio prisa en bajar y lo recibió muy contento.

Al ver esto, todos murmuraban diciendo: «Ha entrado a hospedarse en casa de un pecador». Pero Zaqueo, de pie, dijo al Señor: «Mira, Señor, la mitad de mis bienes se la doy a los pobres; y si he defraudado a alguno, le restituyo cuatro veces más».

Jesús le dijo:

«Hoy ha sido la salvación de esta casa, pues también este es hijo de Abrahán. Porque el Hijo del hombre ha venido a buscar y a salvar lo que estaba perdido».

Palabra del Señor/ Gloria a ti Señor Jesús.

Su amor nos precede, su mirada se adelanta a nuestra necesidad. Él sabe ver más allá de las apariencias, más allá del pecado, más allá del fracaso o de la indignidad. Sabe ver más allá de la categoría social a la que podemos pertenecer. Él ve más allá de todo eso. Él ve esa dignidad de hijo, que todos tenemos, tal vez ensuciada por el pecado, pero siempre presente en el fondo de nuestra alma. Es nuestra dignidad de hijo. Él ha venido precisamente a buscar a todos aquellos que se sienten indignos de Dios, indignos de los demás. Dejémonos mirar por Jesús, dejemos que su mirada recorra nuestras calles, dejemos que su mirada nos devuelva la alegría, la esperanza, el gozo de la vida. (Homilía Papa Francisco 9/21/2015)

Oración por los fieles difuntos

Dios misericordioso, que nos perdonas y quieres la salvación de todos los hombres, imploramos tu clemencia para que, por la intercesión de María Santísima y de todos los santos, concedas a las almas de nuestros padres, hermanos, parientes, amigos y bienhechores, que han salido de este mundo, la gracia de llegar a la reunión de la eterna felicidad.

Santísima Virgen María, Reina del Purgatorio; vengo a depositar en tu Corazón Inmaculado una oración en favor de las almas benditas que sufren en el lugar de expiación. Dígnate escucharla, clementísima Señora, si es ésta tu voluntad y la de tu misericordioso Hijo. Amén.
