THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The accounts of Jesus' appearances to the disciples after his resurrection often puzzle me, and today's reading is no exception. There stands Jesus, within sight, yet the Apostles "did not realize that it was Jesus." Hello?! I know we're in the midst of a daylight saving time debate, but I'm fairly sure "dawn" meant the sun was up. Yet as soon as Jesus speaks and they follow his instructions, they realize he is their Lord. Simon Peter wastes no time; he dives into the sea and makes for the shore. Peter and the disciples show us that while it is important to recognize Jesus, it's what we do next that matters. As we learn in Acts, they boldly say his name despite the Sanhedrin's warning, and most will go on to be martyred for the Church. Thanks to them, we recognize Jesus - in the Eucharist, in Scripture, and in Tradition, and on the crucifixes in our homes and churches. Peter challenges us to "dive in," moving from faith to action. The specifics will differ for each of us, but we can study the lives of the Apostles and the saints to find inspiration.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Is it a Catholic thing or the fact that I'm a closet introvert? I sometimes struggle with talking about Jesus. Which is why today's reading from Acts challenges me. The Sanhedrin had warned the Apostles not to even speak Jesus' name. Yet they don't cower in fear or simply go back to the relatively quiet lives they led before they met Jesus. They rejoice to be found worthy "to suffer dishonor for the sake of [Jesus'] name." Their commitment challenges us to be bold - not only with our words but with our actions as well. In the same way that teaching another person math or spelling helps us learn, witnessing to our faith by sharing it with others helps us deepen our faith and answer God's call to be his disciple, striving to build his kingdom on earth.

STUDY This week, look up the feast days and read about the saint of the day. What can we learn from their example?

Clergy Corner

What a grace-filled week we had! God allowed us to celebrate Easter with the positive message that we are a “Resurrection People in His unfathomable mercy.” This means that we are not supposed to lie buried in the tomb of our sins, evil habits, and dangerous addictions. It gives us the Good News that no tombs can hold us down any longer – not the tombs of despair, discouragement, doubt, or death itself. Instead, we are expected to live a joyful and peaceful life, constantly experiencing the real presence of the Risen Lord in all the events of our lives.

Now that we have entered the Easter Season that leads to Pentecost, I want to thank so many generous people who helped make our Lenten and Holy Week liturgical celebrations such uplifting experiences of faith. Martha’s Guild, Ushers, Altar Servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Music Ministry, Sacristans, Parish Staff, and all of our volunteers who performed their various services with devotion and faith and careful attention. I feel so privileged and blessed to work with our Priests, Deacons, Sisters, and Staff who contributed to the prayerful celebration of this Holy Season. A special thank you to all of our parishioners and friends for your prayerful presence during this Lenten Season and Holy Triduum and generous contributions to the various needs of the parish through your sacrificial giving.

The Divine Mercy celebration reminds us of God’s mercy in our daily lives and our call to be merciful to others. Thank you Catholic Daughters and the Divine Mercy Group for arranging the Chaplet, adoration, and decorations on Divine Mercy Sunday. A special thanks to the Divine Mercy Hispanic group leader Sandra Martinez, for donating a beautiful chasuble for the parish with the Divine Mercy image.

My prayerful congratulations to RCIA members who received the Sacraments of Initiation and our second grade students who will receive Holy Communion for the first time this weekend and next. With great joy, we welcome them to the Eucharistic banquet and into the active ministry of our beautiful parish. While this is an important event for the individual believers and their immediate families, it is also a graced moment for St. Ignatius Parish to consider the importance of this source of nourishment for body and spirit. It is our Easter faith that, in the celebration of the Sacraments, we regularly encounter the Risen Christ. Thank you, Deacon George and Deacon Mario, along with Migdalia, Paul, and other volunteers.

On May 14, Bishop John Barres will be here at St. Ignatius to confirm our eighth graders. We warmly welcome him and pray that they will be deeply touched by the marvelous gift of the special sacrament of Confirmation that the Bishop celebrates for us. Please keep all of our young people in your prayers and appreciate their parents cooperating with our dedicated Religious Education Program team.

This is the month of May, the month of Mary. Please join us for Holy Rosary throughout the month, at 8:25 am in the Church. A special welcome to Holy Mass on May 8 for May Crowning and a special blessing for the mothers. We invite all our mothers to join with First Holy Communicants to sing and praise God for the Blessed Mother and our beloved mothers, their role in giving life and nourishing our faith. We will have a special Fatima Holy Mass and procession on May 13 at 6:00 pm.

We have a precious Easter gift from God for our parish, Fr. Jacob Varughese, who will serve our parish as an Associate Pastor. You will read more about him next week. Welcome Fr. Jacob to our beautiful vibrant parish.

Let us continue to pray for one another and our parish.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Shibi

Partners in FAITH™

Helping our children grow in their Catholic faith.

May 2022

Thoughtful Moments

Talk about God

Children are naturally curious about God. Discuss your child's concept of Him. Does he see God as a loving parent or a harsh police officer, for example. Children are more likely to want to spend time with someone who is kind. Remind them that Jesus wants us to know God as our Father who loves and accepts each of us unconditionally.

A family novena

Introduce your children to the power of the novena. Together choose an intention and spend the next nine days praying about it. You can pray the Rosary for nine days, recite the Divine Mercy chaplet, or even write a novena service of your own. Even better, find out if your parish has a novena service you can attend as a family.

"And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart"
(Luke 2:51).

Help children love the Mass

At each Catholic Mass, Jesus Christ becomes sacramentally present among us, feeding us with the fullness of love. Helping children know and love the Mass will help them experience His love throughout their lives.

Prioritize. A busy family can have competing activities throughout a weekend. Yet, going to church together sends a strong message to children that Mass is more important than any of them. Don't miss Mass on Sunday or Holy Days. If you know you'll be traveling for vacation, research nearby Catholic churches and Mass times beforehand.

Prepare. Discuss the Gospel before Mass and read Scripture together often. Help children perform a daily examination of conscience and go to Confession regularly to ensure everyone eligible can receive Communion.

Pray. Praying as a family is one of the ways to activate the graces we receive through the Sacraments. Start with a decade of the Rosary or traditional prayers before meals or bedtime. Our sacramental life sanctifies our everyday life. Sing. Children (of all ages) can connect with the celebration of Mass through the hymns. See who can sing the loudest.

Celebrate! The Sacraments are channels of God's life, love, and grace. Write a special family prayer you can pray together to thank God for His many gifts after Mass. Afterwards, celebrate with a special dessert or fun family activity.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

The world's religions bear witness to the truth that God's children yearn for the One who created us. In turn, He draws us to the mysterious encounter known as prayer.

Prayer is the raising of our minds and hearts to God, or the petition of good things from Him that are in harmony with His will. Christian prayer is the personal and living relationship of the children of God with their Father, with His Son Jesus Christ, and with the Holy Spirit. It's how we stay connected with the One who loves us most.

Why do Christians pray?

Encourage children to embrace Mary's virtues

May is a month in which we honor our Blessed Mother in gratitude for leading us to her Son. She shows us how to follow Him by sharing the practice of virtues, such as:

Humility. Even when Mary learned she would be the mother of the Savior, she still considered herself a "lowly handmaid" (Luke 1:48). She surrendered to God's will. Children can practice humility by doing what they're asked willingly and quickly, and by waiting their turns patiently.

Generosity. After the Annunciation, Mary hurried to Elizabeth's house knowing that her cousin would need help when St. John was born. Children can look for ways to help at home. They can also be merciful by letting go of grudges and choosing forgiveness instead.

Gratitude. Mary's Magnificat is a prayer of praise, joy, and thanksgiving to God for blessing her and fulfilling His promises. Tell children to say "thank you" when someone does something nice for them. Encourage them to look for ways to share their gifts with others in need.

Scripture LESSON

Luke 24:46-53, Know Him, love like Him

The disciples' heads had to have been spinning. Jesus reminded them that His suffering, death and Resurrection had been part of God's plan and that they should tell everyone about it and invite them to repent. Then, He ascended and was taken from their sight.

As they stood staring at the heavens, two angels appeared to clarify matters for them. Jesus was enthroned in Heaven, but He had left them with a mission. They had to build up and maintain the Church and tell everyone the Good News. The blessings of the New Covenant come through the preaching of the Gospel and the administration of the Sacraments that were entrusted to the Church. Salvation now extends beyond Israel to encompass all nations. Then other generations after them would encounter Christ and believe in Him.

What can a parent do?

Tell children about Jesus and how He wants us to live. Tell them His story, spend time with Him in prayer, and receive the Sacraments regularly. Then people will know we belong to Christ if we treat them like He did.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 1 – St. Joseph the Worker (1st century). Entrusted with the care of the Blessed Mother and Jesus, Joseph was a humble carpenter who was dedicated to his family and obedient to God.

May 13 – Our Lady of Fatima (1917). The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children near Fatima, Portugal, and asked that they pray the Rosary for peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners and for the conversion of Russia.

May 19 – St. Celestine V (1296). Born in Italy, Peter di Morrone was a monk and hermit who founded the order of the Celestines as a branch of the Benedictine order. He was elected pope and accepted because the papacy had been vacant for two years. He resigned to return to his humble, pre-papal life but was imprisoned by his successor and died in prison.

May 30 – St. Joan of Arc (1431). Patron of France, St. Joan was inspired by God in a vision to lead the French to victory during the Hundred Year's War against England. She was captured and falsely accused of sorcery. She was canonized in 1920.

Parent TALK

It is important to me that we eat together as a family but every night I had to call Tobin three or four times for dinner. The food would get cold and my temper hot while we waited for him to join us. Finally, I decided to try something new.

The next night I announced that I would ring a bell at 6:00pm each night when dinner was ready. Whoever wanted to eat was welcome. An hour later, dinner would be over and the kitchen would close until breakfast the next day.

The next night I rang the bell and everyone came ... except Tobin. We said grace and enjoyed a nice, hot meal.

An hour later, Tobin came down looking for supper, puzzled that I didn't call him again. I reminded him that dinner was at 6:00pm and he missed it. "But I'm hungry," he said. "Then you'll really enjoy breakfast. We're having pancakes," I replied calmly and walked away. He was never late again.

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

On this weekend of April 30th & May 1st, St. Ignatius Loyola Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit the Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy care center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

Free pregnancy test kits

Free sonogram

Maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals

Medical care referrals

Material aid including car seats, cribs, clothing, diapers, and many other needed baby items

Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.

(Please make checks payable to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON

June 4th & 5th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer attached to the baby bottle. Prayers bring about something very powerful at the Life Center... a change of a mother's heart! We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to reach out to the Life Center in the beginning of their pregnancy.

Prayers also spiritually equip our consultants at the Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear with hope of choosing the gift of life for their baby.

Let us pray for the conversion of a mother's heart to give the gift of life to her preborn baby!

III Domingo de Pascua—Ciclo C

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo de Pascua (Jn 21, 1-19)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús se apareció otra vez a los discípulos junto al lago de Tiberíades. Y se apareció de esta manera: Estaban juntos Simón Pedro, Tomás apodado el Mellizo, Natanael el de Caná de Galilea, los Zebedeos y otros dos discípulos suyos. Simón Pedro les dice: «Me voy a pescar.» Ellos contestan: «Vamos también nosotros contigo.» Salieron y se embarcaron; y aquella noche no cogieron nada. Estaba ya amaneciendo, cuando Jesús se presentó en la orilla; pero los discípulos no sabían que era Jesús. Jesús les dice: «Muchachos, ¿tenéis pescado?» Ellos contestaron: «No.» Él les dice: «Echad la red a la derecha de la barca y encontraréis.» La echaron, y no tenían fuerzas para sacarla, por la multitud de peces. Y aquel discípulo que Jesús tanto quería le dice a Pedro: «Es el Señor.» Al oír que era el Señor, Simón Pedro, que estaba desnudo, se ató la túnica y se echó al agua. Los demás discípulos se acercaron en la barca, porque no distaban de tierra más que unos cien metros, remolcando la red con los peces. Al saltar a tierra, ven unas brasas con un pescado puesto encima y pan. Jesús les dice: «Traed de los peces que acabáis de coger.» Simón Pedro subió a la barca y arrastró hasta la orilla la red repleta de peces grandes: ciento cincuenta y tres. Y aunque eran tantos, no se rompió la red. Jesús les dice: «Vamos, almorzad.» Ninguno de los discípulos se atrevía a preguntarle quién era, porque sabían bien que era el Señor. Jesús se acerca, toma el pan y se lo da, y lo mismo el pescado. Esta fue la tercera vez que Jesús se apareció a los discípulos, después de resucitar de entre los muertos. Después de comer, dice Jesús a Simón Pedro: «Simón, hijo de Juan, ¿me amas más que éstos?» Él le contestó: «Sí, Señor, tú sabes que te quiero.» Jesús le dice: «Apacienta mis corderos.» Por segunda vez le pregunta: «Simón, hijo de Juan, ¿me amas?» Él le contesta: «Sí, Señor, tú sabes que te quiero.» Él le dice: «Pastorea mis ovejas.» Por tercera vez le pregunta: «Simón, hijo de Juan, ¿me quieres?» Se entristeció Pedro de que le preguntara por tercera vez si lo quería y le contestó: «Señor, tú conoces todo, tú sabes que te quiero.» Jesús le dice: «Apacienta mis ovejas. Te lo aseguro: cuando eras joven, tú mismo te ceñías e ibas adonde querías; pero, cuando seas viejo, extenderás las manos, otro te ceñirá y te llevará adonde no quieras.» Esto dijo aludiendo a la muerte con que iba a dar gloria a Dios. Dicho esto, añadió: «Sígueme

Rincón de Clero

¡Qué semana tan llena de gracia tuvimos! Dios nos permitió celebrar la Pascua con el mensaje positivo de que somos un “Pueblo resucitado en su insondable misericordia”. Esto significa que se supone que no debemos estar enterrados en la tumba de nuestros pecados, malos hábitos y peligrosas adicciones. Nos da la Buena Noticias de que ninguna tumba puede detenernos por más tiempo, ni las tumbas de la desesperación, el desánimo, la duda o la muerte misma. En cambio, se espera que vivamos una vida alegre y pacífica, experimentando constantemente la presencia real del Señor Resucitado en todos los eventos de nuestras vidas.

Ahora que hemos entrado en el Tiempo Pascual que lleva a Pentecostés. Quiero agradecer a tantas personas generosas que ayudaron a hacer de nuestras celebraciones litúrgicas de Cuaresma y Semana Santa experiencias de fe tan edificantes. Martha's Guild, mujeres, monaguillos, lectores, ministros eucarísticos, ministerio de música, sacristanes, personal parroquial y todos nuestros voluntarios realizaron sus diversos servicios con devoción, fe y atención cuidadosa. Me siento tan privilegiado y bendecido de trabajar con nuestros sacerdotes, diáconos, hermanas y personal que contribuyeron a la celebración de oración de esta Temporada Santa. Un agradecimiento especial a todos nuestros feligreses y amigos por su presencia en oración durante esta Temporada de Cuaresma y el Triduo Santo y sus generosas contribuciones a las diversas necesidades de la parroquia a través de su ofrenda sacrificial.

La celebración de la Divina Misericordia nos recuerda la misericordia de Dios en nuestra vida diaria y nuestro llamado a ser misericordiosos con los demás. Gracias al grupo de las Hijas Católicas y la Divina Misericordia por organizar la Coronilla, la adoración y las decoraciones el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Un agradecimiento especial a la líder del grupo hispano de la Divina Misericordia, Sandra Martínez, por donar una hermosa casulla para la parroquia con la imagen de la Divina Misericordia. Mis felicitaciones en oración a los miembros de RICA que recibieron los Sacramentos de Iniciación y a nuestros estudiantes de segundo grado que recibirán la Sagrada Comunión por primera vez este fin de semana y el próximo. Con gran alegría les damos la bienvenida al banquete eucarístico y al ministerio activo de nuestra hermosa parroquia. Si bien este es un evento importante para los creyentes individuales y sus familias inmediatas, también es un momento de gracia para que toda la parroquia de St. Ignatius considere la importancia de esta fuente de alimento para el cuerpo y el espíritu. Es nuestra fe pascual que, en la celebración de los Sacramentos, nos encontramos regularmente con Cristo Resucitado. Gracias, Diácono George y Diácono Mario, junto con Migdalia, Paul y otros voluntarios.

El 14 de mayo, el obispo John Barres estará aquí en St. Ignatius para confirmar a nuestros alumnos de octavo grado. Le damos una calurosa bienvenida y rezamos para que se sientan profundamente conmovidos por el maravilloso don del sacramento especial de la Confirmación que el Obispo celebra por nosotros. Mantenga a todos nuestros jóvenes en sus oraciones y agradezca a sus padres que cooperen con nuestro equipo dedicado del Programa de Educación Religiosa.

Este es el mes de mayo, el mes de María. Únase a nosotros para el Santo Rosario durante todo el mes a las 8:25 de la mañana en la Iglesia. Una bienvenida especial a la Santa Misa del 8 de mayo por la Coronación de Mayo y una bendición especial para las madres. Invitamos a todas nuestras madres a unirse a las Primeras Santas Comulgantes para cantar y alabar a Dios por la Santísima Madre y nuestras amadas madres, su papel en dar vida y nutrir nuestra fe. Tendremos una Santa Misa especial de Fátima y procesión el 13 de mayo a las 6:00 de la tarde.

Tenemos un precioso regalo de Pascua de Dios para nuestra parroquia, el P. Jacob Varughese, quien servirá a nuestra parroquia como pastor asociado. Leerás más sobre él la próxima semana. Bienvenido, P. Jacob, a nuestra hermosa y vibrante parroquia. Sigamos orando unos por otros y por nuestra parroquia.

En Jesús y María,
P. Shibi

"He aquí el Corazón que ha amado tanto a los hombres, que no se ha ahorrado nada, hasta extinguirse y consumarse para demostrarles su amor. Y en reconocimiento no recibo de la mayoría sino ingratitud."
